EXPERIMENTAL THEATRE SEASON 1990

The PSU Department of Communication
PRESENTS

An Original One-Act Drama

"A VISIT"

Written & Directed by
Curtis L. Isom

March 30 & 31, 1990
Grubbs Theatre Lab

I dedicate this show to Dr. Cary Clasz--a great friend who opened the door of theatre to me and continues to allow and encourage me to develop skills that not only benefit theatre, but also my business profession of accounting as well. To you, Dr. Clasz, go my deepest gratitude and warmest appreciation always. God bless you. C.L.I.

THINK ABOUT IT:

"These things also I have observed: that knowledge of our world is to be nurtured like a precious flower, for it is the most precious thing we have. Wherefore guard the word written and heed words unwritten--and set them down ere they fade....Learn then, well, the arts of reading, writing, and listening true, and they will lead you to the greatest art of all: understanding"

-author unknown

"IT IS THE TALE, NOT HE WHO TELLS IT."

-Stephen King

"Follow your bliss"

THANKS:

To GOD for the greatest classroom of all-- life; to the Dept. of Communication; Dr. Pete Hamilton--Chairman, Shirley Purdy--Secretary; to Barry Bengsten--Can I stretch any farther?; to my cast and crew for supporting a dream; and to everyone, past and present, who continue to lend me moral support in whatever I do plus those I might of carelessly missed---I love you all and God bless you always.

C.L.I.
