INTRODUCTION

Minute book, charter, property deed, letter, and newspaper clipping relating to the First Christian Church of Cherokee, Crawford County, Kansas, that was established in 1874.

DONOR INFORMATION

Unknown

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

A small collection of materials relating to the First Christian Church located in the community of Cherokee, in Crawford County, Kansas. The church was established in 1874; however, most of these records consist of a minute book that contains information dating from 1921 to 1936. The church was reorganized in 1921 and worked to increase its membership.

The minute book includes minutes of meetings, a record of officers and elections, membership lists, a brief history of the church, financial information and various other reports. Other materials in the collection include a State of Kansas charter received by the church in September 1888, a warranty deed for the church property executed in June 1889, a letter addressed to the church clerk from Mary Howell Switzer in 1952, seeking evidence of her church membership, and a undated newspaper clipping pertaining to church member Nelson J. Randall and the elementary students he taught in 1893.
