Biographical Note

David L. Kent is an author of many professional articles and other publications, and has written over one hundred books, the majority being on the topic of atheism. Kent took up anarchism and atheism at an early age. As an adult he rejected all things religious, educational, medical, and the military establishments. Kent is the co-founder of several atheist groups, including Atheist Community of Austin (Texas) and Atheist Alliance International. He is a lifelong member of the American Atheists.

Scope and Content Note

This collection contains primary and secondary resources and is divided into the following series:
