Plan Programs For 17th Annual Education Week

Nov. 8 to 13 Assemblies and Parade Scheduled for Observance

For Seven Days

All-City Event in Mirza Temple
Thursday Morning as Students March.

Pittsburg senior high school will participate in three special programs during the week of Nov. 7 to 13 which is National Education Week, according to Claude I. Huffman and Miss Clara Radell, who are in charge.

The home rooms will have their own special programs on Monday and Tuesday mornings during their regular home room periods.

The Girl Reserves and Hi-Y organizations will unite on Wednesday to present a program built around the theme, "The School in Relation to the Home and Religion." Special music will be furnished by the music department under the direction of Gerald Carney.

There will be a parade on Thursday morning at about 10 o'clock and later in which the students will march to the Mirza Temple to take part in an all city program sponsored by the American Legion.

The theme for this program is "Citizenship and World Peace."

Miss Radell, assisted by several students, will be in charge of the program on Friday. The subject for this program will be "Horace Mann and the Story of Our Schools." The music department will again furnish special music.

Patrons and pupils are asked to remember the two special assembly programs on Wednesday and Friday and the all-city program at the Mirza Temple Thursday on Armistice Day, according to the chairman.

Vacations For P.H.S.

Festivities to Free Students for Five
Times This Year

The students of P. H. S. will enjoy five vacations this year.

Tomorrow the pupils will get out because of the statewide teachers' convention. The next holiday which is Thanksgiving, will free the students the Thursday of Thanksgiving and the Friday after. In the past the Christmas vacation has been a week if not longer.

Principal J. L. Hutchinson said that no definite arrangement had been made for either the Christmas or the Easter holidays as yet. So far as it is known, however, the Easter holiday will be the Friday before Easter and the Monday after.

Although not included on the regular calendar, school will be dismissed Thursday afternoon, Nov. 11, for Armistice Day.

FORMER COAL QUEENS UP FOR KANZA CROWN

The contest for Kanza queen at the College, which will close the middle of December includes two graduates from P.H.S.

Jane Baxter '37, freshman, is the independent candidate. Miss Baxter was Queen Pittsburg in 1936. She was also cheer leader at P.H.S. during her junior and senior years.

The candidate nominated by the Phi Mu Gamma sorority is Gertrude Sellmansberger '34. Miss Sellmansberger was Queen Pittsburg in 1933.

Seniors Sure to Eat

The seniors will eat! The junior class made $135 net profit on their annual class play, "One Mad Night," which they presented in the high school auditorium last Thursday night. The play was remarkably well received by a capacity audience. The crowd surpassed all play crowds for the past seven years. The money will be used to meet expenses of the senior banquet in the spring.

Jubilee Singers

The Kentucky Harmony Jubilee singers gave several numbers in the last part of assembly Friday, Oct. 29.

Teachers Attend State Meetings

Delegates to Assembly Tonight:
William Row, H. D. Price
And Mrs. J. H. Hand

Members of the high school faculty will go to various places to attend the 78th annual meeting of the Kansas State Teachers Association tomorrow. Meetings will be held at Hays, Dodge City, Lawrence, Wichita, Parsons, and Manhattan.

This year will be the first annual meeting of the sectional delegates assemblies, which will be held at 8 o'clock tonight. Sectional delegates and alternates from Pittsburg are as follows: William Row, delegate, and C. I. Huffman, alternate; H. D. Price, delegate, and Frank Hopkins, alternate. Mrs. J. H. Hand, delegate, and Mrs. Louellen Tripp, alternate. They will attend the meeting at Parsons.

A number of outstanding speakers will appear on the program at the different meetings. Among them are Dorotha Brande, author of "Wake Up and Live" who will speak about the personal side of life at Lawrence and Manhattan. Vierling Kersey superintendent of schools at Los Angeles, is to appear on the program at Wichita and Parsons. Another outstanding speaker on their program is Josh Lee, United States senator from Oklahoma. Mr. Lee was the speaker at last year's commencement exercises, who won himself a reputation as being very good and having a brilliant sense of wit.

Lord Marley, deputy speaker of the House of Lords, who speaks on international affairs, will address the general sessions at Lawrence and Manhattan.

Gerald P. Nye, United States senator from North Dakota, known to all who study current events will be a general session speaker at Hays and Dodge City. Another speaker there is Rennie Smith, an Englishman, who held teachers spellbound at Topeka last year.

GIRL RESERVES PARTY COMMITTEES SELECTED

Four members from the general cabinet have been chosen to serve as the heads of the various committees for the annual big and little sister party. Those appointed were Mary Morgan, Jean Burke, Maxine Williams, and Frances Hunt. They will serve as the chairmen for the following committees: refreshments, getting acquainted, prizes, and games respectively. Two girls will be elected from each of the six groups to help with one of the groups.

DEMONSTRATIONS GIVEN FOR LEEKA'S CLASSES

A furnace demonstration was given Monday, Nov. 1, by A. L. Van Atta of the Holland Furnace Company for Miss Calla Leeka's home living class. The demonstration was given during the fifth hour at which time he displayed a small model and explained its structure.

Another demonstration was given for Miss Leeka's foods classes during the sixth hour on Tuesday, Nov. 2, on the cutting of meats. The demonstrator was Ray Lowe from Buchman's Grocery.

DORSEY '36 TO REIGN AS HOMECOMING QUEEN

Betty Dorsey '36, now a sophomore at K. S. T. C., was elected as homecoming queen for the Sterling College football game and the dance next Saturday.

Miss Dorsey received 184 votes; Margaret Ann Naylor, Seaman, 144 votes; and Cecilia Enman, Pittsburg, 123 votes. Miss Taylor and Miss Enman will serve as attendants to Miss Dorsey. The coronation ceremonies will take place during the dance, Saturday night.

C. H. Lundquest, typing instructor, who was absent from school last week because of illness, returned to school Tuesday.

Senior Class Officers

Above are shown the four officers selected in the recent annual election by members of the senior class to guide the destinies of the class of '38 during the current year—1937-1938. They are as follows, reading left to right: Alfred Steele, treasurer; Frances Hunt, secretary; John Duncan, vice president; Carl Beard, president.

Seniors Have Fun

Spooks Abide at Halloween Party;
Prizes Given For Costumes

Spooks! Big spooks and little spooks! Both were present at the senior party held last Friday night in the high school library.

First, Billie Louise Heimdale played some popular pieces on her violin. This was followed by a whirling exhibition of a baton with fire on each end given by Norman Smith. The conclusion of the program was a play entitled "Ducks and Daggers at Dawn" or "Why She Was Left Alone." The hero was Norman Smith, the heroine Rosalie Wagner and the villain Bob Pratt.

After the program a contest was held for the person who had the cleverest, the prettiest, and the one who had remained masked the longest. Judges of the contest: Miss Frances Palmer and Charles E. Thibaud. The prettiest costume was won by Mildred Malzohn, the cleverest costume by Norma Blaser. Because every one was identified no prize was given for the one who stayed masked the longest so the prize for the funniest costume was given to Tom Loftus.

Refreshments consisting of cocoa, apples and gingerbread were served to the 80 seniors present.

Write Scenarios

Last week the members of Miss Harriett Way's sophomore English classes had a chance to show their ability of writing outlines of movie shots. The students used the following outline for writing their scenarios: Kind of shot; scenery (colors); description of people and animals; action; sound.

Changes in Rules Affect Debaters

State Delegate Assembly Changes
K. S. T. C. Tourney Date
to Nov. 19-20

Those students who are in William Row's debate classes for the second time will notice some of the changes in the debate laws made recently by the Kansas Delegate Assembly for Speech. Law No. 2, which came into effect recently, has already made a change in the debate plans. The K. S. T. C. debate tournament which was to be held Nov. 12-13 is scheduled to be held Nov. 19-20 because of this new law. Some of these which will have major bearing on P. H. S. are:

1. That no member school be permitted to be represented in a national debate or speech tournament.

2. That all invitation tournaments in debate, extemporaneous speaking, or other speech contests—drama excepted—must be held on Friday and Saturday between the dates of Nov. 15 and Feb. 9; that a pupil may represent his school in not more than five invitation tournaments; and that no coach of a team entered in such a tournament may serve as a judge in more than 40 percent of the rounds.

3. That a pupil may not attend a special summer session where training is provided on the subject for debate be subject to the provisions of year.

4. That pupils participating in debate be subject to the provisions of the 8-semester and 20-year age limit rule, as well as the general scholarship rule for the present and previous semesters, but not subject to the transfer rule as applied to athletics.

5. That the district tournaments shall be held between Feb. 5. and 17

NAMELESS TEACHER DIGS UP APPALLING PAST

We are mentioning no names but tsk! tsk! these teachers! A certain home room, we are not saying whether it was sophomore, junior, or senior, was discussing Halloween and the things you shouldn't do. A certain teacher, you guess who, led the discussion as all good teachers should. The members of his sophomore(?) junior(?) senior(?) home room left his class resolving to be good children on Halloween.

But all his efforts were ruined. The next day this nameless teacher forgot the discussion of the day before and began bragging about the mean, lowdown, and appalling tricks he used to do on Halloween. He, may have had a great influence on the morale of his students. Was it for the worse? Well, he may be "nameless" to us but some people have plenty of names for him.

Officers Chosen In Home Rooms

All but Two Groups Elect Leaders to Carry Out Work
For School Year

The home rooms have elected their officers for the school year. A number of the officers have been carrying out their duties since a week or two after school started.

About half of the home rooms elected a president, vice president, and secretary-treasurer. And others both a secretary and a treasurer.

John E. White's room will not elect officers, while Miss Anne Fintel's home room will elect later.

The officers are elected:

Ramsey
President _____ Edwin Ryan.
Vice president _____ Laundus Nogel.
Sec'y-treas. _____ Charles Ritter.

Stephens

Pupils Recognize Proctors by Pins

Burke, Bachman, Gerhart, Troxel
Receive Stair Assignments
On First Floor

Proud proctors now parade with pins! Members of the service organization of the high school were issued their badges last week by Lester C. Ramsey, sponsor.

Four new assignments have been made: Jean Burke, southwest stairs, first floor; Jean Bachman, northwest stairs, first floor; Virginia Ann Gerhart, southeast stairs, first floor; Lois Troxel, northeast stairs, first floor. These girls were assigned to take these stairs after assembly.

Ten proctors took tickets at the junior play. Miss Anna Fintel had charge of telling the proctors at which door to stand.

Principal J. L. Hutchinson made a suggestion that the proctors try to watch the cars and bicycles that are left out during the school hours. A suggestion was also made that proctors be assigned on the third floor during the noon hour to prevent pupils from throwing paper down on the second and first floors.

Band in Unique Performance at Armistice Game

Orchestra and Boys Glee Club
Make Initial Appearance
This Morning

To Be Broadcast

KOAM to Feature 15-Minute Spot
For School During National Education Week

The school's several musical organizations will be featured in first appearances during this week and next. After six weeks of preparation, their varied programs will first be presented to the student body.

The band, although having already appeared, hopes to crown its successful season with a spectacular performance at the Armistice day football game. While marching at the half, a locomotive will be formed. "I've Been Working on the Railroad" will then be played. The train effects will be made by the snare drums.

The girls from the orchestra dressed in red coats will then join the boys in forming a colorful United States shield making a group of 110 on the field. The game is to be broadcast and a description of the performance will be given by Bill Robison '37.

The orchestra made its first appearance in today's assembly. Four selections were played including "Pique Dame Overture" (Suppe), "Intermezzo" from "The Thousand and One Nights" (Strauss), "Mile Modiste" (Victor Herbert), and "Chinese Temple Garden" (Ketybel).

"Chinese Temple Garden" is a characteristic number with parts provided for the boys' glee club. Special effects are required from the drums and traps. These were played by Don Griffin, Drury Love, Terrill Homm, and Xava Graham.

Irene Harmel sang "Kiss Me Again" (Herbert).

During National Education Week Wednesday, Nov. 4, the girls' glee club will make its initial appearance in assembly singing "Snow" (Elgar). On Friday, Nov. 12, the boys' glee club will make its first real offering singing "Hail Us Ye Free" (Verdi) and "Hooda Day," a sea chanty.

Sometime during National Education Week, the two glee clubs will present a 15-minute program over KOAM, the Pittsburg broadcasting station.

Choose Committees

Entertainment Groups Selected For
Faculty Club Meetings

Ellsworth R. Briggs, president, has announced the different entertainment committees for the high school Faculty Club.

The committee for the meeting to be held Nov. 16 is composed of Snodgrass, F. White, Carnino, Radell, and Fintel. The program for the meeting of the club Dec. 21 will be arranged by Laney, J. White, Corporon, Way, and Thiebaud. For the meeting Jan. 18 Rose, Leeka, Bailey, Gable, and Ramsey will be in charge of the program. The committee for the meeting Feb. 15 is composed of Hutton, Row, Waltz, and Briggs. Lanyon, Nelson, Nation, Lundquest, and Stephens compose the committee which will take charge of the program March 15. For the April 19 meeting Peterson, Farner, Hartford, and Palmer will supervise the program.

SEDORIS, COCHRAN IN ARDEN PLAY NOV. 11

Two graduates from P. H. S. will take part in the Arden play at the College Nov. 11.

One of the leading girls of the cast is Wanda Sedoris '34, who is a senior at the college. She has had experience in a number of the plays at the senior high school, including "Putting It Over," "Sun Up," "Ship Ahoy," and "Pinafore."

Darrel Cochran '37, a freshman, has taken part in "Dollars to Doughnuts," "Tommy," "Tweedles," and "Vanity" at this high school.

THOUGHT FOR A DAY

Life is a series of surprises. We do not guess to-day the mood, the pleasure, the power of to-morrow, when we are building up our being.

—Emerson
The more we do, the more we can do; the more busy we are, the more leisure we have.—Hazlitt.

PROCTOR AID

Have you ever noticed anybody standing at the foot of the stairs? It's a proctor who is directing the traffic much in the same way that an officer directs the traffic up town. The proctors are there to see that things can be speeded up but in an orderly manner.

Let's help them out by obeying them and doing as they say.—Loren Jones.

MAKE A TOUCHDOWN

The stadium is packed with yelling people. Down on the field the home team is gaining ground. Suddenly a fullback plunges over the line for a touchdown! The crowd goes wild, yelling, jumping up and down, and pounding on each other. The feeling of exhilaration that a good football game gives you is different from any other feeling. The goal that you hope to attain in the game of life will merit this feeling if you merely gain a few yards. Exhilaration will come when you go over the line for a touchdown!—Jemibel Evans.

WHAT ARE YOUR OPPORTUNITIES?

First, we have our own natural abilities or talents. Everyone is blessed with some talent or other. Whether he develops that talent or whether he doesn't is his own responsibility.

Second, we have the schools. One of the principal purposes of the school is to aid you to develop your abilities. The only way that one can develop his talents is by working hard. Thus the conclusion that we draw is to make the most of our opportunities. We must work at our lessons instead of loafing around and trying to just "get by." Just remember, "Opportunity doesn't break the door down trying to get in. She just knocks once and then goes away."—Norman Smith.

OUR FORGOTTEN MEN

Did you know that in our school there is an activity for which we are known over all southeastern Kansas? Yet these students have to pay all their own expenses except transportation to the various contests they enter. During the half year that these students participate they spend approximately five to ten hours every week outside the regular school period. Can you guess who these students are? Yes, you're right; it's the debaters.

These debaters will enter five tournaments during the year; tournaments lasting from one to three days and sometimes nearly 200 miles away. Yet they have no pep meeting, not even a word of encouragement from the school body. Let us, the student body, do something about this.

What? When the debate season gets in full swing, step up to some of the debaters and wish them luck. They don't want a pep meeting but a few words of encouragement will be appreciated.—Melvin Kodas.

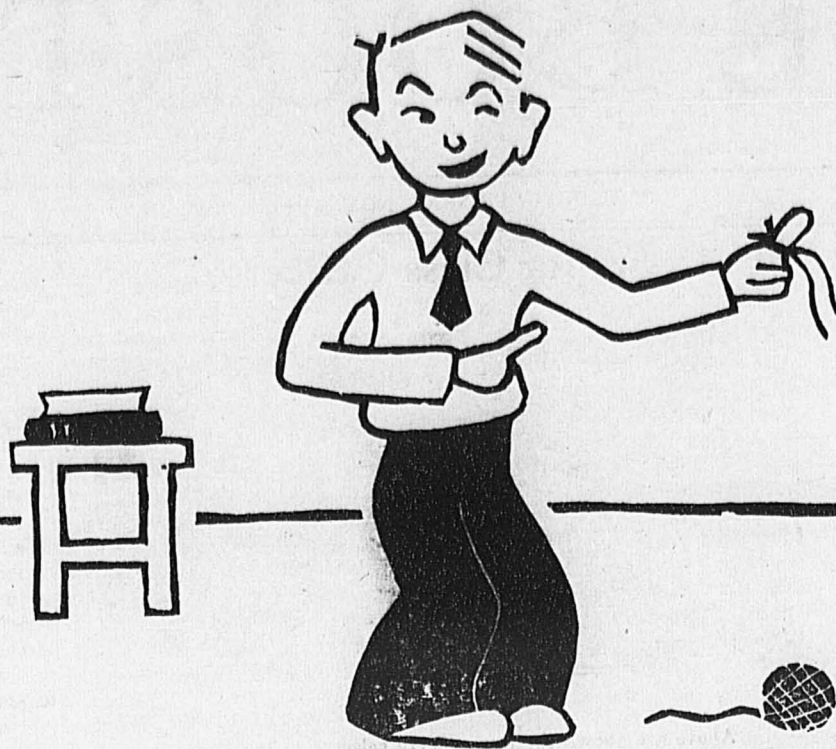

CONGRATULATIONS!

Allow The Booster to congratulate the student body of P. H. S. upon their great love of music. When the orchestra started playing between acts of the junior play, everyone sat with his mouth open in rapt admiration. That was all right but when shouting and loud talking was the result of keeping those mouths open, you can see why people who don't attend this school were very disgusted with the whole procedure.

There are only two remedies for this situation. Either keep still when you should or Mr. Carney can get a lot of trombones, trumpets, and brass instruments from the band and blast your ears off. You can easily see what would be the best way to remedy this so let's remedy it.—Norman Smith

Life is made up of sobs, sniffles, and smiles, with sniffles predominating.—O. Henry.

A Gentle Reminder

—Verla Hammick
Elmer's a pretty wise kid - - - sometimes! He's tied a string around his finger to remind him to forget to come to school Friday! Who could forget it?

I ONLY HEARD

(Jacqueline Gore)

You senior boys had better be careful about whom you wink at! These sophomore girls take you seriously. At any rate one senior boy got himself in a lot of hot water for winking at a sophomore girl and now her heart is broken because he says he didn't mean it. We sympathize with you, Madlyn Osterfeld.

What's this we hear about Virginia Ann Gerhart going with Ward Thomas '35? You'd better watch out, June Remington.

Maxine Humbard has two junior boys on her trail. It seems that Leonard Stone and Thomas Mann literally camp on Maxine's doorstep and it's reached the note stage now. What about Etzel, Maxine?

Is it true that Loretta McNeil is going steady with Paul Turner? That's what is heard.

Bernice Ellis has a date with Leonard Sellmansberger for the Thanksgiving dance. Nice work, Bernice. Sarah Grasso asked Bob Stover to the same dance thereby squelching Rosemary Schiefelbein's chance to ask her big strong, blonde Viking. We have seen them together quite a lot lately.

These candid camera men! Lawrence Isaacs is one of them and Jean Canfield is in most of the shots. Wonder why?

Wrong last week. The affair between Maxine Douglas and Ralph Taylor is definitely off now.

Wonder what it is about the college dances that attract so many P. H. S. girls. Maybe Mildred Seaman and Bernice will tell you if you ask them. They should know.

Didn't anyone tell Bob Crews that Betty Jo Roy had found her O. A. O.? He seemed very much surprised when she refused to go to the junior play with him.

And speaking of the junior play, did you know that we had visitors from out of town for the play? Earl Perry actually brought his much publicized girl friend from Columbus.—P. S. She's a preacher's daughter.

What's this between Bill Ford and Florence Spineto? They're seen together in the halls quite a bit.

Marjorie Ellis and "Jackie" Smith seem to have quite a crush on Albert Hopper. They got a lot of pleasure out of merely standing in the doorway and watching him. Must be nice!

Marie Macrea can tell you exactly how long she and Don Patton have been going steady. I think she could tell to the minute if you'd give her just a second to figure.

Why is it that Ed Herbeck, George Dineen and Jack Broyles can't go to the nickel show anymore? Maybe it's because they made too much noise the last time.

Jeanne Stevens and Jack Gray have decided to try going steady and it looks as tho' Edna Plumlee and Bob Voss will reach the same decision soon; that is, if they haven't already.

The Margaret Morin—Jimmy Duncan combination is seen more and more each day. What about Albert, Margaret?

Why is it that Helen Winsby refuses to give the boys a break? When Jack Crouch asked her to go to the game at Fort Scott, she flatly refused. You should be ashamed of yourself, Helen.

BOOKS YOU MAY LIKE

PRESENT INDICATIVE

by NOEL COWARD

This autobiography was first noticed for its catchy title. O. O. McIntyre acclaimed it as the year's best title. But aside from the title, it is an exceptionally clever book. Mr. Coward has long been known for his highly successful and amusing plays, both as an actor as well as a playwright. He writes with a style slightly satirical yet with sincerity. He recounts his early adventures on the stage with clarity and with a touch of humor at the amusing figure he cut at the tender age of four, singing before a rather sceptical audience. The author spares himself no detail of the many embarrassing incidents in his erratic life.

All in all, if you want to be up on your celebrities, and hanker for something "good" to read, this is by all means one of the best books you could choose.

THROUGH THE KEYHOLE

(Irene Brannum)

It seems that Dick Dixon was very much embarrassed the other day in fifth hour. Miss Hutton moved him across the room from Betty Nail because he talked to her too much. A few minutes later Rosalie Magner left the room. Dick, who was diligently studying, thought it was Miss Hutton. Up jumped Dick and yelled, "Hey! Betty!" across the room. Was his face red when he looked up to see Miss Hutton staring at him?

What boy in sixth hour library checks out several books or magazines a day just with the hope the pretty librarian will smile at him? Goodness, Bob, you must have it bad!

Bette Lu Williams went to Ft. Scott to see the football game but she didn't know who won! Can you explain that, Leonard Schroeder???

Why did Julia Ann Pogson let Merle Dean Hadlock down to go home with George Young? Why, Julia Ann, aren't you afraid you will break the poor boy's heart?

What three senior girls had dates with the same boy on the same day? One dated in the morning, one in the afternoon and the other at night. My, my, what a fickle young man! If you haven't guessed who the girls are, here they are—Barbara Barkell, Dorothy Burcham and Maxine Douglas.

Billie Louise Heimdale forgot her senior dignity and went to the Fort Scott game with Drury Love, a junior! When they got there she sorta got lost from him and went with a Fort Scott boy. But the joke is on her after all because he is a junior too. And his name is Adelbert De Stowinski!

Kathleen Karns thinks Junior Whiteman is pretty nice, but he took that cute new junior, Faye Thompson, to the football game.

Farewell to Norma Hudson—one grand personality has left our midst—"Gone but not forgotten." Dutch received a post card the other day.

The man about town, George Sealey, got illusions about Virginia Forrester the other night. In fact it kept Virginia very busy running away from him. But before the evening was over she was chasing him. She even had to go in a billiard parlor after him in order to get out of town before they closed everything up.

PUPIL PORTRAITS

The two persons chosen for this week's column are Virginia Thomas and Jack Paullin. Virginia came here from Lakeside and Jack came from Roosevelt. Virginia's chief ambition is to become a telephone operator. Jack wants to be either a yeoman in the navy or a minister. Virginia's favorite song is "You Can't Stop Me From Dreaming." She is of medium height and has light brown hair and blue eyes. She is a proctor on the stairs by Miss Laney's room. Her hobby is collecting pins. Jack is tall and has brown eyes and dark hair. His hobby is hunting. Do you know these students?

JEST HERE AND THERE

(Caskey—Burcham—Crews)

This week's jest captain—Florabelle Campbell.

Jacque Gore—There's a Wilfred in the funny paper.
Wilfred Morin—Yes, but I'll bet he's not a Morin (moran).

Mr. Ramsey—What is meant by counterman? (shorthand).
Margaret Jean Wills—He's the man behind the counter.

Charles Ray—When my Dad sees I'm down to "zero" on my grade card, he'll warn me up.

Lucille Patterson (watching the football boys practice) Oh, we used to do that in ballet dancing!

Anne Nettels—I want to finish my education at K. U.
Fay Degen—Oh, really! And where are you going to start?

Alma Taylor—I just got a letter from Jack with fifteen mistakes in it.
Florabelle Campbell—You evidently hold him spellbound.

Betty Cain—I have the floor, Claire Lucille.
Claire L. Hubert—That's all right. It's under me too.

Virginia Forrester—We're going to wait until it's cold to have club so we can have ice cream and cake.

Lois Troxel—He used to say he would die for me.
Ruth Patterson—Don't rush him, dear, don't rush him.

Chuck Ritter—Is it true that bleaching the hair causes insanity?
Harold Walker—Well, I know a lot of guys that are crazy over a blonde.

ETIQUETTE HINTS

GIRLS

If you refuse a dance with one boy, you should not turn right around and dance with another. If you tell a boy you are tired, you should wait a reasonable length of time before dancing with someone else.

BOYS

Don't go down the street hanging on a girl's elbow. She can walk down the street without your assistance unless it is hilly or rough.

BOYS AND GIRLS

"Ho! Hum! I'm so bored." Must you let everyone know you are. Maybe someone is just as bored as you are but keeps it to himself. No one likes a person who is always bored no matter what's going on; it can be overlooked occasionally but it becomes monotonous after a while.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Question: What's the difference between a pretty nice girl and a nice pretty girl? (Apologies to KOAM).

Gene Choate: Not any difference.
Virginia Moore: A nice pretty girl is nice and also pretty at the same time and a pretty nice girl is a girl trying to be nice but hasn't made the grade yet.

Virginia Lee Hale: A pretty nice girl is one who has nice manners but is not especially pretty. A nice, pretty girl is one who is pretty and nice also.

Howard Greenwood: A pretty girl is pretty and the pretty nice girl is just nice.

Someone Unknown: It makes no difference to me.

Willa Johnson: A pretty girl is judged by looks but a pretty nice girl is judged by reputation.

Norman Dooley: How are they alike? A girl can be pretty nice and pretty at the same time. Or can she? You answer it—I quit!

WHAT OTHERS SAY

WHAT PRICE CRIME!

Minnie Raimondo, widowed last week when Clarence Lee Shaffer, Jr., a Brady mobster, was killed by police bullets in Bangor, Me., said she is not sorry her husband is dead.

Mrs. John Craig, mother of James Dalhousie, also a Brady mobster, when told that her son was wounded, expressed regret that he was not killed.

Al Brady himself was buried, his body unclaimed.

These facts alone are proof that crime does not pay. Crime is profitless, all things considered, for a criminal not only uses stolen money, if he has a chance to spend it, to make his "get-away"; but he also shortens his life, for few gangsters escape without being caught or killed.

So to add to the futility of crime, law-abiding friends and even his family forsake the criminal. No longer will he find even a mother to make excuses for him. Not only a man without a country, but a man without a home.

What price crime?

—The Bulletin.

POETS CORNER

AM I RIGHT

The peacock is a gorgeous bird,
Yet he's not much good for meat,
And one thing's sure, he'd die of pride.
If it were not for his feet,
There're millions of people just like that,
They're dressed up fit to kill,
And nine times out of every ten,
They owe it on some bill.
The moral is, you understand,
To live within your means,
And if you can't have cake and cream,
Then be content with beans.

Pictures to Be Shown to Biology, Physics, Hygiene, and Physical Training Classes

The high school will have in its possession during the current year many educational pictures. These pictures are sent to the schools of Kansas through the university extension division bureau of visual education at Kansas university.

The school pays the rental of the pictures out of the general fund, the total rental being $30 plus postage. The largest percent of the pictures will be shown to Claude I. Huffman's and Mrs. Dora Peterson's biology classes.

Following is the list of the pictures, the dates, and the teachers who will show them to their classes:

Miss Lanyon and Mr. Snodgrass—Nov. 9—Tuberculosis and How It May Be Avoided.

Charles Thiebaud—Nov. 19—Simple Machine.

Miss Lanyon and Mr. Snodgrass—Dec. 6—Posture.

Mr. Thiebaud—Jan. 15—Manufactured Abrasives.

Miss Lanyon and Mr. Snodgrass—March 22—Eleventh Olympics.

Mrs. Peterson and Mr. Huffman—April 6—How to Get Rid of Rats, Frogs, Toads, and Salamanders.

Mrs. Peterson and Mr. Huffman—April 19—Singing and Stringing.

Mrs. Peterson and Mr. Huffman—April 22—Sea Urchins Spring.

Mrs. Peterson and Mr. Huffman—April 28—Starfish and Termites.

April 29—The Living Cell; May 5—Homes from Flower to Fruit; May 13—Mollusks and Reptiles.

Miss Lanyon and Mr. Snodgrass—May 16—Preventing the Spread of Disease.

RHYME AND RHYME

Till The Clock Strikes Three
Long years have passed, but still I can't forget

Memories of you and me.
We danced a moonlight minuet

Till the clock struck three.
I heard you whisper, "Dear it's getting late."

You kissed me tenderly.
We said "goodbye" at the garden gate

When the clock struck three.
Now the clock has broken hands

And I've a broken heart.
No one ever understands why we had to part.

I've locked the gate, and there beneath a rose

You'll find the only key.
There to remain in sweet repose

Till the clock strikes three.

Rafferty

A variety of hobbies are to be found among the sophomores. Several including Joe Lemaster, Robert Tess, Evelyn Harmel, and Kathryn Gore are collecting mills or tokens from the different states that have a sales tax. D.W. Cheek and Glen Moody make model airplanes in their spare time. Harold games. Wanda Majer makes a collection of toy animals, while Mary Eileen Snyder has three hobbies which designing dresses, and mounting insects.

The above are only a few of the many various interests of the sophomores. Next week this column will be devoted to the juniors.

SCHOOL SONG

Marching marching, side by side,
Heads up, eyes front, show your pride,

Pittsburg high school—that's our name,

Watch us, hear us, spread our fame,
You and I just give our best!

We care not to stop for rest,
We'll remember with a sigh

Dear old Pittsburg High

P. H. S. Boys Live Fast Lives With Candid Cameras

One of the outstanding hobbies at P.H.S. this year is the candid camera fad. Waldo Walker, Snooper Slagle, Foozy Isaacs, Patrick Leon, and John Ferguson are outstanding.

These boys must live a fast life judging by the escapades they have had. Harold Walker once tried to interrupt a banquet in the Hotel Jayhawker, Topeka, to get a picture but a hefty bouncer politely assisted him to the door. Also you might ask Lawrence Isaacs what happened when he tried to get a certain picture at the Epworth League party.

Walker and Slagle have taken pictures for the Advertiser and Headlight-Sun several times. Equipment costs anywhere from one dollar to $5,000.00. The average cost of the P.H.S. cameraman's equipment is about $12 although Isaacs' camera cost $57.50.

Exchanges

For weeks the Sunday school teacher had sought to impress upon her pupils the fact that God is everywhere about us. For a test question she asked, "Willie, where do you think God is this morning?"

"In the bathroom at home," was the reply, very prompt and certain.

"What on earth makes you say that?" asked the amazed teacher.

"Cause," Willie's eyes shone triumphantly, "just before I left I heard papa say, 'My Lord! How long are you going to be in there?'"

A Word To The Wise

1. Keep away from the track man; he usually is fast.

2. Never take dates with biology men; enjoy cutting up too much.

3. The football man is all right; he will tackle anything.

4. A tennis man is harmless, but he enjoys a good racket.

5. Watch out for a baseball man; he hits and runs.

6. Be careful of a dramatic member; he usually has several good lines.

7. Don't play cards with a civil engineer; he usually is a bridge specialist.

8. Always let a member of the band talk about himself; he enjoys blowing his own horn.

Student Council

The council talked about the pupils bringing cars to school, and asks that if they have to bring the cars not to drive them at noon because of the great risk of accidents.

The council is putting out a bulletin of "Do's and Don'ts" and the council wants everyone to read and think about them.

Sanitation Committee

In their weekly meeting Monday morning, the sanitation committee discussed the cleanliness of the class rooms. Is your room clean? Help the committee make a fine report.

Reading Novels

Miss Maude Laney's second year French classes have begun their first novel of the year. They are reading "Sans Famille," the story of an orphan and his experiences through life. Another story which the class will read before the year is over is the great French novel "Les Miserables."

Bob Rothrock had charge of a world brotherhood program. Harold Fields led in devotions.

Joe Dance

George Buffington led devotions. Joe Caruso had charge of a world brotherhood program which consisted of a discussion of the Spanish civil war situation.

David New

Donald Slagle read devotions. Harold Walker had charge of a world brotherhood program. Mrs. G. A. Furman of the Salvation Army spoke on China.

B. V. Edworthy

Gene McClarrin and Jim Lemon had charge of a Bible study program relating to interesting verses in the Bible.

Membership Drive

The six Hi-Y clubs are carrying on a membership drive. A list has been made of all boys who do not belong to Hi-Y, and each chapter is "contacting" its share of this list. In this way all boys in the school will receive a personal invitation to join.

Hi-Y Chili Supper

Several Hi-Y sponsors, officers, committee chairmen, and committee men attended a chili supper Wednesday night, Nov. 3, in the school cafeteria. After the chili supper the officers and committee members attended meetings conducted by the sponsors. It was a workers conference with better programs as its objective.

Note Set Adrift In Empty Bottle Finds Way Back

(Don McCollister)

While fishing on the Neosho river last May, Loren Vilmer, sophomore, conceived the idea of trying what shipwrecked sailors often resort to.

He wrote a note and placing it in a tightly corked bottle, set it adrift on the water. The note gave his name and address and asked the finder to send it back telling where and how it was found.

Two weeks ago Wednesday, Oct. 20, Loren was surprised to receive a letter from Lake Village, Ark. Opening it he discovered his note. It had been found on the Mississippi river seven miles north of Greenville, Miss. The finder was Paul Burdine, who lives on Woodstock Island near Greenville and was on a fishing trip at the time.

The bottle had drifted more than 850 miles on water during the high flood season. Greenville is about 600 miles from Pittsburg.

When asked if he would like to send another note, Loren said he would if he were ever on the Neosho again. He is a member of John E. White's home room and is taking a printing course.

Analyze Selves

Self analysis tests have been distributed to the pupils who desire them by the office. These tests are printed on one page and are for the use of the student who wishes to improve his character and both school and home actions. The list includes such traits as ambition, courtesy, dependability, neatness, honesty, interest in work and many work traits. Grades are not taken and no report to the teacher is required.

CARL BOTEFUHR

EBENEZER

—Verla Hammick

I have stand all I can stood. Too long I have suffered in silence. I am about to embark upon the sea of discourse on a subject very near and dear to me. I refer to my new derby.

It was all right when people laughed out loud at it. (They do that even when I don't wear the hat.) It was all right when people asked me why I wore it. But when they told me they didn't like it that was the last straw.

But revenge will be sweet. I have compiled a list of five major reasons why a derby is better than any other kind of hat. Especially my derby.

1. The derby is so hard it offers fine protection to people with weak heads. The only drawback is that thick-skulled people can't wear them and they don't need to.

2. It could be used if you can't find a bowl when you need a haircut.

3. It never blows off. The egg-shaped top forms a vacuum when you put it on your head (correction—I mean your other vacuum if you do put it on.)

Although this holds the hat firmly in place, it also leaves your hair sticking straight up when you take it off.

4. A derby that fits (to do this it must ride your ears) is a great aid in keeping your ears warm in winter.

5. A derby adapts itself well to clothing combination. Can't you see a fellow in plus fours, a swallow tailed coat, red ear muffs (to keep his ears warm) and a derby?

Exchange Books

The exchange of student council handbooks is being undertaken by the members of the student council under the direction of Miss Effie Farnor, adviser. The books are passed among the members to read and comment upon. New and good ideas put into use in the school system. Books have been exchanged with approximately six schools.

Organization Of Clubs Finished

Eight Teachers Will Supervise Groups While Five Take Study Classes

Eight clubs out of the ten offered have been organized, with students not belonging to G. R. or Hi-Y taking their choice of joining one or spending a period in a study group.

The list was announced last week and pupils were asked to report to their sponsors so that an idea of the attendance could be obtained. Sponsors were advised not to have fewer than 25 members or the overflow would be too great to handle.

Miss Anne Fintel's mathematics club and Lester C. Ramsey's business club failed to materialize so their sponsors will have study groups along with Miss Effie Farnor, Miss Frances Palmer, and Miss Clara Radell.

The following groups are in operation:

Current Topics — Miss Hatten.

Writing (Literary) —

Discussion (boys and girls) —

Girls' Play — Miss Lanyon.

Know Your State —

Speech and Dramatics — Mr. Row.

Officiating — Mr. Snodgrass.

Culture — Miss Waltz

FASHIONS AND FADS

(Bebe Coles)

It would seem that at least one person took heed of the prophecy that hats were returning to favor. He decided to be prepared. He bought a derby.

While on the subject the majority of hats on the K.U. campus had only an inch and a quarter of brim and were made of that fuzzy fur felt.

Heavy soled brogues of pigskin and calf very "sporty." Suede or buck shoes with calf and alligator trim are quite a vogue at present. Almost universal is the flair for slacks and sweaters among you boys.

Great news, girls! We may be as foolish with our clothes as we want and still be fashionable. We may wear mittens or gloves half one color and half another. Wear your cardigan backwards in the name of variety and it's quite "the thing."

If you must needs wear last year's winter coat, try to talk the "purse strings" into a shortish shaggy wool jacket in a light gray or beige. You can wear it with anything far into the season.

Getting back to foolishness—tie your neck up in the loudest kerchief you can find. Wear great yarn balls on top of your topper, or start a collection of small articles to dangle on the front of your dress.

What is your favorite fad?

Where to Work
A good thing to remember
And a better thing to do
Is to work with the construction gang
And not the wrecking crew.

Dragons Travel to Iola Tonight

Purple Gridmen To Play Under Lights at 7:30

Pittsburg in Attempt to Win
Its Fifth Straight
League Victory

Gudgenmen Favored

Mustangs Feature Tricky Plays;
Have Fifteen Returning
Lettermen

The ever-so-victorious Purple Dragons again will leave the Pittsburg homestead to play the rampaging Mustangs of Iola at Iola tonight.

The Dragons, after a week of healing bruises of the Springfield game, will be in for a tough tussle tonight, when they tangle with the northerners. The Purple and White will attempt to annex its seventh straight victory of the season and its fifth in the league.

The Mouldermen are ready to avenge the 58 to 0 defeat handed to them by the Dragons last year. The Iola eleven is noted for its tricky plays and snappy passes, which are taught to them by Maurice Moulder, University of Missouri star who played under Gwinn Henry.

The Iola team has tasted defeat twice this season in the S.E.K. league, these losses being to Coffeyville and Parsons while on the other hand, they have beaten Fort Scott and Columbus. The Iola high school was admitted to the S. E. K. league last year. They were formerly of the Neosho Valley league.

ATHLETIC COMMITTEE OF FACULTY MEMBERS

A committee on athletics for the school year has been organized from the group of faculty members. The function of this committee is to pass judgment on athletic policies of the high school, to map out a financial program so that an athletic program may be carried on throughout the school year. It takes care of the advertising of games, makes arrangements with opposing teams, and takes care of the gates and gate receipts.

Members of this committee are as follows: Chairman, Ellsworth Briggs; publicity chairman, John White; others, Miss Helen Lanyon, F. M. Snodgrass, Claude I. Huffman, and Lester Ramsey. Principal J. L. Hutchinson is an ex officio member.

Wright Over Radio

Elizabeth Ann Wright, senior, has received a position as accompanist on a regular program over KOAM. She will furnish a musical background for "Shorty" Wiley's 10-minute program on Monday and Friday morning at 7:20.

Player Sketch

The lad to enter this week's column first is none other than Joe (Daisy) Begando, speedy little Dragon half-back. Begando who stands 5'8", and weighs 143 pounds has been very useful to the Dragons, with his broken field running, and once in the clear is a very difficult boy to catch.

Next John Lance, also a half-back, is 5'9" tall and weighs a good 155 pounds. Lance is not only a good passer but he is also an excellent blocker and broken field runner. This is his last year on the Dragon eleven.

Third and last is William (Bill) Lawrence, hefty Pitt center. Lawrence, who scales 6'10" in height and weighs 156 pounds, is an excellent tackler, and is thought by members of the opposition to be a very tough nut to crack, with his fine line back-ing.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS G. A. A. CHILI SUPPER

Weekly News Is So Fast It Gets Ahead of Itself

This week The Booster comes out on Thursday. Next week it will come out on Wednesday. The next week.....!!! Well, all we can say, just don't be surprised at what may happen after that! For at the rate it is and will be issued the Booster will be coming out even before it is printed. Many terrible things have happened to the paper, but never has it beaten itself so badly that it came out before the printers get a chance to print it!

Dear readers, it's not at all serious. In case you didn't remember, there is a vacation tomorrow, so The Booster came out one day earlier than usual. Next week we wanted to advertise that big Armistice Day game with the Parsons Vikings. So we guess that explains the great mystery of the P. H. S. paper, or "Why The Booster Gives Printers Gray Hair."

Dragons Tounce Bulldogs, 19-6, At Springfield

Pittsburg Scores First Counter

Of Play

Hard Fought Tilt

Both Teams Provide Thrilling Game
For Huge Crowd at Dedication

The high school Dragons, somewhat scratched, sore, and bruised a little, came home with a 19 to 6 victory over the erstwhile undefeated, unscathed upon, Springfield Bulldogs Friday afternoon at Springfield.

The Gudgenmen, although scoring in the first two minutes of play, played one of the roughest and toughest games of the season. A large crowd witnessed a thrilling game between two evenly matched teams with Pittsburg having a slight edge.

The Dragons scored in the first two minutes of play, when Harmon returned the opening kickoff to the Springfield 32-yard line. Fidler then passed to Fanska, end, who was downed upon the 19-yard line. With the ball so close to the goal line and the game just starting, Fidler threw the Dragon running plays into gear and the result was a touchdown by Fidler. The try for extra point was good.

The Pittsburg score seemed to awaken the Springfield team. Receiving the kickoff, they marched to two straight downs when Parrish, half-back, slipped through the center of the line and galloped 41 yards for a touchdown without a hand laid upon him. The extra point was blocked and Pittsburg led 7 to 6 for the rest of the first half.

Fidler started the forming of the second touchdown when he sliced off tackle, eluded the secondary and was run out of bounds on the 3-yard line after having spent about 40 yards. On the next play Carl (Crash) Beard hit the line for the second touchdown. The extra point was wide.

The final score came after a series of passes, laterals, and running plays which advanced the ball deep into Springfield territory where Fidler went over.

AMATEUR NOTES

Because most of last year's squad are playing football, "Arkie" HoIman, basketball coach, has announced that basketball practice would start right after Thanksgiving.

Theodore Carnino was feeling happy last week. No wonder, the sophomore, freshman team defeated most of the Cherokee's first team. Or more technically, all of the Cherokee's first team. Coach Carnino coached at Cherokee before coming to Pittsburg.

The water boy was kept busy during the Springfield-Pittsburg game last week. With all the dust flying and the hot weather prevailing, the Dragons really liked their water. "Arkie" Hoffman carried it in once when the water carrier couldn't get his breath.

Myl Myl that Springfield field was rough for two good teams to play on and not get a scratch. As you have probably heard, the Dragons threw rocks at the goal posts during time out periods.

Straight-shots—Friggeri, of the soph-fresh squad, is considered the honest boy of the team. . . Ask the team why. . . What former red-headed football player who is now in school said he is going out for the golden gloves team? . . . Edwin Ryan is fast on a football field and that is not all he is fast in. . . The up and coming Parsons game will most likely decide the S. E. K. champions. . . Don't forget the football predictions.

Comments

Here a few comments on the Springfield-Pittsburg game last week heard by Bailey Williams while sitting in the stands.

A player of the Springfield Teachers College football team said that Jack Harmon, on his opening run, had great possibilities. . . The bass drummer of the Springfield band, "Pittsburg doesn't have any business playing Springfield. They are outclassed." . . The announcer over the public address system stated that the Dragons were outplayed from every angle in the first half. . . A Springfield business man, who has played college football, said that Fidler was the biggest little player he had ever seen.

Merle Gutteridge, the brother of Don Gutteridge, remarked that Springfield had a very effective passing attack. . . Bill Griffith (when Parrish, of Springfield, made his 45-yard for a touchdown) said, "there goes our old ball game". . . Bill Malette, the Springfield cheerleader, acknowledged, "Nice team, Pittsburg, you deserved to win, but we will beat you next year." . . A girl in the drum corps stated that the Bulldogs were doing a lot of questionable playing in the last half. . . A Pittsburg man said that Pitt outplayed the Bulldogs in the last half.

Plays Being Read

Last week William Row's first and third hour speech classes began reading plays in preparation for the speech entertainment which will be presented in the middle of January. The reason for beginning early is so the plays will be picked and books here when the tryouts have finished. Tryouts will be held in the middle of December.
