Dear Mr. Robison:

Luckily for all of us, it looks like your hunch is right on "More and More Tee-jus, Ain't It".

We have had stock on your record less than a week and obviously the dealers have just received their release sheets because the orders are starting to come in. To tell the truth, I thought it was going to be a dud, but right now it looks like I could be wrong. When it comes to picking the hits I'm usually in reverse anyway. Either the wrong side of the record or not at all, so I have learned not to depend on my own judgement.

If we sell even half as much as 10224 it will still be a good seller.

Wishing as much success in all your recordings as
"Life Gits Tee-Jus", I remain

Yours very truly,

LOVE ELECTRIC COMPANY
