Uncle Tod
Dear Mr. Robison:

Thank you for your song book. I was much interested in it and in the article in Collier's which we are returning under separate cover. Sorry we are not going to be able to use your story "Uncle Tod", but it is not quite the sort of thing that our readers have come to expect.

I am glad you like Jack Drummond because we expect to run a great many stories by him in 1935, and we hope that you will find increasing enjoyment therein.

I wonder if you have noticed the Range Riders' Club which we are running. With the issue of Collier's I am enclosing a copy of our March issue in which it was announced. I don't know just exactly how, but it occurs to me that possibly you may fit into this picture somewhere.

Yours sincerely,
Edmund Collier
