Bartholomew November the 21-19-12-

Dear some James I got your letter the 14 was glad to hear you was well I am not very well I have the rhumitism and cannot hardly get around I get better in the summer and bad in the winter you said you would send us tickets to come out there we would like to go but we have to do something with this rug before we leave I am trying to sell it I Phill is not home he want be home before march he is working in mayer Luns office in New York the father is nice here let me know how the father is there is it cold in the winter as it is here

Write when you get this I had a letter from Phil last Monday he is well this is all from your mother and Sister Anna Collier

Good Day

Ken Collier
