Introduction

The Orpheus Club collection is about a men's music club on campus in the late 1920's. This club would later become a chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. The collection consists of a scrapbook which contains member information, music programs and the history of Kansas State Teachers College and the Music Department.

Biography

The Orpheus Club was designed for men of KSTC who were interested in music and wanted to improve the music department and their own skills. After establishing their club and having a few successful years, they applied to the Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Fraternity to become the Beta Delta chapter.
