BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Sara Stephens was born on December 29, 1897. Her parents, John Hughes and Martha Gay Stephens, moved their small family to Girard in 1898, and then to Pittsburg in 1906. Sara went to Pittsburg Public Schools until she graduated from Pittsburg High School in 1915. She then graduated from Pittsburg State University, then known as State Manual Training Normal School, in 1919 with a lifetime teaching certificate. She taught at Moran High School from 1919-1921, at Frontenac High School from 1921-1929, at Girard High School from 1931-1932, and then at Pittsburg High School from 1932-1963 when she retired. Stephens got her master's degree from Kansas State Teacher's College (now Pittsburg State University), and was a part of the first class to graduate with a master's degree.

Stephens traveled all over the United States, as well as local camping areas, for vacations with friends and family.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The materials in the Sara Stephens Papers are organized into seven series: Diaries, Photographs, Academic, Teaching, Reunions, Miscellaneous, and Photo/Scrap Book.

The Diaries series contains personal and travel diaries as well as corresponding travel brochures that date from 1912 to 1988.

The Photographs series includes one photo of Sara Stephens as a small child and photos of a family vacation.

The Academic series contains two folders. Included in the high school folder are grade cards from 1906-1911; a grade card from 1912-1915; graduation congratulatory notes and letters from family in 1915, and calling cards. In the college folder are graduation invitations; school programs; congratulatory notes; and clippings about graduation, all from 1919. See also Photo-Scrap Book for more items that relate to this series.

The Teaching series consists of pictures, postcards, and personal correspondence from Joe Forsyth during the time that Stephens taught at Moran and Frontenac High Schools. The photographs are undated and dated from 1919-1925.

The Reunion series has programs from class reunions held in 1965, 1968, 1970, and 1972. Also included are lists of living and deceased classmates with addresses.

The Miscellaneous series includes a prayer card, a note from Stephens' doctor dated 1972, and a 1976 clipping about Pittsburg's centennial and Martha Gay Stephens' 100th birthday.

The Scrap/Photo Book series contains a photo book with miscellaneous high school, college, and teaching photos, plus notes, clippings, and programs.
