#59 Crawford County, Kansas, Sheriff's Department Daily Jail Ledger, 1922-1935
1 volume

INTRODUCTION

A ledger book containing a handwritten account of names of persons booked into the Crawford County Jail as required by Kansas State statute during the period from March 1, 1922 to September 1, 1935.

DONOR INFORMATION

The Sheriff's Department, Crawford County, Kansas, Daily Jail Ledger, 1922-1935 was donated to the Leonard H. Axe Library, Special Collections, by Sheriff Sandy Horton, Crawford County Sheriff's Department, on April 16, 2010.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

By state statute, sheriffs have to keep a ledger of persons booked into the jail. This is the earliest extant jail ledger for the Crawford County Jail that was built on South Ozark Street in Girard, Kansas.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Sheriff's Department, Crawford County, Kansas, Daily Jail Ledger, 1922-1935 consists of one ledger book of 321 pages. Included in the ledger is a handwritten account of names of persons booked into the Crawford County Jail as required by Kansas State statute. Five different sheriffs were noted in this ledger: Milt Gould, J. D. Turkington, J. M. Hyndman, P. N. Robinson, and Leon C. Delamaide.

According to the Crawford County Sheriff's Department website, Milt Gould served as sheriff from 1920 to 1924. According to the Daily Jail Ledger, J. D. Turkington served as sheriff from 1924 to 1928; J. M. Hyndman served as sheriff from 1928 to 1930; Pearl N. Robinson served as sheriff from 1930 to 1934; and Leon C. Delamaide served as sheriff from 1934 to 1938.

On the last page, just inside the back cover, the following note was handwritten:

Milt Gould total prisoners 342 2 years

J. D. Turkington [total prisoners] 2,484 4 years

J.M. Hyndman [Hyndman] [total prisoners] 2,485 4 years

P. N. Robinson [total prisoners] 2,602 3 years 6 months

The majority of entries in the Daily Jail Ledger were for VPL (Violation of Prohibition Law) and drunkenness. Because many were "riding the rails", traveling through the area, or homeless during the Depression years, there were overnight guests in the county jail and who were usually released the following day. Those entries were noted as "Sleeper."

Of particular historical interest in the Daily Jail Ledger, on page 3, are names of local labor union leaders Hearl Maxwell, John Fleming, Sr., R. B. Foster, Willard Titus, James McIlwrath, Alex Howat, and August Dorchey, who were charged with contempt of court, in April, 1922, for organizing labor strikes in the county.

Also notable are several of the women listed in the ledger who were sent to the "chicken farm," the women's state penitentiary in Lansing.

Notable judges listed in the ledger include: George F. Beezley, Alcide (Al) Benelli, O. S. (Orla Samuel) Casad, Robert W. Colborn, Walter Cook, Andrew J. Curran, J. F. Davenport, Walter T. Davis, Eugene E. English, Charles Fowler, Jo E. Gaitskill, Richard J. Hopkins, T. R. Jones, Robert S. Lemon, T. J. Lisenbee, James McGregor, John E. Nelson, William E. O'Conner, Wayne Phelps, T. W. Pomeroy, T. M. Resler, W. G. Ringo, David F. Schoch, C. M. Shook, J. W. Stalker, C. C. Warlop, Simeon Webb, and D. H. Woolley.

There is no page 75 in this ledger. Nothing was written on pages 291 through 320 of the ledger.
