Miriam's Well* Reading & Workshop
with Caryn Mirriam-Goldberg
7 p.m., Wed., Oct. 10th

Congregation Ruach haMoqom
205 Archibald St. Burlington, VT

Join Caryn Mirriam-Goldberg, Kansas Poet Laureate Emeritus and Goddard College faculty member, for a special evening featuring a vibrant reading from her novel Miriam's Well: A Modern Day Exodus, about seeking home and healing, and an exploration of Midrash, the Hebrew tradition of re-visioning sacred stories to find greater meaning, freedom, and authenticity for our lives and our community. Come listen, discuss, write, and journey into insights and inspirations to re-story your life.

Caryn Mirriam-Goldberg, Goddard College faculty member and former Kansas Poet Laureate, is a writer, teacher, and facilitator who explores how the spoken, written and sung word can help us live more vibrant lives.

Founder of Transformative Language Arts at Goddard College, Mirriam-Goldberg also leads writing workshops widely, particularly for people living with serious illness and their caregivers.
