Friday

Dear Anobel & Frank:
I received your recent letters and will drop you a line to let you know We are as well as usual.

Julia is about the same.
She keeps planning on going back home, but Dr. Newman says he thinks she should remain in the hospital.
I am inclined of course to try to plan for her to come back, but I believe it is not the best thing to do.

We had a quiet Thanksgiving.
Weather fine today. Everything going O.K. with us in our new quarters.
Some old crowd on Broadway but things quite dull.

New neighbors in the Molle house. Proff from the Mouse Dept.
Looks like the new deal folks have gotten into a "Cue De Rue" - their slogan seems to be, "Where do we go from here"? and the answer echoes from the four corners - "God knows".
Well I will get them off on the evening train. So - Chorus songs Chorus the tomorrow"

Will write you more later. Love and Be

Phil & Ju
