Dear Mrs Jursage

Gre'd your letter, in fact, I rec'd Two letters, the first one I was in the hospital, and this one I am leaving this very morning for R. A. Calif. I will an-swer your last letter when I come home. Please forgive me for not writing sooner.

I have no one to do my mail for me.

Keep up the good work
you have always done.

I will answer all the things you asked of me. I also will try and fill them if I'm able.

Sincerely
Ernie Blake
