Dear Sir and Brother: -

In answer to your letter of April 5th, wherein your Local Union is asking for a copy of settlement in the Ray Gunn case, beg to advise that after going back on this case again the second time, in going over the horseback involved, Cunningham agreed to pay Gunn straight horseback, with the understanding that he is to deduct $4.00 from the 21,900 pounds of coal which Gunn had loaded.

Yours fraternally,

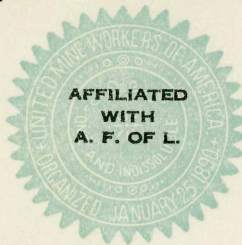

Board Member

Dear Sir and Brother:

I am in receipt of your letter of April 8th and in reply would advise that it was thought best to send information concerning action of the International Executive Board to Secretary Burr with the request that he notify all persons whose signatures were attached to the letter as to the action of the Board. However, in the event that you have not received such a letter from your district secretary, I am enclosing herewith copy of same which you will please accept as the information to you and the other signatories to the appeal, indicating the action of the International Executive Board.

Trusting this is satisfactory, I am

Very truly yours,

Secretary-Treasurer
