Dear Gene,

What has happened to our correspondences I've missed hearing from you, but I know it was I who should have written before to give you my address. I should say OUR, as I am now married happily to the Swedish Girl I told you about last Spring, Liselotte.
We are here in Stockholm for a year. We've been here almost 3 months now. It's beautiful, but a bit lonely & quite expensive. I'm of course not working - just trying to write & read & learn Swedish & enjoy the new Culture. Enclosed is a poem I wrote tonight thinking of you & "older times". Please write and tell me all... Love, Jim
