

Pittsburg State University

Pittsburg State University Digital Commons

William Aaron Brandenburg Collection

University Archives

2016-12-01

Three articles about drama events

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.pittstate.edu/brandenburg_history

Recommended Citation

"Three articles about drama events" (2016). William Aaron Brandenburg Collection. 11.
https://digitalcommons.pittstate.edu/brandenburg_history/11

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the University Archives at Pittsburg State University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in William Aaron Brandenburg Collection by an authorized administrator of Pittsburg State University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact lfthompson@pittstate.edu.

TO GIVE FOUR 1-ACT PLAYS

Students of Public Speaking Will Appear Tuesday Night

Four 1-act plays, rendered as monologues, will be presented by four students of the Department of Public Speaking in the auditorium Tuesday night. The interpreters of the plays will be Alice Montgomery, Louise Smith, Lena Townsend, and Edward Meehan. Their program is one of the regular events of commencement week.

Miss Montgomery will read Calhoun's "A Right Sweet Cuss." William Green Hill, chief character, invents some wonderful swear words for his private use. There are five characters altogether.

Miss Smith will present Christopher Morley's "Thursday Evening." The playlet has four characters, Gordon Johns, his wife Laura, her mother Mrs. Sheffield, and his mother.

Miss Townsend's selection will be "Dust of the Road," by Kenneth Goodman. She will also interpret four characters, Peter Steele, Prudence his wife, her elderly uncle, and a tramp.

In Edward Meehan's play there are only two characters, Ulysses Grant Hollister and his dog Buster. The number is entitled "A Previous Engagement," and was written by Percival Wilde.

PLAYERS NAME OFFICERS

Arden Group Makes Raymond Booker Its President

"The Arden Players," who successfully rendered "$1200 A Year" in Carney all December 7, had their annual election of officers in a meeting Monday. The following were chosen: president, Raymond Booker; vice-president, Ernest Hampton; secretary, Euphemia Bales; Business manager, J. E. Harrington.

The players have of late increased from fifteen to twenty. The following names constitute the roll of the organization: Raymond Booker, Louise Smith, B. K. Baker, Marion Cracraft, Lena Townsend, Doris Starliper, Birdie Ziehlke, Evelyn Skelton, Eugene Sherman, Will Beck, O. H. Turner, Margerite Hart, E. J. Meehan, and Hiram Davis.

Definite plans are being laid to present a series of one-act plays in the second semester.

THETA ALPHA PHI HOLDS FEED

Annual Banquet Served at Cafeteria Followed by Initiations

Misses Muriel Phillips, Maurine Palmer, Peggy Oglevie, Vivian Lough, and Messrs. Troy Lane, Raymond Booker, Hiram Davis, and Kerner Bennett received the honors of membership in Theta Alpha Phi Monday night.

The group enjoyed dinner together at the college cafeteria at 6:15, after which followed a social hour and initiation in the social rooms of Carney Hall. Old members present were Professor Pelsma and Marion Cracraft.

The Alpha chapter of the organization was established here last year. Theta Alpha Phi is the largest honorary dramatic fraternity in the world, having at present fifty-three chapters. Professor Pelsma was the founder of the fraternity and is now the grand secretary-treasurer and indeed has been rewarded for his efforts by the rapid growth and success of the organization.

Membership in Theta Alpha Phi is the greatest honor which can be awarded for dramatic ability, and can be won only by diligent work and dramatic effort.

Several other members of the Arden Players will probably be eligible next year.

Theta Alpha Phi has had the most rapid growth of any Greek letter fraternity yet established. The first national convention was held at Cincinnati during the Christmas holidays.

$100 REWARD

to any married man, or married woman who will agree to tell the absolute truth for 24 hours on the condition that your neighbors may ask you any question they choose.

If interested come to Carney Hall the evening of Nov. 10th and listen to one of the funniest plays ever staged. If you do not laugh for at least one-half hour it will cost you nothing. It is a great comedy. This is "The Truth."