FROM THE DESK OF

ANTON COPPOLA

August, 22, 1976

My dear friend,

Just a brief note to tell you that I finally received the bracelet two days ago. It is beautiful and I particularly appreciated the inscription but ~~would~~ didn't you know that my wife promptly took possession of it and now proudly wears it on her wrist. Ah, well... c'est la vie.

I enjoyed re-reading all the newspaper clippings and although I didn't see the Houston production, I somehow have this "gut" feeling that our modest effort was probably closer to the truth.

I am going to write to Frances Marsh Ellis about my feelings regarding "Street Scene" in greater detail and I have not forgotten to send you, as soon as I can, a Cassette of the Manhattan School performance.

In the meantime, stay well.

with my kindest personal regards

Anton Coppola
