Norbert: Recently I discovered that I cannot eat dairy products, without negative consequences, so I guess my first choice would be locally grown and raised foods. (This is how my wife and I try to eat.) Second would probably be pasta and seafood. And third, since we're just back from Costa Rica, we'd be glad to try Latin American, though anything with cheese, milk, cream, etc. would not work.

Marilyn: Anything but Thai

Mary Crow: Food preferences: I am in the process of converting to vegetarianism so that would be my preference, also locally grown, and seafood.

Bruce Dethlefsen: I'd prefer that the highest bidder choose their favorite restaurant or one they'd like to show off. I'll have my own transportation. I'll be staying at the Eldridge hotel on Sunday and Monday nights. (608) 369-2136.

Carolyn: (a) seafood/pasta, (b) locally grown, (c) salad/sandwiches. I contacted Denise earlier about the transportation issue. Joyce Brinkman and I are considering renting a car or using the shuttle service.

Marjory: Anything
