DISTRICT No. 14

UNITED MINE WORKERS OF AMERICA

PITTSBURG, KANSAS,

Pittsburg, Kansas
Sept. 3, 1925

To the Officers and Members,
United Mine Workers of America,
District 14.

Dear Sirs and Brothers: -

It is reported to the office that Paul Mack of Croweburg is visiting various Locals throughout the District, collecting money to assist his daughter and four children who has been deserted by her husband.

It has further been authoratively reported to the office that none of the money collected is being turned over to his daughter, but is devoted to his own personal benefit.

All Locals are requested to furnish information to this office, of the amount of money paid Paul Mack, to the end that we may bring proceedings against him.

Yours truly,

M. L. Walters, President.
Dan O'Donnell, Vice-Pres.
Harry W. Burr, Sec'y-Treas.
