19 SENIORS 78

JACKSON

After a disappointing 3-16 first season at CVHS, Coach Denny Fox and assistant Mike Wilson put the form of winning (12-9) back in Caney Valley High School basketball. They stressed the importance of spirited defense, by developing a word known only to the crowd as HANADWEEDAD. To the squad it meant Hard Nose Angry Defense With Extra Effort Desire And Determination. The squad was made up of five seniors, four juniors, and three sophomores. Senior starters David Deal and Terry Jackson, substitutes Bill Carlile, Shawn Beyen and Kelly Gazaway paved the way this season with their high hopes of success and team leadership. With the aggressive improvement in 1977-78, Caney coaches and staff believe they are on their way to making the Caney Basketball program a program of not just respectability, but of dominance.

The purpose of the CVHS Art Club is to learn more about art and to use artistic talent to serve the school and the community. To be a member of the Art Club students must be enrolled in art or have had at least one year of art at some time. Also, members of the Art Club must maintain a B average in art. The Art Club undertook two projects this year. One was to build a large four by four foot wooden sign depicting the Bullpups, which will be seen in front of the stadium at football games and in the front hall at basketball games. The other project is to make a mascot costume of a Bullpup to be worn at all CVHS home games.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Maxine Earhart, the Future Homemakers of America members had a very fulfilling year with lots of fun and exciting things to do. At CVHS, FHA is an organization nobody likes to miss out on as is shown by having an enormous number of 131 members. Among many of the activities FHA is involved in are having heart sisters and brothers during the week of Valentines Day, a Christmas party, FFA-FHA Barnwarmer, District meetings, and other District activities, annual State Meeting at Topeka, and Senior Farewell. This year's money projects involved selling stadium seat cushions and cookbooks. Among many other honors, Caney has had for the past five years J-West District officers. The two girls that held offices this year were Lori Biggerstaff, first vice-president and Sheri Wills, second vice-president.

Among their activities this year the Playmakers Club sponsored the annual Snowball Dance in December and sold stationery during the month of April. The Playmakers presented the students and public four one-act plays. The plays were "Ledge, Ledger, and Legend" about a man who was disillusioned with life and decided to consult professional suicide consultants on the most effective way to end it all. "Three on a Bench" was about a lover's quarrel over a redhead and "Once Upon a Playground" was about a group of tomboys who think being different is a crime. "Final Dress Rehearsal" was about a group of high school students rehearsing a revised, tragic version of Cinderella.

Future Business Leaders of America had 39 members this year and is a very active club. Like every year, FBLA sold Tom-Wat kits to make money. They also sponsored an egg hunt for the children at the grade school. The weather wasn't in favor of them but some senior FBLA members worked at hiding eggs for them anyway. They also had an end-of-the-year party. They went to Bartlesville to a show then out to eat.

Foreign Language Club

OFFICERS, Jeff Carra, Vice-President; Taressa Snelling, President; John McReynolds, STUCO; Robin Griffin, Treasurer; Warren Snelling, Secretary.

Mrs. Cheryl George, sponsor, lead the Language Club in many projects this year. Among their projects was a trip to Worlds of Fun in Kansas City, a carwash, a bake food sale, Christmas dinner, an annual International Dinner at Coffeyville Community Junior College. They planned and executed their own International Dinner for the public. The purpose of the organization is to motivate an interest in a second language to keep the student in contact with the language, to learn the culture of our foreign friends, and to promote public interest in a foreign language.

STUCO

Representatives For Student Government

Student Council officers for this year were Bill Carlile, president; Randy Nitz, vice-president; and Sheri Wills, secretary-treasurer. Each class elects a representative to STUCO as does each organization. STUCO is the student voice in school government and the organization also sponsors the assemblies at school.

Debate

Caney Valley Historical Society

For the CVHS Debate Team, 1977-78 turned out to be their year. Winning a total of 32 rounds and losing 41 rounds the team faced stiff competition at Coffeyville, Pittsburg, and Chanute. Kelly Gazaway proved to be a formidable opponent with the best speaker point average on the team. This year's team was composed entirely of seniors under the direction of Coach Jane Lynch.

Forensics

KANE-KAN ROYALTY

A black and white studio portrait of a young woman and a young man. The woman, on the left, is wearing a tiara and a light-colored, sleeveless dress with a wide belt. She is smiling at the camera. The man, on the right, has curly hair and is wearing a suit jacket, a striped tie, and a dark shirt. He is looking directly at the camera with a neutral expression. The background is a mottled, studio-style backdrop.

Vicki Milliken 1977-78 Bullpup Observer- Kane-Kan Staff

This year the Kane-Kan staff and Bullpup Observer staff was composed into one. The staff was very enthusiastic in getting their newspaper and annual done on time. They met all of their deadlines which proves their efficiency. They put out nine issues of the newspaper and purchased a new strobe flash unit for the journalism department. The staff sold $1200.00 worth of ads in three days in and around Caney. The staff attended a yearbook workshop at Pittsburg University and three journalism students placed at ICJC Competition Day.

CVHS Band

Under the direction of Mr. Evald Nordstrom, the CVHS Band has really shown enthusiasm this year. Among all the activities the 52 band members have participated in, some include: played and marched for all football and basketball games, participated in home and local parades, presented a Christmas concert and Spring Concert, played for pep rallies and pep assemblies. The Band and ensembles participated in the State Music Festival. An active group like this needs a lot of money. Their money projects consisted of selling metalized Social Security Cards, oranges, and grapefruit.

Jr. High Kayettes And Kays

The JUNIOR HIGH KAYETTES are working on their 3000 point award for the second time. This year they assisted the Sr. High Kayettes in hosting the regional conference here. The girls sold T-shirts for a money making project, and assisted the PTA in concessions at the Carnival. The group observed Kay-Kayette Citizenship Week in December and attended church on Kayette Sunday, Dec. 11. Seventeen members attended the unit conference at Erie on Jan 10, 1978. At Thanksgiving time they prepared a basket for a needy family and at Christmas time they had a gift exchange and went caroling, ending up at Becky Pendleton's house for a party. The JR. HIGH KAYS this year helped to sell candles, attended the Kay conference- and have planned to paint the signs designating parking in the school parking lot.

The Senior class of 1978 wishes to express their many thanks to their sponsors for all the hard work they put in on the prom, concessions, magazine sales, parties, graduation and all the other things with which they helped. They were a big help to our class as we climbed to the top of our high school ladder and attained our highest goal — graduation. A special thanks is extended to Mrs. Jimmye Lea Barton for keeping a watchful eye over the class to make sure everything went smoothly.

A Note Of Thanks . . .

To all Caney merchants and merchants from other towns who supported our yearbook through advertising, the Class of '78 offers their thanks. Without your patronage we would be unable to produce our yearbook at a cost of several thousand dollars. Also, a thank-you goes to Mr. Harold Hadden, Coffeyville photographer, for photographs in the activities section and to the Caney Chronicle for supplying us with "emergency" pictures throughout the year.

I Have A Dream . . .

that is the theme of the 1977-78 Kane-Kan. Despite turmoil and troubles, joy, great memories, and pain, all of us do dream the same dream — to grow up, to be an adult. A great part of our growth takes place at school and through the yearbook photos we hope we will be able to look back and somewhat remember the six sometimes long, sometimes short years we spent growing up at Caney High.

A Note From The Editor:

Being editor of the 1978 Kane-Kan Yearbook has certainly been an honor that I shall never forget. Our goal for this year's Kane-Kan was to be the most memorable yearbook in history. Of course, in the eyes of this editor and his staff, it will be. I'd like to express my sincere thanks to the entire Caney Valley Junior and Senior High School student body, faculty, administrators, and to my hard-working staff. Without their aid and guidance this whole project could not have turned into a reality. A gracious thanks goes to Mrs. Cindy Fox, our adviser. Her time and patience was the whole key and ranked above all else in producing this book window into the past 1977-78 school year.

To finish up, I hope every person who sees this book truly enjoys it half as much as I did in helping produce it.

Remember, time is unending, don't forget the past, for if the past can bring back a smile, then it will make for a happier future.
