

Wright, Alvah M. "How They Voted," letter to the editor, Sunday Daily Oklahoman, undated clipping (1950).

How They Voted

TO THE EDITOR:

PLEASE publish the vote of the Oklahoma delegation on the anti-communist bill recently passed by congress and vetoed by the president. Would like to see the vote on the bill as well as the vote on the veto.

ALVAH M. WRIGHT,
Mangum.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Here it is:

Senate: On Wherry amendment to supplemental appropriations bill to provide for a flat ban on economic aid to nations which trade in war materials with Russia, defeated 39-28: Kerr and Thomas voted against. On passage over president's veto, 57-10, of communist control bill (two-thirds majority required): Kerr and Thomas NOT voting.

House: On final passage, 323-7 of $4,508,000,-000 emergency tax increase bill: all FOR except Gilmer (D) NOT voting. On passage over president's veto 286-48, of communist control bill (two-thirds majority required): Albert, Monroney, Steed, Wickersham and Wilson (all Democrats) FOR: Morris (D) against; Gilmer and Stigler (both Democrats) NOT voting.