

Pittsburg State University

Pittsburg State University Digital Commons

---

William Aaron Brandenburg Documents

William Aaron Brandenburg Collection

---

2016-12-01

Booklet, "Season's Greetings and Best Wishes, 1930"

Kansas State Teachers College of Pittsburg, Kansas

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.pittstate.edu/brandenburg\_history

---

Recommended Citation

Kansas State Teachers College of Pittsburg, Kansas, "Booklet, "Season's Greetings and Best Wishes, 1930"" (2016). William Aaron Brandenburg Documents. 131.

https://digitalcommons.pittstate.edu/brandenburg\_history/131

This Manuscript is brought to you for free and open access by the William Aaron Brandenburg Collection at Pittsburg State University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in William Aaron Brandenburg Documents by an authorized administrator of Pittsburg State University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@pittstate.edu.

Season's Greetings
and Best Wishes

1930

COMPLIMENTS OF
KANSAS STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE
PITTSBURG, KANSAS

FOREWORD

Dear Friends of K. S. T. C.:

It is just another Christmas, yes Christmas with all of its joy, and its merry-making. Of all years, this is the one when it will be "more blessed to give than to receive;" so let each do his bit, however great or small, and make a little more of heaven here for us all.

W. A. BRANDENBURG,
President.

All the air is filled with gladness
Angels whisper low again
As they did to Bethlehem's shepherds
Peace on earth—good will to men.

LA VONNE ANDERSON,
General Office.

* * *

Dear Girls:

May the Christmas Spirit of peace,
good will to men come to you, and stay with
you. May friends await you and good cheer welcome you and happiness abide with you on Christmas Day and throughout the year.

HALLIE BENNINGTON
Commerce.

* * *

All knowledge is lost which ends in the knowing, for every truth we know is a candle given us to work by. Gain all the knowledge you can and then use it for the highest purpose.—John Ruskin.

ADELE MEHL BURNETT,
English.

* * *

Ever old yet ever new
Is the wish I bring to you
Merry Christmas.

ELSIE LEITCH BOWMAN,
Art.

* * *

As a thought for this season of Love and Good Cheer, is it not appropriate to quote from Ingelow as follows:

“Learn that to love is one way to know
Or God or man; it is not love received
That makest man to know the inner life
Of them that love him; his own love bestowed

Shall do it.”

WILLIE MELMOTH BOMAR
Home Economics.

Good cheer within, quick steps outside,
Gay knocks upon your door
A Merrier Cheerier Christmas-tide
Than you have ever known before.

CHARLOTTE BRAY,
Extension.

* * *

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

The best thing to give to your enemy is forgiveness; to an opponent, tolerance; to a friend, your heart; to your child, a good example; to a father, deference; to a mother, conduct that will make her proud of you; to yourself, respect; to all men, charity.—F. M. Balfour.

ROSE BUCHMANN
Music.

* * *

If I could only make a wish
And know it would come true;
Oh! It would not be for riches
This wish I'd make for you.
I'd have old Santa fill your sock
With Christmas joy and cheer,
Enough for Christmas day and then
Each one throughout the year.

THELMA J. CARNAGEY, Education.

* * *

Greetings and kindest wishes to every
K. S. T. C. girl. May the Christmas spirit of "Peace on earth, good will to men" live with us continually during the coming year.

May we strive to be more loyal to one another more thoughtful and kind. More ready to see the good in all about us.

"Tis not the grand and mighty deeds achieved
That make life sweet,
But just the little acts of love
To those we meet in life's great mart,
That leave the imprint in our heart."

Lovingly,
JANE M. CARROLL,
Education.

The Seasons Greetings:
So many hills to climb
So many roads to go
Yet Christmas wishes find
The folks we love and know.

ADELINE CARDER
Extension.

* * *

"This is the time we all resolve,
New rules to keep, bad ones dissolve."

DAPHNE V. CROSS,
Education.

* * *

I give you my holiday wishes. A Christmas gay, joyful, merry; may your spirit be in harmony with the season and the day!
May the New Year challenge you,—to noble endeavor, to sincere friendliness, to mental alertness, to spiritual sensitiveness and to Keeness in living!

ELIZABETH COCHRAN,
History.

* * *

May the Christmas season bring you joys and pleasures that multiply many times throughout the year.

Sincerely,
HAZEL CAVE,
Physical Education.

* * *

At this glad Yule tide let us be truly thankful for the many blessings God has bestowed upon us. Let us endeavor to pass some of these on to those less fortunate, and especially let us resolve to become more worthy of our opportunities and to fulfill the trust our beloved ones have in us.

M. COVENTRY
Chemistry.

It is good to be children sometimes, and never better than at Christmas when its mighty Founder was a child Himself.—Dickens.

ALMA CASSIN,
General Office.

* * *

When sky and hopes are hard to find,
And slippery paths that lift and wind,
There breaks a singing o'er the hills,
A multitude of joyous thrills,
When Christmas times comes 'round.

GABRIELLA CAMPBELL,
Music.

* * *

MY WISH FOR CHRISTMAS

A stocking full, I hope he brings,
Of wealth and health and other things.
I also hope there'll be much pleasure
And love and good-will beyond measure.

WILLA M. DUSH
Commerce.

* * *

Greetings, Girls of K. S. T. C.:

In extending Christmas Greetings, I am reminded of this one thought

“Whatever changes time may bring
Oh, treasure friendship true,
As the one thing that greater grows
As each year comes to you.”

May your Christmas Time be spent among friends—nothing I could extend to you would mean more, I am sure.

Most sincerely,

EVA EDWARDS,
Ass't. Registrar.

“It is Christmas in the Mansion,
Yule-log fires and silken frocks;
It is Christmas in the Cottage
Mothers filling little socks.
It is Christmas on the Highway,
In the thronging, busy mart;
But the dearest, truest Christmas
Is the Christmas in the Heart.”

EDNA FOWLER,
Music.

* * *

Let us say with Dickens, “I will honor Christmas in my heart and keep it all the year.”

LEETA S. GUERNSEY,
Foreign Language.

* * *

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

“When Christmas brings the long year's end,
It stirs the heart of friend toward friend—
We want to tell you just how dear
Are treasured friends through all the year!”

ELMINA E. GRAHAM,
English.

* * *

'Tis the season for kindling the fire of hospitality in the hall, the genial fire of charity in the heart.—W. Irving.

LOUISE GIBSON,
Home Economics

* * *

“I hear the bells on Christmas Day
Their old, familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet
The words repeat
Of peace on earth, good-will to men.”

CARRIE B. GREENE,
Home Economics.

"For strength which has sustained us
through the day,
Dear Lord, our thanks we give!
For every smile that lights life's friendly way,
And makes it good to live.
Once more with grateful hearts and reverent prayer,
Our gratitude we offer for Thy care.

For freedom and our country, clean of hate,
Our children at their play,
Our homes where peace and love and joy await,
Accept our thanks today.
Oh God, in all we do and yet may dare Make us, we pray, more worthy of Thy care."

LEONA HESS,
Music

SINCERE CHRISTMAS WISHES

To each a star the sages say,
To lead along life's winding way
God grant that you, where'er you are
Be guided by His Christmas star.

FLORA E. HOLROYD,
Rural Education.

* * *

"Tis the season for kindling the fire of
hospitality in the hall, the genial fire of charity in the heart."—Irving.

TEMPLE HILL
Education

* * *

The whole world is a Christmas tree,
And stars its many candles be.
Oh! sing a carol joyfully
The year's great feast in keeping.
—Harriet F. Blodgett

RHETIA HESSELBERG
Music

Je vous souhaite un joyeux Noel et une bonne Annee!

MARY ELLEN HOWE
Foreign Language.

* * *

I never see a map but I'm away
On all the errands that I long to do,
Up all the rivers that are painted blue,
And all the ranges that are painted gray,
And into those pale spaces where they say:
"Unknown." Oh what they never knew
I would be knowing.
(From "The Venture," by Jean Kenyon
MacKenzie)

ETELKA HOLT,
Geography.

* * *

Christmas cheer and best wishes for the New Year.

Sincerely,

LUCILLE HATLESTAD
Physical Education.

* * *

THE SEASONS GREETINGS!

The stars that watch over us on this
Holy night of 1930 are still singing,

*"Peace on Earth,
Good Will to Men."*

May the entire world heed that magnificent anthem and message from Christ.

O Peace! thou source and soul of social life;

Beneath whose calm inspiring influence,
Science his views enlarges, Art refines.
And Swelling Commerce opens all her
ports;

Blessed be the Man Divine, who gives us thee.

—Selected.

LUCY HARMON
English.

This comes with Warmest Wishes
Oh, more than words can tell
To wish you a Merry Christmas
And a glad New Year as well.

NETTIE A. HEMBREE,
Registrar's Office.

* * *

Greetings to Girls of K. S. T. C.:

"May friends await you and good cheer
welcome you and happiness abide with you
on Christmas Day and throughout the year.

JEANETTE HUGHES,
Registrar's Office.

* * *

Peace, good will, was the glad refrain
Of the first sweet Christmas song
And that's why this greeting is sent
To pass that joy along!

HELEN HASS
Home Economics.

* * *

"The time draws near the birth of Christ;
The morn is hid; the night is still;
The Christmas bells from hill to hill
Answer each other in the mist."

EDNA HAYS
Education

* * *

Then Welcome each rebuff
That turns earth's smoothness rough
Each string that bids not sit nor stand,
but go!
Be our joys three-parts pain!
Strive, and hold cheap the strain;
Learn, nor account the pang; dare, never grudge the throe!

—Browning

MARGARET E. HAUGHAWOUT,
English.

'Twould give me sincere pleasure
To send something clever and new,
But to me, the Olden Wish is best.
So here's "Merry Christmas to You."

M. FRANCIS HENRY,
Home Economics.

* * *

This Christmas adds another milestone
to our lives, lives which we are striving to make a success. May the following lines
be an inspiration to you, as they have been to me when the road is dark and the Christmas-spirit seems far removed from
that of the world:

"The successful man is the one who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much,
and who has left the world better than he found it, whose life is an inspiration, whose memory a benediction."

E. MADGE JONES
Speech.

* * *

On Christmas day if thus you bless
Amid your play and tenderness,
When time is old, life shall repay,
A thousand fold for Christmas day.

MARJORIE JACKSON,
Music.

* * *

FRIENDSHIP

"I awoke this morning with devout thanksgiving for my friends, the old and the new. Shall I not call God the Beautiful,
who daily showeth himself to me in these gifts? I chide society, I embrace solitude, and yet I am not so ungrateful as not to see the wise, the lovely, and the noble-minded, as from time to time they pass my gate."

—Ralph Waldo Emerson

CALLIE M. KING,
Education.

CHRISTMAS CHIMES

In the days of a child
The bells ring wild
And the holly shines red and bright,
Joy is the theme
Life is a dream
Of a land of pure delight.

When the snows of time
Have muffled the chime
And the mistletoe berries are white
The joy of a friend
Who is true to the end
Is the note of a heart's delight.

—Amy Field

ELEANOR D. KASE
House Director
Willard Hall.

* * *

Up among the stars where faintly steals
The din of human revelry and mirth,
The bell that rang, "To arms for Freedom," peals
The silver harmony of "Peace on Earth."

FLORENCE KIRBY,
Music.

* * *

GLAD CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

Again the glad message
that always rings true
That never wears out nor ever wears through
"Merry Christmas"

MRS. BLANCHE B. LITTLE,
Home Economics

* * *

When the stars above with shining light
Look down upon your Christmas night
May they find you surrounded with happiness,
With love, and peace, and joy's caress;
And this Christmas wish I'm wishing you
Is meant for all the New Year too.

GWEN LARK
Vocational Education.

Je vous souhaite un joyeux Noel et une
bonne Annee!

MARY ELLEN HOWE
Foreign Language.

* * *

I never see a map but I'm away
On all the errands that I long to do,
Up all the rivers that are painted blue,
And all the ranges that are painted gray,
And into those pale spaces where they say:
"Unknown." Oh what they never knew.
I would be knowing.
(From "The Venture," by Jean Kenyon
MacKenzie)

ETELKA HOLT,
Geography.

* * *

Christmas cheer and best wishes for the
New Year.

Sincerely,

LUCILLE HATLESTAD
Physical Education.

* * *

THE SEASONS GREETINGS!

The stars that watch over us on this
Holy night of 1930 are still singing,

*"Peace on Earth,
Good Will to Men."*

May the entire world heed that magnificent
anthem and message from Christ.

O Peace! thou source and soul of social life;

Beneath whose calm inspiring influence,
Science his views enlarges, Art refines.
And Swelling Commerce opens all her
ports;

Blessed be the Man Divine, who gives us
thee.

—Selected.

LUCY HARMON
English.

This comes with Warmest Wishes
Oh, more than words can tell
To wish you a Merry Christmas
And a glad New Year as well.

NETTIE A. HEMBREE,
Registrar's Office.

* * *

Greetings to Girls of K. S. T. C.:

"May friends await you and good cheer
welcome you and happiness abide with you
on Christmas Day and throughout the year.

JEANETTE HUGHES,
Registrar's Office.

* * *

Peace, good will, was the glad refrain
Of the first sweet Christmas song
And that's why this greeting is sent
To pass that joy along!

HELEN HASS
Home Economics.

* * *

"The time draws near the birth of Christ;
The morn is hid; the night is still;
The Christmas bells from hill to hill
Answer each other in the mist."

EDNA HAYS
Education

* * *

Then Welcome each rebuff
That turns earth's smoothness rough
Each string that bids not sit nor stand,
but go!
Be our joys three-parts pain!
Strive, and hold cheap the strain;
Learn, nor account the pang; dare, never
grudge the throe!

—Browning

MARGARET E. HAUGHAWOUT,
English.

'Twould give me sincere pleasure
To send something clever and new,
But to me, the Olden Wish is best,
So here's "Merry Christmas to You."

M. FRANCIS HENRY,
Home Economics.

* * *

This Christmas adds another milestone
to our lives, lives which we are striving to make a success. May the following lines
be an inspiration to you, as they have been to me when the road is dark and the Christmas-spirit seems far removed from
that of the world:

"The successful man is the one who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much,
and who has left the world better than he found it, whose life is an inspiration, whose memory a benediction."

E. MADGE JONES
Speech.

* * *

On Christmas day if thus you bless
Amid your play and tenderness,
When time is old, life shall repay,
A thousand fold for Christmas day.

MARJORIE JACKSON,
Music.

* * *

FRIENDSHIP

"I awoke this morning with devout thanksgiving for my friends, the old and
the new. Shall I not call God the Beautiful,
who daily showeth himself to me in these gifts? I chide society, I embrace solitude, and yet I am not so ungrateful as
not to see the wise, the lovely, and the noble-minded, as from time to time they
pass my gate."

—Ralph Waldo Emerson

CALLIE M. KING,
Education.

CHRISTMAS CHIMES

In the days of a child
The bells ring wild
And the holly shines red and bright,
Joy is the theme
Life is a dream
Of a land of pure delight.

When the snows of time
Have muffled the chime
And the mistletoe berries are white
The joy of a friend
Who is true to the end
Is the note of a heart's delight.

—Amy Field

ELEANOR D. KASE
House Director
Willard Hall.

* * *

Up among the stars where faintly steals
The din of human revelry and mirth,
The bell that rang, "To arms for Freedom," peals
The silver harmony of "Peace on Earth."

FLORENCE KIRBY,
Music.

* * *

GLAD CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

Again the glad message
that always rings true
That never wears out nor ever wears through
"Merry Christmas"

MRS. BLANCHE B. LITTLE,
Home Economics

* * *

When the stars above with shining light
Look down upon your Christmas night
May they find you surrounded with happiness,
With love, and peace, and joy's caress;
And this Christmas wish I'm wishing you
Is meant for all the New Year too.

GWEN LARK
Vocational Education.

May all good things combine to bless
Your Christmas Day with Happiness.

DOROTHY LINDSEY,
Education.

* * *

Greetings of Joy and Gladness,
I send this Christmas Tide,
May Waves of Prosperity greet you
This New Year from every side.

BEULAH LASLEY,
General Office.

* * *

Rosemary should be the Christmas
flower for "that is for remembrance."
And the happiest thing about the Christmas season is remembrance. And so it gives me happiness to send greetings and remembrance for the best of all seasons
and a wish for your continued happiness
and success in the New Year.

JOSEPHINE A. MARSHALL,
Home Economics.

* * *

Dear Girls:

As we go to our respective homes,
should we not think of the privileges of attending college and the many joys that we have which others do not? Think how many homes could be brightened if each girl of K. S. T. C. would take this Christmas season as an opportunity of making some one happy. College should make us less selfish and more interested in others.

We do not want to be too serious.
My wishes are that you and your family
have the happiest and most prosperous holiday season. Have a real change by forgetting school for two weeks, and enter into the holiday festivities in your community.

Sincerely,

LULA MCPHERSON,
History.

Dear Members of K. S. T. C. Family:

I wrote a greeting for this booklet remembering I was the oldest one wishing you "Merry Christmas" from these pages and that at best Father Time wouldn't be calling many more Christmas stations for me, etc., etc.—but the printer turned it back saying it was too doleful a refrain for him to print among the happy helpful messages appropriate to the season. Who knows where these pages will bring visions of Crimson and Gold days. God bless us all as we cherish these memories of college life.

After all's said and done, Christmas is what we make it every hour of every day. Nor pomp nor pride nor sin nor sorrow hold the secret of "Merry Christmas."

"It is not far to Bethlehem town,
But any place where Christ comes down,
And finds in any heart or face,
A welcome and abiding place.
The road to Bethlehem leads right through,
The place called 'home' by me and you."

MRS. HATTIE MOORE MITCHELL,
Dean of Women.

* * *

"We bear the Christmas message,
Brought to us so long ago.
Why have the centuries kept it fresh?
Why do we prize it so?
It tells of the tender, human bond,
Since ever the world began
For it teaches the Fatherhood of God
The brotherhood of Man."

ANNIE MARRIOTT,
Home Economics.

* * *

"Look for goodness
Look for gladness
You will meet them all the while
If you bring a smiling visage to the class
You meet a smile."

JOSEPHINE MASSEY
English.

May Christmas bring you joy enough
For every day.

And always may life's sunny side
Be turned your way.

MRS. ETHEL MOORE-PECK
English.

* * *

I am not a poet, but with my Christmas greeting to the girls of K. S. T. C. I send two short verses that I hope can be stored on a handy shelf in Memory's vault, to be used when needed. The first will help to dispel the gloom of final examination day, and will penetrate the gloom of even darker days—if there are any:

"On life's short journey
From the cradle to the hearse
There is nothing so bad
But it might have been worse."

The other verse need not be stored—just keep it in use all of the time, whether you are happy or sad:

"A good thing to remember,
And a better thing to do,
Is work with the construction gang,
Not with the wrecking crew."

—LILLIAN I. MILLER
Commerce.

* * *

"Congratulations upon being alive in 1931 with a chance to help make it a better year than the best yet."

ODELLA NATION,
Librarian.

Mistletoe hung in the castle hall,
The holly bough shown on the old oak
wall. —Thomas H. Bayly

England was Merrie England when
Old Christmas brought his sports again.
—Walter Scott

Rainy clouds possessed the earth
And sadly fell our Christmas Eve.
—Alfred Tennyson

Ring out ye chystal spheres
Once blest our human ears!
—John Milton

Ye who sang Creation's glory,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth.
—James Montgomery

Christ is born, the great annointed,
Heaven and earth his praises sing!
—J. Crawford

Hark the heralds angels sing:
"Glory to the new born King."
—Chas. Wesley

Ring the bells and raise the strain
And hang up garlands everywhere.
—Susan Coolidge

I hear along the streets pass the minstrel throng,
Hark! They play so sweet on their haut-
boys Christmas songs.
—Longfellow

Sing the song of great joy that the angels
began,
Sing of Glory to God, and of Good Will
to man. —John Whittier

This day has God fulfilled his promised
word,
This day is born a Savior, Christ the
Lord. —Byron

May you have as many happy months
As you taste mince pies at Christmas.
—An Old English Saying

At Christmas play, make good cheer,
For Christmas comes but once a year.
—Tusser

Sometimes with oysters we combine,
Sometimes assist the savory chime.
From the low peasant to the lord,
The turkey smokes on every board.
—Walter Gay

May the Spirit of Christian Fellowship
be with you and yours, during the Christmas Vacation and thru the years to come.
A Merry, Merry Christmas.

IRMA GENE NEVINS, Physical Education

May all good things combine to bless
Your Christmas Day with Happiness.

DOROTHY LINDSEY,
Education.

* * *

Greetings of Joy and Gladness,
I send this Christmas Tide,
May Waves of Prosperity greet you
This New Year from every side.

BEULAH LASLEY,
General Office.

* * *

Rosemary should be the Christmas
flower for "that is for remembrance."
And the happiest thing about the Christmas season is remembrance. And so it gives me happiness to send greetings and
remembrance for the best of all seasons
and a wish for your continued happiness
and success in the New Year.

JOSEPHINE A. MARSHALL,
Home Economics.

* * *

Dear Girls:

As we go to our respective homes,
should we not think of the privileges of
attending college and the many joys that we have which others do not? Think how many homes could be brightened if each
girl of K. S. T. C. would take this Christmas season as an opportunity of making some one happy. College should make us less selfish and more interested in others.

We do not want to be too serious.
My wishes are that you and your family
have the happiest and most prosperous
holiday season. Have a real change by forgetting school for two weeks, and enter into the holiday festivities in your community.

Sincerely,

LULA McPHERSON,
History.

Dear Members of K. S. T. C. Family:

I wrote a greeting for this booklet remembering I was the oldest one wishing you "Merry Christmas" from these pages and that at best Father Time wouldn't be calling many more Christmas stations for me, etc., etc.—but the printer turned it back saying it was too doleful a refrain for him to print among the happy helpful messages appropriate to the season. Who knows where these pages will bring visions of Crimson and Gold days. God bless us all as we cherish these memories of college life.

After all's said and done, Christmas is what we make it every hour of every day. Nor pomp nor pride nor sin nor sorrow hold the secret of "Merry Christmas."

"It is not far to Bethlehem town,
But any place where Christ comes down,
And finds in any heart or face,
A welcome and abiding place,
The road to Bethlehem leads right through,
The place called 'home' by me and you."

MRS. HATTIE MOORE MITCHELL,
Dean of Women.

* * *

"We bear the Christmas message,
Brought to us so long ago.
Why have the centuries kept it fresh?
Why do we prize it so?
It tells of the tender, human bond,
Since ever the world began
For it teaches the Fatherhood of God
The brotherhood of Man."

ANNIE MARRIOTT,
Home Economics.

* * *

"Look for goodness
Look for gladness
You will meet them all the while
If you bring a smiling visage to the class
You meet a smile."

JOSEPHINE MASSEY
English.

May Christmas bring you joy enough
For every day.

And always may life's sunny side
Be turned your way.

MRS. ETHEL MOORE-PECK
English.

* * *

I am not a poet, but with my Christmas greeting to the girls of K. S. T. C. I send two short verses that I hope can be stored on a handy shelf in Memory's vault, to be used when needed. The first will help to dispel the gloom of final examination day, and will penetrate the gloom of even darker days—if there are any:

"On life's short journey
From the cradle to the hearse
There is nothing so bad
But it might have been worse."

The other verse need not be stored—just keep it in use all of the time, whether you are happy or sad:

"A good thing to remember,
And a better thing to do,
Is work with the construction gang,
Not with the wrecking crew."

—LILLIAN I. MILLER
Commerce.

* * *

"Congratulations upon being alive in 1931 with a chance to help make it a better year than the best yet."

ODELLA NATION,
Librarian.

Mistletoe hung in the castle hall,
The holly bough shown on the old oak
wall. —Thomas H. Bayly

England was Merrie England when
Old Christmas brought his sports again.
—Walter Scott

Rainy clouds possessed the earth
And sadly fell our Christmas Eve.
—Alfred Tennyson

Ring out ye chystal spheres
Once blest our human ears!
—John Milton

Ye who sang Creation's glory,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth.
—James Montgomery

Christ is born, the great anointed,
Heaven and earth his praises sing!
—J. Crawford

Hark the heralds angels sing:
"Glory to the new born King."
—Chas. Wesley

Ring the bells and raise the strain
And hang up garlands everywhere.
—Susan Coolidge

I hear along the streets pass the minstrel
throings,
Hark! They play so sweet on their haut-
boys Christmas songs.

—Longfellow
Sing the song of great joy that the angels
began,
Sing of Glory to God, and of Good Will
to man. —John Whittier

This day has God fulfilled his promised
word,
This day is born a Savior, Christ the
Lord. —Byron

May you have as many happy months
As you taste mince pies at Christmas.
—An Old English Saying

At Christmas play, make good cheer,
For Christmas comes but once a year.
—Tusser

Sometimes with oysters we combine,
Sometimes assist the savory chime.
From the low peasant to the lord,
The turkey smokes on every board.
—Walter Gay

May the Spirit of Christian Fellowship
be with you and yours, during the Christmas Vacation and thru the years to come.
A Merry, Merry Christmas.

IRMA GENE NEVINS, Physical Education

Near twice a thousand years a-gone
The watching stars of God looked down
Upon the low-walled Bethlehem.
And one, than all the rest more bright
Shone with a pure and steadfast light
Above that little sleeping town.

Then guided by this holy star
There came three magi; gifts to bring
And greet the coming of our Lord.
Upon low-lying hill and plain
Lone shepherds few woke to the strain
Of triumph for the new-born king.

Now twice a thousand years have gone,
Around the broad earth's peopled girth
Millions adore Christ's holy name.
From steepled temples sweet bells chime
To greet again the blessed time
That celebrates our Saviour's birth
And brings us peace, good will on earth

E. F. POPE
English

* * *

As in the olden days the traveler stepped out of the stage coach and across the Christmas threshold of the Old Time Tavern into its warmth and hospitality, so may you step across the threshold of the New Year and find waiting, as companions for the next stage, those truest of comrades
—Friendship, Loyalty, and Contentment.

BELLE PROVORSE,
General Office.

* * *

The world stands out on either side
No wider than the heart is wide;
Above the world is stretched the sky,
No higher than the soul is high.
The heart can push the sea and land
Farther away on either hand;
The soul can split the sky in two
And let the face of God shine through.

—Edna St. Vincent Milay

BERTHA A. SPENCER,
Art.

Christmas greetings and best wishes for the year. "For unto you is born this day in the City of David, a Savior, which is Christ
the Lord."

EULALIA E. ROSEBERRY, Geography.

* * *

CHRISTMAS 1930

As in the days of old
This little verse withholds,
Gold, or silver or treasures so rare?
In lieu, Merry Christmas, best wishes,
Milady, so fair.

MRS. INEZ L. RISK,
Secretary, Dean of Women.

* * *

Dear Students and Children of K. S. T. C.:

We are thinking of you this Christmas season and wishing you well. You are of a great profession. You, as we, are working with living clay. Let us with earnest, enthusiastic faith mould gently, patiently, prayerfully day by day while the opportunity is yet ours and leave the result to the great Teacher whose birthday we are celebrating at this happy season.

Your friend,

DORA ROBERTSON,
English.

* * *

The fragrant subtle spirit
Of peaceful gracious living
In Christmas Days inherent,
For all year, is my greeting.

To you at Christmas
From me at Christmas

C. ALICE ROBERTS,
High School Librarian.

"Take Christmas home and let it live
Throughout the coming year
Then happiness will stay with you
And joy be always near."

MARY E. RENICH,
Biology

* * *

We hurry along our different ways
Through the rush of the crowded, busy days,
But what a joy it always brings
    To pause for awhile in the midst of things,
And tarry on Friendship's cheery street
Where hearts and thoughts and wishes meet.

ALZA RODGERS
Home Economics

* * *

Here is to wish you,
Now Christmas is near,
A wonderful close
To a wonderful year.

Here is to wish you
That soon you will see
A Christmas that's all
That a Christmas could be.

Here is to wish that,
When Christmas is past
Your next year will prove
Even better than last.

Here is to wish you, then
Joy, love and cheer
A true, merry Christmas

—Rodney Bennet

HAZEL SHEPHERD
General Office.

"Peace on earth, good will toward men
The Christmas hymns ring out again;
And all the blessed Yuletide through
May these best gifts abide with you."

ANISE SANDFORD, Library.

* * *

One asks himself why there is so much exultation and festivity at the Christmas season, and why it is so universally a time of good cheer. I believe the reason is found in the words of Arthur Reed Kimball:

"The chief charm of Christmas is its simplicity. It is a festival that appeals to everyone, because every one can understand it. A genuine fellowship pervades our common life—a fellowship whose source is our common share in the gift of the world's greatest Life which was given to the whole world."

MARY E. SHERFY
Library.

* * *

The Christmas Road's the grandest road
Of all the roads there are
It's built by loving hearts and true
And lighted by a star.

MARTHA SCHNEIDER
General Office

* * *

O little town of Bethlehem
How still we see thee lie
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by
Yet in the dark streets shineth
The everlasting light
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight.

RUTH STAMM,
Music.

There's something more to Christmas
Than trees and candle-light,
Than songs to sing and gifts to bring
That makes the day so bright;
It's something deeper, better,
Invisible but true,
The Spirit of Good-will and Love
Recalling friends like you.

MAUDE SIMPSON,
Cafeteria.

* * *

Their old familiar carols play
And wild and sweet
The words repeat
"Peace on earth, good will to men."

ESTHER STEWART,
Music.

* * *

May life grow sweeter year by year;
Each day grow richer in good cheer;
Dreams be fulfilled in every way
And joy be yours on Christmas day.

VEDA M. WILLIAMS,
Education.

* * *

Just a token of friendship and a good will at Christmas with wishes for a glad
New Year.

GEORGIA WEIR,
Registrar's Office.

* * *

I heard the bells on Christmas day
Their old familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet the words repeat,
Of Peace on Earth, Good Will to men.
Then pealed the bells more loud and deep,
God is not dead; nor does He sleep!
The wrong shall fail, the right prevail,
With Peace on Earth Good Will to Men.

—Longfellow.

EDNA WALGROVE WILSON
Music

Yea, once the Dearest One of all
Was left to lie in Bethlehem's stall,
Because the mob that crowded there
Heard not love's song upon the air—
Their taxes they must pay!
With stumbling tread they walked in night,
Nor saw Hope's star aglow with light,
What knew they of the day?
Dear God, may our horizons be Far flung! May that we hear and see—Untrammeled by some meagre creed—
Find limits only in man's need
And the heights and depths of Thee!
'Tisn't new, 'tisn't clever
But it's the greatest greeting ever;
Merry Christmas.
And here's its twin, that fits right in,
Happy New Year!

—Edith Carter.

JENNIE C. WALKER
Y. W. C. A.

* * *

For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

Mark 10:45

ELEANOR WHITTINGHILL,
Home Economics.

* * *

“Heap on more wood!
The wind is chill;
But let it whistle as it will We'll keep our Christmas merry still.”

MRS. MARIE WORSHAM,
Library.

