Dear Annie & Frank:-
I received your recent letters and glad to hear from you. Also got a letter from Mary L. and Alice. We have everything done but the furnace installation at the Lumber house. There has been ~~waiting~~ on definite information from them. I want to get the job started next week.
John and I expect to go to the farm today to repair the house.
We are very comfortably situated but I want to make some definite plans
as soon as I can end up this house work.

Well come up and do some Accounting soon as I am through. Hope through the Memphis press profitable, and I believe it should. That piece O'Brien is wonderful propaganda.

Had to see old Copeland snored under an N.Y.
They are even doing the Black Smearing and it is sure to back back against them.

The Beating Statement
in N.C. was good stuff, and all true.
Well aware, I will be seeing you soon.
I enclose a new letter.

As Ever
Dad
