TO MEMBERS:

Re: TELEVISION AGREEMENT

On December 9, 1949, there were sent to you two copies of the new television agreement terminating December 31, 1953.

We advised you at the time that the agreement between the Society and the Telecasters required the Society to use its best efforts to obtain consents from the members of the Society representing 85% of its distribution for the year 1948.

Those consents have now been obtained and we are so advising our television licensees.

The television agreement enclosed in the letter of December 9, 1949, to our members has now become in full force and effect as to all members who have signed and delivered the same to the Society.

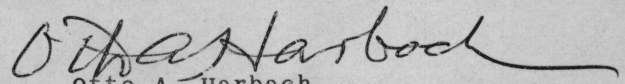

We are also pleased to advise you that as the Society has now fulfilled its obligations under the agreement with the Telecasters, we have called upon Hon. Robert P. Patterson to pay us all amounts deposited in escrow with him by the networks and local stations under their respective blanket license agreements.

We expect that all amounts now held in escrow will be paid to the Society in time to be included in our next quarterly distribution.

Your copy of the television agreement has been executed by the Society and is herewith returned for your files.

Cordially yours,

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF COMPOSERS,
AUTHORS AND PUBLISHERS
