In Tribute to Dr. W. A. Brandenburg

Pittsburg is proud of the opportunity to honor W. A. Brandenburg in recognition of his twenty-five years of splendid service to the College—and to the city. The exceptional growth of K. S. T. C. under his leadership and his work and interest in civic affairs have meant much to Pittsburg. As a nationally known and highly respected educator, he has brought fame not only to the institution which he heads, but also to his city.

The College is part of Pittsburg, and the closest cooperation has always been maintained in their common interests. Pittsburg recognizes the advantages which are enjoyed because of the College. The files of The Headlight and The Sun hold an interesting and complete day-by-day history of K. S. T. C., and especially of the twenty-five years of the Brandenburg administration. These newspapers have enjoyed close contacts with President Brandenburg and members of the faculty while this history was being recorded. We are appreciative of their cooperation and join with the hosts of college friends in extending silver jubilee congratulations.
