1964

Caney High School

Caney, Kansas

FOREWORD

This book marks the Golden Anniversary of the Kane Kan. It was fifty years ago, in the school year 1914-15, that the Kane Kan was first published. But to some this yearbook is more significant than any that came before it; for this is their book, and 1963-64 was their most wonderful year at Caney High. Today, in 1964, we cannot improve the words written for the Kane Kan by Orville C. Wemmer in 1916:

"Bright may your memories greet you
As you turn these pages through,
May your thoughts and fancies bring you
Back to the school of RED AND BLUE."

Our progress is amusing to everyone except the editor.

Take A "Peek" At The Senior Class

MR. RALPH FIELD

MRS. MARION TYLER

MR. HORACE TAYLOR

To Our Sponsors:

We, the members of the Class of 1964, are still too close to the experiences of our high school years to appraise them. But we can say this: We've gone through a lot together.

We cannot help but smile when we look back at the high point of our Freshman class activities--a scavenger hunt.

As Sophomores, we concentrated upon making our fortune. We sold magazines, washed cars, and sold baked foods; we even washed the windows of the vo-ag building for $10.

As Juniors, we tried to sell sweatshirts and buy class rings, but all else was forgotten in our hectic preparation for the Junior-Senior Banquet.

We have already completed our Senior money-making project--selling candy, and we are still tyring to get rid of those sweatshirts. Now we are looking forward to our last class project--the Senior Trip.

We don't know how we ever accomplished all this, but we suspect that you had something to do with it.

Thank you.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Caney Valley Historical Society

"The meeting will come to order. Will the secretary please read the minutes of the past year." These are the familiar words of the president of the student body as he opens a student council meeting. The secretary then begins to read:

"We held our first meeting September 5, 1963, and since then we have dealt with many problems and attained many achievements. President Rudy Taylor, Vice President Randy Johnson, Secretary Treasurer Kathy George, and our sponsor Mr. Kugler, along with representatives from sixteen classes and organizations, make up the Student Council. Our purpose is to let the students of Caney High School have a voice in the school government. Our regulations are set up by our constitution, and we follow Roberts' Rules of Order in our meetings. All organizations must have the consent of the Student Council before sponsoring any school activity. The Student Council itself has sponsored several activities including several lyceums, various parties, consession stands, and a few money making projects. We have had a very enjoyable year and we would like to thank our fine representatives and all those who have helped in making our organization a success.

Meeting adjourned."

Senior Kayettes

The Senior Kayettes is a service organization composed of Senior High girls of Caney High School. The group was organized and became affiliated with the state organization under the direction of Miss Wanda May Vinson. The first Caney sponsor was Mrs. Genevieve Cain, who helped the girls achieve state awards until 1959. In 1959, Mrs. Ruth Dow became the sponsor, and since then the organization has continued in the high esteem of both its members and the community.

Among the Kayette's many school, community and world service projects are: baby sitting for P. T. A. meetings, cleaning the school trophies, helping with the T. B. drive and Red Cross blood mobile, and contributing to Care and Meals for Millions.

Senior Kays

The Kansas Association for Youth, now in its seventeenth year, has been one of the leading extracurricular activities in over 250 high schools of Kansas. One of its chief values, as an organization in Caney High School, is its policy of group service for common goals.

To be a success, as the Caney group is, the club program must offer opportunities for the development of followers as well as leaders. Participation for awards is optional with individual clubs. Caney's club has worked for these awards for many years.

It is the purpose of the association to help high school students realize their potentialities and responsibilities as citizens in a democracy and share in the satisfaction that comes from participation in wholesome social recreation. Caney High School may well be proud of its KAYS organization, for it has proven to be one of the best throughout the state.

ACTIVITIES

Caney Valley Historical Society

The best-known Junior High organization is the Junior High Band, for Caney High students are regularly reminded of its existence as they wake up during first hour. The Band devotes the first part of the year to marching and then presents the results of its hard work to the public by appearing in four or five parades through the year. The last part of the year is devoted to concert work, which climaxes in a concert in the spring.

Junior High students also participate in two service organizations, the Junior Kays and Junior Kayettes. The Junior Kayettes, whose organization is state affiliated, was organized in 1946 and annually sponsors a "Bundle Day" to send clothing to needy children in various parts of the United States.

SENIOR

The Caney High School Band, led by Eston Beery, is an organization that greatly boosts the school and community. Being in the band involves the self-discipline required to practice and work hard, the learning of cooperation, and the feeling of pride in the organization. The attainment of these things has helped to make Caney High School's

Junior High Cheerleaders

The Caney Pepperettes were organized in October, 1927. Eight girls, including Mrs. Fred Franks, Mrs. C. E. Lingle, and Mrs. Ed Fritzpatrick, formed the original organization. During the first year, the organization had no sponsor, and membership was by invitation only. The girls wore white pleated skirts and borrowed the boys' red letter jackets. The next year the group increased to sixteen girls, and it is now a full-fledged organization in the Caney High student body.

The goals of the Pepperettes are to provide school spirit and pep at all ball games; to provide two beautiful and impressive homecomings; to sponsor two homecoming dances and provide inspirational and beautiful decorations; to earn money to send senior cheerleaders to cheerleading camp; and to help buy their emblems, stripes, numbers, pompons, crowns for the homecoming, crepe paper, and other things that are needed to inspire pep.

Judging Team

I BELIEVE IN THE FUTURE OF FARMING

Caney Valley Historical Society

The Caney Chapter of Future Farmers of America was organized when the present advisor, Ralph Field, first came to Caney in 1953. The Caney Chapter is one of more than 8500 chapters of a 350,000 member national organization of, by, and for boys studying vocational agriculture in high school.

The most important purpose of the Future Farmers of America is "to develop competent, agressive, rural and agricultural leadership." The Caney Chapter has sought to accomplish this by providing members both responsibility and opportunity on the local level. Each member is on one of the ten committees which direct the work of the organization.

Leadership is further encouraged by competitive events, both within the chapter and with other chapters. Much of the publicity received by the Caney Chapter has been a result of the sucesses of its judging team, officers, and speech contests in district and state contests.

The chapter also helps local farmers and the community in such service areas as pest control and safety, thus teaching members to work with others and each other. Members also learn to cooperate to improve their own farming programs. Having ranked among the top twenty chapters in the State for the past 5 years, the Caney Chapter of the Future Farmers of America continue to "develop agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship."

PLAYMAKERS

Organized in 1924, the Playmakers is the oldest organization in Caney High School. Jake Liberman, now a local attorney, was the first president of the group, and Mrs. Louise Franks, Playmaker sponsor since 1956, headed the organization in 1928. This year, Mrs. Franks' daughter, Martha, became the fortieth president of the organization. This year the Playmakers have the largest membership in their history with 105 active members. During the year, the group sponsors a winter formal, presents a stage production, and assists the Junior High music department with their Christmas program.

The Future Business Leaders Of America

The Future Business Leaders of America is a national organization with state and local chapters. It is composed of students enrolled in the business departments of secondary schools. Its purpose is to seek to: Strengthen and help young men and women to have confidence in themselves; Create interest and understanding in the intelligent choice of an occupation; Encourage members to improve home and community; Participate in worthy undertakings of the community; Develop character and foster patriotism; Encourage and practice thrift; Encourage improvement in scholarship; and Promote school loyalty.

The members of the FBLA hope that it will continue to be an interesting and worthwhile organization. The Caney Chapter meets on the third Wednesday of the month, and it is represented at the state convention which is held at Pittsburg in the spring.

"It never ceases to amaze me the way those kids get out there and kill each other on the football field. Considering all the injuries they get and all the trouble and time they have to put into it, I just don't see why they do it."

We're not psychiatrists, but the more we look at the pictures on this page, the more we feel that we've put our finger on one of the reasons that they do it.

1963-64 Summer Supplement

As the old saying goes--"all good things must come to an end" is how we felt the 1963-64 school year should be summed up. To some, these pictures will have little meaning and value, but to others the pictures represent many cherished memories and milestones. We hope in future years that as you turn back to the pages of this annual you will proudly say--"That was a GOOD year!"

GRADUATION

SYMPTOMS

As the end draws near, unmistakable signs appear. We fear, however, that some of the signs will be obliterated by next year's graduates. So we are preserving a few of them here. CLOCKWISE FROM BELOW: (1) Discussing how to do it. (2) Grade card reactions. (3) A conspicuous Senior. (4) In addition to the signs, Marthena Burch and DeAnn Dick are shown. (5) Martha Franks waves from above before (6) turning to more serious business. (7) Steve Coltharp cooperates with our cameraman to produce a masterpiece of graduate happiness. (8) If Coltharp can do it, Johnson can do it better. (9) And Phillip McKee, Martha Franks and Steve Boggs offer their efforts at Solemnity.

GRADUATION

Caney Valley Historical Society

Yes, we feel like we have grown as a family and experienced happiness, sadness, fear, and prosperity together. Now we must go our separate ways. We're proud of what we've done in the past twelve years, but we will do even better in the next twelve!
