FOREWORD

WITH the hope that it proves a pleasure and worth-while treasure house of C. H. S. memories implanted with the spirit characteristic of this splendid school, the staff presents this 1925 volume of the Kane Kan. If we have succeed at all in our aim, it is only because of the splendid co-operation of both faculty and students.

DEDICATION

[N order to show our respect and appreciation for what our parents have done for us in our lives and especially in our High School life and for the efforts they have put forth so that this annual might be possible, we the Senior Class of '25 respectfully dedicate to them this volume of Kane Kan.

Appreciation

WE, the Kanekan Staff of 1925, desire to thank the student body, the faculty, and the patrons of Caney High School for their co-operation in the publishing of this year's book. The staff has put forth strenuous effort but we realize that without the assistance of each of those who have aided in the task, that the effort would have been in vain. Therefore, we express our gratitude to all who have assisted in making this edition of Kanekan a credit to the school it represents, our Caney High.

Senior Class History

As we of the Senior Class are about to go forth into the world, we look back over the past four years, which have flown swiftly by—yes, too swiftly—and we thank our teachers who have helped us through this wonderful school—Caney High. We have always put forth every effort to help our school, and when we leave, we leave a good record for other classes to try to break.

We entered Caney High seemingly but a few months ago, but really in September, 1921. We had the largest and best class that had ever entered Caney High. Walter Waggoner was our president. We started our career in high school by giving the best chapel programs of any of the classes. When the call for football came, we had four for the team and three were on the basketball squad. Carl Wilson, then a member of our class, represented C. H. S. in the Verdigris Valley Declamation Contest.

The next year John Rogers was our president. The old trio, John, Roy and Gib were on the football team and John made the All-Valley Team. We contributed four to the basketball squad. We again showed that we had talent when Jake Liberman became a regular on the debating team. Three members of our class were on the Nakenak staff.

In our Junior year Helen Brown was our president. This year we again showed up well in football, and had five letter men. Garr and John were on the All-Valley Team, which John captained. But not only in athletics did we show our skill. In the inter-class debate, we were defeated by the Seniors by a mere .45 of a point in the finals. Jake and Chalmer were on the H. S. debate team. Betty Cavis represented the school in the Declamation Contest. We gave one of the best banquets that had been given to a Senior Class.

In this, our last year, Jake Liberman was elected president. Again we showed our superiority in activities. We had eight men who received letters in football. On the basketball squad we had four Seniors who received letters. Speed was placed on the All-Valley Team. In debate we also showed our skill. Of the six regular debaters, five were members of the Senior Class.

We have turned out some of the best students the school has had. In athletics, debate, music, and all outside activities, we have shown up brilliantly. We've given the evidence.

Watch us go!

Senior Class Prophecy

I was on the Redpath Lyceum Circuit, giving readings. The work was very interesting for it helps me to meet so many of my old classmates of '25. I was reading in the city of Denver when who should I spy out in the audience but Marvin Miller and next to him was Adaline Pittman. After the performance they came back stage and Marvin said he was in the mining business and that he had as manager an old friend, Charles White. Adaline was not married but giving viola lessons and studying art. I then told them of my meeting Kathryn Michels just before she left for Paris as a nurse to a very rich lady. Also that Jake Liberman had become a great lawyer noted for his ability at divorce cases. Chalmer Kirkbride was a noted engineer and was still dating Thelma Sloan who was head of the Commercial department at K. U.

After some refreshments, I left my friends and took a train for an old town near home, in other words, Wichita, Kansas. On the train I met Lula Kincaid who was teaching school and was just coming back from summer school at Boulder. She informed me that Vera Wall and Emma Freidline were teaching too. She also said Emma's sister Thelma was running a unique tea shop in Independence.

I arrived in Wichita and had a lovely time. I went to the "Orpheum Theatre" and who should be singing a song of olden days but Faith Lewis. Of course I went back stage to see her and she told me that Rubye Morris was an accompanist to Doc Lambdin who was a famous bass soloist. I was pleased to hear of this and also so happy to meet Marie Fuqua on the street. She was a successful woman for she owned a flower shop and a quaint gift shop.

After leaving Wichita I decided to spend a day at an old friend's house who lived in Topeka. She was formerly Martha Boone, but now was wife of the governor of Kansas. He was not a Caney student, but he had placed several C. H. S. boys in fine positions. For D. W. Dow was his private secretary, and Everett Romig was oil inspector. As I only had one day vacation, I made the most of it. "Boonie" said that Helen Brown had married and was now touring the world, and that Lucy Hardman was giving lessons in typewriting at a business college operated by Audra Wakeland.

We dined at a clever Bohemian restaurant at which who should be head waiter but Fred Clark. He said that Ralph Orr was head of the Prairie station in Caney. He also told us that Louise Baker was dean of women in the Illinois University, where her husband was a Professor.

Soon I left to give an entertainment in Kansas City. Now in this city the first person I ran into was Everett Estes, he was an expert typist and held the world's record. He took me out to dinner where we ran across James Murphy who had fallen in love many times but hadn't married. This was rather a surprise. "Bill" was not working but merely helping his father with business. He said that Lee Roe owned a chain of farms in Iowa and was very wealthy. He also said that Darrel Dimmick had gone South and now was raising horses for races.

Everett and I decided to go over to K. U. and see the game between Oklahoma and Kansas. To our surprise we found out that the coach was none other than Roy Garr while the coach of the Oklahoma team was Frank Ikerd. This made the game very exciting and the nice part was that the game was a tie. After the game "Toad" and Garr took Everett and I over the school and we met Anna Kersting who was head of the school cafeteria. After this I left for Caney, the old town where the Class of '25 graduated. Several of the students had remained in the old home town for Ralph Shelton was editor of the Chronicle while Gladys Pierce ran a first class restaurant and Brooks Stroup was chief of police. The mayor was none other than Charles Kirby. Joe Liberman was the postmaster and employed Homer Parks as a clerk.

That night we were talking over old times and old fellow students and they told me that Marie Ade was a politician and was thinking of running as governor of Missouri. Also that Ruth Burris was running a beauty parlor in Tulsa, and that Chester Babcock had become a Senator in Washington. Marcena Cooper owned a garage in the town of Sedan. While Edith Bell was teaching school in Havana. I later learned that Edna Crowell and Erma Eakes were studying for missionaries and wanted to go to China. Edna Earnheart had a millinery shop and employed Juanita Johns as an assistant.

I decided to take a day off from business and go shopping. So while shopping I decided to have my fortune told. The Clairvoyant asked me to ask her any questions that I might wish. I was still wondering about the other students in the Class of '25. So I asked what Clarence Garr, Albert Farley, Agatha Holyfield and Doris Killion were doing. She told me that Clarence Garr owned a drug store in Salina, Kansas, while Albert Farley was a famous surgeon at Mayo's hospital. Doris Killion was happily married and Agatha was taking up pipe organ. As I left the Clairvoyant's I met Ailine Parks who was a designer for a shop in that city which happened to be St. Louis.

I went to my room feeling contented because I knew what all the students in the Class of '25 were doing. All had been successful in life.

—Betty Cavis.

Senior Class Will

We, the Senior Class of '25, of the City of Caney, in the county of Montgomery, and State of Kansas, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this our last Will and Testament, in manner following, that is to say:

First—We bequeath to the Juniors all surpluses from the treasury of the Senior Class. We leave our athletic ability to the Juniors to aid them in future contests as we feel they will need it very much.

Second—To all teachers who have suffered nervous breakdowns we allow three months rest.

Third—To the Sophomores we bequeath only their lifelong desire to be Juniors.

Fourth—To the Freshmen, as has always been the custom, we would only give advice. Always look up to your elders and work hard, never expect too much from the upper classmen.

We devise and bequeath our individual talents in the following manner:

Fred Clark bequeaths his habit of attending assembly regularly to Lyle Fleener.

"Pug" Farley leaves his nickname to Ben McInroy.

Marie Ade leaves her skill in arguing to Charlie Burns.

Betty Cavis leaves her talent as an actress to Francis Adams.

Darrel Dimmick leaves his love for American History to anyone that wants it.

Doc. Lambdin leaves his self-consciousness to Tom Moore.

Ralph Orr leaves his many years of high school experience to George Emmington.

Roy Garr leaves his ability to punish a football to Clair Foster.

Ailene Parks leaves her habit of talking to large audiences to Cecil Wilson.

Homer Parks leaves his quiet manners to Sam Hardman, provided he does not marry before reaching the age of fifteen.

Kathryn Michels leaves her coquettish ways to Helen Papes.

To the library Marvin Miller bequeaths all past issues of "Young Wild West," "Dead-Eye Dick" and all old "funny-papers."

Agatha Holyfield wills her habit of getting to American History Class at 8:14 a. m. to Cecil Wilson.

Chester Babcock bestows his title of "Shiek" on Ralph Jackson.

Helen Brown leaves her ability to herd a Packard to Bess Folwell.

Louise Baker grants her capability as a student to Emma Lambiotte.

Edith Bell leaves her quiet ways to Reo Kirkbride.

Lee Roe leaves his taste for bookkeeping to Miss Costello.

Martha Boon leaves her reputation as a vamp to Nadyne, in order to keep it in the family.

Marie Fuqua leaves her habit of avoiding boys to Thelma Foltz.

Ruth Burris wills her "dimples" to the girl that needs them most.

Clarence Garr leaves his experience with girls to Harvey Greer.

Marcena Cooper wills his fiery disposition to Vernie Wallar.

Lucy Hardman wills her discarded art of man-hating to Marion Prall.

Edna Crowell leaves her ability as a typist to Esther Mays.

Juanita Johns bequeaths her patience to Nadyne Killion.

D. W. Dow wills his curly locks to Milton Gladfelter.

Anna Kersting bequeaths her pep to Louise Bonham to be used as a stimulus.

Doris Killion leaves her "grown-up ways" to Ruth McQuillen.

Edna Earnheart bequeaths two months experience with bobbed hair to any Junior girl that needs it.

Lulu Kincaid leaves her taste for shorthand to Beatrice Oyler.

Emma and Thelma Freidline leave their ability as farmerettes to the two girls that want it.

Charles Kirby leaves his fleetness of foot to Fred Crosby.

Faith Lewis leaves her ability to sing to Thelma Maze.

Jake Liberman wills his strength as a politician to Everett Courtright.

Brooks Stroup confers one last look of affection upon all the girls.

Joe Liberman leaves his role as football player to Leon Wetmore.

Audra Wakeland leaves her ability to take dictation fast to Adellia Roe.

Rubye Morris bequeaths her talent as a pianist to Dorothy Aitken.

Vera Wall leaves her ability to meet all situations to Maurice Loriaux.

James Murphy leaves his liking for studies to Oscar Haubersin.

Charles White grants his wit to Alonzo Detrich.

Gladys Pierce wills her gift of always being contented to Helen Elliot.

"Speed" Kirkbride leaves his title to Harold Hill.

Adaline Pittman leaves her love of all boys to Colleen Rardon.

"Toad" Ikerd gives his ability as an all-around athlete to Harold Baker.

Everett Romig bestows his manly figure to William Farley.

Ralph Shelton wills his ability to put out a Nakenak to Hazel Brown.

Thelma Sloan bestows her charming personality to Margaret Muir.

The Junior Class Voyage

The 11th day of September, 1922, the good ship C. H. S. stood anchored at the wharf of a new school year. It was the same old ship, yet somewhat crowded, that had carried many passengers to safe harbor in the Land of Great Wisdom. Many people gazed upon it in wonder as they watched the eighty-nine boys and girls eagerly step aboard to sail over new and untried waters. Having finished the task of placing our signatures upon the ship's register, we became aware that all the decks were so crowded that it would be necessary to reconstruct part of our ship.

We were enthusiastic and asked many questions of Captain Tewell as to the probable length of our voyage, and were assured that if we were persevering in our duties, we should reach our destination at the end of four years. He also explained that our voyage of High School Life was over four seas, so closely joined together that they seemed but one immense sea. With hopeful hearts we steamed out of the harbor, embarked on our Voyage of High School Life. Being socially inclined we enjoyed several events on the Freshman sea. Most of our time was given to the study of lessons.

Tasks seemed long, yet class-time fleeting,
And we all were brave and gay,
Though our hearts, like drums, were beating
On examination day.

With identification checks, we embarked on the second sea with better accommodations as our ship had been reconstructed. Our fears of shipwreck were wiped away, knowing that so able a staff of seamen had us in their charge. There were a few cases of sea sickness; some being tempted to throw up Algebra, Geometry and other disagreeable dishes, but the Stewardess assured them firmly that they would have to consume these indigestibles until they were perfectly assimilated, so most of them managed to hold them down.

Every seaman did his best in assisting us to build up the ideals of the present, warning us of the evil rocks to be met in the channels of our onward course and we appreciate their thoughtfulness as we sail into the Junior Sea.

We broadcasted a message to the Seniors in the sea ahead, to meet us on Halloween Island for an evening in the goblin's dens; then sailed on, enjoying many events and entering into athletic sports with interest. As we approached the Senior Sea we paused and found forty-seven of our number had withstood every gale. The great billows of exam. questions could not overwhelm us and we secured the passports to carry us on to the end of our voyage.

Our boat glides on between the rocks that guard the shore
Bearing the Juniors of '25—to be a class once more.

Again we thought of the class commencing The Voyage of Real Life, and invited them to meet us at Cape Banquet, that we might bid them adieu.

OUR CLASS!

Here's that she always may be in the right!
Here's that her standard may ever be white!
Here's that what ever our future may be,
Steady and fearlessly God-like may be—

OUR CLASS!

—Florine Wade.

CLASS of '27

Sophomore History

On September 3, 1923, we the Sophomore Class of '25, entered the portals of learning.

We started out full of pep and with Fred at the helm sailed through a successful year.

Oscar Haubersin, Edward Fitzpatrick, Harvey Greer, Irvin King and Lorenzo Torres made the football squad and it was the fight of these Freshmen which helped Caney High School win the cup.

In basketball Johnny Marshall, Harvey Greer and Edward Fitzpatrick shone.

We also ranked high in other activities.

This year we stepped upon the next round of the ladder. Looking back we have great sympathy for the present Freshman Class and wonder if we ever showed as much of the St. Patrick color. Alas! no doubt we did!

One day we met in the study hall and with the help of Professor Hill elected the following officers:

Harvey Greer	President
Dorothy Aitken	Vice President
Fred Benson	Secretary-Treasurer
Everett Courtright	Cheer-Leader

When the coach started scouting for football men he had no trouble in discovering Theodore Wilke, Harold Baker, Irvin King, Edward Fitzpatrick and Harvey Greer. Two of these men earned their letters this year, and those who did not do so are determined to redeem themselves next year.

We did not give up at the close of football season and when basketball time rolled around the gym felt the pattering of many Sophomore feet as the boys strove to make the first team. They were in some degree successful for Irvin King and Harvey Greer received a berth on the first team and John Paul Feist, Harold Baker, Fred Benson and Johnny Marshall helped compose the second squad.

To show the boys they were not the only ones who could rank high in athletics the girls went out for basketball with so much pep that when Miss Baldrige picked the four teams she gave positions to Dorothy Aitken, Ellen Clawson, Julia Hughes, Mary Jane Nolan, Cleo Truskett, Thelma Foltz, Eva Holyfield, Mary Lambdin, Ruth McQuillen, Effie Powers and Treva Barrington.

During the year we have had chances to do work as a whole class and made the two haughty upper classes hustle to win. Much to our delight we won the Nakenak contest and as a reward we watched Caney "wallop" Oswego.

We also have among us several talented people. To prove this look at the Playmaker's Club, a group of the most talented people of Caney High. This club was restricted to forty-five members, but Reo Kirkbride, Francis Adams, Fred Benson, Ruth McQuillen, Dorothy Aitken, Treva Barrington, Glenn Barrett, Thelma Maze and John Paul Feist passed through all the necessary try-outs and were successful in gaining admission.

Freshmen History

Realizing that heights are attained only by starting at the bottom we, the Freshman Class of '24-'25, so started our high school career September 1, 1924.

On September 1st, a group of noisy children could be seen wending their way timidly down the halls of C. H. S. These students were of the Freshman Class which consisted of eighty members.

With the help of our able sponsors Miss Naomi Case and Mr. James Baker we elected the following officers for the year:

President	Pauline Aitken
Vice President	Ruth McQuillen
Treasurer	Katherine Nolan
Secretary	Cecil Soden

The first entertainment we attended was the all-school party given by the upper class men in honor of the Freshmen. After the splendid initiation given us by our fellow students the class felt it had become real members of C. H. S.

One evening last fall we went on a hayrack ride to Moyer's Hill. Aside from one of the hayracks breaking down and several people having to walk, our picnic proved to be a success.

Ruth McQuillen was chosen by the student body to represent C. H. S. as "Miss Caney" at the annual Neewollah celebration at Independence. This was perhaps the first time that this honor was bestowed upon a freshman.

Our class was well represented in athletics. We had two men on the football squad, who are Oscar Haubersin and Ganes Baker.

Harold Hill, our Freshman yell leader, is secretary of the "Red Hot" club and also one of the yell leaders of Caney High. The Freshman girls took an active part in the girls' Basketball Tournament which was held in January. Evelyn Holeman and Blossom Roberds played on the first team with Katherine Nolan playing sub for guard.

The three freshmen who were fortunate enough to be chosen for mixed chorus and glee were Maxine Mitchell, Harold Hill and Eugene Floyd.

"In Old Louisiana"

One of the best school entertainments of the year was the operetta, "In Old Louisiana" which was given by the Music Department on January 29. The success of the operetta was due as much to the untiring efforts of Miss Haggard as to the music students for their faithful work. Much credit must be given to Rubye Morris, the accompanist.

Synopsis: Pilot Farley and a three-year old child are the only survivors of the ill-fated steamboat, "Winona." The Pilot adopts the child whom he calls Rose, and brings her up as his own daughter. When the operetta opens she has grown to young womanhood.

Rose is loved by and returns the affections of Richard St. John, a young Southern sugar planter. Scudder, the villain, plans with the help of Jake Martin, and Holly Timms, a shady lawyer from New Orleans, to claim that the child rescued by Pilot Farley is the daughter of an octoroon slave who had been purchased by Martin some years ago.

Rose, unaware of Scudder's plot refuses to become Dick's wife, because she did not know who her parents were and so feared she might have negro blood in her veins.

The conspirators confront the Pilot with a faked paper to back their claims, but Dick intervenes and accuses Scudder of the falsity of the document, which leads to a duel. Scudder shoots before the signal is given and wounds Dick in the hand. According to the code of dueling, Dick is allowed his shot, but he cannot bring himself to take a man's life in cold blood.

Rose and the pilot's guests are attracted to the spot by the firing. Scudder is about to tell Rose that she is an octoroon, but he is interrupted by the arrival of Sheriff MacDougal and Marquis de La Tour. The latter proves to be the grandfather of Rose. His agents have recently discovered that she is the daughter of his son who was lost with his wife on the Winona. He comes to Sano Souci in time to frustrate Scudder's plans.

Scudder, Timms, and Martin are put under arrest. Marquis gives his consent to the marriage of Rose and Dick, and all ends happily.

There is also a love affair running through the operetta between Dick's sister, Martha, and his friend, Monty Gray, from the North. The comedians are Old Ned and his wife, Judy, who are the servants of Pilot Farley.

Orchestra

Caney High School is very proud of its orchestra which is being developed into a group of real music makers. Miss Haggard has shown much ability in directing this part of the musical activities of the school.

The orchestra has played at various school functions and at the churches.

The personnel of the orchestra is:

First Violin	Maurice Loriaux, Milton Gladfelter
Second Violin
	Fred Crosby, Thelma Foltz, Clair Foster, Reo Kirkbride
Cello	Betty Cavis
Clarinet	Ellis Stallard
Cornet	Max Jennings
Tuba	Tom Moore

Music Department

Much interest is manifested in Music this year, which is shown by the fact that about seventy pupils are enrolled in chorus work. This is one of the popular departments of the school, and has been made so by the able instructor, Miss Haggard.

The Chorus classes were scheduled differently this year from last which permits more students to take chorus and yet have a study period twice a week.

There are two classes of Girls' Glee and two of Boys' Glee. These combined make a strong mixed chorus.

The members of the mixed quartet are, Mary Lambdin, Betty Cavis, Albert Farley and Edward Fitzpatrick.

The Music Department has been called upon several times during the year to entertain for social and religious functions as well as the school activities. On all occasions they did honor to the department.

The "Playmakers" have had another successful year. We were directed by Miss Easter who in the language of today "knew her stuff." She directed the plays which were given and they were all a success. We have stayed by our director and have had many good times together.

The tryout was given in October and everyone that had possibilities and talent tried out. A constitution was adopted and the role was limited to thirty-five members. Every class in high school was well represented.

The play that was given was: "The Charm School."

"THE CHARM SCHOOL"

This play was a success from the start to the finish. The audience was well pleased and this play started the Playmakers off with some money in the treasury. This play didn't star any particular person but it gave every person a chance to show what and how much talent he or she had. Every person did better than was expected and that is what makes a success.

"MISS SOMEBODY ELSE"

Faculty Play

This year the faculty of Caney High gave a play. Every member of the faculty was in it. Each member was well fitted for his part. The name of the play was "Miss Somebody Else." The audience was large and was pleased with the play. The scandal edition of the Nakenak said, "The dignified faculty lowered their dignity 100 per cent. The play was given in the Gym and a large crowd of people numbering seven witnessed it. Most of the crowd got in on comps." But this was all false. The hero and heroine were Mr. McNair and Miss Easter and the villain was Mr. Baker. You know it must have been good.

Senior Play

The tryout for the Senior Play was held Wednesday, April 2, 1925. The name of the play was, "The Arrival of Kitty." It was a thriller. Every person in the cast did better than he ever did before which always gives a success. Miss Lucille Easter coached the actors and was responsible for their success. The play consisted of nine actors chosen from the Senior Class. There were many more in this most wonderful class that could have fulfilled the place of any of the cast but these were the ones who were honored by being able to represent this most wonderful Senior Class that ever graduated from Caney High School.

ROY GARR, CAPTAIN

Right Half

Wt. 160 lbs.

Ht. 5' 9½"

Roy has played four years for Caney, his first year at guard, and the remainder in the backfield playing all positions. This year he played right half showing great skill as a defensive man. Garr will be missed on the gridiron.

GILBERT ADDISON

Quarter-back

Wt. 144 lbs.

Ht. 5' 4"

"Gib" has played his fourth year in the backfield for Caney, ending it up by playing quarter-back this year, running this position with great skill and ease. Gib has served as the main cog in the football team and he will be greatly missed next year.

Seventy-four

HARVEY GREER

Left End

Wt. 139 lbs.

Ht. 5' 9"

Two years ago Harvey filled the position at left end which his brother vacated the previous year. Harvey is an end that is very hard to get around and Caney can be glad that he has two more years to play football.

EVERETT ROMIG

Left Tackle

Wt. 157 lbs.

Ht. 5' 8"

Everett has played two years at left tackle, always filling his position in the best manner. Whenever a hole was needed, Everett was there to make it. He will be graduated this year and his work on the line will be greatly missed.

OSCAR HAUBURSIN

Guard

Wt. 196 lbs.

Ht. 5' 11"

"Bus" plays in the line at either guard or tackle, filling these positions alternately for the last two years. He will probably be back for two more years of football. His weight makes him a powerful line man and he will be valuable to the team next year.

JAKE LIBERMAN

Center

Wt. 172 lbs.

Ht. 5' 8"

In the absence of Rogers, Caney's center position looked quite bad but Jake came in and filled it exceptionally well. This is Jake's last year of high school, leaving the center position vacant for next year. Jake played one year for Caney High.

JOE LIBERMAN

Right Guard

Wt. 190 lbs.

Ht. 5' 11"

Joe succeeded in making the guard position this year and showed up well, always there to do his part. But as this is Joe's last year of high school he will not be seen on the gridiron next year. His loss will also be felt by next year's team.

IRVIN KING

Right Tackle

Wt. 155 lbs.

Ht. 5' 8"

This is Irvin's first year at right tackle but he still has two years to play the game. Irvin was not in the regular line-up until the latter part of the season when he showed his fight. He always does his best which, to say the least, is excellent.

HOWARD LAMBDIN

Wt. 148 lbs. Ht. 5' 9½"

"Doc" came out for football this year and made the position of right end, always doing his best in that position. While not a spectacular player he was always in every play. This is Doc's last year of school so he will not be in the game next year.

RALPH ORR

Wt. 145 lbs. Ht. 5' 10½"

"Jiggs" started the season out at right end but because of injuries was forced out of several games but returned and played enough to receive a letter. He is especially good on the defense, showing great speed in getting behind interference. This is also his last year.

ROBERT JACK

Wt. 185 lbs. Ht. 5' 10"

This is "Bob's" first year of football for Caney High, and while not playing regularly he played enough to get a letter and always did his part well when sent in. Bob will return next year and take up the game again.

Caney Valley Historical Society
CHALMER KIRKBRIDE

Left Half

Wt. 145 lbs.

Ht. 5' 10"

"Speed" has played two years in the backfield at left half, this being his last year. Speed is a very valuable defensive man; however, he was always doing his part in every offensive play. The backfield will be weakened by his loss in his position.

FRANK IKERD

Right Half

Wt. 128 lbs.

Ht. 5' 6"

"Toad" was going good this year and showed great ability with the pigskin. He is a very good offensive man because of his size and speed. You could always depend on "Toad" for a good gain. This is his last year, and he will be missed in the backfield.

FOOTBALL

Coach McNair returned to Caney High again to coach athletics and made his call for material to make another championship team on September 3rd. Last year's letter men who returned were: Addison, Garr, Kirkbride, Fitzpatrick, Greer, Haubursin, Romig and Rogers. Rogers soon left for an academy leaving six of last year's letter men and a large number of scrubs to be developed. After two weeks practice, Coach McNair thought he would try his squad out against the Tyro team giving everyone a chance to play, beating Tyro 41 to 0. This wasn't enough of a work out for Mc's team so he scheduled a game with Elk City and had a real battle with them on Sept. 26 up there, losing 6 to 0.

The next Friday, Oct. 3, the real Valley conflict started with Caney playing Oswego here. The day was beautiful and such as is adapted to football and the Red and Blue gridsters left the field with the victory theirs by a count of 10 to 0. This started the Caney aggregation out to win the Valley. Chalmer Kirkbride carried the ball over for the touchdown.

The next game was played with Fredonia on their gridiron. The Caney eleven journeyed to Fredonia with grim determination to win but fate was against them and Fredonia won by a score of 15 to 6. "Gib" Addison made Caney's counter in this game. This was a hard game from start to finish and it would almost seem that luck was for the Fredonians.

Last year Altamont had a very weak team and the game resulted in a track meet, Caney winning 68 to 0, but this year they recuperated and showed more power than in the previous years. Caney invaded their territory and played a hard game winning from them this year by a 13 to 0 count. Ikerd and Garr carried the pigskin over for the touchdowns in this game.

And now at last, the game that had been looked forward to with so much longing and impatience is at hand. Coffeyville came over here on Friday, October 24, and met an army of gridsters who put up a noble fight but who on account of misfortunes which could not be helped lost to Coffeyville by a small count of 16 to 3. The day was clear and a large crowd witnessed this game and know that the Red and Blue put up a battle that no other team has ever offered in the Valley.

The next game of the season was with Neodesha who had a very light but fighting team. The game was played on the local gridiron and was a good game considering that several of the regulars were out of the game and this naturally slowed the game up a good bit. The final count was 14 to 0 in Caney's favor. In this game Ikerd scored another touchdown by running forty yards in a broken field. Haubursin, who had been brought out of the line to fill the fullback position, scored the other counter.

The next Friday was an open date so Coach McNair let his warriors take a rest for the game to be played a week later. On this date, November 14, Caney met Independence at Independence. This was the first game that the weather man didn't predict a dry field to play on. It rained all day and the field was all mud and it was raining all during the game. But in spite of this mud the Red and Blue completely outclassed their opponents and left the field with muddy clothes but having the consolation that they had turned the tables on Independence. The score was 18 to 0. In this game Ikerd again scored a touchdown by a spectacular run, and Fitzpatrick scored two touchdowns, going through the line, his opponents being unable to stop him.

In order to keep in shape, as there was no game for the following Friday, an interclass game was played. The Seniors challenged the lower classmen and the challenge was accepted. The battle begun and after the smoke had cleared away and all the dead and wounded had been cleared off the battle ground, it was found that the Seniors had won 27 to 0.

The last game of the season was with Cherryvale on their gridiron on Turkey Day, which resulted in a 9 to 9 tie. Caney was plowing through Cherryvale's line for gains nearly every down in the center of the field but the necessary punch could not be summoned when up to the goal line. Cherryvale had a good team but Caney outplayed them in every way and but for a bad pass which a Cherryvale man intercepted Caney would have had the game. Garr scored Caney's only touchdown in this game. Addison was injured in this game and a "sub" was sent in who couldn't fill the position like he did and the team was weakened considerably.

Caney's football season closed with the Cherryvale game being in third place in the Valley. Even though Caney received no trophy to show for their work and skill the record of the eight games played will show that Caney had a real defensive team and hard to beat. Caney is not at all ashamed of the record made this year even though it could have been better. They are all the more determined now to be the Valley champions next year. Of this year's string of letter men ten will be graduated or out of football for some reason, leaving five letter men to return around which to develop a winning team. Those who will probably return are Fitzpatrick, Haubursin, King, Greer and Jack.

GILBERT ADDISON

Forward

"Gib" has finished four years of basketball for Caney High, playing a stellar game at forward. He has captained the squad for the past two years and has always shown skill with the ball. Because of injuries sustained in football "Gib" was not in the game the earlier part of this season.

Eighty-one

CHALMER KIRKBRIDE

Center

"Speed" has played three years for Caney, playing sub his first year. He certainly has an eye for the basket and succeeds in getting the ball through the ring. This is his last year and his excellent floor work will be greatly missed next year. "Speed" is an All-Valley forward and also an All-District forward of last year.

HOWARD LAMBDIN

Forward

"Doc" played a fairly good game of basketball this season, this being his first year for Caney. He played regularly at the forward position the first part of the season but retired to the bench the latter. Doc will be graduated this year.

FRANK IKERD

Forward

"Toad" played his forward position in a manner that was hard for the opposing guards to comprehend. He played the game at all times and was a very valuable man to the squad. This is his first year and also his last one and he will be missed from the line-up next season.

HARVEY GREER

Guard

Harvey is one of the best guards in the Valley and no doubt before he quits basketball will be the best in this part of the state. This is Harvey's first year and he has two more to play yet which will help Caney High a great deal in the defense. "No one gets past" is his motto when in a game of basketball.

CHARLES KIRBY

Forward

Charles subbed at forward this year and received enough credit to obtain a letter. Charles is little and fast and is very good on the floor. In a year or two Charles would be a real player but he will be graduated this year.

IRVIN KING

Guard

Irvin is also a real guard and his stellar work in that position has been wonderful. This is also his first year and he too has two more years yet to play for Caney. In this set of guards Caney will have a defense for the next two years that will be hard to pass.

BASKETBALL

There was no need to make a call for a basketball squad because almost the entire football squad along with a large number of others were anxious for the season to open. Practice started on the first of December with about thirty men out for the squad. After about two weeks of practice the "Coach" secured a game to try out his hopefuls. This game was with Sedan, winning from them by a score of ...to.... A preliminary was played with Tyro by the Second string, being also successful in the attempt, the game ending 13 to 2 in the Second's favor.

Then vacation period opened but training was continued. A game was again secured with the "Used-to-Be's" which ended in defeat for the one time favorites of Caney High.

The first Valley game was January 9 at Oswego. This game showed great ability even though the team was not in very good shooting trim. Keeping a lead on her opponents throughout the entire game, the final whistle blew with Caney 19, Oswego 14.

January 16, brought Fredonia to Caney for a real battle. This is decidedly the fastest game ever played on the local court. It was Caney's desire to get revenge from Fredonia but the time-keeper's whistle again decided in favor of Fredonia with a score of 15-14.

With the change of the schedule this year it fell Caney's lot to play Altamont on the home court, January 20. The score of this game resulted in a very decided victory for the locals, winning 50 to 7.

And now the Caney prowess invades Coffeyville to secure consolation for their football defeat. On January 27 Caney swept them off their feet in a mighty whirlwind fashion and won the day 25-19. Kirkbride was the spectacular player in this game making nineteen points for Caney.

On January 30, Caney also went out to conquer with her prey this time being Neodesha. The team said they would take nothing short of victory and the victory came in a very decisive manner, the game going to Caney 29-15.

Independence came here to try her luck but with no avail because they returned home with the small end of a 21 to 12 score. Although Independence had a very fast team and some excellent team work they found that the company they were in was entirely too fast for them and were content at the outcome of this game.

The last game of the first round was with Cherryvale on the local court. Cherryvale also met with disaster resolving that they were outclassed in every way. The final whistle gave Caney the game, score 25-12.

Caney again secured her berth on the high four and played Fredonia at Fredonia in an effort to remove Fredonia from her perch as the leader of the Verdigris Valley League but because of the unavoidable elements that sometimes enters in, Fredonia won again 24-13.

The next team in the high four was Neodesha. Neodesha came down to play on the local court with lots of pep and fight but were outclassed and the Locals took the victory by a 30-24 score.

And now we come to the last game of the season in the League. Independence who started out rather poorly in an earlier part of the season was going good for the last game with Caney. After a game of "give and take" or one in which neither was certain of the outcome, Caney left the court again the victors, defeating Independence 33-29.

The long looked for Tournament date is now at hand and Caney sent a team to Neodesha that was practically undefeatable when in shape but because of sickness and other unpreventable things Caney's team was crippled considerably and that accounts for their misfortune at the Tournament which ended with Caney winning one game and losing two. The first game of the tourney was with Cherryvale and Caney succeeded in trouncing them to the tune of 24 to 16. The next game with Chanute gave Chanute the best end of a 23 to 16 score. Caney's final game of the tournament was with Iola, being defeated by only two points. The score stood 20 to 18 in favor of Iola.

Caney High Student Advisory Council

Three officers from each class in Caney High and a few members of the faculty form the Student Advisory Council. This council is supposed to meet on the first Monday in every month. It takes up problems of the school that are important. The thing of most importance which it did this year was to give lessons of sportsmanship. At the first game of the season little slips of paper were handed out. These were the lessons called "Sport Ethics." This helped the sportsmanship of Caney greatly.

The officers of the student council were: Mr. Tewell, president; Chalmer Kirkbride, vice-president; Jake Liberman, secretary-treasurer.

The role was: Kathryn Nolan, Ruth McQuillen, Pauline Aitken, Fred Benson, Dorothy Aitken, Harvey Greer, Bill Moore, Lucile Buckley, Sylvane Dancer, Ralph Shelton, Jake Liberman, Chalmer Kirkbride, Miss Ramage and Miss Easter.

ALGEBRA CLUB

Not enough Algebra! This was the idea of a number of studious freshmen when they asked Miss McClain to help them organize a club to be known as Algebra Club. A meeting was called and a plan laid to meet twice a week for 30 minutes to solve and explain some of the more difficult problems and to study the lives of those early mathematicians whose works form the foundation for our present day algebra. The problems were to be given in the form of programs, prepared by a committee, and the meetings were to be conducted according to the general rules for organized clubs except that the officers were to be elected monthly, thereby giving opportunity for a number to hold office.

As the work of the club progressed from time to time discussions arose as to the use of algebra to girls. A debate was the outcome of the discussion which was: Resolved, that girls do not need a knowledge of algebra. The affirmative won this debate which settled the question for the time being. On April 15 a trial by jury was held which involved a theft of problems between two prominent club members. This ended in acquittal for the accused for lack of evidence.

These programs together with an occasional hike by the club have proved very entertaining as well as instructive, and were enjoyed by all. All feel that the time given to the club has been well spent.

The A. B. C. of C. H. S.

(With apology to all poets)

- A—is for the assembly to which we gladly pass,
And enjoy the programs given by each class.
- B—is for the B. B. team which we're proud of, you bet,
Ev'n tho we've lost a few times, we're still on top yet.
- C—is for Caney High, a school set apart from all the rest,
For of course she's our Alma Mater—the school we love the best.
- D—stands for argument or in other words debate,
Another activity in which we partake.
- E—is for the exams, which all of us dread,
And even the "wise owls" find their knowledge has fled.
- F—stands for "flunk" the horrible in all your dreams,
If you don't know what it is, ask a Freshman what it means.
- G—stands for grades—red and blue ink are the hues,
Red ink denotes failures and the results are—the blues.
- H—stands for the hall; please don't linger there,
For Principal Tewell rather seems to care.
- I—is for illness which we sometimes use,
When we're absent from school to get an excuse.
- J—stands for Jesson, the faithful janitor,
Whose service to the High School the students already know.
- K—is for kickers, who are always against,
All moves for improvement to help C. H. S.
- L—is for lessons—the students daily task,
And when we don't chance to have them, we of'n skip that class.
- M—stands for music in which we're not far behind,
But as we're still climbing; we'll reach the top sometime.
- N—is for the successful Nakenak Staff,
Which keeps C. H. S. in the A-1 class.
- O—stands for the operettas—sure we have them too,
They've all been successful ev'n tho we've just had a few.
- P—stands for parties, the one occasion where we have fun,
And of'n the place where friendships were first begun.
- Q—is for quizzes which most of us take,
Till our brain is all whizzes and our fingers ache.
- R—stands for rules and regulations by which we must abide,
For our school wouldn't run so smoothly without these for a guide.
- S—who doesn't know who that is for?
Anyone knows that it means Senior.
- T—is for teachers, so patient and kind,
A group we'd like better would be hard to find.
- U—stands for something and as my brains are few,
I'll simply state "That C. H. S. depends a great deal upon 'u.'"
- V—stands for vacations—a time for pleasure and good cheer,
And we anxiously await its coming—the end of the school year.
- W—stands for whispering—no school is minus this,
In low tones or loud tones—to the students it's a bliss.
- X—stands for the unknown in Algebra I,
When hunting for it the Freshmen have fun.
- Y—is for the yell-leaders, whose work is no snap,
When they back our teams to victory and put C. H. S. on the map.
- Z—stands for several things, zero, zeal, and zest,
But the zero in grades and weather the students know the best.

—L. Kincaid.

During the Junior banquet Miss Costello sat regarding Max with evident alarm. Undismayed by her glances Max ate plate after plate of bread, butter, and cake; at last Miss Costello could stand it no longer. Going up to Max, she said:

“My boy, have you never read any book which would tell you what to eat, what to drink, and what to avoid?”

“Why, Miss Costello,” replied Max, with his mouth full of cake, “I don’t want no book. It’s very simple. I eat all I can, I drink all I can, and I avoid bustin’.”
