

Bishop Oxnam of Omaha Speaker For Graduation

Baccalaureate Address to Be Given by Dr. A. H. Kenna
At Shrine Mosque

Golden Anniversary

Orchestra, Chorus Will Present
Musical Program for Both Affairs

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam of Omaha, Neb., will deliver the Commencement address to the graduating class of 1938 in the Shrine Mosque, Thursday night, May 26 according to the Board of Education. Bishop Oxnam is the resident Methodist bishop of the area around Omaha, and makes his home in Omaha.

Dr. A. H. Kenna, pastor of the Methodist church here, will be the baccalaureate speaker for this year's graduates. Dr. Kenna was transferred from the First Methodist church in Topeka to his present post recently. He is a member of the Ministerial Alliance, and is the chaplain of a Reserve Officers Training Corps unit.

Contrary to the usual custom the baccalaureate services are to be held in the Shrine Mosque, Sunday night, May 22.

50th Exercise

The Commencement exercises, last of a series of activities for the seniors, will be the 50th ever to be held for a PHS graduating class, since half a century ago marked the first graduation of a senior class from the high school.

Well-known as a dynamic speaker, Bishop Oxnam has appeared on numerous occasions before high school and college graduating classes and has spoken before the National Educational Association and its branches.

An energetic man in his forties, he was the president of De Pauw University at Green Castle, Ind., previous to that, he taught in the sociology department in the University of Boston.

Bishop Oxnam is a graduate of the University of Southern California, and played football while in college. He is a well traveled man, having made several trips both to Europe and the Orient, as well as having "seen America first." Last year Bishop Oxnam spent some time in England at Oxford and plans to go to England again this year.

Well Recommended

Principal J. L. Hutchinson heartily recommends Bishop Oxnam as the Commencement speaker, saying, "He is one of the most forceful speakers I have ever heard. Bishop Oxnam is the 'driving' type of speaker, and graduates and townspeople alike will enjoy his address."

Dr. Kenna, also, was lavish in his praise of Bishop Oxnam. "The school could not have obtained a better speaker," he said. "He is good."

Music for the two affairs will be furnished by members of the music department, under the direction of Gerald M. Carney. For the Commencement program the mixed chorus and the orchestra will present "May the Maiden," ballet music from "Faust" (Gounod). For Baccalaureate the mixed chorus will sing "Jerusalem" (Gounod), "Faith of Our Fathers" (hymn), and "Come, Thou Almighty King" (Giardini).

Club Win Top Honors

Highly superior ratings were given to one group and one individual from Pittsburg at the annual spring music festival held at the College, April 27-29. The girls' glee club directed by Gerald M. Carney, music director, rated the highest mark given by the judges as did Zoe Wilma Baade, Lakeside, piano.

Superior ratings were awarded to PHS band; Jennibel Evans, piano; Lakeside chorus; Paul Resler, cornet; Raymond Mannoni, horn; and Bob Rothrock, bass.

Those receiving excellent ratings were Bob Crews, oboe; H. B. Cheyne, bassoon; Rosemary Cowan, Lakeside violin; Billie Louise Heimdale, PHS violin; Julia Anne Pogson, soprano; Billy Scott, trombone; Jerome Degen, Lakeside trombone; James Duncan, baritone; June Catherine Walker, contralto; boys' glee club; and mixed chorus.

Mother's Day

Mother's Day is a day set apart every year in honor of motherhood. It is always on the second Sunday in May and everybody wears a flower, white for the dead, and colored if one's mother is living. It is celebrated by sermons in the churches, special programs, and by family reunions.

The honor of the organization of Mother's Day belongs to Miss Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia. A year after her mother died she asked a friend to remember with her the anniversary of the death of her mother, and of her desire to dedicate a day to all mothers. Before the next anniversary came she had interested many individuals and organizations in the observance of the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day. As a result of her efforts Philadelphia observed the day, May 10, 1908. She then became the missionary of the idea and wrote thousands of letters to influential men, and on May 10, 1913, Congress passed a resolution to make the second Sunday in May a national holiday, "dedicated to the memory of the best mother in the world, your mother."

The annual senior banquet will be held Friday, May 20, at the Lakeside gymnasium, according to William Row and Miss Anna Fintel, junior sponsors. The PHS cafeteria women will prepare the meal and it will be served by the junior girls. The juniors will also decorate the tables. The decoration will be carried out in the class colors, blue and gold and the class flower, the American beauty rose. A program for entertainment will be planned later.

See Success For Dramatics Affair

'He Comes Up Smiling' to Be Given Thursday Night in High School Auditorium

One of the big events of the dramatics season of PHS and the last for the school year of 1937 and '38 is the annual senior class play, "He Comes Up Smiling," which will be presented next Thursday night in the school auditorium.

The senior girls will be in charge of the ticket sale. Those selling the most tickets will be permitted to usher at the play in their formal. This is the one event in the year when the girls are allowed to usher in formal. Miss Maude Laney (director of the play): The senior class play of '38 is going to be uproariously funny! Why, we'll lay 'em in the aisles—we'll mow 'em down! I'm sure that the audience will be more than pleased—in fact they'll be laid in the aisles—And we'll all "Come Up Smiling."

Misses Helen Lanyon and Ruth Thornton
To Have Charge of New Municipal Pool

Miss Helen Lanyon and Miss Ruth Thornton submitted high bids for the operation of the new municipal swimming pool and concession stand at Lincoln Park this summer. The pool will open May 29 and will be open every day from 10 a. m. to 11 p. m.

A series of swimming classes is being planned for the boys and girls who are unable to swim. The classes are to be taught by competent Red Cross instructors. A small fee will be charged for the instruction.

Floyd Snyder, who has worked at the Crystal Pool for the last three years, and Waymon Edwards, first class Red Cross life saver, will be employed at the pool. Miss Lanyon is a Red Cross life saver and Miss Thornton has had considerable experience in the past with the Girl Scouts.

Mrs. Stewart, who has charge of the concession stand at the Crystal Pool the last three years, will have charge of the stand at the municipal pool this season. A bargain day is also being planned. Special parties may be given by arrangement.

Band in Air Mail Week

The Pittsburg high school band will play the air mail on its way to Kansas City at the Municipal airport Thursday, May 19. In celebration of national air mail week, E. H. McFarland will fly air mail from Pittsburg and the surrounding towns to Kansas City, Mo. Mr. McFarland says that there will probably be so much mail that two ships will be necessary.

The high school band, under the direction of Gerald M. Carney, will play at the meet. Norman Smith, drum major, will give a twirling exhibition.

Better Work

"This year's work is by far better than any turned out under my supervision since I have been teaching woodwork," stated Mr. Varnine.

Nearly 100 boys in the department, including the following, who have done exceptionally good work during the school year, Mr. Carnino said, will have their projects in the gym ready for inspection: DeWayne Turner, Milton Glenn, Carl Beard, Raymond Konk, Bob Frank, Jack Cremer, John Ferguson, Jack Barber, Bert Nunn, and Ray Crimmler.

Experiments demonstrating analytical chemistry, Eugene Jemet; 6. Preparation and properties of nitric acid, Jack Paulin and Bob Pratt; 7. Internal combustion engine, Joe Callahan. NEW EPIDEMIC?

A new twist to the old adage, "never put off till tomorrow what you can do today," is this, "never do today what you can put off till tomorrow!"

Yeah?—And see how far you'll get with that for a slogan! There are really about 15, yes, just 15 more days of honest-to goodness school! It shouldn't be so hard to perk up a bit.

For all these seniors, tomorrow will NEVER come! A great many articles have been written on marihuana, opium, and the like, but very little is being said to warn the great American student body about the deadliest drug of them all—spring fever! It strikes gradually, with deadly virus and "will" or "won't" power is the only anti-toxin known.

Lest we forget—graduation is near!
—Fay Moselle Degen

SPRING FEVER

As spring yawns and settles down into summer, many high school students yawn and settle down into their seat with a sigh, and dream of the days at the "ole swimmin' hole" that are soon to come. This thing called spring fever is with us once more.

Here and there the little birds coo to their lady loves—and not only the birds, but even seniors are affected the same way.

Spring is a grand time of the year, but, seriously, spring fever has no place in the high school. Spring should be the busiest time of the year. Many students will be leaving school for good, and some will go to college. In any case, this is no time to get spring fever.

School is for nine months and to lie down now would mean not getting what one could out of school. There are only a few more weeks before school is out, so don't get spring fever now. If you do, you're apt to find that spring fever also gets you.

—John Buess

VOCATION CHOOSING

Although foremost in the minds of the seniors is the nearness of graduation, many, as they rightly should, are beginning to realize the importance of making a decision concerning after-graduation life. Choosing a vocation is a major part of the coming period.

To those who have decided upon a vocation which will require additional training looms the prospect of college with its concentrated study, but above all its expense. The fact that they have received free education for twelve years will be appreciated to the fullest extent when these college students begin to pay their own way.

On the other hand, there are those of the graduation class who have no idea what they shall be. There is no more distressing predicament for a young man or young woman and, in most cases, expert guidance is needed in order that they find their place in the world.

A scientific survey of fields in which they are interested is the best method. Such a study will show the individual the vocation to which he is best suited and even though a short "starvation period" may be necessary, he will be certain that his choice has been the right one.
—Don McCollister

Which Is Senior? Which Is Sophie?

Do you want to know? Well, I'll tell ya. The studious-looking animal is the sophie trying to get the last gram of credit, and the sleeping beauty (?) is a senior who knows the finale has been written and his high school career-book practically closed!

THROUGH THE KEYHOLE

(Irene Brannum)

Flash! ! ! One love bug has been exterminated! He bit Frances Hunt and Don McCollister and now they just don't get along at all and the poor little love bug died, heart-broken. P. S. Frances may be attending its funeral with Louis Bosino, but poor Don can't bear to go, so he is going to play golf to forget it all! ! !

"Daffy Interlude of Dummer Dumbells"
Mac was in "Love" with a "Gay" "Bonny" lassy in "Parris" and he couldnt "Baer" to leave her. He gave her a "New-comb" with teeth of "Gold" and a $5 "Bill" to "Byers" elf another gift in a "Shoup."

On their last date he decided to "Walker" around and they crossed "Brooks" and "Fields" and a "Lane." Finally she asked "Can't we 'Ridenour'?" In the cab (they took a cab) he tried to ask her to "Mary" him but she was "French" and did all the talking. In the end, he was "Frank" with himself, decided to "Palmer" off on someone else, and sailed to his "Nation" alone!

Mary Jane Stapp has finally lost her heart and it is now in the possession of Johnny Rogers. However, life isn't all a bed of roses because Don Drummond s always dragging him off to Fort Scott with him. Mary Jane wants to know if someone in Pittsburg won't please get Don Drummond so he won't have to go to Fort Scott to see Dorris Gilstrap!

Judson Waggoner is forever trying to get dates with Lorraine Shields and she won't go because she is afraid Bill Robison won't approve the idea. Now, there's a true case of loyalty, and how! ! (She even missed the Fiesta).

IN THIS CORNER WE HAVE

The feminine lead in the senior play—Jacqueline (Jacque) to you! Gore. She has—brunet hair—brown eyes—and is five feet one inch tall.

Jacque likes—(I couldn't put all of them in, but here are a few of them)—escalators—Tom Brown—spinach (that's what gives her so much vim, wiger, and vitality)—Akim Tamiroff—cauliflower—Glady's Swarthout—Randolf Scott—chocolate pie (oh boy!)—catsup on eggs (a girl after my own heart)—Kent Taylor (just so it's a Taylor)—and all kinds of lip-stick.

Her pet aversions are—people who have secrets and won't tell her—egg plant—all breakfast—banana splits (there must be something wrong here) to run out of gas—gaudy clothes—and unrelieved black—and also inch and a half fingernails.

Miss Gore's hobby is collecting horses—and keeping a scrapbook. Her ambition is to be a newspaper woman or an actor. "Thanks for the Memories"—a trip to France—and Sammy Kay's orchestra rate high with her. Dramatics and journalism are her favorite subjects, and, believe it or not, she has nightmares, and talks in her sleep (but no one can understand what she says).

PLANNING YOUR COURSE

This school year is almost over and enrollment for next year's term has begun. So many students do not choose their subjects carefully. During high school, they dabble in many subjects and learn none thoroughly. Then when they are through, they suddenly discover that they do not know any one subject well enough to secure a job in that line of work. They have put in four years of study and have found that the time was practically wasted.

Then too, there is the all too frequent possibility of not having met the requirements for graduation, or not graduating at all.

So dig up that school curriculum you are supposed to follow and check up on yourself. Let's not be one of those yearly unfortunates who cannot graduate, or get a job after graduation.

—Melvin Kodas

BIRTHDAYS

May 9—Bob Innis, Doris Sills, Harvey Lanier, Margaret Ziegler.

May 10—Bernice Waite.

May 12—Clydine Wheeler, Ernie Wright.

May 13—Jack Broyles, Donald Schawb, Barbara Williams.

May 14—Jack Hayden.

Betty Crain and Alvin Mielke certainly have IT bad, now. They are even planning what their little house is going to be like. Now isn't that cute? ? ? Wonder what it is going to be like. Maybe you could tell us, Betty! !

Billie Baer must be mean. The other night Dewey Kirk had a big swollen place on his jaw. When asked how it happened, he wouldn't commit himself. (Probably because she was standing right there.) Well, Dewey, you must have found out that she doesn't pull her punches! ! !

Jeanne Stevens and Jack Gray are so devoted that they don't have an appetite when they aren't together! They eat lunch together every day, and do they eat! My, My, they always told me that love took your appetite away!

Mary Kuebler is certainly doing well for herself these days. It keeps us guessing where her heart really is. Some people collect stamps and things but just to be different, she collects hearts. She already has Bob Tharrington, George Seeley, Chuck Ray, and Norman Dooly. Well, it's all O. K. but you had better tie strings on them. Sometimes, a flock has a few stragglers! !

Speaking of strings, Margaret Hensley had better tie a good heavy rope around Bob Meiers. There seems to be a junior named Flora Mundt who is trying very hard to vamp Bob and you know how the male mind wanders sometimes! !

IN THIS CORNER WE HAVE

"Jo," "Hank," "Muscles"—but really Bailey Arthur Williams, who has the part of "Watermelon" in the senior play.

Bailey's favorites include—Spencer Tracy—Gary Cooper—blue-pancakes—spinach (ahl a hero)—pork chops—elevators—Janet Gaynor—Rosalind Russell—pretty girls—and all kinds of music.

His ideal girl must have dark hair—dark eyes—and very good looking. Her weight—approximately 110 pounds—a pleasing smile—and she must be a very good conversationalist.

His ambition is to be a success—he likes swimming and track—and is planning to attend Chicago University when he graduates. He has a horror of burning to death—and had his greatest thrill when he ventured up into the mountains in Washington, while he was on a vacation.

He would like to have a woman (here's somebody's chance)—and thinks trombones and Glen Gray's orchestra are "hot stuff."

Some girl could surely please him during Leap Week by taking him to see a swell tragedy.

FORUM

Question: Resolved that baseball should be organized in the high school the same as football and basketball.

Yes: Since baseball still is regarded as our national game, and since the gate receipts of professional baseball exceed those of football and basketball, I believe baseball should receive as much attention as the other two sports receive in high school.
—Joe Stephens

No: Baseball is a fine intramural sport, but the school doesn't have the funds to carry on a successful baseball program. The baseball season is also too short during the school year to have a well-organized team. Also the faculty members are too busy during that season to conduct a team properly.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

C. & O. CANAL

It was announced recently by Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes that the government has made plans for acquiring the Chesapeake and Ohio canal running from Washington to Cumberland, Maryland.

The canal has a glamorous history dating from the days when it first opened, to the present. It is one of the most famous historic landmarks in the eastern United States. Work on the canal started in 1828. Its development cost about $15,000,000.00, including money spent for repairs. After its completion in 1850, towns sprang up along its course, private boats operated on it, and it was used much commercially. It is said that by 1873 as many as 700 private boats used the waterway. During that year nearly 1,000,000 tons of coal were moved on this canal.

Compared to modern transportation, the use of this canal seems insignificant. But in the old days it was very important, being a factor in the development of the territory west of the Alleghenies. After its restoration, it is to be used for recreational purposes. Replacing the coal barges and commercial boats of yesteryear, will be pleasure seeking canoes and rowboats.

Perception is sensation plus experience. Some of us are only experienced, not a "sensation."

ETIQUETTE HINTS

If you meet some of your friends and walk down the street with them, do not spread across the sidewalk six abreast.

Do not group together and walk several abreast as this prevents others from passing. To walk in groups such as these calls attention to you.

If you meet friends on the street, get as far as possible away from the paths of others. Do not gather in giggling, chattering groups. Always make your conversation brief.

Soon the seniors will be attending the annual senior banquet. Here are a few important things to remember:

Talk to your next door neighbor at dinner. This is usually the one on your right.

You may sit at either side of the chair.

If you want souvenirs of the dinner, please take the place cards and leave the silver-ware and salt shakers on the table to be used again.

Although it might appear to you, boys, that the girls are able to seat themselves at the table, it is customary for the boys to aid the girls by gently pushing the chair a short way under her.

Of course, this doesn't mean that you should shove the chair and hit her in the knees.

Whenever kindness is shown to a girl, she should always say, "Thank you."

Be a good sport! This seems to be the keynote to all the activities of young people. It isn't necessary to laugh so loud, or do things that in all probability would attract attention to you. Loud laughing is offensive to most people.

The tittering and giggling of girls is just as offensive as loud boisterous laughing.

Howdy Neighbor

A prize for the most ingenious act of the month should go to the Territorial Distribution Agent for one of the local newspapers, District No. 1. It seems that a certain customer was continually nagging at the carrier for not putting the paper on the porch in the morning. The customer had a dog, by the way. A mean, vicious, little brute who persisted in barking and snapping at the heels of our hero. Then one morning he hit upon a brilliant idea. (The hero, I mean). It really scintillated. It would kill six birds with three stones. Morning came. The dog barked. Then the carrier "scum" his scheme. He threw the paper back by the dog house. The woman came out. She saw the paper by the dog house. Then she beat the dog for carrying off the paper, and apologized to the carrier for the times she had bawled him out, when the dog had carried the paper off. Man, that's what you call foresight. All hail the genius!!

The track men call the tennis men sissies. At least, the tennis players know what they are chasing when they run around.

I understand that there are to be a number of hobo characters in the senior play. Does that mean that it's going to be a BUM play?

Maybe it's hereditary but they say that the youngest Row can yell louder than anybody else in the neighborhood.

FASHIONS AND FADS

Girls, don't let the wind get the best of your spring hat by blowing it off and down a dusty street; pin it on. It is an era for hat pins again. Ones used are like the ones that stabbed many a sailor (hat) in the olden days.

These hat pins come in many shapes and forms, jeweled ones, large pearl ones, some in shapes of flowers, spiders, and bugs.

Now to go from the head to the toe: A shoe that daily is becoming more popular with the high school girl is the "wedge" type of sandal. Many of these now are being worn to school.

EQUESTRIANS ESCORTED OUT BY FEMMES

You have heard of celebrities being escorted into town but have you ever heard of one being escorted out? Especially at 7 o'clock in the morning? The victim of this early morning experience was Tom Mix, whose circus visited Pittsburg.

He was driving along about 30 miles an hour in his little white car and there appeared almost from nowhere, two cars loaded with high school girls. (That's like PHS girls—johnny on the spot there's a man around!) Well, of course they weren't going to let him slip right through their fingers for a little while so one car got in front and one in back. They then proceeded to honk and wave.

Mr. Mix seemed to be enjoying himself, because he didn't even try to get away. He even waved and tipped his hat to them. Well, they were that thrilled about it all, but they had to come back to school, much to their disappointment.

By the way, it was very convenient for Mrs. Peterson to have a field trip that morning. If she hadn't those girls would have been in bed and missed all the excitement!

BOOSTER EXCHANGES

INCREASED TO 285

The Booster has increased its exchanges to approximately 285 within 40 states. It has received exchanges from Alaska, the Balboa Canal Zone, and the following states: Missouri, Washington, Kansas, California, Texas, Nebraska, West Virginia, South Dakota, Oklahoma, Virginia, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Wyoming, Arkansas, North Dakota, Arizona, Indiana, Montana, Ohio, New Jersey, Minnesota, Colorado, Utah, Maryland, Wisconsin, Florida, South Carolina, Georgia, Michigan, Kentucky, North Carolina, Tennessee, Rhode Island, Louisiana, Delaware, New York, Connecticut, Oregon, Massachusetts, and others in the city.

At the beginning of the year the number of exchanges was about 95 and the states did not total more than fifteen.

Student Council

The council considered names for the election of the secretary, treasurer for next year. Names for president and vice-president will be considered next week.

Sanitation Committee

A short survey of the PHS campus reveals a spot which is one of rare beauty (if you can see the beauty!) Several new Colorado blue spruces have been set out beside the front steps. There are also about half a dozen varieties of juniper. Among the shrubs which contribute a great deal of color are the Japanese flowering quince bushes and the snowball or hydrangia. There are several different varieties of spirea and many different types of lilac.

The privet hedge which surrounds part of the upper terrace provides an adequate background for these shrubs.

Among the other growths are the mock orange, and the flowering crab. Later, in the oval on the lower terrace are found such flowers as scarlet sage, dusty millers, petunias, flox, and zenias, making a beautiful fall and late summer display.

Why not take a look at your campus and see how many of these you know? Our two custodians, Mr. Irwin and Mr. Martinache—with their helpers, do much for us in beautifying our campus. Do you ever thank them—do you know enough to name what is on our nice campus? Why not learn more about it?

Bulldogs Favored

Again the Independence Bulldogs are favorites to retain the crown with Pittsburg and Coffeyville battling it out for second place honors. The Independence team will have its star, Dick Overfield, state champion sprinter in the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Dick recently stepped off the century in 9.9 seconds and the 220 in 22 flat which is better than the league marks.

Winston Rogers, also of the Bulldogs, has cleared 6 feet 5 inches this season and will probably beat the 6 feet 4 inch mark he made last year. The broad jump of 21 feet 4 inches is surely to be erased from the books with Woods of Coffeyville, freshman, leaping 22 feet in the Coffeyville invitation meet, but this distance will probably not be expected from him again, at least on the College pit. Little of Pittsburg will probably give the broad jump a scare, since he leaped 21 feet 11 inches in practice last week at the College. In a dual meet the Dragon star jumped 21 feet 9 inches and at Coffeyville he got off a practice leap of 21 feet 8 inches, besides his original of 21 feet 3 inches. This assures Little and Woods of beating the league jump.

Pitt First in Mile

In the mile run, Pittsburg's entries, Rudy Fanska, and Samuel Miller are expected to finish one-two in this event; but the record of 4:37.2 will be in jeopardy. Milo Farnetti, Dragon spear and shot heaver, will be out to break the javelin record of 178 feet 10 1/2 inches set by Knight of Independence in 1937. Milo was declared eligible just before the K. U. relays and in that meet he threw the javelin 164 feet 8 inches, in a fouled attempt the spear went 174 feet. Farnetti got second place at Coffeyville last week with a good throw of 170 feet 10 inches. So another record will be in the balance.

Records which will probably not be battered are the pole vault, of 12 feet 7/8 inches held by Ralph Miller of Chanute; shot put of 52 feet 4 inches held by Dues of Pittsburg; discus throw of 128 feet 8 inches held by Ralph Russell of Pittsburg, and now a coach at Girard high school; the 440-yard dash held jointly by Smith of Independence and Glenn of Pittsburg; 880-yard run held by Dodson of Columbus in the time of 2:02.3 and the mile run of 4:37.2 held by Bell of Pittsburg.

Second Place for PHS

The Independence team will depend largely upon firsts to cop the crown while the Pittsburg team which is mostly made up of sophomores and juniors will count heavily upon seconds and thirds. Coffeyville will give the Dragons a bid for second, but the locals have too much reserve power. Fort Scott will probably come in fourth with Columbus, Parsons, Chanute, and Iola following in that order.

Preliminaries in the 100-yard dash, 120-yard high hurdles, 220-yard dash, and the 200-yard low hurdles will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock with finals in the shot put, discus, and broad jump. The meet will start at 7:30 in the night session.

Reidy, Alsop, Seniors, Star in Single Matches Reaching Finals—Semi-finals

The Pittsburg tennis team went far in the annual S. E. K. tennis tourney held Saturday, April 30. Eugene Reidy, senior, went to the finals against Charles Martin, Coffeyville, but was not able to down the strong defending champion after taking the first set, 7-5. Reidy had been seeded in the first round but was fatigued by a thrilling game; after dropping the first set 6-7, he then came back to defeat the promising Bulldog player, 6-1, 6-4.

Richard Alsop, senior, had little trouble winning his first and second round matches from Treger, Independence, and Minton, Parsons. He met Martin in the semi-finals and was defeated by the steady, faultless stroking of the Coffeyville champion.

Both doubles teams of the Dragons were eliminated before the semi-finals but gave interesting matches to their opponents the first and second rounds. The Wright-Taylor combination drew a bye the first round while Dewey-Love met the tournament victors the first round. They were defeated by Brighton-Coyle, Coffeyville, 6-3, 6-4. Wright-Taylor lost a 3-set tilt to Fort Scott's racketeers, Hoy-Parker, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4.

INTRAMURALS

The school swim meet and horse-shoes tourney will be held in the near future, according to F. M. Snodgrass, intramural supervisor. The swimming pool is now open and boys can practice there after school. There is a possibility of a school swimming team's being selected and a contest held with another school.

Instead of the annual intramural armory ball tourney, the interclass baseball contests are being run off. The finals in this sport may be held at the junior-senior frolic.

An intramural track meet will probably be run off after the regional, May 14. This year, Mr. Snodgrass is also planning on including a decathlon event.

Annual Teachers' Frolic at Neosho This Year; to be May 14

The faculty will hold their annual picnic this year at Neosho, Saturday, May 14.

The faculty will then forget their child problems of the week and their seemingly long-faced dignity will give way to rollicking, frolicking fun. They will all join in the fun and eat as much as they can hold.

The students are happy that they will all have Sunday to rest up from their escapades because indigestion and stiffness are not efficient qualifications for a class room. However, a little fun will do them good because they have all been working very hard all year.
