Administration

Superintendent

Congratulations, Seniors of 1944, for making this splendid book possible. It means more to us than memories, in that it demonstrates responsibility, cooperativeness, give and take, citizenship and growth. Thus the true spirit of Caney High School moves forward as we all realize more and more that a "True American" accepts education in order to serve better rather than to take advantage of a weaker brother.

Class Motto

'The days that make us happy make us wise.'

1940 marked the entrance into the somewhat exclusive membership of Caney Senior High, of eighty-three freshmen, now known as the Class of '44. Elected as officers were Billie Martin, Dale Gray, Gloria Parsons, Ann Carinder and Agnes Ingmire. Mrs. Marie Jones and Mr. John Zimmerman guided the group through its embryo stage. Mrs. Jones continued as sponsor of the class until her death in March, 1942, when Mrs. W. G. Gilbert joined Mr. Paul Marts as adviser. Officers for the Sophomores were Gloria Parsons, Archie Powers, Norma Hicks, Doris Bradford and Wanda Vaughan.

Trials, tribulations and the glorious climax of the Junior-Senior Banquet on April 30, 1943, marked the Junior year. Officers were Gloria Parsons, Carmelita Swayne, Norma Hicks, Ann Carinder and Faye Hollingworth. Mrs. John Jackson and Miss Catherine Austin were sponsors.

1943--At last! Wendell Neff, Dale Gray, Jack Morris, Lester Harriman and Gene Hill were elected officers of the graduating class. Miss Clemma Ross and Miss Austin sponsored the class in all its activities--Kane-Kan and Nakenak publication, sneak day, class day and all the unforgettable events of the final year of high school.

Fiesta

Caney Valley Historical Society

Soft lights, music sweet and hot, dancing girls, and bullfighters--to say nothing of the bull himself--a procession of peons carrying produce to the market, all provided background for the dozen banquet tables, each with a centerpiece representing a different Latin American country. It was the evening of April 30, 1943, that Uncle Sam welcomed the Juniors and Seniors to the Pan-American Fiesta.

In the fall of 1941, fifty-one students enrolled as members of the new Freshman class, and chose Charles Fletcher as president; Lillian Fletcher, vice president; Rosetta Peeryman, secretary; Madeline Harris, treasurer; and D. Lynn Vollmer, Student Council representative. Miss Amne Berger and Mr. W.G. Gilbert, sponsors, started the class on its way.

LEE McCAY
Secretary

As Sophomores in 1942, the class of fifty kept several of the same officers, electing Lee Songer, Jr., as vice president and Darlene Stephens as Student Council representative. Miss Berger and Miss Mary Jo Thew sponsored the class, which won first place in the one-act play contest with "Mrs. O'Leary's Cow."

Advancing to Juniors in the fall of 1943, the class moved Lee Songer, Mr., to the office of president. Mary Ann Sawyer became vice president; Lee McCay, secretary; Jim Dancer became the Student Council representative. Again Miss Berger and Miss Thew were sponsors of the group.

Athletic Coaches

Caney High School welcomed a new head mentor this year in the person of John Hutter. Although Coach Hutter had very limited material for his teams this year, he has shown a determination to produce a winning team that has caused all the boys under his direction to work their hearts out by his side. They all look up to him as one of the finest coaches they have had and offer him their thanks for guiding them through the season.

Turn to Refreshment

YOU TASTE ITS QUALITY

You'll enjoy the relaxation of a pause more if you add the refreshment of ice-cold Coca-Cola. Its taste never fails to please, and it brings a refreshed feeling you will like. So when you pause throughout the day, make it the pause that refreshes with ice-cold Coca-Cola.
