FOREWORD

We present to you a review of the events and happenings of the past year. A reflection that will keep the spirit of Caney High a pleasant memory of our high school days.

We hope in future years you may turn its pages and recall with pride and satisfaction the year 1955-'56.

B.S., M.S. Fort Hayes State College
Ed. D., Kansas University

We wish to dedicate this book and the memories within its covers to a kind and sincere man who has devoted much of his time to our school. That man is Dr. J. C. Witter, superintendent of Caney Public Schools.

During the past few years the school has grown in spirit and achievement due in a large measure to Dr. Witter's guidance and unfailing interest in the welfare of our young people.

We therefore dedicate the 1956 Kane-Kan to Dr. Witter in sincere appreciation for his leading role in our education.

GREETINGS

Ella H. Wilcox has written a poem which expresses a depth of feeling, prophecy, and understanding. It immediately sets one to thinking on the meaning of life and the causes or reasons why some are so good and some so seemingly wasteful. As one thinks, the seriousness of decision becomes evident, and the lateness of the hour becomes alarming.

Read the poem:

Winds of Fate

One ship drives east and another drives west
With the selfsame winds that blow.
'Tis the set of the sails
And not the gales
Which tells us the way to go.

Like the winds of the sea are the ways of fate,
As we voyage along through life:
'Tis the set of the soul
That decides the goal,
And not the calm or the strife.

Millions of dollars and a life time in hours are poured into a strenuous effort to determine the set of a soul. One's family, boy and girl scout organizations, 4-H, churches, schools, and governments all try to help set the soul.

By 'set' we mean a determination by the individual to be brave, honest, industrious, dependable, loyal, moral, helpful to others, and all the graces which we call morality and culture.

It is my earnest wish that Caney High School has had a little to do with the good set of your soul. A set that will help each of you voyage toward a good and a worthy goal. And when looking back on the year 1956, you will remember with pleasure the year as one in which you increased in stature before God and man.

Sincerely,

Dr. J. C. Witter
