NOTES FROM THE REGRETTERS:

Kristi Mohler Newman = "Would love to come, but I will be in rehearsal for a show that weekend. Don't forget me though!"

Tammie Hervey-Roberts = "What a great idea. Sorry...already involved in family reunion the same dates. And speaking of family... 8 months pregnant with child number 3...my grand finale for sure. I'm living in P-burg still. I teach dance and fitness classes at the YMCA...and still running 30 miles a week. I'm having a great life living in the country. Say 'hi' to all...especially Don Kabrey, Gary, Randy and Patty Abts. Have a hell of a time."

Janette Mauk = "I'll be in England at that time. Thanks for the invite, though. I'm sure that it will be a fun weekend!"

Michael Westhoff = "Sorry, I have a job in Detroit, MI and I will not be able to attend! Best of luck with the gala!"

Piper Pickrell = "What a great idea. So sorry not to be able to attend. I am working here until the end of July then I'll be home to attend my high school reunion and work for Cherie. It's too bad the theatre is closing. As you know all things go in cycles and I'm sure it will re-open again at some point. Maybe even in our lifetimes!! I do hope you've asked Carol Dudgeon to make an appearance in that awful George M wig. I don't even remember it I just know it had Ron and I on the floor. My special thanks to you guys for being there to pay me on my first pro gig. Hope to see you sometime this summer."

Julianne Rivera = "I will be in London touring with the Methodist Church choir."

Loretta VanWesten = "Moving is painful enough no matter how good the reasons but having to miss this event compounds the torture! I'll be thinking of you as I unpack my boxes and will make an effort to send a videotape so I can share vicariously. Sorry to see it all end but what a Grand Finale! Best wishes, Break A Leg!"

Camilla (Cami) Upchurch = "Would love to be there, but I'm opening a show here that weekend. Hope it goes well - know it will. Think of me."

Lee Tiberghien = "Break-a-Leg! Best wishes to each and every person who grows in this learning experience."

Joseph Meeks = "We are leaving July 1 for a new job in Washington. Come visit us in Kent. The event sounds fun! Have a great time!!"

Jane VanVleck Kellison = "Unfortunately, we have Beta. The tapes are a great idea for those who have VHS. Greetings and break a leg to all attendees."

Kevin Mahoney = "I do not have any pictures of Grease. I would greatly appreciate an opportunity to purchase a few shots. I seem to recall Linda took a particularly good one of the Drive-In sequence. Are these still available for purchase? I'd be grateful. Just arrived in Oklahoma and received your note. Am sorry the Playhouse has run into financial problems, and double sorry I will not be able to attend the "reunion" thoroughly enjoyed my summer in Kansas, and all the great people. I am currently living in L.A. Moved there shortly after finishing my MFA in playwriting from Indiana University (transferred from Yale after deciding an MA wasn't what I wanted). Worked 2 years as the Playwright-in-Residence at the Lee Strasberg Center, then the Beverly Hills Free Theatre. Left to write soap operas (like brain surgery) a year. My first film, Clayton, will be filmed in Southeast Oklahoma in mid September. Am very thrilled, of course. I've been very fortunate. Hope this reaches you in good health. Please say 'hello' to the Grease, On Golden Pond and Brigadoon casts. I remember you all fondly. Take care."

Dave Severs = "Director of Cultural Service, The Lincoln Center, Ft. Collins, Colorado, and still active in local theatre."

Claire Childress = Colorado Springs, Colorado - Minister of Pastoral care at the First United Methodist Church. She writes that she was recently made a "bona fide, certified and gainfully employed clergyman. So I am not going to do any more silly things; or if I do, it will not be before tomorrow morning, early. I hope you have a terrific time. I will listen for the sound of legs breaking."

C.R. Waugh = "This is a great idea. I wish I could be there. Best of luck always."
