Biographical Note Evelyn Triplett was born on April 10, 1910 in Webb City, Missouri to Franklin and Margaret Triplett. She and her family moved to Pittsburg, Kansas when she was 11. She earned a B.S. in Health and Physical Education from Kansas State Teacher's College (now Pittsburg State University) in 1932, and received her M.A. from Texas State College for Women in 1939. In 1958, she obtained her Ph.D. in Education from the University of Oklahoma.

From 1932 to 1937, Triplett was a physical education teacher in Kansas public schools. After this, she was a dance instructor for the Texas State College for Women, the University of Alabama, Southwestern Louisiana University, and Washington University at St. Louis. She was also the head of the women's physical education at Joplin Junior College. In 1947 she became an assistant professor in the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Department at KSTC. She was promoted to associate professor in 1959 and professor in 1971. She became Professor Emeritus after her retirement in 1980. While at KSTC, she taught several different dance courses, physical education in public schools, and first aid. She was particularly focused on folk, square, and tap dance.

Triplett wrote numerous articles and published studies throughout her life. One of her main topics was how to improve physical education in elementary schools and have it continue and expanded into high school. This interest led her to be invited to a special workshop on Elementary School Physical Education in Washington D.C. in 1967. She has been listed in "Who's Who in American Education," "Dictionary of International Biography," "Personalities of the West and the Midwest,” Intercontinental Biographical Association,” and “The World of Who’s Who of Women.”

Triplett was a member of Kappa Delta Pi, Delta Psi Kappa, Delta Kappa Gamma, Kansas Women’s Dinner Club, and Altrusa International. She was also a member of the American and Kansas Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation. She wrote several articles for each group and attended many of their conferences. In 1972, she was the recipient of an Honor Award from KAHPER. She was active in the Red Cross, serving as on the Executive Board for Crawford County for 23 years and was the First Aid chairperson.

Triplett died on March 17, 1987 at Mt. Carmel Medical Center in Pittsburg, Kansas.

Series There are 22 series in this collection:
Correspondence, Biography, Anne Schley Duggan, Publications, Triplett’s Education, Courses Taught by Triplett, Gerontology, Lawsuit, Pittsburg State University Materials, Programs for Pittsburg State University, Publicity, Modern Dance Group, KAHPER, Programs, Photographs, Yearbooks, Alumnian, Clippings, Music Books, Recordings, Poem, and Miscellaneous.

The Correspondence series consists of letters to Triplett and colleague Anne Schley Duggan from multiple persons. The two longest conversations are about revising Duggan’s book, The Complete Tap Dance Book and Triplett’s trip to Chicago with one of her dance groups. This series is organized chronologically.

The Biography series contains Triplett’s data sheet for the university that was required yearly. The sheets have her education background, teaching experience, and courses taught.

The Anne Schley Duggan (colleague at the Texas State College for Women) series consists of her data sheets for the Texas State College for Women. This series is arranged chronologically.

The Publications series includes books, articles, and studies from Triplett, Duggan, and other authors. Triplett’s works focus on women physical education teachers in Kansas, physical education in elementary schools, and dance. Duggan’s works focus on folk and tap dance.

The Triplett Education series includes her book on first aid and course work from her doctoral program. The bulk of the series comes from her master’s thesis and the abstract that goes with it.

The Courses Taught by Triplett series contains some of the syllabi and test materials from classes she taught at Pittsburg State University.

The Gerontology series consists of materials for physical activities for senior citizens.

Lawsuit series contains material concerning Triplett’s lawsuit against PSU. She sued the school for unfair wages, due to her gender and age.

The Pittsburg State University Materials series has materials from PSU to Triplett, including the paperwork for Triplett’s promotion, a faculty handbook, and a course bulletin.

The Programs for Pittsburg State University series contains some of the materials for the programs in which Triplett worked.

Triplett, Evelyn, Collection, MS 155

The Publicity series consist of publicity that PSU has put out about Triplett's papers, programs, and her revision of Duggan's book. This series is arranged chronologically.

The Modern Dance Group series contains the history of the Modern Dance Group, an all-female group that performed at numerous college campuses and national conventions for several health organizations.

The KAHPER (Kansas Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation) series includes an article showing Triplett giving an Honor Award to Mickey Poole; and a flyer for KAHPER's 1983 Convention.

The Programs series includes several different programs of events that Triplett was either a part of or attended.

The Photographs series consist of personal photographs and slides of places and events.

The Yearbooks series contains some of the yearbooks of the universities where Triplett or Duggan taught.

The Alumnian series consists of the first few volumes of The Alumnian, a publication released by the Alumni Association at Pittsburg State University.

The Clippings series contains clippings related to medical information, such as identifying poisons or spiders. There are so safety related articles.

The Music Books series consists of music books and sheet music that Triplett collected and most likely used in her dance classes. The majority of the collection is sheet music, with a few song books, mostly for children, and one score for a musical.

The Recordings series includes two cassettes and one reel. The cassettes are of a conference on undergraduates behaving professional, and the AAHPER National Convention. The reel has one of Triplett's first aid lectures.

The Poem series contains a copy of "Selected Poems" by Eva Jessye, multiple copies of Boundless, and a copy of a poem entitled "Organizational Structure."

The Miscellaneous series consists of a master's thesis similar to Triplett's, a biography on James Triplett (her nephew), a dance article, some PSU papers, souvenirs, handwritten notes, a Bible, and a Delta Kappa Gamma Handbook.

The Plaques and Certificate series includes two copies of Triplett's certificate stating that her biography was in Personality of the West and Midwest, and a plaque for Outstanding Achievement and Service to Education.

The Oversize Box contains the blueprints and designs for a new women's dormitory and records.
