Complete Plans For Gala Event From Committee

LIST OF SPEAKERS HEADED BY
GOV. WALTER HUXMAN

RADIO IS PROMINENT

Six Days of Fete Will Feature Any Thing From Speech by Governor
To Liltng Love Songs

The complete list of principal speakers for the Brandenburg Silver Anniversary celebration here March 14-19, a list headed by Governor Walter A. Huxman, has been announced by the faculty committee in charge.

Besides the listed speakers numerous alumni, educational leaders, state notables, present and former regents and others will be called upon to speak briefly at the various affairs listed for the week.

Governor Huxman will be the principal speaker for the morning program of "visitors' day" on Friday. Jonathan M. Davis, Ben S. Paulen, and Clyde M. Reed, former governors of Kansas, will bring greetings on the same program. Greetings of other governors will be read.

Dr. Dellinger Opens

Superintendent Kenneth McFarland of the Coffeyville schools, an alumnus of the college, will be the speaker for the "student day" program at 10 o'clock Thursday morning March 17. This program is in charge of Lewis Corporon, president of the student council.

Dr. L. A. Pettenger, president of the Ball State Teachers college, Muncie, Ind., will be featured at a banquet Friday night, and C. M. Harger, chairman of the board of regents, will be the main speaker at an Alumni dinner Saturday. Dr. Brandenburg will address the old grads in the afternoon.

The program for the week will open on Monday with a radio address by Dr. O. P. Dellinger, chairman of the Brandenburg Silver Anniversary over KOAM, Pittsburg. Dr. Mellicent McNeil head of the English department, will speak briefly at 4:30 Wednesday at the intermission of a Festival orchestra concert broadcast by the same station. President Brandenburg and Miss Eulalia Roseberry, professor of geography, will speak at 7:30 Wednesday night at a banquet in Coffeyville given in President Brandenburg's honor by the Coffeyville teachers. These addresses will be broadcast by KGGF, Coffeyville.

Orchestra Will Be Prominent

A number of others also have prominent parts in the programs.

Walter McCray, head of the music department, will direct orchestra concerts on Tuesday, and Friday and a concert Saturday by alumni orchestra and glee club members.

Dr. G. W. Weede, chairman of the reception committee, will head the receiving line at the reception Tuesday evening, and Miss Bertha Spencer, Miss Anne Marriott, Dr. Paul Murphy, and Mrs. J. U. Massey will assist in the reception plans. Miss Spencer is in charge of decorations, Miss Marriott of refreshments, Dr. Murphy of the procession, and Mrs. Massey of the reception on the second floor.

Miss Lola Stewart, graduate student, will sing several vocal solos at various programs. One of her numbers will be "If All Those Fond Memories of K.S.T.C.", a song written for the anniversary by Miss Belle Provorse, financial secretary.

G. W. Trout, dean of the College, will preside at the "visitors' day" program Friday morning. Rev. J. H. Hutchman will deliver the invocation, and Registrar L. A. Guthridge will present the Memorial at the same program.

Education circles will be represented by President E. C. Rarick, Fort Hays State College, W. T. Markham, state superintendent of public instruction; President David Edwards, Friends University, Wichita; President John Bailey Kelley, College of Emporia; Acting President John R. McFadden, Kansas Wesleyan University; President V. F. Schwalm, McPherson college; and President Frank E. Mossman, Southwestern College.

Fenimore Represents Chamber of Commerce

John A. Fenimore, president of the Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce, will extend greetings Friday from that organization, which is sponsoring a sightseeing tour for the guests of honor in the afternoon.

Superintendent M. M. Rose of Pittsburg will preside at the meeting of educators in Music Hall auditorium that afternoon. Supt. Markham will be the leader at this meeting.

Dr. O. P. Dellinger, who was a member of the faculty when President Brandenburg came to this institution and is chairman of the Graduate Division, will preside at a banquet Friday evening at 7 P.M. in honor of President and Mrs. Brandenburg.

F. W. Brinkerhoff Main Toaster

F. W. Brinkerhoff, editor of the Pittsburg Headlight and Sun, who was on the original reception committee that welcomed the President to Pittsburg, will give the main toast that evening to the guest of honor.

Prof. W. H. Matthews has charge of the alumni day plans for Saturday. Many events are listed for the day, including meetings of federal trainees, composed of the ex-service men who attended here from 1919 to 1925; meetings of those who have taken Smith-Hughes work here; luncheons, teas, and receptions in various departments; open house at so-concert by former glee club and chorities and fraternities; and orchestra members.

The Brandenburg Silver Anniversary will come to a close on Saturday evening with a banquet, a picture show, and a dance. C. M. Miller, director of vocational education in Kansas, and president of the K.S.T.C. Alumni Association, will preside at the dinner.

Mrs. Lena Martin Smith, a member of the first graduating class, will direct a pageant "Endearing Young Charms."

C. M. Harger, chairman of the State Board of Regents, will give the address of the evening.

Professor Shirk's Collection

Following the Banquet Prof. J. A. G. Shirk, who was also here when the President began his service, will show his collection of slides picturing the campus and students through the years.

To wind up festivities, a dance will be held in the gymnasium.

The anniversary program committee, headed by Lula McPherson, is composed of Paul Murphy, George Weeks, J. R. Hutchman, Mrs. Josephine Massey, Lewis Corporon, M. M. Rose, and Don Gray.
