Theme

When you're weary, feelin' small
When tears are in your eyes,
I'll dry them all:
I'M on your side
Oh when times get rough
And friends just can't be found
Like a Bridge Over Troubled
Water
I will lay me down
Like a Bridge Over Troubled
Water
I will lay me down

Sports

When you're down & out
When you're on the street
When evening falls so hard
I will comfort you

I'll take your part
Oh, when darkness comes
Underclassmen
And pain is all around
Like a Bridge Over Troubled
Water
I will lay me down
Like a Bridge over Troubled Water
I will lay me down

Sail on silver girl, Sail on by
Your time has come to shine
Senior
All your dreams are on their way
See how they shine
Oh, if you need a friend
i'm sailing right behind
Like a Bridge over Troubled Water
I will ease your mind

Senior Class

Graduation closes the door of a chapter of our lives filled to the brim with lively memories. Junior High began six years of changing classes, no recesses, climbing stairs, finding lockers, and sunning on the wall at noon.

Our sophomore class worked hard on the annual magazine sales and as juniors we pulled together and organized to produce the greatest Jr-Sr Banquet and Prom in the history of C. H. S. During our junior year we order our class rings and after receiving them we held our heads a little higher and walked with more confidence as we awoke to the realization that we were approaching our senior year. As we are approaching the end of our final year in high school, the class of '71 pauses on the brink of a new chapter of our lives, grateful to teachers and parents, but hesitant, anxious to begin a new life, eager to make a place in the world. Now is the time to cross the bridge and enter the future with the courage that we can cross troubled waters and not lose faith in the human race.

Caney Valley Historical Society

The students of Caney High School dedicate the 1971 yearbook to Tammy Bowman, a Caney High student who died May 18, 1971 following a car-truck collision.

Seniors Are Planning For Final Great Exit

Caney Valley Historical Society

Once again it is about time for the juniors to become Seniors, the sophomores to become juniors and so on down the line. The juniors always have big ideas about what they are going to do as soon as they are Seniors, just like we did last year, and of course you hear the familiar line, "Only one more year in this place," but for the Seniors, it's going all too fast. Thinking back, we realize wasn't as bad as we thought was and we might even miss old school. For a Senior, a funny feeling to hear an underclassman say something what they will do "next because the majority of even know where we what we will be doing time next year.

For the next two months, however, our schedule has been planned, and we will try to do all the things we've put off "till next year."

On May 1st, the junior class will host the Greatest Class Banquet at the Jr.-Sr. Banquet. Before getting out of school May 23 week of school May 23 will have to take the on the preceeding Friday.

Made of heavier material and of better quality, the robes will serve a duo purpose by being used for chorus robes as well.

At another class meeting, representatives for Snowball king and queen were chosen.

Competing for the titles from the 1971 graduates will be Bob Frye and Marilyn Weber.

Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Frye and one of his current interests is varsity basketball.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Weber, Marilyn is the new editor-in-chief of the annual staff.

'. . . Being of Sound Mind, Do Hereby . . . .'

I, DIANA AVERY, to Don Perkins and Becky Randall, I leave all the nasty rumors that have been spread about David and me.

I, CARROL BAYS, leave in my last will and testimony the ability to skip school and get by with it to Brenda Taton. To Jim Lindsey, I leave my talent to get along with Mr. Rau.

I, BRUCE BOLES, do leave to my cousin Gale all underclassmen, knowing full well that she has no use for them. To my cousin, Jim, I leave my position on the bench during basketball. I hope he doesn't have to use it much.

I, SALLY BURCHFIELD, to Cheryl Russell, leave my ability as a good driver; she needs it. To Karen Vaughan, I leave my ability to get along with my dad. And to Mike Hines, I leave Cheryl Russell and Jim Bryan, hoping they will be straight next year.

I, RON CLARK, do hereby bequeath to Doug White my ability to baby-sit with someone who crashes on prom night at 11:00 p.m.

I, VICKY COURTRIGHT, leave to whomever sits by Ricky Cavender, the ability to eat candy all hour and not have all of your teeth rot out. And last of all, to Debbie Gregg, I leave Joe Jabben, and all the bruises he will put on her.

I, MARGIE DUCUMMON, will to Cheryl Russell the ability to stay sober at least one night of every week, sincerely hoping she will use this the best she can (at least until she turns 18).

I, DAN CARLILE, to those so inclined, I will anything in this building that is not bolted down, knowing that they'd get it anyway. To the Caney High School, I leave my uranium mine in Alaska.

I, TIM FERRELL, leave a wish, hoping that all CHS students who take journalism next year can come up with a student publication that is as excellent in quality, make-up, and efficiency, and receive as much cooperation from Mr. Henson as did the Bullpup Observer staff.

I, RICHARD FOLK, do leave my famous running ability to Ronnie Moore, and to Doug White my ability to get points from the history teacher for winning first place in track meets.

I, KERRY KELLY, to Debbie Kincaid, the ability to skip school and make up better excuses than I did. To next year's Bullpup Observer editor, I leave my ability to get along with Mr. Henson, and to Steve and Mike Buster, I leave my ability to be late for school every morning.

I, DEBRA ELAINE LANCASTER, leave to Debbie Kincaid, my ability to not go out with other girls' boy friends, knowing she will need it, and to Melody and Jimbo Robbins, I leave this goony school, thankful that my visit here is over.

I, CAROLYN LOHMANN, do hereby will the following: To my sister Janie, I leave my chair behind Steve Hufferd in Mrs. Joy's speech class. To the junior class, I leave the privilege of getting to paint the street AND the building, since they'll be the last ones to use it. . . .hopefully.

I, RICHARD MUNDAY, leave to Allen "Porky" Perkins, my ability to be teased by D-D-D-anny and Leon and not get mad, or at least not show it, and to the school and teachers, I leave the great memory of Hoss, the guy who never causes any trouble.

I, KATHY MOONEY, being of sound mind and body, hereby will to my friend Cheryl Russell (with no offense intended) the ability to keep her big mouth shut.

I, JOHN MORGAN, do hereby will to CHS all the witty sayings which I have carved on all my desks in hopes that the dumbos in years to come will find them, leading them to a better, more meaningful life.

I, BOB FRYE, leave to my tiny, little, brother, Steve, one burned-out light bulb, knowing that he was never too bright anyway, to Jack Horton and Joe Freisberg, my ability to completely repel all girls, to Coach Williams, next year's quarterback to ask dumb questions; and to next year's quarterback, all my sympathy, and a one million dollar life insurance policy.

I, RITA GOODMAN, do leave "Korea, 1941" to the junior class.

Caney Valley Historical Society

I, JIM GORDON, do hereby leave the following: to Richard Shively, my first trombone position, and hope that he will learn to play right. To my brother, Rick, I leave all of his empty Skoal cans in my dad's truck.

I, BERNICE GRIFFIN, do will the following: To Fred Jones, I will permanent position of shotgun in my car. To Stevie Wevie Ray Bay Songer Bonger, I will my nickname, Bird. To the new fifth hour office girl, I will my ability to tell Mr. Henson to comb his hair without getting him mad.

We, TOM JONES and JIM GLOVER, do will to Mike Sumpter one empty can of Budweiser, knowing that he will suffer.

I, RONALD HERRINGTON, alias Rudy Lucas, do hereby leave the seven inches of hair I had cut off before prom night to Mr. Henson. And to the rest of the student body and faculty, I just leave, knowing you will always remember how good I was.

I, HERMAN HEMPEL, will my ability to get crashed at the prom and know what I am doing to Mike Sumpter, knowing he will use it well. To the rest of you people, I leave, knowing you will miss my handsome face . . . adios, amigos.

I, TONI HALL, hereby leave the following: to Debbie Kincaid, my white '65 Chevy, knowing that she will need it every morning to get to school on time, and also my noon hour position at the Tastee-Freez, knowing she will put it to very good use. To my sister, Linda, I leave all the memories of the good times I had at CHS, hoping she will be able to put them to good use without being caught. Last but not least, I leave to my cousin, Kathy Phillips, all of my short skirts, hoping that her mother won't let the hems out.

I, ROB JAMES, leave to Steve Frye, my good looks, with the hope that he will use mine better than he uses his. To my oldest friend, Iceberg Thomas, I leave a nose straightener.

I, JOE JABBEN, bequeath to Ed Theiss, my '56 Chevy, knowing that he always wanted a car instead of a Plymouth, and to Debbie Gregg, I leave my heart . . . my liver, and all of my other goodies.

I, DWAYNE MESSNER, leave to Glen Harrimann, my position on the livestock and other judging teams, knowing that he won't have to work too hard to fulfill it. And to Sonya, I leave my car, knowing that she'll put it through a lot of miles of dirt roads next year.

I, SONYA MASON, leave my analyst to Lois Carnes and Debbie Wilson, knowing they will need it after another year with the weirdos in the front seat of the bus. To Mrs. Barton, I leave the hope that she will have another small secretarial practice class.

I, RICK MASON, will to Shiela Thomas my entire body, knowing that someday she can use it. To Debbie Kincaid, I leave an empty keg which is still in the back of Toni Hall's car.

I, HAROLD MANN, leave to Brad Stevens, my one football play, knowing he will have as much trouble with it as I did. To Jack Horton, I leave Ron Clark's ability to score points for the opposing teams in basketball.

I, LINDA McCAMMON leave CHS very quietly.

I, MIKE NODINE, hereby leave my football center position and the quarterback's cold hands to John Burns, knowing that he will enjoy it to the fullest. To Steve Harr, I leave my strength, good looks, and personality, knowing that he needs them.

I, VERNON NEWBY, hereby bequeath the following; To Parli and Roper, I leave the next year's Senior Ag. Class to put up with in hopes that they will be as noisy as ours.

I, VERNER NELLSCH, do hereby bequeath to Suzy Moore, my little sister, one large K. U. Jayhawk. To Mike Estes, almost a doctor, I present my ever beloved medicine kit and dirty joke collection.

I, RANETTA NEWBY, leave to Sandy Wilson my ability to drive down the street while looking in the other direction and miss telephone poles. To Janice Carinder I leave the right to dump empty beer cans on anyone's driveway she darn well pleases.

I, JOHN PFALSER, will to my little sister, Jane, who is entering this fantastic and most honorable school next year, anything or part of it she wants or is willing to take.

I, CAROL PERRY, hereby leave to Cathi Allison a solution to all of her love problems, especially R. C.

I, BEVERLY PARKER, do hereby leave Cathi Allison my astonishing ability to run my horse across the highway without getting run over. To Lois Carnes I do hereby leave my ability to eat fast sometimes, and to Marie Harr, I do hereby leave Kelly Losh, the little blond boy on our bus.

I, KAY TYSON, leave my position in the office to anyone who is physically able to uphold the activity.

I, JANICE SCOTT, leave a quiet library to Miss McMullen. To Rhea Smith, I leave the ability to holler out the window and get caught. To Dale Scott, I leave the halls of CHS so he can run around as much as I did.

I, SHELLY ROBINSON, do hereby will the following: To Alishia and Lois, I leave one Funk and Wagnalls dictionary. (They might be pleased to know there are other words besides bummer, hassel and freaks, and especially toked up).

I, BILL SCOTT, leave to Ron Edens the ability to keep his singing to himself. And I leave the junior class a waterballoon for next year's junior-senior prom in hopes that they will win next year's water balloon fight.

I, RICK TUCKER, leave in my last will and testament: To John Burns I leave my great ability to play football, knowing that he will surely need it. To Doug White, I leave my ability to be a broad jumper and break the school's record as I did. And I leave one more thing to the Sandhill grunt, the ability to talk to girls and not get nervous.

Carney Valley Historical Society

I, RITA TRIMBLE, leave to Cathi Allison my ability to keep a good reputation while in high school because I know she will need it.

I, TERRY VERNON leave to Leon Deal and Darrell Robertson my ability not to get drunk on prom night. And last, but not least, I leave to Andrea Gayle Boles my beautiful body.

I, STEVE WYMAN, will to Rex Barrett my ability not to get knocked out at the state golf meet. To Marty Short I leave next year's golf team, knowing it will be a heavy load.

I, MARILYN WEBER, do will the following: To Nancy Moore and Peggy Wade I will 50 extra demerits for pep club, being assured they will have a good use for them next year.

I, RICHARD WEEKS, hereby will my only two possessions. To my brothers I leave all my girly books, for I know they will never have bad eyesight. And to Brenda Taton, I leave myself, knowing she will know what to do with me.

I, KENNY YOUNG, do leave the following: To all the underclassmen I leave the age-old dream of one day being able to legally buy their own beer. To my sisters, Brenda and Jeanette, I leave the corner by our house for them and their boyfriends to park.

Juniors Stock up for Prom

You might have thought a little of the Christmas spirit was still lingering in a few of the members of the junior class but that really wasn't the purpose for their having a candle sale. The real reason was to help with expenses on the jr. -sr. prom. Kay Wilson's team, which sold 87 candles, won the race for selling the most candles. About 330 candles were sold.

Special Edition — The Bullpup Observer, Caney High School, Caney, Kansas 67333 — Monday, February 8, 1971

GOVERNMENT DAY AT CHS; ELECTION THIS WEDNESDAY

By Bob Frye

With the minimum voting age requirement lowered to eighteen, it really doesn't seem too strange to see younger people holding offices that keep the public interest in mind. However, when a group of high school juniors converge on the courthouse at the county seat in Independence...watch out!!!

This may seem like a far-out idea, but as so often in the past, the juniors who are enrolled in American government are participating in the bi-annual Government Day which is sponsored by the American Legion.

Sixteen county offices are open to any junior who is enrolled in government and who turned in an application to be a candidate.

An all-school election will be held Wednesday, February 10, and the candidate who is elected to his or her respective position will accompany the rest of the victors to Independence on February 24, to spend the day in the office to which they were elected.

Lunches will be provided by the American Legion.

Applications were to be filled out and turned in by January 27 to be eligible to compete. Each applicant was required to declare that if elected, he will accompany the group to the county seat.

Late last week, the candidates began redecoration of the rooms and hallways of CHS. The material used for the new interior decor was campaignish, posters which are an attempt to gain the confidence of the student voters.

However, the officials of the Bullpup Observer came up with an idea that seems better than the common poster. You are now reading it...the first Government Day newspaper in the history of Caney High School journalism.

Every candidate whose name appears within, paid a fee to have his campaign promises put into a school circular designed especially for the Junior class. The charge for the advertisements paid the expense for the publication of this special edition.

This election circular will enable the readers to get a more vivid picture of the candidates, and their opponent.

So, enjoy this paper, 'cuz there aren't very many like it, and maybe let this issue help you decide for whom to vote.

The season kicked off with a heart-breaking 6-0 loss to eighth ranked Yates Center.

Our second game was a 28-0 victory over Midway of Buffalo, previously unbeaten in twelve games.

Then Shidler proved to be a tremendous loss. Leading 6-0, Rick Tucker sprained an ankle and had to be removed from the game giving Shidler the come on for thirteen points.

Altamont became the first of six straight victims for the Caney Bullpups. After struggling to a 6-6 half-time tie, Caney's offensive rolled up thirty-two points in the second half to the Grizzlie's six.

Chilocco was no match with the Bullpups scoring thirty-two points in the first quarter, and watching the B-team rack up 40 points during the second half.

Arch rival Sedan also felt the Bullpups power as Caney defeated the Blue Devils 47-0. Once again the B-team saw considerable action in the final quarter.

Seeking their fourth straight win and their first victory over Neodesha in 16 years, the Bullpups went to work in the first quarter to take a 12-0 lead. The Bluestreaks came back strong in the fourth quarter only to fall short of the inspired Bullpups. Final score Caney 20 and Neodesha 14.

Newkirk, Oklahoma, a traditional state power in Oklahoma, became our fifth victim. Trailing 3-0 in the third quarter, Caney's Doug White raced 80 yards with the kickoff to give Caney the needed margin for victory.

Playing their last game of the season, they demolished the Cherryvale Charger's 55-6.

The 1970-71 Seniors have been instrumental in providing the physical ability and leadership the past two years needed to lead Caney to an outstanding two year record of 13-4. They helped establish a tradition filled with pride and determination. Their graduation is more than the loss of football players to the coaching staff, it is loss of dedicated young men to whom we have developed respect. However, our job is to prepare for the future, and we hope we have given them as much to take with them as they have left with Caney Valley High School.

From the ranks of the Pepperettes come the cheerleaders for the A and B teams. Choosing these cheerleaders was one of the first items of business for the student body.

That was just the beginning for a busy year for the pep club.

Appearing at the games in their colorful uniforms, the girls gave a big boost to the morale of the athletes and added excitement for fans as they went through their yells and routines. Not only did they attend the games, they were on hand for pep rallies, too.

Following the homecoming basketball game, the girls prepared a welcome snack for the team and coaches.

In February, the sponsored a "beautiful legs" contest with male students getting into the fun-filled competition. Ron Clark (Catherine Curving Calves from Cincinnati) was the winner.

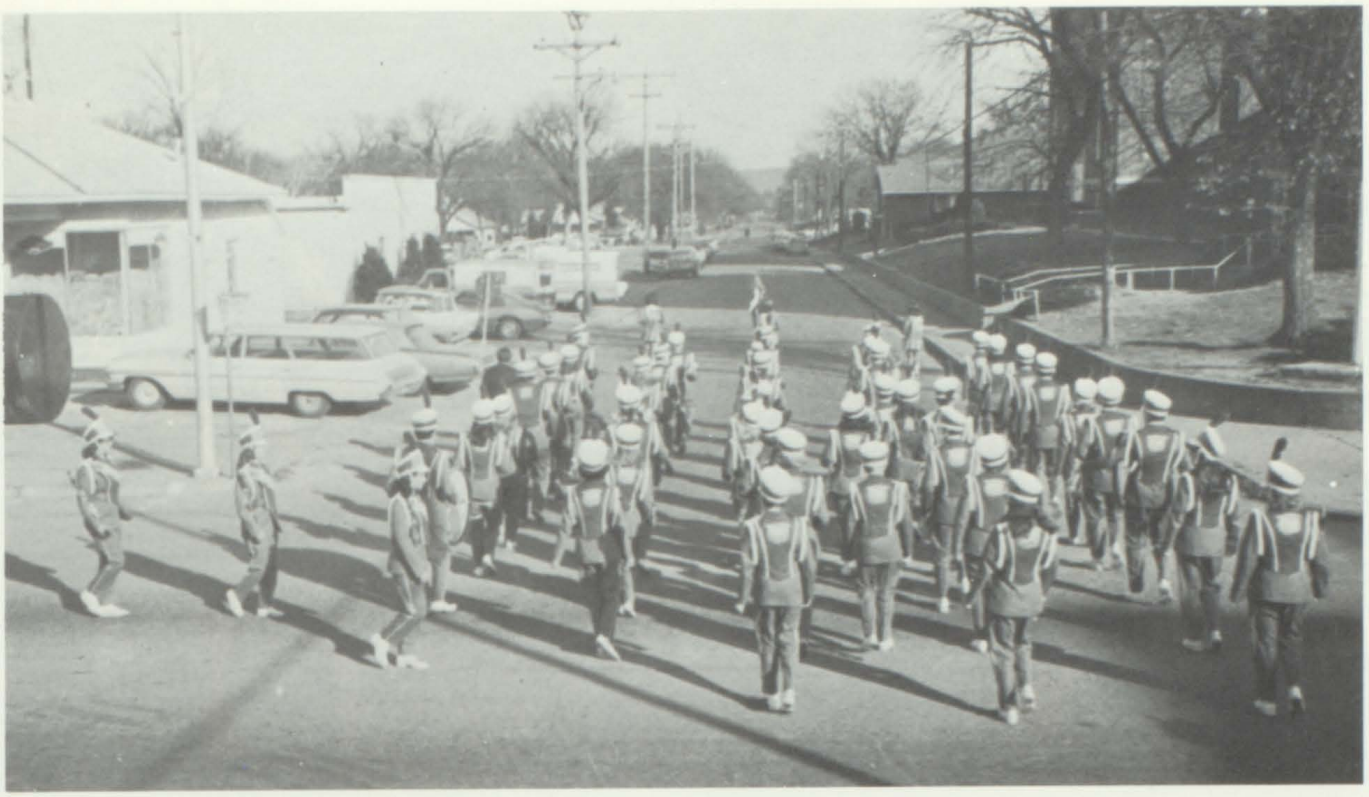
Here Comes The Band

(In New Uniforms!)

Caney Valley Historical Society



The highlight of the band's busy year was getting new uniforms on October 28, 1970. Royal blue in color, the pants are embroidered with a white stripe down each leg. The overlap carries the letters CANEY. On the reverse is a Bullpup emblem. The hats are red and white. Musicians first wore their new uniforms at the Neewollah parade in Independence.

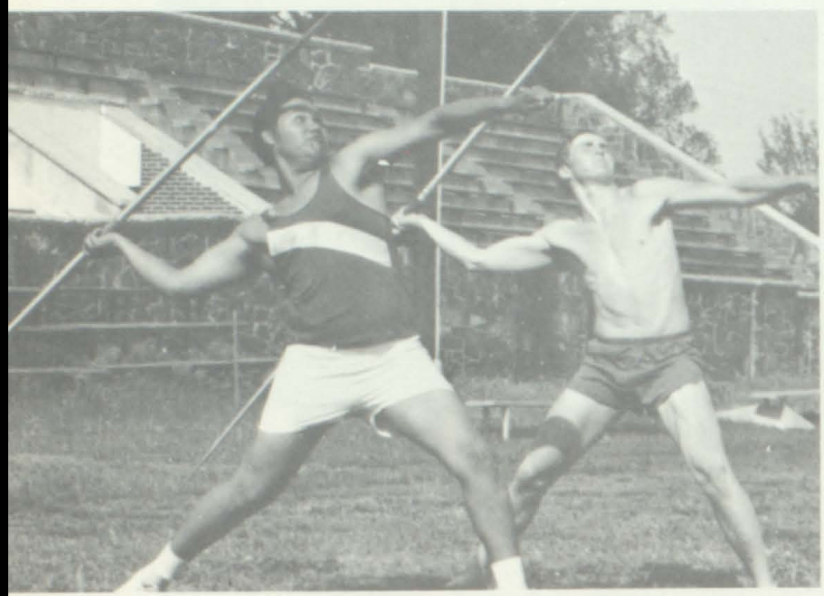
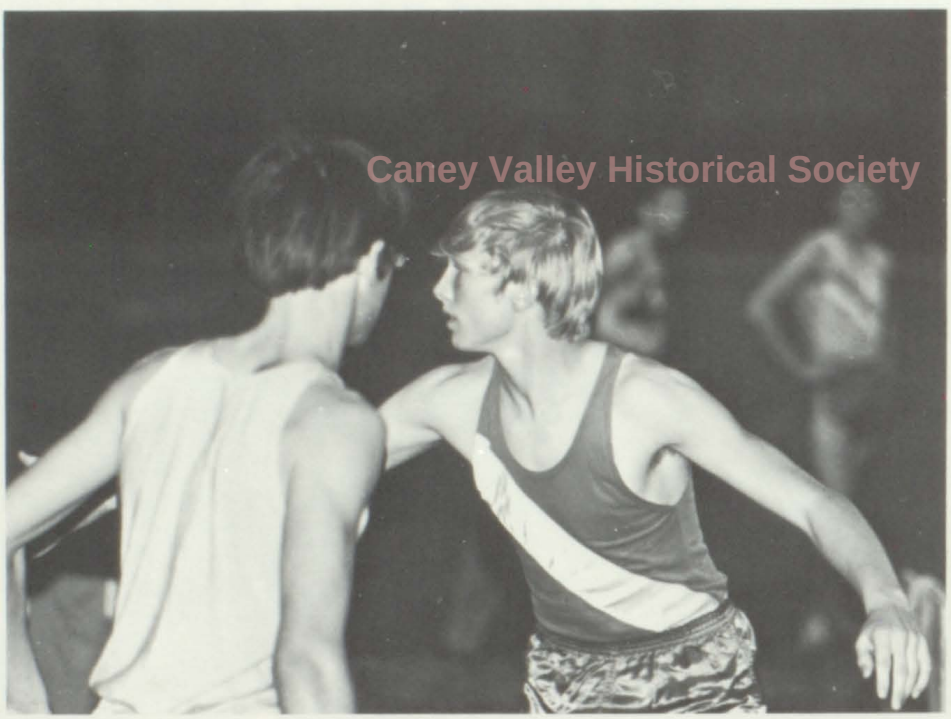
Three Go to State





Caney Valley Historical Society

1971 Track Team was composed mainly of underclassmen. Some would consider this lack of Senior experience as a rebuilding year, but this was not the case of the athletes of Caney Valley High School.

With alot of hard work and dedication they were able to capture two first place trophies, three second place trophies, and one fourth place trophy.

The strong point of our track team was the determination and ability of our distance team. In several meets our distance team won several first place metals and numerous points.

To compliment our strong long distance team we had a real fine set of youg hurdlers in Doug White and Barney Barnett. We probably had the best one, two combination in the javelin with Mike Sumpter and Steve Frye.

In addition to the fine regular season showing we had three men qualify for the state meet at Wichita State University. Harold Mann won tenth in the state for the mile while Steve Frye won third for the javelin. Doug White showed great determination in the low hurdles.

Those breaking school records this year were Rick Tucker in the Broad Jump, Steve Frye in the Javlin, and Barney Barnett in the Intermediate Hurdles.

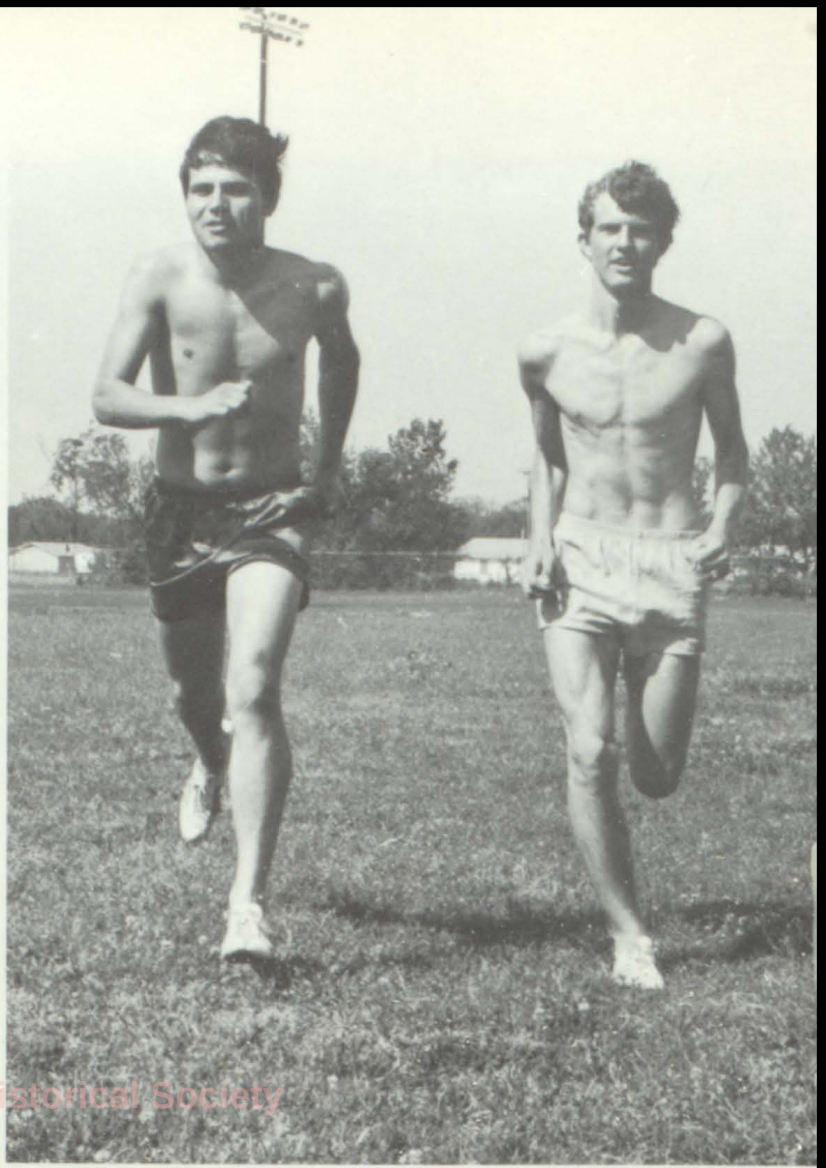
Cross Country, Off Season Sport



Cross Country is an off shoot of the sport, track. It competes during the fall season and besides being an excellant individual sport it helps build track boys in shape during the long off season.

Cross County races consist of a two mile course layed out usually on a golf course. It takes a combination of determination, speed and endurance to be a good Cross Country racer.

Caney has had some outstanding distance runners in the sport and this year had three of the top distance runners in the area.

Team members were Richard Folk, Jim Murphy, Albert Nitz, Mike Frye, Bruce Boles, Steve Morgan, and Harold Mann. Coach for the team was Mr. Rinkel.

Meets attended by the team were Altamont, Fredonia, Bartlesville, Chanute, Caney, Coffeyville, Iola, and regionals at Emporia.

Caney Golfers Win Runner Up

Caney Valley Historical Society

Caney's four-man team was runner-up at the regional meet on Sand-greens. Steve Wyman always proved to be a top golfer as it seemed no chore for him to come home with a first medalist honor.

Other golfers for the year were Ron Clark, Rex Barrett, Marty Short, Bard Biggerstaff, Kenny Young, Dan Carlile, Steve Songer, Bill Wealthall, Richard Shively, Mike Coltharp, and Rick Gordon.

Stuco Sponsors All Sports Dance

What better way for the Student Council to honor the 1971 Sports Queens than to have a dance on April 3? Music for the gala affair was provided by "The Factory". Co-honorees were Beverly Parker, who was crowned Football Queen on October 16, and Marilyn Weber, crowned Basketball Queen January 29.

A highlight of the year was a program in honor of Veterans Day, November 11. The program "Born Free" was presented by Father Charles Tobin of Kansas City.

The Stuco of 1970-71 completed their year's activities with a picnic at Havana Lake on May 21 in honor of the Administration and the old and new members of the Student Council.

With the addition of a new dark room the Journalism Department sat out to have one of the best school papers in the area. The Bullpup Observer was the name of the bi-monthly paper, with Kerry Kelly as Editor-in-Chief. With the help of many merchants in the Caney area the Bullpup Observer proved to be one of the many assets of Caney Valley High School. Here the group took a trip to Lawrence for a newspaper clinic.

Kane-Kan Honors Queen

Caney Valley Historical Society

March 25 was the date when Shelly Robinson was crowned queen of the 1971 Kane-Kan. To honor the annual's new queen the staff held a dinner in her honor with the administration and parents of the staff as special guests. Restless Set and Miss Joan George sang several numbers for the entertainment.

Attendants to Miss Robinson and their escorts were Debbie Lancaster, Dan Carlile, Gary Watson, Bernice Griffin, Randy Dunn, Janice Scott, and escort for Miss Robinson was Rob James.

Finding several interesting layouts in past yearbooks are Katherene Myers, Janet Meyers, Sonya Mason, Shelly Robinson, Debbie Lancaster, Rita Hollis, Bernice Griffin, Janice Scott, Kathy Bunch, Linda Young, Rhea Smith, Debbie Mitchell, and STANDING Marilyn Weber, and Mr. Paine.

Playmakers Presents "Our Town"

"Our Town" by Thorton Wilder was the play chosen by the Playmakers to preform. With Verner Nellsch in the narrator's role, he took the audience through the lives of the people of Grovers Corner.

Those playing major parts in the play were Mark Mayfield and Lana Mantooth. Directing the play was Mrs. Joy with many students putting much time and effort into "Our Town".

Christmas time at CVHS is always an enjoyable time of the year, not just because there is a two week holiday, but this is when the Playmakers sponsor the annual Snowball Dance. Joe Freisberg and Debbie Clark were crowned Snowball King and Queen. Both are Sophomores and were representatives of that class.

FHA Grows to Eighty-Three

With the number of members growing to eighty-three the FHA joined forces with the FFA to crown the FFA Sweetheart and the FHA King. The titles were given to Debbie Wilson and Mark Mayfield.

A progressive Dinner was also held during the year with Hors d'oeuver served at Kerry Kelly's, salad at Ann Dyer's, main course at Nancy Moore's, and desert at Rhonda Kindley's.

The state meeting at Topeka was taken by most of the girls. It lasted two days and the Jayhawk Hotel provided a place to stay. The group was accompanied by Mrs. Rolls and Mrs. Clark.

FFA Sweetheart, FHA King

For the first time the FFA Sweetheart was honored with a dance held in the back room of the Vocational Agricultural building. With the joined forces of the FHA and FFA work began to turn the room into a replica of a barn. Upon entering the room you found yourself in a tunnel of hay, only to end up in the big room where Debbie Wilson was named FFA Sweetheart and Mark Mayfield was named FHA King. Attendants for the couple were Rick Tucker, Rita Trimble, Dwayne Messener, and Toni Hall.

The Silencers was the band chosen by the two groups to honor their royalty. Much thanks went to the sponsors of the groups, Mrs. Earhart, Mr. Parli, and Mr. Roper.

THE FFA CREED

I believe in the future of farming, with a faith born not of words but of deeds--achievements won by the present and past generations of agriculturists; in the promise of better days through better ways, even as the better things we now enjoy have come to us from the struggles of former years.

I believe that to live and work on a good farm, or to be engaged in other agricultural pursuit, is pleasant as well as challenging; for I know the joys and discomforts of agricultural life and hold an inborn fondness for those associations which, even in hours of discouragement, I cannot deny.

I believe in leadership from ourselves and respect from others. I believe in my own ability to work efficiently and think clearly, with such knowledge and skill as I can secure, and in the ability of progressive agriculturists to serve our own and the public interest in producing and marketing the product of our toil.

I believe in less dependence on begging and more power in bargaining; in the life abundant and enough honest wealth to help make it so--for others as well as myself; in less need for charity and more of it when needed; in being happy myself and playing square with those whose happiness depends upon me.

I believe that rural America can and will hold true to the best traditions of our national life and that I can exert an influence in my home and community which will stand solid for my part in that inspiring task.

Spanish Club Holds Fiesta

Mexican pinatas were sold by the Spanish Club to raise money for their annual 'Fiesta', where the members dress in brightly colored Mexican garments, and the special guests are treated by watching a much rehearsed dance done by the members. Mr. Henson performed the age old custom of breaking the pinata filled with candy for everyone to take home.

Officers are Verner Nellsch, Kenny Cooper, Mrs. Shaver, Sponsor, Sandy Wilson, and Linda Moore.

Kays, Kayettes Sell Stock

Kays and Kayettes have worked hard this year on several projects, from drives for charity organizations to selling stock for the Caney Centennial. But not all was work for there were times of fun and learning, for the Kayettes had a demonstration on how to care for wigs and sponsored an assembly about drugs with Dr. Robert Moore giving a talk afterwards.

Junior Kays for the first time being state associated became very industrious with many money making projects underway. One enjoyed by the student body was the movie "Golden Age of Comedy" where the Jr. Kays sold tickets for 25¢. A turkey raffle was another great success.
