107 East Third Street
Bartlesville, Oklahoma

Dear Mr. Davis:

Miss Babcock and I have both been out of town, and your letter of July 27th has just come to my attention.

We are indeed sorry that the Bartlesville Library has come to such a pass. There is no understanding mob hysteria, and it is most regrettable that the Library Board and Miss Brown were subjected to it.

We can only hope that the community will be more cooperative in the future and that the Bartlesville Library will be able to rebuild to its former degree of efficiency and service.

Thank you for keeping us informed.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. J. R. Dale

Mrs. J. R. Dale
Secretary

P.S. You have certainly been doing a good job in public relations by keeping this as well in hand as you have. Congratulations (J.R.D.).
