The NCAA—Working Together Toward a Common Goal

By David Housel, Sports Information Director, Auburn University

What is the NCAA? The question could be answered simply by saying "National Collegiate Athletic Association," but in reality the NCAA is much more than four words beginning with the letters N-C-A-A.

It is also much more than a staff working in Overland Park, Kansas, on administrative details of America's intercollegiate athletics programs.

To say that the NCAA is a staff or a group of people is to misunderstand not only what the NCAA is, but what its goals and objectives are. It is to misunderstand its very reason for being.

In reality, the NCAA is composed of some 1,000 colleges universities and organizations across the United States. The NCAA, in its truest sense, is every member institution working together for the common good of all. It is democracy in action. All rules, all policies, all procedures, even the directions and goals of the NCAA are determined by the colleges and universities working and voting together in a common body.

As with any organization made up of individuals or member institutions, the requirements in any given area, be it academic or enforcement, are continually changing in response to the desires of the membership. But the goal is always the same—a sound mind, a sound body, a spirit that is unafraid and a clean sports program that develops those qualities individually, institutionally and nationally.

Perhaps no area of the NCAA comes under more inspection than the enforcement program. Yet, even there, the NCAA is responsive to the needs and concerns of the individual institutions working together for what they perceive to be the common good. The colleges and universities make the rules. The NCAA staff, working under the direction of the colleges and universities, simply administer the programs designed by the members. And it is the Committee on Infractions, which is comprised of college administrators from around the country, that determines sanctions levied against fellow members.

Just as integrity is the key to an academic program, it also is vital to healthy competition between NCAA member institutions. The colleges and universities seek to create an atmosphere in which all institutions have an equal chance to recruit America's outstanding student-athletes. It is then up to member schools to help the individual student-athletes be as good as they can be, both in the classroom and in their athletic endeavors.

For all of the attention it receives, the enforcement program is but one small part of the NCAA's total concern. The NCAA administers 77 championships in three divisions in 22 sports. More than 15,000 men and women student-athletes compete annually in these events, designed to determine the national champion.

Other programs under the auspices of the NCAA include the National Youth Sports Program, cosponsored by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Community Services, Family Support Administration, and the nation's colleges and universities. NYSP is a unique summer program that offers sports skills instruction, competition, improved physical fitness, and enrichment opportunities for economically disadvantaged youth between the ages of 10 and 16.

The NCAA conducts free Youth Education through Sports (YES) clinics in many sports, annually providing thousands of youngsters expert instruction from the best collegiate coaches, as well as important information about academics and substance abuse prevention.

The NCAA also administers several scholarship programs that benefit not only deserving student-athletes but also students in general. The NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship Program has distributed more than $3.2 million to some 2,000 student-athletes for full-time graduate study; two Walter Byers Postgraduate Scholarship winners annually receive $7,500 renewable stipends; the NCAA Ethnic Minority Enhancement Program and the NCAA Women's Enhancement Program each provide scholarship awards to qualified individuals for postgraduate study in sports administration; and the NCAA makes available grants to undergraduate student-athletes who have exhausted their institutional financial aid opportunity and who wish to complete their undergraduate degrees.

More information about these scholarship programs is available from the NCAA administration department.

The NCAA also sponsors one of America's foremost honors programs, which is designed to recognize yesterday's and today's top athletes, and the contributions of intercollegiate athletics as a whole to the country and society.

It has been said, and rightfully so, that sports is but a microcosm of society. Never before has it been more true, for sport and for the NCAA.

However, the goal of the NCAA is still the same—America's colleges and universities working together for the common good of higher education, and the young men and women who study and compete for NCAA member institutions. ■

Welcome to Pittsburg State University!

Office of the President • Pittsburg, Kansas 66762

November 24, 1990

Dear Football Fans:

Welcome to Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium, home of the Pittsburg State University Gorillas. We are pleased to serve as host to a second round game of the NCAA Playoffs.

Pittsburg State University is committed to excellence in academics and athletics. We are proud of our Pittsburg State University student athletes. They have not only excelled in the athletic arena, but they have also excelled in academics.

Over the past three years, we have had 18 athletes named as Academic All-Americans. In addition, two former members of the Gorilla Football Team -- Mike Meek in 1988 and Brett Potts in 1989 -- were named as GTE Academic All-Americans. This past semester, the combined grade point average for all athletes was 2.9 (on a 4.0 scale).

In many instances, these athletes were the recipients of scholarships which were made possible through the leadership of Wayne Allai and many of our other outstanding supporters. During the last few years, alumni, faculty, staff, students and friends of the University have also worked together to raise private funds for the renovation of Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium. The August and Helen Rua Press Box, the Prentice Gudgen Track, the lights, scoreboard, turf and seatbacks are tangible evidence of their efforts.

To the fans of East Texas State University, we hope you enjoy your visit to Southeast Kansas. To the alumni and friends of Pittsburg State, thank you for the continued support of your university!

Warm personal regards.

Sincerely,

Donald W. Wilson
President

This is Pittsburg State University...

Pittsburg State University, founded in 1903, is a comprehensive four-year liberal arts university located in the southeast corner of Kansas. Developed on a 142-acre site in the southern part of Pittsburg (population 20,000), the University is easily accessible, located just two hours from major metropolitan areas Kansas City, Wichita, Topeka, and Tulsa.

The curriculum features a variety of academic, cultural and social programs. In addition to associate, bachelor's and master's degree programs, the curriculum also offers certificate courses and education specialist degree opportunities. Pitt State currently has an enrollment of approximately 5,900 students with more than 350 dedicated faculty members.

The University offers more than 100 undergraduate and graduate degree programs through the schools of business, technology, and education, and the college of arts and sciences. PSU also serves as an important resource for the community, hosting nationally-recognized speakers and artists, as well as a competitive intercollegiate athletic program. Pittsburg State also provides a wide array of specialized services to Pittsburg and the region through outreach programs such as the Institute for Economic Development, the Center for Technology Transfer and the Center for Education Services, Evaluation and Research. PSU also is proud of its 100,000-watt fine arts radio station, which is affiliated with National Public Radio.

Under the leadership of President Donald W. Wilson, Pittsburg State University continues to realize numerous accomplishments including: new enrollment records; the establishment of an Honors College; cooperative exchange agreements with over 65 universities in foreign countries; the renovation of Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium as part of a major capital campaign.

Dr. Wilson's educational philosophy is based on the belief that colleges and universities should help develop the entire person: mentally, physically, aesthetically and spiritually. He has a special personal and professional interest in cross cultural understanding which stems from his varied international background. Born in Poona, India, the son of missionary parents, Dr. Wilson has lived in five foreign countries and he has speaking or reading knowledge of eight languages.

History of Pitt State Football (1908-1990)

Pittsburg State University has built a tradition as one of the finest small-college football programs in the nation, with two NAIA national championships and many post-season appearances highlighting an illustrious gridiron history.

During the first two years of competition in the NCAA, PSU has continued its tradition of excellence in football. In 1989, the program's first season of NCAA play, the Gorillas set a school record for victories during a 12-1 campaign. This year, under the leadership of new head coach Chuck Broyles, PSU posted its fifth straight undefeated regular season, and extended the nation's longest regular season winning streak to 55 games! PSU was crowned conference champions for the sixth straight year.

After competing for many years as an NAIA program, PSU joined the NCAA and the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1989. The Gorillas captured the MIAA football crown their first season as conference members, and PSU qualified for the NCAA playoffs, marking the program's fifth straight playoff bid.

PSU has posted 46 winning seasons in its illustrious football history, capturing the NAIA national championship under Coach Carnie Smith in 1957 and 1961.

Pitt State fielded its first team in 1904, but no scores or results exist. Since its first official season in 1908, PSU has celebrated 441 victories, ranking the program sixth on the NCAA Division II all-time winningest teams list.

Pittsburg State joined the Kansas Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (KIAC) in 1911 and won its first conference championship in 1921 under Garfield W. Weede. PSU added another KIAC championship in 1924, compiling a 7-0-1 record, PSU's first undefeated season.

In 1925, Pitt State adopted the "Gorilla" as its official mascot. PSU is proud to be the only college or university in the country with the Gorilla as its athletic mascot.

The Gorillas became members of the Central Intercollegiate Conference (CIC) in 1928. The Gorillas won eight league championships in 41 years in the league, six of which came between 1949 and 1966 under Carnie Smith. As the winningest coach in PSU history, Smith guided the Gorillas to 116 wins, 52 losses and six ties in his 18 seasons as the school's head coach.

The stadium where the Gorillas have played their home games since 1922, now bears the name of the legendary coach.

Under Smith, Pittsburg State won two NAIA national championships. The Gorillas achieved perfect 11-0 seasons in 1957 and 1961 to win the national honor.

Pitt State left the CIC for the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference in 1969, and won a pair of conference titles during its three seasons in the league. PSU competed in the Great Plains Athletic Conference from 1972-75 before joining the Central States Intercollegiate Conference (CSIC) in 1976. PSU won or shared the CSIC championship eight of 12 years in the league.

During the 1980's, Pitt State regained its national prominence. PSU earned a trip to the NAIA playoffs in 1981 for the first time since the '61 championship. The Gorillas completed a 10-2 season with a national runner-up finish, losing 3-0 in the NAIA title game.

PSU's success in the '80s continued under head coach Dennis Franchione, as the Gorillas won the CSIC championship and earned NAIA post-season playoff berths in 1985, 1986, 1987, and 1988. PSU reached the NAIA national semifinals the last three years the program was a member of the organization.

From 1980 to 1988, Pittsburg State won six CSIC championships, appeared in the NAIA national playoffs five times, and produced 34 NAIA All-Americans. During the 1980s, PSU compiled one of the best records of any football program, ranking second among NCAA Division II schools with a winning percentage of .800 and a record of 88-22.

Between 1908 and 1990, Pittsburg State has built a record of 441 wins, 276 losses, and 45 ties, making it one of the most successful small-college football programs in the nation. PSU's 441 total victories rank sixth among NCAA Division II schools.

Coach Carnie Smith enjoys a victory ride after leading the Gorillas to the NAIA National Championship.

PSU in Post-Season Play

Pittsburg State's berth in the 1990 NCAA Division II playoffs marks the Gorillas' 12th appearance in post-season play in the 83-year history of the football program. PSU's participation in the 1990 NCAA playoffs is the ninth playoff appearance for the Gorillas, and the program's sixth straight berth in the playoffs.

In 1957, Pittsburg State captured the first of two NAIA National Championships under Coach Carmie Smith, completing a perfect 11-0 campaign with a 27-26 victory over Hillsdale College in the Holiday Bowl at St. Petersburg, FL. In 1961, Smith led PSU to another NAIA National Title with a 12-7 win over Linfield College at the Camellia Bowl in Sacramento, CA.

In 1981, the Gorillas returned to the NAIA National Championship game under Coach Ron Randleman, but PSU's bid for its third NAIA national crown came up short as PSU fell 3-0 to Elon College of North Carolina in the title game.

In 1985, Dennis Franchione's first season as head coach, the Gorillas qualified for the NAIA playoffs once again, but lost a first-round contest. Franchione led Pitt State to the NAIA semifinals the next three seasons, but each year, the Gorillas quest for another national crown ended in bitter defeats.

In 1989, PSU made the transition from the NAIA to the NCAA Division II ranks. The Gorillas won their first NCAA-II playoff game, a 28-7 victory over MIAA rival Northwest Missouri, before falling to Angelo State of Texas, 24-21 in the NCAA quarterfinals.

The Gorillas have compiled a 9-5 record in seven NAIA playoff appearances, and a 1-1 mark in the NCAA Division II playoffs for a combined 10-6 record in playoff competition. PSU is 8-3 at home in the playoffs, and 2-3 on the road. PSU's only two road playoff wins were in championship games in 1957 and 1961.

PSU also has participated in three post-season bowl games, the 1950 Shrine Bowl, the '79 Boot Hill Bowl, and the '80 Moila Shrine Bowl.

PSU in the National Polls

Pitt State has been consistently ranked in the national polls during the past five seasons. PSU was ranked third in the final 1990 national poll, after finishing the 1989 season ranked fourth in the final NCAA poll. The Gorillas finished number one in the final NAIA polls in both 1986 and 1987, and the Gorillas were ranked number two in the final NAIA poll in 1988. 1990 PSU Review - Another Perfect Season!

PITT STATE 64, NORTHEAST MISSOURI 30

Quarterback Jay Padden passed for 199 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Gorillas to their first victory under new head coach Chuck Broyles. Junior wide receiver Ronnie West caught all three TD passes from Padden and scored on a 7-yard reverse in his PSU debut. Running backs Darren Dawson and Ronald Moore rushed for 112 and 110 yards, respectively, and each ran for a TD to pace the Pitt State ground game.

Pitt State 45, Missouri Western 7

The Gorillas utilized several long scoring plays in their lopsided road win over the Griffons. QB Jay Padden, who threw three TD passes, opened the scoring with a 37-yard strike to running back Kelly Lawson. Running back Darren Dawson rushed for 129 yards, including an 80-yard scoring jaunt in the third quarter. Padden also hooked up with running back Ronald Moore on a 60-yard scoring pass.

PITT STATE 54, SOUTHWEST BAPTIST 17

Running back Darren Dawson ran for four touchdowns as PSU rolled over the Bearcats. Dawson scored on runs of 24, 11, 6, and 1 yards out to lead the Gorillas scoring attack. Running back Kelly Lawson paced the ground game with 102 yards and scored on a 1-yard run. Linebacker Jamie Goodson also returned an interception 37 yards for a TD.

Pitt State 19, Cameron 3

Running backs Ronald Moore and Darren Dawson rushed for 172 and 108 yards, respectively, as the Gorillas avenged a pair of NAIA playoff losses in 1986 and 1987 to the Aggies. Moore opened up the scoring with a 62-yard run in the first quarter. Dawson added a 7-yard TD burst to give PSU a 13-0 halftime lead. Defensive end Phil McCoy and free safety Ira McMillian each had an interception to set up a pair of late field goals by James Jenkins to seal the victory.

PITT STATE 57, SOUTHEAST MISSOURI 28

PSU rolled up 414 yards and six touchdowns rushing, while winning its 50th straight regular season game. Wide receiver Ronnie West and running back Ronald Moore scored three TD's each in the shootout. SEMO trailed 29-28 before West returned a punt 65 yards for a score midway through the third period to put PSU ahead for good. Running back Darren Dawson paced the ground attack with 161 yards and two TD's, while Moore ran for 126 yards and three TD's.

Pitt State 49, Northwest Missouri 14

Wide receiver Ronnie West caught a pair of TD passes and scored on a 100-yard kickoff return to lead the Gorillas to another lopsided victory. QB Jay Padden hit West with a 34-yard score on PSU's first possession. Running back Kelly Lawson scored on runs of 13 and 12 yards to give the Gorillas a 21-0 cushion in the first quarter. Northwest came back with two scoring runs by quarterback Jeremy Wilson to pull within, 21-14, late in the second period. West's kickoff return for a TD took away the Bearcats' momentum, as PSU won its third game in two years over Northwest.

PITT STATE 9, CENTRAL MISSOURI 7

Running back Ronald Moore scored on a 1-yard burst early in the fourth quarter as the PSU held off Central Missouri's upset bid. It was the closest margin of victory since Pitt State's regular season winning streak began in the third game of the 1985 season. The Gorillas trailed 7-0 at halftime after CMSU defensive back Anthony Ballenger scooped up a fumble and raced 27 yards for a TD. PSU opened the second half by marching 51 yards to the CMSU five. James Jenkins kicked a 22-yard field goal to cut the margin to 7-3. Moore's TD run capped off an 80-yard drive and gave PSU a homecoming victory.

PITT STATE 52, MISSOURI-ROLLA 7

Seven players scored touchdowns in Pitt State's win over Rolla. Quarterback Jay Padden completed 9 of 14 passes for 184 yards and two TD's, including a 56-yard scoring strike to Ronnie West. Running back Ronald Moore was PSU's leading rusher with 115 yards and one TD. Backup quarterback Todd Hafner scored on a 1-yard run. UMR scored its only touchdown late in the fourth quarter, spoiling Pittsburg State's shutout bid. It was the first touchdown allowed by the defense in nine quarters.

Pitt State 17, Washburn 0

Quarterback Jay Padden threw for one touchdown and ran for another as the Gorillas wrapped up their second straight MIAA championship with a victory over the Icabods. Padden hooked up with wide receiver Ronnie West on 48-yard TD pass in the first quarter. Darren Dawson's 82-yard run set up a 23-yard field goal by James Jenkins to make the score, 10-0, early in the second half. Midway through the fourth period, Padden scored from two yards out after free safety Ira McMillian returned an interception 49 yards. Dawson lead the Gorillas in rushing with 167 yards, going over 1,000 yards for the second straight season.

Pitt State 49, Missouri Southern 21

Running back Ronald Moore, needing 192 yards rushing to break 1,000 for the season, exploded for 205 yards on 19 carries as the Gorillas amassed 473 yards on the ground in their fifth straight Miner's Bowl victory. The win over MSSC also gave PSU its fifth consecutive undefeated season. Moore scored on a 33-yard jaunt to open the scoring. Quarterback Jay Padden and running back Darren Dawson added TD runs of 16 and 2, giving PSU a 20-0 first quarter lead. Moore raced 81 yards for a score to hand Pitt State a 28-7 cushion at the half. An 18-yard TD run by Dawson and Padden's 11-yard scoring strike to Ronnie West increased the margin to 42-7. Dawson ran for 126 yards on the day.

PITT STATE 59 NORTHEAST MISSOURI 3

Third-ranked Pittsburg State exploded for 31 points in the second quarter and cruised to a 59-3 victory over MIAA rival Northeast Missouri in the first round of the NCAA Division II playoffs. With PSU leading 7-3, Ronald Moore capped an 80-yard drive with a 1-yard run to put the Gorillas up 14-3 with 10:36 to go in the first half. On Northeast's first play from scrimmage after the score, Pitt State's Phil McCoy blindsided NEMO quarterback Jeff Frost, causing a fumble which was recovered by PSU's Troy Wilson at the 18. Jay Padden hit Ronnie West with an 18-yard strike in the corner of the endzone to put PSU ahead 21-3. NEMO failed to advance the ball, and PSU regained control at their own 49. After a Moore 24-yard run to the NEMO 33, Padden hit West for another score, to put PSU up 28-3. Pitt State, which led 38-3 at halftime, pounded out 515 yards of total offense, including 356 yards rushing. Moore finished with 112 yards rushing on 20 carries. Darren Dawson ran for 108 yards and a pair of scores. West caught five passes on the day for 69 yards and two TD's. Tight end Jody Truitt grabbed three Padden passes for 90 yards. The PSU defense allowed just 56 yards rushing and 230 total yards.

Chuck Broyles, Head Football Coach

Chuck Broyles is in his first season as head football coach at Pittsburg State after serving as the Gorillas' assistant head coach and defensive coordinator the past two years.

Broyles also has additional administrative duties as Pitt State's associate director of athletics.

At the press conference announcing Broyles' appointment in December, PSU President Dr. Donald W. Wilson said, "Chuck Broyles is more than capable of carrying on Pittsburg State's fine tradition in football. He is a gentleman with great integrity, and he will continue the positive momentum of our football program."

PSU athletic director Bill Samuels agreed. "Chuck will be a great head coach, following in a great line of coaches at PSU," said Samuels, who served as an assistant coach at Pitt State for more than 20 years. "He has the respect of the players, his fellow coaches, and the campus and community."

This year has been Broyles' first opportunity to direct a college football program as a head coach, and obviously his leadership abilities as a defensive coordinator at the collegiate and high school level, as well as his experience as a head baseball coach and player, has carried over into his post as the Gorillas' head coach.

Broyles came to Pitt State from the University of Missouri-Rolla, where he served as the Miners' defensive coordinator from 1974-1983, and again during the 1986 and 1987 seasons. As an assistant at Missouri-Rolla, Broyles helped guide the Miners to a share of the MIAA title in 1977, and the outright conference championship and an undefeated 10-0 season in 1980. UMR also shared the MIAA title in 1983, just after Broyles left the program to become the defensive coordinator at Miami High School in Miami, Oklahoma, where he served for three years (1983-85).

Broyles also was the head baseball coach at Rolla from 1974-83 and at Miami High School.

In 1980, Broyles' defense at Missouri-Rolla was one of the best in the county, allowing just 34.6 yards per game on the ground, tops among NCAA Division II schools. The 1980 UMR defense forced an incredible 72 turnovers in 10 games, an average of 7.2 per game.

For the past three years, Broyles has led a PSU defense that has been ranked among the best in the nation. Last year, in Pitt State's first season of NCAA Division II competition, the Gorillas' were ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense (11.1 points per game), yielding two touchdowns or less in nine of PSU's 13 games. PSU's opponents failed to score a touchdown in five contests. The Gorillas also were ranked ninth nationally in total defense, allowing a mere 233.1 yards per game.

This year, the Gorilla "D" is nationally ranked in NCAA Division II once again in several statistical categories. PSU is eighth in the nation in points allowed (13.4 ppg), 13th in total defense (258.3), and 21st against the rush (116.5 ypg). PSU led the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association in all of the above categories.

Broyles was a former eight-man football standout at Mulberry High School, before continuing his playing career at PSU. He played both offensive and defensive line for the Gorillas, earning four varsity letters under legendary PSU football coach Carnie Smith. As a senior captain in 1968, Broyles earned NAIA All-American honorable mention accolades at defensive tackle, and he was selected PSU's most outstanding player. Broyles earned a free agent tryout with the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers the next year.

Chuck earned his bachelor's degree in education in 1970, while serving as a student coach. He accepted an assistant football and wrestling coach position at Carroll High School in Wichita from 1970-72, before returning to his alma mater as a graduate assistant in June of 1972. He earned a master's degree in 1973 while serving as a GA, then served as head football and track coach at Stockton High School in Missouri for a year, before accepting his first full-time college coaching position at Missouri-Rolla in 1973.

Chuck is married to the former Helen Ellwood of Cameron, MO. They live in rural Pittsburg with their three sons, Scott 16, Kyle 11, and Mark 10.

#3 Pittsburg State Hosts #7 East Texas State in NCAA Division II Quarterfinals

Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium • Pittsburg, KS
Saturday, November 24, 1990 • 1 p.m. (Central)

THE GAME

For the second consecutive year, the champion of Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association will battle the winner of the powerful Lone Star Conference in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division II Football Championships.

Third-ranked Pittsburg (KS) State University, the 1990 MIAA champion, will host seventh-ranked East Texas State University, winners of the LSC title.

Kickoff is set for 1 p.m. at Pittsburg State's Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium in Pittsburg, Kansas.

Tickets are on sale in PSU's Jack Overman Student Center from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Contributors to PSU's Athletic Scholarship Drive who purchased Red or Gold season tickets have until 4 p.m. Wednesday to purchase their seats.

The winner of the Pittsburg State/East Texas State game will face the winner of the North Dakota State/Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo winner in the NCAA-II semifinals.

Last week, PSU rolled over MIAA rival, Northeast Missouri State, 59-3 in the first round of the playoffs, while East Texas defeated Grand Valley (MI) State, 20-14 in Allendale, Michigan.

PITT STATE UNDEFEATED

Pitt State enters Saturday's contest with an 11-0 overall record. The Gorillas, one of two undefeated NCAA Division II teams - the other is #1 ranked North Dakota State -- recently completed their fifth straight perfect regular season.

Pittsburg State owns the nation's longest regular season winning streak, an amazing 55 games entering the 1991 campaign.

The Gorillas have not lost a regular season game since the third contest of the 1985 season, winning six straight league titles -- the past two MIAA championships and four Central States Intercollegiate Conference crowns.

PSU also has participated in post-season playoff competition six straight years, including the NCAA Division II playoffs the past two seasons. PSU reached the semifinals of the NAIA national playoffs three straight years (1986-88), before the program made the jump to NCAA Division II competition in 1989.

In last year's NCAA Division II playoffs, Pitt State beat MIAA rival Northwest Missouri, before falling to Angelo (TX) State, also a member of the Lone Star, 24-21 in the quarterfinals.

Along the way, East Texas thumped Texas A&I 26-6, and crushed Angelo State, 42-7. In the season finale, East Texas played the only common opponent between themselves and Pitt State, Cameron (OK) University. The Lions rolled over the Aggies, 59-0. PSU also defeated Cameron, 19-3 the fourth week of the season.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

PSU's berth in the '90 NCAA-II playoffs marks the program's 12th post-season appearance, and the Gorillas ninth playoff berth. PSU has reached the playoffs six straight years.

Pitt State won the NAIA national title in 1957 and 1961. Twenty years later, the Gorillas lost 3-0 to Elon (NC) College in the 1981 NAIA national championship game.

In 1985, PSU began the string of six straight playoff berths. Pitt State reached the NAIA semifinals three straight years, 1986-88, but suffered bitter defeats in the program's quest for a third national crown. Two of those defeats were to Cameron, ('86 and '87) now a member of the Lone Star.

PSU won its first NCAA playoff game in 1989, beating Northwest Missouri 28-7, before falling to Angelo State, 24-21.

East Texas won the 1972 NAIA national championship, and ETSU appeared in the quarterfinals of the 1980 NAIA playoffs, losing 14-6 to Elon (NC) College. The Lions have also appeared in four Tangerine Bowls.

PSU LAST WEEK

Pitt State exploded for 31 second quarter points and cruised to a 59-3 victory over Northeast Missouri. PSU scored three TD's in a span of 1:22 to blow open a 7-3 game.

Ronald Moore began the scoring barrage with a 1-yard run, capping a 12-play, 80-yard drive. On Northeast's next play from scrimmage, PSU's Phil McCoy sacked QB Jjeff Frost from behind, forcing a fumble which Troy Willson recovered at the NEMO 18. Jay Padden hit Ronnie West in the corner of the endzone on the next play to make it 21-3 with 10:09 left in the first half.

LCS CHAMPS ON A ROLL

East Texas State, the 1990 Lone Star champions, enter Saturday's contest with a 10-2 overall mark. The Lions were 7-0 in LSC play this year, winning their first outright league title since 1972.

East Texas State qualified for the NCAA Division II playoffs this year for the first time since the Lone Star Conference made the jump from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II affiliation in 1982.

ETSU posted an 8-3 overall mark in 1988, but had a disappointing 4-6 record last season. East Texas, picked to finish fourth in the LSC pre-season poll this year, got off to a 2-2 start, then exploded for seven straight Lone Star wins en route to the LSC title.

PSU LAST WEEK (Con't)

NEMO failed to move the ball, and PSU took over at its own 49. A 24-yard Moore run up the middle set up another Padden-to-West score, this time from 33 yards out. PSU suddenly led 28-3, and the rout was on.

Tailback Darren Dawson, who ran for 108 yards on 17 carries, added two TD's, the first on a 24-yard burst with 5:58 to play in the first half. Moore finished with 112 yards on 20 carries. Padden also scored two rushing TD's in addition to tossing two. He was 8 of 13 for 159 yards through the air.

West caught 5 passes for 69 yards and 2 TD's, while tight end Jody Truitt hauled in 3 Padden passes for a season-high 90 yards.

The Pitt State offense racked up 515 yards of total offense on the day, including 356 on the ground. The Gorilla "D" held Northeast to just 56 yards rushing, and 230 total yards. Pitt State enjoyed a 2-1 time of possession advantage (39:07 to 20:53).

ETSU AT GRAND VALLEY

The nation's #6 (Grand Valley) and #7 teams (East Texas) squared off in a first-round game at Allendale, Michigan.

Grand Valley scored first, but missed an extra point attempt, and led 6-0. East Texas countered with a 4-yard TD run by Gary Perry to take a 7-6 lead at the end of the first quarter. ETSU's Billy Watkins put the Lions up 10-6 at the half with a 42-yard FG.

Harlon Hill candidate Gary Compton caught a 35-yard TD pass from Bob Bounds with 5:42 to play in the third quarter to put the Lions in control 17-6. But Grand Valley fought back, scoring a TD and adding a two-point conversion to make the score 17-14 with 9:09 to play. Watkins hit another field goal for East Texas (from 35 yards out) to make it 20-14 with 4:02 remaining.

ETSU's Terry Bagsby (83) bats down a pass last week at Grand Valley. Bagsby's INT with just over a minute to play sealed the ETSU win.

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS!

The traditionally powerful Gorilla offense led the nation in scoring most of the season, but perhaps the most impressive aspect of the '90 campaign was the way PSU's young defense matured into one of the best defenses in the MIAA.

Late in the season, when PSU's offense struggled a bit, it was the defense that led PSU to a pair of key victories, 9-7 over Central Missouri and 17-0 over Washburn.

Including Saturday's playoff win, PSU's defense allowed 7 points or less in four of the last five games. PSU gave up just 34 points in the fourth quarter, and 51 points in the second half, all year. PSU finished tied for 13th nationally in scoring defense, allowing 13.4 points/game.

OFFENSE IMPRESSIVE TOO

The Gorilla offense wasn't exactly overshadowed by the defense in 1990. PSU averaged 41.5 points per game during the regular season -- third-best among NCAA Division II schools -- and exploded for 59 points in the playoff opener.

PSU also was ranked eighth nationally in total offense (451.4 ypg) and second in the country in rushing offense (325.2 ypg).

CLEARLY A WINNER!

If the Harlon Hill Award honoring the nation's premier NCAA Division II player was given to the player who has led his team to the most victories, PSU senior QB Jay Padden would be the clear winner.

Including playoff games, Padden is now 34-2 as PSU's starting quarterback.

Padden is Pitt State's all-time leader in regular-season touchdown passes (30) and career completion percentage (181-332; 54.5%). Padden is second on PSU's all-time yardage list with 2971 yards passing. He also gained 959 yards rushing the ball (on 397 carries) during his PSU career.

DYNAMIC DUO PLUS ONE

PSU had a pair of 1,000 rushers for the second straight year. Junior Darren Dawson finished with 1170 yards on 150 carries (7.8 ypc). He now has 2354 yards rushing on 300 carries (7.85 ypc) in two seasons, ranking him 4th on PSU's all-time rushing chart. He had two 100-yard games in last year's playoffs, and rambled for 108 yards in PSU's win over Northeast last Saturday.

Needing 192 yards in the season finale for 1,000, sophomore Ronald Moore gained a career-high 205 on only 19 carries. Moore finished the season with 1013 yards on 159 carries (6.37 ypc). He now has 1395 yards on 207 carries (6.74 ypc), good enough for 17th on the all-time list. Moore had 112 yards on 20 carries last week.

Dawson and Moore were the MIAA's only 1,000-yard rushers this season.

Senior Kelly Lawson ran for 521 yards on 91 carries (6.37 ypc) this year. He finishes his PSU career with 1382 yards on 227 carries (6.09 ypc), 18th all-time.

ALL-PURPOSE SENSATION

Junior Ronnie West completed his first season as a Gorilla with 35 catches for 735 yards (21.0 ypc). West led the NCAA-II ranks in punt return average (16.9 ypr) and he was second in kickoff returns (29.8 ypr). West led the MIAA in scoring with 13 TD's, and he added two more scores last week.

PSU DEFENSIVE LEADERS

Senior cornerback Darryl Wren finishes his PSU career with 13 interceptions. Wren led the team in interceptions this year with four, after picking off five last year (tie 1st).

Senior defensive back Ira McMillian had three INT's this year and was second on the team in tackles with 79. Junior linebacker Shane Tafoya led PSU with 84 tackles, while sophomore defensive end Troy Wilson had 74 stops and eight QB sacks.

A LOOK AT THE LIONS

East Texas State has several outstanding players to watch on both sides of the ball.

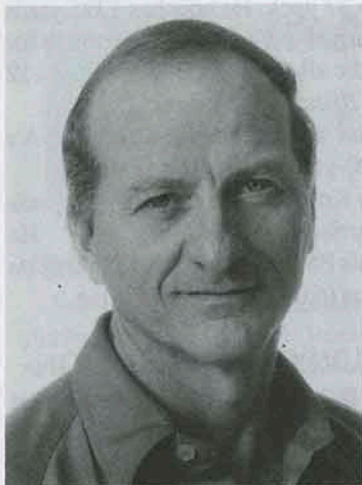

On offense, Harlon Hill candidate Gary Compton became the first Lone Star Conference receiver to top 3,000 yards. He made 181 career receptions for 3,041 yards and 30 TD's. Junior QB Bob Bounds threw for 1905 yards this year, completing 52.9% of his passes. He had 17 TD's and 13 INT's.

Three Lions compiled over 400 yards rushing: juniors Gary Perry (500 yards on 101 carries) and Willie Mozeke (477 yards on 96 carries) will share time at tailback, while the fullback is junior David Chapman (412 yards on 91 carries).

The leader of the Lion defense is 6-1, 235-pound senior end Terry Bagsby, who made 92 tackles (57 solo) this year, including a team-high 13 QB sacks. Bagsby's interception last week keyed ETSU's win over Grand Valley.

Sophomore Eric Turner tied the ETSU season record for INT's this year, and led the NCAA-II ranks with 10 during the regular season. He had another at GV last week.

Eddie Vowell, Head Football Coach

Eddie Vowell, the Lone Star Conference's Coach of the Year in 1988, is in his fifth season as head coach at East Texas State University.

He has been at ETSU since 1983, when he served as the team's defensive coordinator and the school's head track coach. As head football coach, he remains in charge of the defense as well as coaching the defensive secondary.

Vowell brought some changes to the Lions in their defensive philosophy. Before 1983, the Lions ran primarily a 4-3 scheme. Vowell introduced a 5-2 defense, with some variations, to ETSU and this remains as the core of the defense.

A 1965 graduate of Mobeetie High School, Vowell was a four-year letterwinner in football and served as vice president of the school's largest graduating class—12.

"Ever since the fifth grade, I knew I wanted to be a coach," Vowell said in a Dallas Morning News piece which featured the 11 surviving members during the class' 25th anniversary reunion. "I wasn't going to work on the railroad and I wasn't going to farm."

Vowell went on from Mobeetie to Southwestern Oklahoma State University, where he received his bachelor's and master's degrees. While at Southwestern Oklahoma, he lettered in football and track.

Vowell coached 14 years in the high school ranks before coming to East Texas State. He enjoys golf and snow skiing.

Vowell and his wife, the former Jan Thomas, have a daughter, Robin.

1990 East Texas Review — LSC Champs on a Roll!

EAST TEXAS 45 LIVINGSTON (AL) 6

East Texas rolled up 535 yards of total offense in steamrolling Livingston University in the first annual Chennault Memorial Cup game. Senior running back Jarrod Owens rushed for 93 yards, while junior quarterback Bob Bounds completed 16 of 23 passes for 270 yards. Senior wide receiver caught six passes for 103 yards and one TD. LU scored its only touchdown on a blocked punt.

EAST TEXAS 42 EAST CENTRAL (OK) 0

Quarterback Bob Bounds turned in another outstanding performance, completing 16 of 21 passes for 241 yards and four TD's. The Lions' defense overpowered the East Central, yielding only 192 yards and posting their first shutout since 1985.

Southern Arkansas 22 East Texas 17

Southern Arkansas used a 40-yard touchdown pass with 53 seconds left to hand East Texas its first loss of the season. SAU's Marcus Jackson returned the opening kickoff 87 yards for a TD to break the Lions' seven-quarter scoreless streak. East Texas came back with a pair of 2-yard TD runs by running back Jarrod Owens to take the lead. SAU countered with 10 points to retake the lead. Freshman Billy Watkins kicked a 33-yard field goal to put East Texas ahead with 1:35 to play, but SAU tallied the game winning TD just 42 seconds later. Owens gained 245 all-purpose yards to earn LSC Player of the Week honors.

Northwestern (LA) State 24 East Texas 17

Northwestern State took advantage of East Texas miscues in jumping out to a 24-7 halftime lead. ETSU's defense shutout the Demons and forced six turnovers in the second half, but the Lions could only manage 10 points and fell to 2-2 on the season. Junior Linebacker Rod Lee recorded 16 tackles and recovered two fumbles on his way to being named Regional Player of the Week by USA Today and Don Hansen's Football Gazette.

East Texas 17 Central (OK) State 10

Junior quarterback Mike Meador came off the bench to pass for 217 yards and junior running back Gary Perry scored two rushing touchdowns as the duo guided the Lions to victory. The biggest play of the game came late in the fourth quarter when ETSU's stingy defense stopped CSU on a fourth-and-one at the Lions' 15. Strong safety Jimmy Hooker tackled CSU running back Pinky Hurley for a loss. Hooker earned Lone Star Conference Player of the Week honors for his performance.

EAST TEXAS 26, TEXAS A&I 6

Quarterback Bob Bounds led the Lions to 407 yards of total offense in the lopsided win over conference rival Texas A&I. Bounds rushed for 88 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while passing for 92 yards. Junior fullback David Chapman became ETSU's first 100-yard rusher since 1983 with his 109-yard effort on 17 carries.

East Texas 51 West Texas 35

East Texas nearly blew a 30-7 halftime lead, allowing 28 second half points, before hanging on for the victory in the offensive showdown. QB Bob Bounds passed for 215 yards and four touchdowns, while Willie Mozeke ran 22 times for 166 yards and a pair of scores. Wideout Gary Compton set a Lone Star Conference record in career receptions.

EAST TEXAS 19 EASTERN NEW MEXICO 0

The Lions' defense recorded their second shoutout of the season, halting three first half drives which moved inside the East Texas 20. QB Mike Meador hooked up with Gary Compton on a 13-yard TD, and fullback David Chapman ran for another, in the victory. Compton added to his Lone Star Conference record in career receptions with his 167th catch during the third period.

East Texas 64 Abilene Christian 34

East Texas rolled up 487 yards of total offense and scored nine touchdowns in its rout of Abilene Christian. QB Mike Meador passed for 201 yards and three TD's, while WR Gary Compton had seven receptions for 101 yards and one score.

EAST TEXAS 42 ANGELO STATE 7

Running back Gary Perry rushed 34 times for 198 yards and a pair of touchdowns as East Texas locked up at least a share of the Lone Star Conference title with the win. The Lions used three long drives to take a 21-7 cushion into the intermission and blew the game wide open with a 21-point third period eruption. End Terry Bagsby was named National Defensive Player of the Week by Don Hansen's Football Gazette and USA Today after he made nine tackles, had three sacks, recovered a fumble, and broken up a pass.

East Texas 59 Cameron 0

Quarterback Bob Bounds threw for 230 yards and four touchdown passes and running back Gary Perry gained 120 yards on 20 carries as East Texas captured its 13th outright Lone Star Conference title in the route over the Aggies. Wide receiver Gary Compton caught three TD passes to set an LSC and an ETSU record in career touchdown receptions with 30. With the win, East Texas earned its first berth to the NCAA Division II playoffs.

East Texas 20 Grand Valley 14

Terry Bagsby intercepted a Grand Valley pass with 1:08 left to play, to lead the Lions to their first NCAA playoff victory. Grand Valley trailed 20-14 with a few minutes left to play. The Lakers drove from their own 25 to midfield, before Bagsby halted the drive and sealed the win. Gary Compton's 35-yard TD reception with 9:09 to play gave ETSU a 17-7 lead. GVSU's Jack Hull made the score 17-14 with a 4-yard run, but ETSU kicker Billy Watkins hit a 35-yarder to make it, 20-14 with 4:02 to play.

Terry Bagsby puts the pressure on Angelo State's QB in the Lions 42-7 thrashing of the Rams. Bagsby led ETSU with 13 QB sacks during the regular season this year.

Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association

The Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association is a 12-member conference of schools located in Missouri and Kansas which compete at the NCAA Division II level. First organized as a 14-member league in 1912, the MIAA has undergone several changes during the past decade, highlighted by expansion and increased participation in national championship competition. For the second consecutive year, the MIAA has two football teams represented in the NCAA Division II national playoffs. Last basketball season, four MIAA teams participated in the NCAA Division II national tournament.

In 1924, the league included only the five regional state colleges in Missouri: Central Missouri State, Northeast Missouri State, Northwest Missouri State, Southeast Missouri State, and Southwest Missouri State. In 1935, the MIAA added what is now known as the University of Missouri-Rolla, with Lincoln University joining the league in 1970. Ten years later, the University of Missouri-St. Louis joined the conference, while Southwest Missouri State withdrew from the league following the 1980-81 season to seek NCAA Division I status. Southwest Baptist University became the eighth league member in 1986.

July 10, 1987 marked a major milestone for the MIAA as league institutional representatives voted to admit Missouri Southern State College, Missouri Western State College, Pittsburg State University and Washburn University. The four new schools competed for MIAA championships in all men's and women's sports during the 1989-90 academic year. Southeast Missouri officials have announced their intentions to seek NCAA Division I status with plans to leave the MIAA following the 1991-92 year. Emporia State University will replace Southeast as the MIAA's 12th school in 1992.

The MIAA has gained recognition as one of the top NCAA Division II athletic conferences in the nation, conducting championships in eight men's and seven women's sports. For the men, champions are crowned in football, cross country, basketball, and indoor and outdoor track and field, baseball, tennis, and golf. For women, the MIAA conducts championships in volleyball, cross country, basketball, softball, indoor and outdoor track and field, and tennis.

Ken B. Jones is the commissioner of the MIAA, and his appointment in July, 1981, as the first full-time commissioner, marked the beginning of a new era of conference organization and activity. Jones previously served as Vice-President of Tarkio College and Assistant Commissioner of the Big Eight Conference. The conference headquarters are located in Maryville, Missouri.

The MIAA in Post-Season Play

For the second consecutive year, two Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic football programs met in the first round of the NCAA Division II playoffs.

And for the second straight year, Pittsburg State, the 1989 and 1990 MIAA champion, has advanced to the quarterfinals, after posting a victory over the MIAA runner-up.

Here's a look at MIAA teams and how they've fared in the NCAA Division II playoffs:

1990 Pittsburg State 59 Northeast Missouri 3
East Texas State at Pittsburg State
1989 Pittsburg State 28 Northwest Missouri 7
Angelo State 24 Pittsburg State 21
1984 Nebraska-Omaha 28 Northwest Missouri 15
1982 Jacksonville State 34 Northeast Missouri 21

Lone Star Conference

The Lone Star Conference began April 25, 1931, with five Texas Schools from the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association. East Texas State is the only charter member still active in the conference.

Other current LSC members and the years they entered the conference are: Abilene Christian (1973), Angelo State University (1968), Cameron University (1988), Central State University (1987), Eastern New Mexico University (1984), Texas A&I University (1954), and West Texas State University (1986).

Texas Women's University (1989) competes in the LSC's women's division.

Trinity, Houston, Howard Payne, Lamar, Tarleton State, McMurry, Sam Houston State, Stephen F. Austin State and Sul Ross State have all been members of the conference.

The LSC is the second oldest conference in the state of Texas, next to the Southwest Conference, and is currently in its 58th season of competition. The LSC schools joined the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), in 1983. The league's schools compete in Division II.

This is East Texas State University

East Texas State University is located in Commerce, located 65 miles northeast of Dallas. Originally established by Professor William Leonidas Mayo in 1889 as East Texas Normal College in Cooper, Texas, "Mayo College" or Mayo's College moved to Commerce in 1894.

The institution subsequently became East Texas State Normal College in 1917 when the state of Texas took over the then 50-acre campus. The name continued to change through the years — the next being east Texas State Teachers College in 1923, East Texas State College in 1957 and finally East Texas State University in 1965.

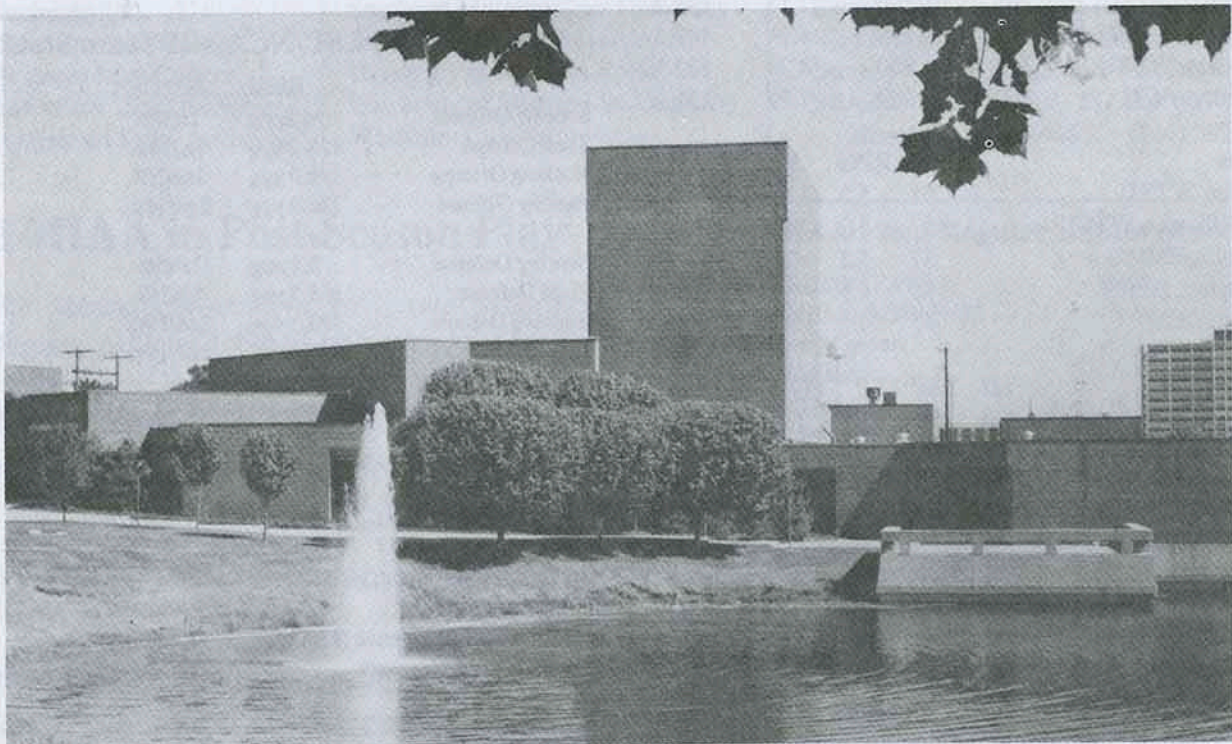

Now in its 101st year of operation, the university offers more than 100 major fields of study in 27 academic departments, with an emphasis in the fields of liberal arts, teacher educations, and business.

The major university divisions are: the College of Arts and Sciences, Business and Technology, Education, and the Graduate School.

The College of Arts and Sciences offers majors ranging from art, sociology, drama, computer science, to physics. ETSU was the first institution to offer a bachelor's degree in computer science. The technology department has added an engineering degree, while the sociology and anthropology department has expanded its graduate program.

ETSU is accredited at all levels by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education — fewer than 30 percent of institutions with teachers' programs can make this claim. ETSU is the ninth largest supplier of teachers out of the 66 institutions in the state which train teachers.

ETSU has 111 buildings (replacement value $139 million) on 1,850 acres. The library contains 1.3 million items and there is student housing for 2,500 single students and 250 married couples.

Drugs and the Athlete... a losing combination.

Athletes command a unique position in American society and in societies throughout the world. Many view the athlete as a hero who strives for perfection. The public expects excellence, and to achieve these high standards and thereby maintain public favor, the athlete must maintain peak alertness, responsiveness, efficiency and coordination.

A small segment of the athlete population has resorted to the use of drugs (e.g., anabolic steroids, amphetamines and various "street drugs") purported to improve physical performance. The decision to use drugs to improve physical performance, for the most part, has not been based on sound information and could have dire physical consequences for involved individuals. Further, such usage violates NCAA ethical principles.

The ethics of sport need to be emphasized, particularly in that taking drugs to improve performance constitutes cheating. There is need to reemphasize the fact that the important thing in sport is to compete honorably; to win at all costs is a contradiction to the meaning of sport.

The athlete should not carry all the blame for the situation. Coaches, trainers and the medical profession need to share some of this burden, as does the public, for expecting and frequently demanding a winning effort every time.

Society has placed a number of demands upon the athlete. If one believes that athletes and the general public will make sound judgments most of the time when provided with the necessary information, educating athletes and others about drug effects, appropriate drug use and the skills needed to cope with such problems could have substantial benefits to the individual and to society.

The NCAA has produced a pamphlet entitled "Drugs and the Athlete...a losing combination," which includes the latest and best information available on the problem of solving drugs in sports. To order, send $3 for 12 copies to: NCAA Publishing, 6201 College Boulevard, Overland Park, Kansas 66202.
