In 2001, Dr. Sharon Neet told us about Julius A. Wayland, the remarkable socialist editor of the Appeal to Reason newspaper.

This year, Sharon is coming back, and wants to tell us about another significant publisher from Girard,

Emanuel Haldeman-Julius

Editor of the Famous Little Blue Books series.

To find out about this daring publisher, educator and reformer,

Come to the

10th Annual Gene DeGruson Memorial Lecture

October 9, 2007 at 7PM

Library Browsing Area

Axe Library

Refreshments will be served.
Why Did These Nice Little Books…

Find Out at the 10th Annual Gene DeGruson Memorial Lecture

In the Special Collections Dept of Axe Library

Oct. 9, 2007, at 7PM

Presented by Dr. Sharon Neet of the Univ. of Minnesota at Crookston

Refreshments will be served
You are invited to view the portrait and to hear about the career of one of Girard’s most extraordinary citizens...

Dr. Sharon Neet, Professor of History at the University of Minnesota at Crookston will deliver the 10th Annual Gene DeGruson Memorial Lecture on the life and accomplishments of Mr. Emanuel Haldeman-Julius on October 9 at 7PM in the Special Collections Department of Axe Library

Refreshments will be served.