Dedication

Because of her sterling worth and nobility of character; her loyal devotion in Caney High and her unfailing interest in its student body; her genuine concern for its progress, and welfare; and, in recognition of her long, efficient and unselfish service to CHS, we respectfully dedicate this Kane-Kan of 1950 to our devoted counselor and friend, MRS. RALPH PANTEL.

JOPLIN RAIDED BY KANE-KAN STAFF

September 25, fourteen Seniors stumbled out of bed early and sleepily made their way to the school building, where they were met by Prof. and Mrs. Sheppard and Buford Hoke, with his costly Greyhound bus.
It was the staff leaving for a trip to visit the district Semco Color press. They were going for the paper selecting a cover for the Kane-Kan and a few other things.
The original plan was that we should leave at 9 a. m., but we found that 9 a. m. arrived considerably

Sue Lambdin as Ida Lupino, Sue Marchbanks as Rita Hayworth, Billy Joe McClure as Sidney Greenstreet, and Maureen as Marjorie Main.

As part of initiation the new Playmakers were required to give candy and peanuts to the old Playmakers. They also were required to polish the shoes of the old Playmakers and to clean the water fountain for them.
