

'SQUEAL LIKE STUCK PIGS'

Editor, The Tribune:

It is typical of Communists, left-wingers, pinkos and fellow-travelers to squeal like stuck pigs when revealed in their true light, as shown in Sen. Joe McCarthy's investigation.

This is equally true in local Bartlesville circles, when a person, or persons, attacks the city commission and a duly appointed group of citizens who are throwing out subversive literature contained in the library.

It is sufficient to say that those who squeal the loudest and shed crocodile tears for preservation of our civil liberties have branded themselves for all true Americans to see.
