Dear Carson:

We all want to take this opportunity to thank you very very much for your wonderful visit. It certainly was a pleasure for Mac and myself to spend the day with you. I saw some of the people down town yesterday, such as the Manager of the Theatre, who voiced their thanks also. As we already told you, we appreciated your bringing Tex Roy along and per your discussion we will try and do anything we can to give him some publicity in this unpromotional town of ours. The theatre voiced the opinion that they might like to get Tex back for one of the next two performances of the square dance show. At any rate, maybe something will come of it.

I went up to Dutchess County Saturday and saw Tex Saturday night as he was able to visit the home of my friends where I was spending the evening. If he ever performed before any dudes, that was it. I think it was the first time they ever heard cowboy music. I called you on Sunday, but you were not available. Hope you got my message.

Thanks again.

Best regards,

P.S.

Tex is coming to the theatre Thursday Oct 27. Also have a party lined up that should pay him $40. or $50. I think I can get him on the final Community Chest rally at the Hotel 20ft. It might be a good thing as quite a few "big shots" will be there. At any rate I'll talk to Tex about it. Pat
