NUMBER 23

Montgomery Is Student Council Head Next Year

Junior Class President Elected Over Field of Six Boys by Big Majority

Follows Lewis Kidder

Other Officers Will Be Selected Later, Says Miss Effie Farnar, Sponsor

Mary Alice Montgomery, junior, will be at the helm of the Student Council next year. She was elected by the vote of the student body Tuesday with a big majority over six boys. She succeeds Lewis Kidder and is the second girl to ever hold this office in the high school, the other being Edna Blackett in 1932.

Mary Montgomery came to the high school from Lakeside. She has taken part in many of the activities of the school, including junior class president, the junior play of this year, debate, member of the Girl Reserves, and Student Council member all this year.

Seven Are Nominated
The nominees may either offer themselves for the office or may be selected by the faculty. If they offer themselves they must be considered by the faculty, but on the other hand, if the faculty chooses the student it is necessary to get that student's consent.

This year seven were selected to run for office, six boys and one girl, the results are as follows:

Mary Montgomery, 215; Harold Nelson, 94; Jack Overman, 85; Charles Duncan, 66; Frank Jamison, 62; Kenneth Farnsworth, 57, and Richard Stone, 33.

A complete new list is being made up for the vice president, secretary, and treasurer. These must be approved before they can be voted upon. Those who ran for president are eligible to run for the other offices, said Miss Effie Farnar, Student Council sponsor.

Other Presidents.
She continued that the election for these offices will probably take place Tuesday. The person receiving the highest number of votes will be vice president, the person receiving the next highest, secretary, and so on. Those students who have been Council president in the last nine years are as follows:

1927—Albert Opie.
1928—Frank Schallo.
1929—Van Wilson.
1930—Charles Osborn.
1931—Raymond Karns.
1932—Edna Blackett.
1933—Joe Cumiskey.
1934—Jack Graham.
1935—Lewis Kidder.

CHAPEL PROGRAM TODAY FEATURES CONTESTANTS

Contestants were featured on the assembly program this morning, during activity period. Vincent Jackson, who will enter the Emporia music contest in the snare drum section, played a snare drum solo.

Bill Parks, who will enter the contest at the College here, played an oboe solo, and Jack Knost, who will also enter the contest here, sang a baritone solo.

Muriel Catherine Richards was in charge of the assembly and devotions were read by Cora Montgomery, junior.

Thursday the ninth in the series of films, "Chronicles of American History," "Yorktown," was shown.

PREPARE TO LIST NAMES WRITTEN ON STAGE SETS

In a special meeting of the Student Council and the proctors called by Miss Effie Farnar, sponsor, Tuesday, plans were made for listing the names that were on the stage scenery.

Guido Gallinetti, senior, was elected captain, and he chose several sub-captains to work with him.

This work was completed last Wednesday.

Three Are Re-elected

All Board of Education Members Regain Places in City Election

Mr. A. E. Batten, Mr. J. A. Buchanan, and Mr. A. R. Sedoris were re-elected by a large majority to the Board of Education in the general election, Tuesday according to unofficial returns.

Mr. Batten is vice president of the Board also serving on the buildings and grounds, finance and purchasing committees. Mr. Buchanan is president of the Board. Mr. Sedoris is also a member of the finance and purchasing committees.

This will be the second term for all three members.

School Scholar List For College Event Complete

Total of 34 Students Will Enter 19 Subjects on April 13

Entries in Tomorrow

Entry List Be Submitted To Prof. Edgar Mendenhall, Director, by Saturday

The high school's complete entry list for the College's eleventh annual interstate high school scholarship contest to held April 13 was announced this week. All entries must be submitted to Prof. Edgar A. Mendenhall, chairman of the contest, by tomorrow.

The 34 students and the nineteen subjects they are entering are as follows:

American history—Michael Riedy and Marcel Delmez, juniors.
Latin—Helen Ruth McJinnis, senior, and Clarice Austin, junior.
Chemistry—Dean Dalton, senior.
Biology—Virginia Tindell and Dean Kirk, seniors.
Spanish—Thurston Graham, senior, and William Sill, junior.
Advanced algebra—Dan Ponto, senior, and Faye Smisor, junior.
Plane geometry—Paul Byers, and Rollie Emmitt, sophomores.
American history—Michael Riedy ple.

Woodwork—Bob Linsey, junior, and Clifford Barr, senior.
Mechanical drawing—Wilfred Ensmann and Paul Rhodes, seniors.
Hygiene—Kathleen McCool and Pauline Ringle, sophomores.
Home economics—Lillian Phillips, junior; Marjorie Wise, sophomores, and Erma Citron, senior.

Typing, second year—Georgia Eva Gilbert and Alver Laughlin, seniors.
Shorthand—Howard Siple and Georgia Eva Gilbert, seniors.
Art—Sammie Lee Caskey, junior.
French—Thurston Graham, senior, and Marcel Delmez, junior.
Physics—Dean Dalton, senior.
English—Jeanne Malcolm and Nevada Miller, juniors.
Extemporaneous Speaking—Harold Nelson, junior.

Nelson Wins "Extemp" Contest Here Tuesday

Junior Boy Is Victor Over Fifteen Others in Trials Conducted by Mr. William H. Row

Harold Nelson, junior, won the extemporaneous speaking preliminary held in the high school Tuesday to determine the College contest entrant. The topic given to the sixteen contestants was "Roosevelt at Mid-term."

The entries were to develop this subject from any angle they chose. Nelson chose for his subject.

Mr. William Row, speech instructor, gave each a number and a private place to study the question for one hour. They were not to refer to any books or other sources of material.

"You are all on your honor in this contest," said Mr. Row.

The sixteen entries were: Mayfield Rose, Roscoe Jones, Bill McWilliams, Harold Brunk, Frank Jameson, Jim McClellan, Ivan Adams, Wayne Jones, Joe Parks, Warren Loy, Jack Henderson, John Kirkwood, Ray Rector, Lewis Kidder, Bob Nevin, and Harold Nelson.

School Has Booth At Food Show Now

Five Departments Are Represented By Displays at Mosque; Band Plays Also

The foods, clothing, art, mechanical arts and printing departments are represented in the high school booth at the pure food and industrial show which is being held Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. The school band paraded Wednesday night before playing for the food show. Alene Michie and Nell Crowell danced.

The high school booth is situated in the northeast corner of the center section. It is 15 by 16 feet. Teachers decorated the booth. A card with large purple old English letters was placed above the booth. Mr. Gilbert Butts is chairman of the committee in charge of the school's display.

The food department, supervised by Miss Calla Leeka, displayed canned foods.

The clothing department, supervised by Miss Esther Gable, displayed dresses made by the girls.

The art division, taught by Miss Florence White, displayed samples of all work done in her classes.

From the mechanical arts department Mr. Butts put on display some of the woodwork projects and also mechanical drawings.

The printing department, supervised by Mr. John E. White, prepared a display showing the different kinds of printing done. Some of the projects of the printing department are The Booster, the Roosevelt Echo, Student Council handbook, play programs and calling cards.

The band paraded at 7 o'clock Wednesday night. It marched down Broadway from Eighth street to the Frisco tracks and then back to the Mosque.

Music Concert For April 17-18

About 400 Will Participate in Annual Event Here Carney Announces

The annual concert by the music departments of the senior and junior high schools in preparation for the tri-state music contest at the College will be given at 8 o'clock on April 17 and 18 in the high school auditorium.

About 400 people will participate in the concert, according to Mr. Gerald M. Carney, director of music in the high school and director of the junior high orchestra and band.

The admission fee has not been decided definitely, but it will be small because it will be necessary to raise only money enough for the entrance fee to the contest at the College. Enough was made on the preliminary contest to pay for the judges.

Those to appear on the program Wednesday night are the soprano and contralto soloists, Elizabeth Watson and Rosamond Hutto; the violin and piano soloists, Eugenia Ann Crane and Ella Hurst; the girls' quartet, composed of Elizabeth Watson Rosamond Hutto, Margaret Myers, and Gertrude Sellmansberger, the girls' glee club, the Lakeside mixed chorus, the Roosevelt mixed chorus, and both the junior and senior high school orchestras.

On Thursday night those appearing on the program are the oboe, trumpet, and trombone soloist, Billy Parks, Edward Hood, and Sam Von Shirlitz, the boys' quartet, composed of Roll Davis, Bob Eyestone, Jack Knost, and Leslie Jones, the boys' glee club, the high school mixed chorus, and junior and senior high school bands.

BILL WILL SMILE GLADLY FOR YOU NOW

Smile, Bill smile!
Well folks, Bill Morgan, senior 3-sport athlete, now proudly displays two gleaming new molars where a vast cavity used to be.

As you probably know Bill's front two teeth were knocked out in the basketball game with the College freshman on March 11. Since then Bill has been plagued by the students, mostly the fairer sex, requesting him to smile for them.

Now when requested to smile, Bill smiles gladly.

Chubb Will Be Special Guest Here Monday

Baker University Professor Comes Especially For Hi-Y and G. R. Clubs

His Second Visit

Reception and Programs Beginning Monday Will Replace Joint Banquet For Groups

Dr. James S. Chubb of Baker University, Baldwin, Kas., will be a special guest of the Girl Reserve and Hi-Y clubs April 8, 9, and 10. Dr. Chubb spoke at a special assembly Jan. 14 at the high school during an earlier visit to the school.

A reception will be held at 8 o'clock Monday night for the Girl Reserves and Hi-Y members and their parents. The cabinet members and the sponsors will form a receiving line in the gymnasium and after the reception everyone will go to the auditorium to hear Dr. Chubb speak.

Special Assembly
Dr. Chubb will speak at special assemblies for the entire student body Monday and Wednesday at activity period. Tuesday at activity period he will talk to the Hi-Y and Girl Reserve groups in a joint meeting.

The Girl Reserve and Hi-Y cabinets will meet with Dr. Chubb Tuesday before 7:30 o'clock for an informal dinner. The students are invited to the high school at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night for a general discussion, according to Mr. Clyde Hartford. Dr. Chubb will speak to the College Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Tuesday at 10:10 o'clock.

At 6:45 o'clock Wednesday night he will speak to the boys vocational club at the Y. M. C. A. The rest of his time will be spent in interviews and conferences and talking to the vocational classes.

Clubs Are Fortunate

It is the opinion of the Girl Reserve and Hi-Y sponsors that the high school is fortunate in having Dr. Chubb, pastor of the Methodist church at Baldwin and a teacher and youth leader at Baker university, as special guest for three days.

This will take the place of the joint banquet which the Girl Reserve and Hi-Y clubs were planning to have this year.

The admission to the reception Monday night will be five cents. Tickets were sold in Girl Reserve and Hi-Y meeting Wednesday and the tickets are now available from the sponsors.

Contestants Chosen For Typing Contest

Eleven Schools to Compete in Sectional Meet Tomorrow; Costello in Charge

Ten pupils were chosen to compete in the state sectional typewriting contest to be held here tomorrow at 10 o'clock, according to Miss Anna D. Costello, manager of the contest, and Miss Ferda Hutton, typing and book-keeping instructor.

The five who will compete in the amateur group are Georgia Eva Gilbert, Alver Laughlin, Ruth Price, Howard Siple, and Freda Daggett. The five in the novice group are Paul Rhodes, Theresa Sanders, June Armstrong, Marjorie Fry and Winona Wilson.

Cherokee, Riverton, Columbus, Girard, Arma, College high, Scammon, Weir, Galena and Baxter Springs are the schools that will enter in this district.

March Accident Report

The student accident report for the month of March was sent to the Kansas state board of health, Tuesday, according to Miss Mary Nelson, school secretary. Five students received minor injuries from accidents during the past month. They were Charles Shorter and Harriet Ellen Carter, juniors; Mona Helm, senior; Betty Coulter and Bill Ebert, sophomores.

Home Room Program

Virginia Hay, president, presided at the meeting of Miss Dorothy McPherson's home room Tuesday during the activity period. Mary Porter, senior, led in devotions. The program which was a general discussion on Germany, was based on the news in the "Pathfinder" magazine.

Into Wichita Contest

Booster Will Enter Five Issues To Compete For Cup

The Booster has received an invitation to enter a sectional high school newspaper contest sponsored by the University of Wichita and will accept, according to Mr. Ray Heady, journalism instructor. The issues will be mailed by May 7.

Five consecutive numbers of the paper, starting with March 1 and ending with March 29, will be sent to compete for an 18-inch trophy cup, said Mr. Heady.

The issues that will be sent represent the work done by the assistant editors and the editor.

The issues by assistant editors are the issue of March 8 with Robert Fleischaker as editor, March 15 with Robert Nevin as editor and March 22 with Lorene Gaines as editor. The other issues were edited by Helen Marchbanks.

In addition to the contest invitation staff has also received an invitation to send two copies of The Booster to be displayed in the journalism exhibit which will be in the Palace of Education of the California Pacific International Exposition, which will open May 29, 1935, in San Diego, Calif.

"The Mikado" Is Opera for 1936

Carney Selects Another Gilbert and Sullivan Production For Music Show

Mr. Gerald M. Carney has announced that another Gilbert & Sullivan opera, "The Mikado," will be produced here next year by the music department. This will be the third in three years by this writing team. The others were "H. M. S. Pinafore" and "The Pirates of Penzance."

Mr. Carney announced his choice for next year just after a production of "The Pirates of Penzance," which cleared a little more than $90, not counting the income from activity tickets, which is hard to estimate.

Will Begin Early

He stated that he hoped to have the scores and chorus books for "The Mikado" by the beginning of school next fall and would complete the casting by October. The choruses will also start their practices early in October.

When speaking of next year's selection, Mr. Carney said, "It is probably the best known of all the Gilbert & Sullivan operas—even better known than 'Pinafore.' It is the best of all their works and more people have seen it than any other of their operas."

"Every year almost every month, some company on the radio will give either all or selections from this opera."

"Many people in Pittsburg have been in 'The Mikado' at some time or other. You'd be surprised at the number. So it will create much interest outside the school."

The action takes place in Japan with all Japanese characters, and Mr. Carney is already beginning to look for costumes and scenery. There will be different settings for the two acts.

Music Is Effective

The characters and music is very amusing and effective, according to the director. Koko, the lord high executioner and really the lead of the show, has the high comic role. He does not necessarily have to be a tenor or baritone—but he does have to be a good comedian.

Some of the famous selections are "A Wandering Minstrel I" sung by Yum-Yum, Peep-Po and Pitti-Sing; "Let the Punishment Fit the Crime" sung by the Emperor of Japan; "The Flowers That Bloom in the Spring, Tra La" sung by Koko and "Tit Willow" sung by Koko.

At the same time that Mr. Carney selects the opera leads, he will choose the soloists to be featured in the "Holy City" to be given Christmas. The "Holy City" will consist of a chorus of 125 that will be accompanied by an orchestra of 40.

Nation Misses School

Mr. M. A. Nation, American government instructor, was absent several days this week because of the death of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Bertha Emmert.

Large Audience Views Faculty Merry Minstrel

Presentation Goes Over 'Big' With Both Young and Old Last Night

Row as Interlocuter

Last Part of Program Is Wedding Of Mr. Briggs and Miss Waltz; Farnar, Bride's Mother

If an epidemic of divorces breaks out between the men of the faculty and their wives in the near future, it will be largely because of Mobley's Merry Minstrel, which was presented by the faculty here last night and in which the male characters made quite a few rather uncompimentary remarks about their "better halves."

The minstrel, which went over in a "big way" with an unusually large crowd, opened with the chorus giving an execution of "Dixie." Next came the introduction of the end men—Shinola (Mr. Ellsworth Briggs), Rick Rack (Mr. Gilbert Butts), Eijah (Mr. Claude L. Huffman), Soup Bones (Mr. Clyde Hartford), Red Ball (Principal J. L. Hutchinson) and Slatz (Mr. Ray Heady).

Teachers Lose Dignity

At this time these wise, dignified "examples-to-follow" forgot their traditional dignity and became rollicking, care-free, happy-go-lucky Negroes with Mr. William H. Row as their witty and capable interlocuter. After a number of jokes (new and otherwise), Mr. John White, Mr. Huffman and the chorus sang "Dem Gold on Slippers."

Following this the chorus sang a popular song; and they, in turn, were followed by an octet composed of Mr. Huffman, Miss Maude Laney, Miss Effie Farnar, Miss Harriett Way, Miss Calla Leeka, Mr. John E. White, Mr. Butts and Mr. Briggs. The octet sang "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" (Some one in the audience remarked that he wished he could).

Way Gives Reading

Then Miss Way gave a reading in her own inimitable way and was followed by Mr. White, who danced a jig with a great deal of vim and vigor. Next Mrs. Briggs sang a solo, and the chorus finished the first part of the program with "Carolina Moon."

The second part of the program consisted of a playlet in which Miss Way portrayed the part of a deaf but coquettish old lady who thought that Mr. Butts, a tramp who had asked for food, was seeking to marry her.

The last part of the program was the wedding of Shinola (Mr. Briggs) to Liza Jane (Miss Madge Waltz). Miss Effie Farnar expertly played the part of Macaroni Melinda Succatash, the mother of the bride whose husband had left her. Mrs. Succatash was quite annoyed about this until her husband, Samuel Succatash (Mr. White), showed up with Melissa Meritorias Meredith (Miss Helen Lanyon), who was to sing at the wedding.

Accuses Samuel

Mrs. Succatash immediately accused Samuel of perjury; but it seemed that Sammy was in every way a good husband and that he had gone merely to get a singer for the wedding. (Anyhow it was a good alibi).

Meanwhile the guests had finished two numbers. "The Bell Doth Toll" and "Swing Low Sweet Chariot"; and Miss Maude Laney had lightly tripped a dance. At last the great Melissa Meritorias Meredith arose, made her bow and entered into her solo, warbling in a grandiose manner "as no one else could have done."

Wedding Begins

At last, with all preliminaries out of the way, the strains of "The Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" gently (?) floated through the air, and the ceremony began. Mr. Charles O. Jordan, the preacher, having exacted the customary promises of fidelity, "tied the knot." The chorus then finished with "Goodbye, Peoples."

Mr. Gilbert Butts is especially to be complimented. A few days before the play was given he stepped in and took the place of Mr. M. A. Nation, who was unable to be here last night.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.—St. Matthew, 23:24.

The more gross the fraud, the more glibly will it go down and the more greedily will it be swallowed, since folly will always find faith where ever imposters will find impudence.—Bovee.

"SPRING, BEAUTIFUL SPRING"

Spring is here and jonquils nod their heads in April winds while robins and other birds are migrating North again.

Grass is becoming greener and thicker. Fruit trees are bursting with leaves and blooms.

Both children and adults have spring fever. Fishing lures the men and boys to favorite haunts and spring shopping attracts the women and girls.

Birds are mating and building nests. Everybody is happy and glad and feels that the world is a good place to live.

Why?

Because spring is here!—G. B.

Bill Morgan was the only Dragon basketball player mentioned for All-State honors in the tournament at Topeka. This comes as a fitting climax to the athletic career of one high school player who has really kept training.

MOVING PICTURES

"Hurrah for moving pictures!" "That picture has explained better in half a period what would have taken me two days, and then you would not have understood it as well," was the comment made by Mr. Charles O. Jordan, chemistry and physics teacher, after a moving picture on the Frasch process of producing sulphur had been shown.

These motion pictures are being shown to various classes. It is a good way to teach.

The average pupil will remember much longer what he sees and hears than what he just hears. The elusive atoms, that no scientist has ever seen, can be more explained by moving drawings upon a screen than by describing them verbally.

What student will not remember the tiny elves chiseling out the sulphur giant, who measured out the proportion of material used for the different purposes? What student will not remember how bakelite was molded? So "hurrah for moving pictures!"—D. J. W.

Spring, is here and so is "spring fever." Don't let it "get you down."

TRY TO SLOW DOWN

All over the world American people are known for their hurrying. Of course we would not want it said that this school is not an American school, but the attitude here is not merely to hurry to get to the next class but also see how many people one can knock down on the way.

The general impression this school gives is this, "Get out of my way because here I come." This is most noticeable about the stairways. Everyone wants to go in the same direction at the same time. They don't seem to care how many people they knock down or how many books they ruin.

It would really be serious if some student was knocked down in the rush some day because they certainly would be walked all over by the mob.

That is really one sort of mob feeling, this rushing to get some place. Our school has been said to be one of the most noisy; and if the student body is not careful, it is also going to give the school the reputation of the most reckless and rudest.—D. F.

The latest indoor sport seems to be telling "whoppers" about the dust storms.

DON'T GIVE UP

With the passing of the preliminary music contest comes all the worry and working that goes along hand in hand with preparation for the tri-state contest, to be held at the College April 24, 25 and 26.

But why have a preliminary contest? Of the many students entering these preliminary contest only a few were judged the winners and chosen to represent the school in the coming tri-state contest. But what of those who were unfortunate enough to lose, how do they profit?

The winners will continue on and many of them place, winning high honors for the school, but the others are soon forgotten and receive none of the glory.

They are not however without reconciliation for they gain experience and confidence.

Although they do not actually win in the real sense of the word, they do win in many ways.—E. C.

Mr. A. T. McCue certainly had the right idea when he said that boys like to show off.

DO YOUR PART

At the beginning of the school year the girls' rest rooms were repaired. Today should a stranger go into the rooms she would not think well of them. The reason for this is that on the walls are streaks of lip rouge, paper towels on the floor, writing and pictures that have been drawn on the walls. The sinks are dirty, and there are no mirrors or soap.

Mirrors have been put in the rest rooms, but they were broken and smeared with lip-stick before very long; so no more mirrors were put in the rest rooms.

Students "howl" at the thought of not having mirrors and soap in the rest rooms, but they have themselves to blame.

The school has a standard to uphold and the students should do their part to help.—G. B.

Alimony is a system by which, when two people make a mistake, one of them continues to pay for it.

SOUR GRAPES

"Sour grapes," that bitter nauseating twang of total disgust, is the first appeal to human nature that a person's mind sends out when contact is made with self-inflated persons. A certain few persons like to be "just it." They think they are the only ones that amount to anything. They are just so much above every other individual that they can hardly stand being in the same group.

Why or how any few persons of some 130 million in the United States can "puff themselves up" until they see the rest of world as they do is beyond the imagination of any level-headed, thinking person. If they could only see themselves as others do, they might "come down to earth." If the school could in some way accomplish this, it would be by far a greater success.

"Sour grapes" must and will banish with the ripening of the mind.—L. W.

There is one thing that will grow in any kind of soil and in any climate and that is idle rumor.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

—from the Central Luminary, Kansas City, Mo.

Dr. Slash N. Cuttem, of Jabbermania fame, continued his lecture course yesterday with an address on that deadly disease, now threatening the English language, the disease of slurred and slang words. For example, Mother has just called John Student for the fifth time when the latter finally drones out a protest something like this:

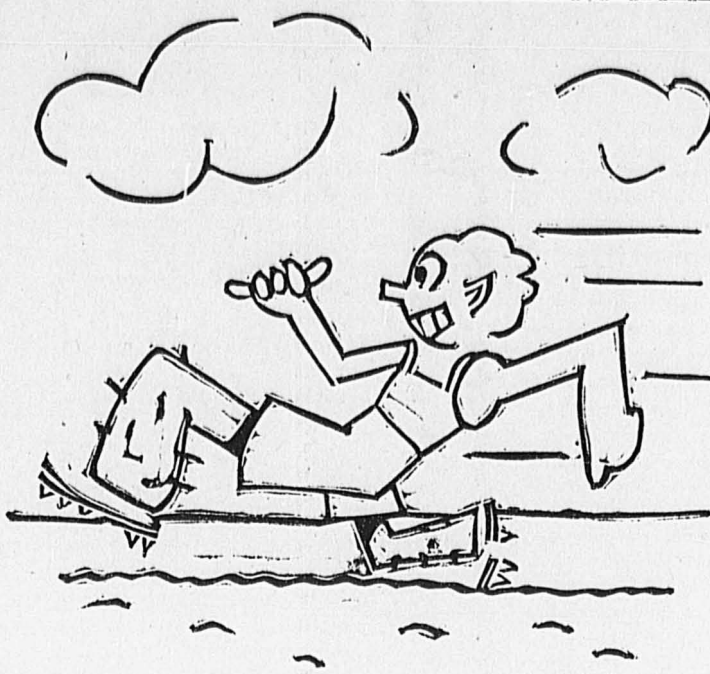

"Aw golly, lemme sleep jus'a lil more, won'tcha ma?"

There are several causes for slurred words, the main cause being pure laziness. Then there is the person who always talks too rapidly, the "gotta catch a train" type, and who tumbles his words out in an incoherent stream. Still another type is the person aspiring to be a radio star and who is constantly heard shouting such phrases as "Geev eet to heem" or "Wanna buy a duck?"

First symptoms of this disease may be noticed with the dropping of g's from such words as "going". Next the t's and v's are carelessly forgotten. Then with abandon, the student merely mixes all his words together with a generous sprinkling of slang and the puzzle called speech, is complete.

"And now that I have diagnosed the case and revealed the danger," concluded Dr. Cuttem, "the question I wish to leave with every student is: 'Wotchagonnadoaboutit?'"

He's Off! Hurrah

—By Dorothy Jane Wilson

He's off! No, he's not! Yes, he is! He's ahead! No, he's behind!

Really, folks this is really too, too, divinely exciting. The regular sports reporter isn't here today, so I'm taking his place.

The boys are dressed in shorts. There are various colors, with purple and white, predominating. Oh, yes, back to the race!

He's ahead! Oh, dear, there is the sweetest hat over there; turned just so and with a little green feather. Well, he's back. No he's gaining—gaining—he won! Well folks, the wind's musing my hair, and the dust is terrible so I guess the feminine sport writer will be going.

What the Seniors Plan to Do

Ella Hurst, glee club accompanist, is planning to enter the tri-state music contest at the College next month; and if she wins, she intends to enter K. S. T. C. and finish a musical course. Her one ambition is to be staff accompanist of some large broadcasting station. This summer she will visit in either Detroit, Mich., or Redlands, Calif.

Eileen Stephenson, senior queen, is going to K. S. T. C. for two years after she graduates. She has not decided what course she will take.

Katherine Bell, member of Miss Frances E. Palmer's home room, will go to K. S. T. C. for one year and then enter in training at St. Luke's hospital in Kansas City. This summer she will visit in Texas.

Lewis Kidder, Student Council president, will attend K. S. T. C. for two years. Then if possible he would like to go to the Kansas State college at Manhattan to take a course in agriculture.

Wanda Story, member of Miss Effie Farnes' home room, is going to spend the summer in Mexico. She intends to go to K. S. T. C. for about two years to take a course in economics.

Bill Murphy, member of Mr. Charles O. Jordan's home room, plans to work at a drug store, this summer and he will probably attend K. S. T. C. next fall. His course will be business administration.

Melvin Joseph, senior, plans to enter K. S. T. C. next fall. He has not decided on the course he will take.

Dorothy June Eyman, member of Mr. M. A. Nation's home room, will make a circuit of the horse shows this summer. Next year she will go to some college to take a course in art.

Henry Flack, member of Miss Dorothy McPherson's home room, will go to Idaho this summer to visit some of his relatives but will return in the fall to work. He will either work driving a truck or drilling.

Robert Waugh, member of Mr. Gilbert Butt's home room, will work in the harvest fields this summer. He will attend K. S. T. C. next year.

Henry Bitner, member of Miss Dorothy McPherson's home room, is going to work for his uncle this summer. He plans to travel with a couple of friends then return in the fall to enter K. S. T. C. to take a course in electrical engineering.

Joe Parks, member of Miss Dorothy McPherson's home room, is going to take a trip to Catalina Islands, Mexico, and South America this summer. He will then get a job on the west coast.

Cleo Gilmore, member of Miss Madge Waltz's home room, is planning to spend the summer in Wichita. This fall she will enter K. S. T. C.

Leon Zinn, senior, plans to go to Kansas university next year to study medicine. He plans to tour the United States this summer.

THE DRAGON WHISPERS

(By Ruth Logan)

One of the most successful April Fool stunts was pulled on Mrs. Dora Peterson by Miss Anna D. Costello.

By a clever ruse Mrs. Peterson was fooled into calling telephone number, 179, and was completely in the dark until she heard, "This is the police station."

Bill McWilliams had his Irish temper "riled" one day this week by a bit of gossip, which he insists is absolutely false. Bill is a "right honorable guy," so probably he is telling the truth.

Anyway that's his story, and he is sticking to it.

There are various guesses as to the reason for Wayne Jones' lip being so badly swollen that he found it necessary to hold it up.

He blushes more when you suggest that it might be blamed on a girl, so perhaps the person who guessed that hit the nail on the head.

A cute little story is told on two senior girls, Marjorie Fry and Dorothy Brous.

It seems that they had an agreement that Marjorie would call Dot on the 'phone and awaken her in time for a 5 o'clock field hike.

Came the Dawn.
Came the phone call.
Dot got up in time but Marjorie fell asleep after she called and was almost late for the hike.

Juanita James and Martha Mae Gracie, two semi-dignified (they won't be dignified until next year) juniors, were reported as having been rushing the season a trifle.

They shed shoes and hose and went wading in the lake.

Jane Chapman had her palm read: The young man who performed the rites came to the conclusion after a deep and careful study that Jane is a flirt.

Another piece of news to prove that the senior boys are "robbing the cradle" as the senior girls so cattily put it, is that Bobbie Fleischaker gave a large box of chocolates to a sweet young sophomore, Virginia Cooper.

One of the newest and biggest April Fool stunts was a farewell party for Dorothy Brous which turned out to be an April Fool's party.

PUPIL PORTRAITS

Junior Boy

This boy is a commercial student and a member and secretary-treasurer of Miss Harriett Way's home room. He is six feet tall, has blue eyes, and dark curly hair.

He has no special hobby, but likes to have a good time.

His ambition at present is to roller skate and not fall down, but he plans to be an electrical engineer some day.

Bob Welch has many friends but he always has room for more. Look him up sometime and you'll find that he has an attractive smile.

Junior Girl

Her nickname is "Dutch," and she has brown hair, grey eyes and is about five feet two inches tall.

Keeping scrapbooks is her hobby, and to be either a journalist or a beauty operator is her ambition.

She is an active member in the Girl Reserve club. At Roosevelt, where she attended school before coming to senior high, she was secretary of the club in the ninth grade. This year she is a member of Miss Dorothy McPherson's group and is in Miss Harriett Way's home room.

If you happen to see Wilma Kennedy, just say "hello Dutch" and you are sure to receive an energetic "hi" with a smile.

CRACKS . . .

FROM THE CLASSES

Eunice McElroy—Say something crazy and you'll get your name in The Booster.

Ella Hurst—My gosh, Judy, I dreamed about Buford Briggs last night, and I haven't ever seen the boy.

Betty Smith—(while driving through the country)—Oh, see the cow washing the little cow.

Jane Lane—Put a single comma before and after the quotation.

Miss Jessie M. Bailey—Mr. Carney wants to meet the cast of the opera at 1:20.

Louis LeChien—I've already met him.

Mr. Charles O. Jordan—Is there anyone absent; if so, raise your hand.

Margaret Osredker—Have you got some good paper that's no good?

Mr. William H. Row—Turn to page 52 and close your books.

Jack Friggeri—In order to prevent war why don't they take the battleships and make C W A shovels?

Mr. Row—You're all right. Michael Reidy—(with a bow)—Thank you.

Mary Montgomery—I move we have a sergeant-of-arms.
Mr. Row—I'll be sergeant-of-arms.
Alden Carder—I move that the sergeant-of-arms put up a window.

Jesse Collins—I was going to sell gum in speech, but I forgot to bring it so I'll have to sell my pants.

Gordon Hammick—Do you know what a buzz saw is?

Shirley Jean Smith—Yes, someone asleep.

John Miller—He is supposed to do something about something about something.

Betty Smith (in speech class)—I was going to sell bugs, but I couldn't find any.

Vincent Jackson—Why didn't you look in your bed?

Mrs. Dora Peterson—I had a headache so bad last night I didn't have anything left in my stomach.

BOOKS WE LIKE

"Anne of the Island"

by L. M. Montgomery

This book continues the adventures of Anne of Green Gables. As you will probably recall the other two books told of her life as a child and a young girl. In "Anne of the Island" her college life is related with all of its comedy and pathos.

Anne goes to Redmont to college and during the first year stays at an old rooming house. Right after the second year begins she—with three other girls, Priscilla Grant, Philippa Girdan, and Stella Maynard, leases a house which is named Patty's Place.

The romance of the book is very well supplied by Gilbert Blythe and a rich young man whom Anne thinks is her Prince Charming. Philippa Gordan better known as Phil "keeps things popping" with her indecision as to which of two millionaires she will marry, but winds up marrying a struggling minister.

Although the "Anne books" are written for girls, boys will find them very interesting reading. They are worth three points.

DAME FASHION SAYS

The Dame Fashion of today demands that the well-educated high school student know good manners in dress. The following questions were taken from the Kansas Teacher prepared by Principal H. H. Robinson, Augusta High School, Augusta, Kas. Test yourself on them.

Manners In Dress

1. A girl wears her party dresses to school.
2. A girl combs her hair and powders her nose in the classroom and other public places.
3. A person manicures his nails in public places.
4. A girl should frequently apologize for her clothes and explain why she did not dress differently.
5. It is good taste to wear extreme styles which attract attention.
6. One who is wealthy is expected to dress more elaborately than his associates who have less money.
7. Men are expected to wear coats at all dinner occasions.
8. Boys do not appear to a good advantage when they have their hands in their pockets.
9. Shoes are an inconspicuous part of one's clothing and will go unnoticed if one is otherwise well dressed.
10. Girls are expected to wear fashionable shoes to work and to school even though the styles are extreme.

Miscellaneous Manners

1. One listens to conversation not intended for him.
2. If one has an attack of coughing which he cannot control, he leaves the room as quietly as possible.
3. If one has an attack of coughing or sneezing in public, a handkerchief should be held over the nose and mouth.
4. If one loses in a game, he explains to everyone the reasons why he lost.
5. It is poor taste to chew gum in public.

Poet's Corner

FOUR QUATRAINS

Oh me! Oh my! I sit and sigh,
Of fishing days, of summer time,
Of all the fish I could but buy,
I'd rather sit and hold the line.

—Kenneth Bier, sophomore

I know that I can never find
A man that's half so mean as he,
He thinks that I should have a mind
To use in making poetry.

—Howard Marchbanks, sophomore

The stars are shining bright above
The lights, my dear, are soft and low;
Now, I shall ask a question, love,
And you just cannot answer "no."

—Billie Ann Hutto, sophomore

The white narcissus is in bloom
From velvet banks the gentian seen,
Awakes from cool, black earthen tomb,
To hear the call of nature's queen.

Margaret Myers New President For G. R.

Pauline Butler Is Vice President; Election Held Wednesday In General Meeting

Margaret Myers, junior, was elected president of the Girl Reserves for the coming year in a general meeting at activity period Wednesday.

The vice president elected was Pauline Butler, junior. The president for this year is Gertrude Sellmansberger and the vice president is Margaret Douglas. Both are seniors.

Juanita Armstrong, junior, was elected publicity chairman. Mildred Collins, senior, now holds that position. The devotional chairman for next year is Esther Daniels, sophomore. The office is now held by Greta Gilliland, senior.

Frankie Collins, junior, was elected social chairman. Eileen Stephenson, senior, is now holding that position. The program chairman elected was Cora Montgomery, junior. Mabel Farrell is now program chairman.

The service chairman for next year is Jane Baxter, sophomore. This office is now occupied by Mary Montgomery, president of the junior class. For secretary, Catherine McNeil, junior, was elected. Muriel Catherine Richards, junior, is secretary this year. Alene Michie, sophomore, was elected treasurer. Margaret Myers, the newly-elected president, is now treasurer.

The votes for the first four were taken by standing while the other five were taken by ballot because of lack of time.

Margaret Marty, senior, had devotions. Ella Hurst, senior, played a piano solo.

A chilli supper for the old and new cabinet officers of the Girl Reserves and Hi-Y clubs will be held in the cafeteria at 6:30 Tuesday night.

SENIOR PLANS

Dorothy Spicer, member of Miss Frances Palmer's home room, will spend most of the summer vacation visiting in Arkansas and Oklahoma. After returning Dorothy plans to keep house.

Helene Hughes, member of Miss Frances Palmer's home room, has not definitely planned her vacation. The majority of her hours will be spent in swimming. She also plans to visit relatives in Lawrence and Kansas City. Helene intends to someday be a language teacher. She will attend either K. S. T. C. or the Emporia college.

Mazura Van Riet, member of Miss Frances Palmer's home room, plans to be married this summer. She will spend part of this summer in California where she will visit friends and relatives.

Margaret Osredker, commercial student, plans to visit relatives in Illinois and Kansas City during the first part of the summer. She will then enter business college, but has not decided whether to take the course here or in Kansas City. Margaret has been promised a stenographic or bookkeeper's position in Kansas City after finishing her course in business training.

John Friggeri, member of Mr. Gilbert Butt's home room, expects to spend his summer vacation fishing and at the fire station. Next fall he will go to Wichita where he will attend a school to study Diesel engines.

James Miller, member of Mr. Gilbert Butt's home room, expects to spend his summer vacation in Fort Scott and Des Moines. He will enter a two-year pre-law course at the College next fall, then will go to K. U. where he will study law for five years.

Jim McClellan, member of Mr. Gilbert Butt's home room intends either to get a job or "see the country" after graduation. He wants to enter K. S. T. C. next fall and major in social sciences. If possible, Jim hopes to be a school teacher.

Laurence Spangler, member of Mr. Charles O. Jordan's home room, will work in Pittsburg for several months after graduation. He also plans to take a trip to Texas. Laurence will go to Chicago sometime during the coming year where he will study radio engineering under the direction of his uncle.

JORDON TO USE NEW TEXT FOR NEXT YEAR

A new edition of the chemistry book "High School Chemistry" will be used next year, according to Mr. Charles O. Jordan, chemistry instructor. Instead of a brown covering it will have a green binding.

Plans are not made yet for a work book, but they will be before the school year ends. The author will have made corrections, and it will be in a form easier to read.

Did You Know?

That Mary Montgomery is the second girl ever elected to the office of Student Council president. Edna Blackett was president in the term 1931 and 1932.

That the brother of Marshall Chambers, junior, who is a pole vaulter on the track team, holds the record for pole vaulting for the high school. Riley Chambers pole vaulted 11 feet 6 inches.

That Leo Howard, senior, won the extemporaneous speaking contest at the College last year.

That Donald Morgan, junior, pole vaulted 10 feet 9 inches which is the record for the year.

New Books for Library

A number of new books have been added to the library. They are "A Lantern in His Hand" by Bess Streeter Aldrich, fiction "Seven Iron Men" by Paul de Kruif, a non-fiction book, which may be used as history or biography, and several books for the teacher's use. Miss Frances E. Palmer has taken in a new group of sophomores sixth hour from Miss Sara Stephen's reading group and released others to go to Miss Stephens for the sophomore reading class.

Speaks to Home Room

Fritz Talks on "Why Go to College?" To Group of 30 Boys

"Why Go to College?" was the topic of an address by Doctor R. A. Fritz of the department of education of the College given March 26 to a group of boys in the home room of Mr. M. A. Nation, social science instructor.

"What would you be doing if you were not in school?" Dr. Fritz asked. "Would you be thumbing your way across the country, or would you be earning $400 dollars a month? You would no doubt find it rather hard to tie up with a job that would bring so much."

"If you are going to college to dodge work you will find it as hard as any job you could get. Perhaps you would not have to wear overalls, but you work as hard as you do on any job."

"I'm not sure every one should go to college," Dr. Fritz continued. "Some people would just be wasting their time. I have with me a little verse that I thought might interest you."

Oh, the happy moron
He doesn't give a wham
I wish I were a moron
Perhaps, by gosh, I am."

Dr. Fritz concluded his speech by lightly touching each part of the curricula offered by the college and by answering several questions the boys wanted answered.

Grads Represent College

Milton Zacharias, '32, and Clifton Kuplin, '33, are two of the eight speakers who are representing the College at the state forensic contest at Winfield yesterday, today and tomorrow. Zacharias and another speaker, Clay De Ford, are defending their title as state college debate champions of last year.

SENIORS SELECT FLOWER, MOTTO AND COLORS FRIDAY

The senior class selected blue and silver as its colors, the American beauty rose as its flower and "Launched but not Anchored" as its motto, according to Clifford Kelly, class president, following a vote taken at the first home-room period recently.

The seniors had a choice of six combinations of colors, five flowers and four mottoes from which to choose.

BITS OF NEWS

from The Booster exchange list

Some Sure Signs of Spring—

1. The calendar says so.
2. Green grass.
3. The annual mystery play is over.
4. Fewer people in the buildings, and more on the campus.
5. Boys and birds whistling.
6. Girls and birds singing.

"Messiah" Is Presented

Festival Orchestra Gives Concert in Fredonia, March 31

The festival orchestra and chorus played a concert March 31 at Fredonia. The oratorio, Handel's "Messiah" was presented. Walter McCray states that this was the first time an oratorio of this type had ever been given by this organization out of town.

The soloists were Miss Marjory Jackson, of the College faculty; Mrs. Lavon Graham Holden, contralto, Pittsburg; Mr. Clyde Neibarger, tenor, Pittsburg, and Mr. Oliver Sovereign bass, Joplin, Mo. There were about 350 persons in the chorus and the festival orchestra of 80 pieces furnished the accompaniment.

Bob Nevin, Leland Schlapper, William Parks, Eugenia Ann Crane and Bob Fleischaker, seniors and Jack Cheyne, junior, went with the orchestra to Fredonia.

Poster to Be Exhibited

The printing department, under the direction of Mr. John E. White, is making a poster showing the work of the department during the year. This poster will be exhibited at the food show. In addition to this, the department is making a book for the speech classes, cards for the Hi-Y, and programs for the faculty minstrel.

Class Holds League

The fourth hour international relations classes under the instruction of Mr. Ellsworth Briggs have been holding a "League of Nations" recently. Several of the students represent two countries which is quite a job with war clouds hovering over Europe, Mr. Briggs added.

A poor appetite, poor digestion, and constipation will frequently be found at the bottom of most chronic illnesses.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Self help is always the most dependable kind, and it is always ready at hand.

Social Welfare Committee

This committee wishes to remind you to check the addresses of the students. If there are any changed please report it to us immediately.

Sanitation Committee

The sanitation committee reminds you:

The Student Council is sponsoring the campus cleanup. The cleanup started two weeks ago and each home room will have an opportunity to clean some part of the campus before the close of school. This cleanup can be done anytime the home room wishes to do it, before or after school or during the home room period.

Council Dedicates Tree

A tree, dedicated to Miss Clara Radell, was planted by the members of the Student Council, Friday, at activity period. The roll was called and was answered with a poem or prophecy. The sponsors, Mr. Claude I. Huffman, Miss Frances E. Palmer, Miss Effie Farmer and Miss Clara Radell, gave short speeches. The dedication speech was made by Lewis Kidder, president of the Student Council, and he broke a bottle over the stone in which was cut Miss Radell's name.
