(Dido and Aeneas)

AIR: "Hark! How all things with one sound, Rejoice!" . . . . . H. Purcell
(The Fairy Queene)

II

ARIA: Come kindle, thou heavenly bright beacon . . . . . J. S. Bach
(How Bright and Fair the Morning Star)

Assisted by Miss Bruce

III

Four Scriptural Songs . . . . . J. Brahms
Vier ernste Gesänge

1. Denn es gehet dem menschen

The fate of man and beast is the same; all go to one place; all are from the dust and to dust they return. Who knows whether a man's spirit goes upward and the spirit of the beast down to the earth? A man should enjoy his work, for that is his lot; who knows what will be after him?

2. Ich wandte mich und sahe an

Again I saw the oppressed and they had no one to comfort them! And I thought the dead more fortunate than the living; but better than both is he who has not yet been, and has not seen the evil deeds that are done under the sun.

3. O Tod, wie bitter bist du

O death, how bitter is the remembrance of thee to a man that hath peace in his possessions! To a man that is at rest, and whose ways are prosperous in all things.

4. Wenn ich mit Menschen und mit Engelszungen

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. If I gain all and have not love, I gain nothing. Faith, hope, love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

IV

FOUR FOLK SONGS ..... M. Ravel

French Song

Come with my sheep to the pastures. We'll spend a happy hour! We shall be gay!

Spanish Song

Farewell, my beloved, farewell!

It is time for marching—

While you are at war, remember your poor wife at home,

Your poor wife who is crying.

La-la, la, la, la, . . .

Italian Song

From my window I can hear the ocean,

The ocean tells of deep sorrow and emotion,

I call my love in vain but there is no answer!

Hebrew Song

Mejerke, my son,

Do you know where you are?

You are standing before the king of kings,

Tatunyu!

V

ARIA: Caro nome che il mio cor ..... G. Verdi
(Rigoletto)

I know his name: Walter Malde!
I love and cherish him in my every thought.
His name will ever be in my heart,
I live for him alone.
My every thought is of him!

VI

Indian Love Song ..... F. Delius
He's Goin' Away ..... American Folksong
Kanga, the Kangaroo ..... M. Kalmanoff
I Hear an Army ..... S. Barber
(Poem by James Joyce)
