The important years for you lie just ahead. Past mistakes and opportunities can never be recreated. They are not final, for one of the glories of youth is that big opportunity of shaping one's life to the splendid goals you have set. You are the only one who can "steer the course." I have every confidence that you will pull your share "on the oars" of life.

Class History

In 1942, fifty-eight "gobs" came on board the good ship "C. H. S." for their year of boot training. They were led by Dick Marion, president and sponsored by Mr. Justice and Miss Coldwell.

In 1943, the enlistees number had lowered to the round number of fifty-two. Dick Marion still held high office along with Jim Hilliard and Ralph Fuqua. Miss Coldwell and Miss Lambdin kept their toes to the mark.

In 1944 forty-three bright, intelligent juniors were left to carry on another year of swabbing decks under the watchful eyes of Miss Coldwell and Miss Lewis. This year Franze Gourley, Faye Boles, Jim Hilliard, and Ralph Fuqua were the chief petty officers. This year the class really became noted. Many of it's students participated in the junior-senior play and also, they invited the seniors on deck for a gala evening of "dine and dance." The seniors returned the hospitality by inviting the juniors to the coronation of their Kane-Kan Queen on board the S. S. Teen Town.

Ahoy, in comes 1945 with forty-two weathered old sea-dogs walking up the plank to complete their work for their skipper's degrees. Stanley Lambdin, Bill Jenkins, Mary Ellen Patterson, and Audree Ann Stewart filed into officers quarters and Miss Lewis and Miss Anderson charted our course through the rough sea. Faye Boles was chosen Kane-Kan Queen, and coronation took place at the prom given for the juniors in return for their clever banquet which was given in honor of the senior class.

CLASS HISTORY

Fifty-six students enrolled in the Freshman year and our commanding officers were Leo Townsell, John Foote, Charles Dancer, G. Seaver, and Glen Hayes. Delores Krepps was elected to represent the Freshman class in the Kane-Kan contest. Our play "Finders Keepers" won first prize. Our sponsors were Mrs. Ruth Diver and Miss June Steeper.

We were very proud of our acting abilities when we won the bronze plaque again in our Sophomore year. The title of our play was "Highest Bidder Gets a Date." We guided our ship on the right course with our sponsors, Miss June Steeper and Miss Clemma Ross, and our commanding officers, Elaine Sawyer, La Donna Graves, Charles Dancer, John Foote, and Wyman Newcomb, at the helm. Peggy Wilson was class queen.

Having reached the Junior class, Joan George was elected president. John Foote, Faye Newby, Peggy Wilson, and Melvin Branch were the others at the helm. Our sponsors were Mrs. Pauline Walker and Charles Haddock. "Billy's First Date" was the title of our one act play.

CLASS HISTORY

We had our "air-legs" in our freshman year and now we were stepping into that upper class where you begin to enjoy privileges you hadn't dreamed of. First off we elected Dwight Woods, president; Norman Fuqua, vice-president; Mary Lou Smith, secretary and treasure; and Nannette Bridenstine, student council representative. Mrs. Everett Fuller and Mrs. Bert Schuette were our sponsor's and ushered us through our third class play given at the high school. Title of our play was "A Mad Breakfast".

Now that we have reached the sophmore class, we are feeling bigger all the time. Our officers are Jack Mull, president; Carl Wagner, vice-president; Wyman Newcomb, secretary; Marilyn Kannard, treasure; and George Penfield, student council representative. Our sponsors for '45 and '46 are Mrs. Everett Fuller and Mrs. Jep Williams.

September of 1945 found a new group of freshman excitedly enrolling in C. H. S. I guess we weren't any different from the ones before us because we had our mix-ups too. We didn't feel so small and unimportant because we were finally in high school. Our sponsors were Miss Amne Berger and Mr. Frazier. We chose as our officers: President, Jerry Dancer; Vice President, Howard Henderson; Secretary, Floyd Swayne; Treasurer, Dean Barrett; Student Council Representative, Mary Catherine Pocock; Class Queen, Joan Bowersock. Our assembly was a general program, the students contributing their talent. With the presentation of our grade cards this year will come happy and sad news but whichever it may be, we have all enjoyed the past year in good old C. H. S. and we're sure the future will be just as bright.

KENNEDY BOWLING ALLEYS

My Dear Little Nancy Ann! You're growing up so fast I can scarcely keep up with you - but this I want you to remember - now and forever - "I love you" - from the time I held you first in my arms, a little pink, cuddly bundle - and my interest in you will never cease. Never change from the fine, substantial type of person you are - and may life's richest blessing be yours, health, happiness and success. Transcendentalist.

Dear Nanny
I want to visit
you all the time
