I imagine

*We want you now to close your eyes,
And let your thoughts run free.
I imagine all the world has changed,
And then you'll surely see.*

*I imagine if the sun wouldn't shine,
And cold overcome the earth.
I imagine if mankind just lived—
Lived with no death or birth.*

*I imagine a world so full of hate
That love could not exist;
Where people become so bitter,
I imagine love not missed.*

Caney Valley Historical Society

Imagine creatures on the earth
Who have no minds or hearts.
They spread their hate everywhere,
And tear this world apart.

Imagine if you'd watch and see
Hed's nature die and rot.
Imagine earth in shambles,
Fulfilling Satan's plot.

Imagine if God turned His back,
And hope did fade away,
Mankind would die and perish
For earth then could not stay.

Caney Valley Historical Society

Imagine no United States,
No rights or liberty.
Imagine life unbearable
Imagine — then you'll see!

*Imagine a day
When war will cease,
And man can walk
Hand-in-hand, in peace.*

*Imagine-Life without challenge,
And nowhere
to go.
Living your life
With nothing to show.*

*Imagine as we reflect
In moments of ponder,
Time has no neglect,
But leaves us to wonder.*

Dedication

With a tinge of sadness and a small stone of regret in our hearts, we leave this building that is much more than mere mortar and bricks. It's been a starting place for the teaching of great men and women and a harboring place for the memories we stored up. Now with the construction of a new building to take its place, we find a loss of words to express what feelings always come with the loss of a close friend.

It is with this in mind and seeking to honor the education for which this building is a symbol, that we dedicate the 1972 Kane-Kan to the present school.

Administration

*Imagine...
no freedom
of education*

Teachers who teach only from government books. Teachers who dominate your whole will and fill your mind with the dictatorship of the ruling forces.

Teachers who search out independent students who think for themselves and then break down their resistance and make them into well programmed robots. Teachers with no compassion for those not as capable of grasping the knowledge presented to them. Teachers who do not understand personal problems and don't try. Imagine if this were so...

Who nominated them?... What are we voting on?... I shoulda skipped out... What's goin' on?... Wish I could hear... I don't know what we're doin'... Short, pay attention!... Speak up... Tell the Juniors to shut up!... All in favor say "aye"... Get Perkins a chair so we can see him... Right on!... Did you hear the one about...?... Let's adjourn and go home... What are you doin' here?... Let's get new sponsors... Why won't anyone sponsor a Senior trip?... What do we need money for?... Let's have a party!... What did you do last Saturday?... Why don't we move to the front?... Shut up so I can hear... Let's go outside!... Do we get a Senior trip?... These seats are saved... What are you doin' tonight?... You can't sit there!... I dunno!... These meetings are a hassle... Open a window... Oh, horsefeavers!... Wish they'd get this thing over with... Start over again... We're gonna vote ONE MORE TIME!... I make a motion... This chair's broken... Re-vote!... Just vote once!... MAINTAIN!... Do you have a license to fly that?... Let's have a keg party!... Is this a dictatorship?... If they don't like it they can cram it up their elbows... Kegs only cost twenty-five... What's a good excuse to get out of here... Seniors dismissed!

Being a Senior means... having more privileges...drinking beer...all the years you've been counting suddenly turn to days...having more responsibilities...being the big man on campus...having no upperclassmen to look up to...beating up on the little kids...skipping school even more often than you did before...running around in the halls...staying out till late...being so busy you hardly have time to go home...getting first choice on almost everything...looking forward to graduation...having a Senior trip...going bankrupt because of Senior pictures, Senior trip, and announcements...having a lot of fun...realizing all the things that will happen in the years to come...being scared...making decisions...worrying about colleges...working more on things than you want to...responsibilities that you don't really want...having underclassmen look up to you with respect...making the underclassmen feel knee-high to a grasshopper...telling a 7th grader to find the elevator to the 4th floor...graduating...leaving old friends forever.

And it's partly, downhill-*

*But never mind the steepness-
And never mind the sea-
Held fast in Everlasting Arms-
By my own Choice, and I see-*

And kiss the hills, for me,
Just once-
Then- I am ready to go!*

Playmakers

That'll be a neat play...are you trying out?...I'm going to.

Project your voice...now, I want Nancy to read Alice ...can't you speak any louder?...make the part come alive...even if you don't like the part, read it your best...does anyone have any part they want to read? ...the more I see you.

Don't laugh!...how did I do?...I'll bet she gets a part ...I want to be in it so bad...boy, I blew it that time ...what's he laughing at?...doesn't he look like a lover boy!

Well, this is it...it was so much fun last year...we'll know tomorrow...I hate looking at bulletin boards... who do think will get the lead?...everyone wants Alice...I don't ...I want Penny.

Caney Valley Historical Society

She looks good in that part... who do you think will be in it?...I hope she gets in it...I did awful...I want to read for Alice but I'm afraid to tell her.

Don't they make a great couple? ...is she dying or something... they sure are good...don't laugh..

PLAYMAKER OFFICERS--TOP STANDING: Mrs. Beckworth, sponsor. SECOND ROW: Brenda Young, stucco, Lois Sewell, vice-president, Lana Mantooth, president,

Ann Dyer, secretary, Robin Rolls, treasurer. BOTTOM SEATED: Doug White, historian.

Now Leslie, this is how you're gonna do it...Ah!
You're such a dramatist!!...Yuckoo!

O.K. Mrs. Beckworth, this is supposed to be serious...
Wow! I'll never make a part like that!!

I hope this is going to be a comedy...cause I can't keep a straight face!

Hey, what's the name of this play anyway?...YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU...hide and watch.

What's with those two?...if I didn't know better...it's okay,
Steve...you have greasy kid stuff...long live the dry look.

The "Snowball", an annual semi-formal dance sponsored by the Playmakers was a great success this year. Music provided by "Still Kickin'" set the atmosphere and the tremendous crowd danced to their hearts' content.
This was undoubtedly the best "Snowball" held in years and one not be forgotten for quite some time.

Is Lois feeling O.K. tonight?...she sure is dancing good for a change...Ya wanna dance?...I hope your feet are as sore as mine!!

Memorize that script...
 live the part...love...love
 ...I can't do this part...why,
 it fits you...showtime...
 that's your cue...let's turn this into a comedy...I like to practice the love scene...
 you're still not doing it right
 ...that's show biz...I hate rotten eggs...I think the audience forgot how to laugh...
 I'm a star...you stink...I can see my name in lights... when they burn it...I am the greatest...Never touch a super-star...you might get leprosy...ahh, this is the life....

Hey, we won... Yeh, we're number one... You like peanut butter and what?... would you turn it off?... keep on truckin'... is Moby Torland here?... some people say the feeling is love, I thought it was heart burn... let's turn in and tune on, or did I say that right... like what's dumb... RAILROAD GIRLS!!!
