

Pupils Observe U. S. Education All This Week

Special Assemblies, Visitors' Program and Broadcasts Are Featured

Headlight — Sun, KOAM, American Legion, Ministerial Alliance Cooperate

Education for tomorrow's America was uppermost in the minds of students this week as the theme of the eighteenth annual American Education Week has been observed each day. The week's activities culminating in the Armistice program at the Mosque this morning.

The Ministerial Alliance, the American Legion, the Headlight—Sun, and station KOAM cooperated with the planning committee, headed by William H. Row, to make the observance known over the city.

The student council presented a special assembly Monday with the following taking part: Miss Effie Farmer, Joe Stephens, Bruce Washburn, Harold Doty, Ted Meiers, Alvin Davis, Bob Friggeri and Lacey Kent.

A visitors' assembly was held Wednesday. Devotions were led by Madlyn Osterfeld, then the program was turned over to Gerald M. Carney and the music department.

All schools were represented in article carried by the Headlight—Sun. All were represented in broadcasts over the radio station.

The musical organizations of the high school played prominent parts throughout the week.

The Monday broadcast was a panel discussion by A. E. Batten, M. M. Rose, P. O. Briggs, F. M. Green, J. L. Hutchinson, Miss Pauline Staats and William Row.

The high school broadcast Tuesday. Those taking part were Arthur Prince, Joe Stephens, Bob Akey, James Marchbanks, Margaret Hanes, Shirlee Drummond and Mary Margaret Leaton. The girls glee club sang.

Twelve junior high school students presented the Wednesday program.

Those representing the elementary schools yesterday were Miss Staats, Roy Peal, Charles Chancey, Anita Louise Miller and Bobby Kennedy.

Mexico Is Theme Of Travel Talk By Fred Smith

Fred Smith gave a travel talk and showed many pictures of Mexico last Thursday after fifth hour. Mrs. Smith ran the picture machine while he described them.

First, he told us about the outfit which he was wearing. It was the kind a typical Mexican or Indian wears on Sundays or when he wants to be especially dressed up. He wore a large black sombrero; a black shirt with the old Aztec calendar embroidered on the back; a pair of very tight fitting trousers decorated with gold braid; and he carried over his shoulder, a purple woolen rug.

Mr. Smith then told us about several rather embarrassing situations he got into as a result of not being able to speak the Mexican language. After this, he showed us the pictures.

Many of these pictures were of Mexico City. There were numerous modern homes and buildings throughout the city. He also showed us views of the ten-million dollar opera house, and some of the many churches and cathedrals there. There were several views of the mountains just outside of Mexico City, and the pyramids. He also showed us some Mexican market places and many of the articles sold there, including some barbecued sandwiches which didn't seem to appeal to the members of his party. There were several scenes of canals with flower-decked boats, and many of these flowers were wild gardenias and orchids.

This was the first of a series of educational and entertaining pictures to be shown here. Mr. Hutchinson told us that one of the pictures and talks is to be given by Glenn Cunningham.

Family Problems Solved By "Big Hearted Herbert"

Plain Traditions Transformed
By 2 Cleverly Planned
Dinner Parties

Marchbanks Lead

New Stage Furniture Purchased
From Proceeds of Speech
Rummage Sale Used

Children and parents clash! Off springs contend they should have something to say about their destinies! Should they? Mothers and Fathers each claim they know best how to bring up the children! Who does know?

Everyone has undoubtedly asked himself these questions at some time. So, for your benefit, last night at 7:45 o'clock these open questions, and others, were answered in the auditorium where the juniors presented their annual play, "Big Hearted Herbert."

The play was a 3-act comedy about the troubles a family endure trying to transform their fathers plain tradition to ideals with more umph and a few frills. The tactics they used were, if a slang expression may be used, "KILLING."

Two dinner parties (the family's cleverly used weapons) nearly drove Herbert, the dominating father, crazy. Poor Herbert! You all know the outcome of this hilarious comedy.

The new stage equipment purchased from the proceeds of the speech club's rummage sale was used last night in the unusual old-fashioned setting of the play.

Exhibits On Parade

Washington Open for Inspection;
Grade Schools Show Off

The new Washington school building was open for inspection this past week. The elementary schools of the city used the building as a place to show their work for the first six-week period. The different class rooms were arranged to show the work of the pupils of Washington while the exhibits of the other schools were arranged in the auditorium.

The exhibition was arranged to the system of education in Pittsburg. Following is the plan:

Language and art, social studies, science, fine arts, and health and recreation.

STEPHENS COLLEGE MAN VISITS HERE THURSDAY

R. C. Brown, field representative for Stephens College in Kansas, Nebraska, and Oklahoma visited the high school Thursday afternoon. This was Mr. Brown's annual visit and he talked to several senior girls about attending Stephens next year. He described the different buildings, the campus, stables, and golf courses and also, the various courses offered.

Girls interviewed were Jeanne Stevens, Mary Jane Keller, Betty Jean Crain, and Shirley Jean Gilbert.

Slagle Promoted
Donald Slagle, senior, and member of the Booster staff has been promoted from the position of quartermaster to sergeant in the PHS band. He succeeded Drury Love. Slagle is the drummer and is in charge of certain sections of the band.

Local Teachers Hosts for Meet

High School Pedagogues and Students
All Take Active part in 75th K. S. T. A.

The Kansas State Teachers Association held its 75th annual convocation here in Pittsburg last Friday and Saturday. Teachers of the entire school system as well as PHS teachers and students took part in this meeting.

Teachers and students of PHS who took active parts in the meeting were Miss Frances Palmer, Miss Maude Laney, Clyde Hartford, F. M. Snodgrass, Ellsworth Briggs, Miss Calla Leeka, William Row, G. W. Corporon, Jr., Drury Love, senior, Norma Dae Stone, senior, glee club, and the speaking choir.

The Pittsburg teachers were hosts at the convocation and students in the various schools of the city welcomed the 1 day vacation from their school work.

Plays, demonstrations, and talks on various subjects made up the large part of the two-day meeting which was attended by more than 2,000 teachers who came here from schools throughout the state of Kansas.

PHS Band to Iola

Carney's Group Will Treat Iolans
In Armistice Day Parade

Gerald M. Carney has completed plans for the PHS band to attend the Armistice Day Parade at Iola today. After marching in the parade here this morning the band will leave Pittsburg at 11 o'clock and be at Iola in time for the parade at 1 o'clock. A bus has been chartered, along with six cars. In each car an adult will accompany the band boys. J. L. Hutchinson will chaperon the boys that go in the bus.

JUNIOR SCIENTISTS TO MEET AT NOON HOURS

The Junior Academy of Science held a meeting during the noon hour, Monday, Nov. 7, to plan their permanent meeting time. In the future the club will hold their meetings each Thursday, during the noon hour.

Another meeting was held Thursday, Nov. 10, with the purpose of explaining the Junior Academy of Science, locally, state-wide, and nationally. Members participating in the program were Norma Dae Stone, Donald Slagle, Drury Love, John Ferguson, and Bob Akey.

The club plans to complete their membership and to order a charter.

Bumgarner to Rescue

Fred Bumgarner, senior, and Bob Crews '38 rescued a "lady in distress" Nov. 6, at 9:40 o'clock Sunday night when the car in which she was riding collided with a train on the Missouri Pacific tracks at Twelfth and Broadway. The boys took her in Bumgarner's car to the Community hospital where she received treatment for facial lacerations. Her husband, Lee Bournonville '26, who is the athletic coach at the Mineral High School, was driving the car and was uninjured. Mrs. Bournonville was cut by the shattering glass.

Students to Polls

Students in Marion Nation's American government and American problems classes sent two delegates to the Caskey Motor Company Tuesday to see how voting was really done. The students went at noon and were able to see politics as they actually are.

Debate Prelims In Class Rooms

Schedule Incomplete; Debaters to College for Annual Tournament
Nov. 18 and 19

The preliminaries for the intramural debate tournament will be held Nov. 15 and 16 in the English and social science classes. The finals will be held the next week.

The schedule has not been announced because the list of rooms open for debate is not complete.

The debaters of all three classes will participate in this tournament.

Friday, and Saturday, Nov. 18, and 19, of the same week all of the debaters will go to the college to participate in the annual College debate tournament.

Eugene Field To Sponsor Carnival

School's Gypsy Tea Room Atmosphere
Is to Be Featured
At Fun Fest

The Eugene Field School will sponsor their annual carnival Friday, Nov. 18, in the atmosphere of a Gypsy Tea Room.

The feature of the program will be held in the auditorium, set as a Gypsy Tea Room. A continuous program will be presented by the Pals of the Prairie, Jim West, and other vaudeville acts. A valuable door prize will number the person holding the lucky number at the end of the evening.

Many attractions will also be held in the rooms and halls. Among these attractions will be bingo, leaping lens, fish pond, a grocery store, and many other carnival attractions. Candy, hot dogs, and pop will be sold in the halls and rooms.

An elaborate coronation ceremony will be held. Each grade is to select a king and queen and of those selected the boy selling the most tickets to the tea room will be crowned at the carnival. They will reign for the remainder of the year. The king and queen in '36 were Arnold McCool and Juanita Thomas, in '37 they were Billy Weaver and Jacqueline Clinton.

Faculty Club Meets

White, Leeka Leads Discussions
Bailey To Give Bulletin

The PHS Faculty Club will hold its monthly meeting at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night, Nov. 15, in the high school library.

The program planned is as follows: "How about vocational training?"—Discussion leader, John E. White; assistants—Clyde Hartford and Miss Florence White; "To guide students through school and into vocational life"—Discussion leader—Miss Calla Leeka; assistants Miss Esther Gable and Theodore Carnino; Monthly Bulletin—Miss Jessie Bailey.

ARTIST BUREAU TO GIVE PROGRAM NOV. 15

The Artists Bureau will present another program Nov. 15. Gerald M. Carney and Colleen Hankins, who is in charge of the bureau, have a variety of numbers planned which include Bill Millington, voice baritone solo; Harvey Lanier, clarinet solo; Paul Resler, cornet solo; Raymond Manoni, horn solo; Helen Otto, voice solo; Bob Briggs, cornet solo. Others may appear on the program.

WOW! WHAT A WHIRL BOOSTER RUNS

The Booster has been in a "wow" of a whirl because of the 1-day vacation the Kansas State teachers meeting gave us last week, and this week we will have still another vacation Friday because of the Armistice Day program, which has been planned for us.

The Booster will not come out Friday Nov. 18, but it will come out the following Tuesday Nov. 22, also there will be six pages instead of four.

All in all you can see how dizzy our well dressed figure is getting. His head may grow bigger but he won't fall you.

Debaters Begin Fall Activities

Largest Team in History to Debate First At KSTC
On Nov. 19

Debaters have started their fall work in full swing now according to William Kow, coach.

The question is Resolved: The United States should establish an alliance with Great Britain.

KSTC will sponsor the first tournament on Nov. 19 with all debate, a entering. Following that, all students taking debate may go to Coffeyville if they wish. PHS has 64 participating. This is the largest team in the history of the high school. Students debating on both sides are George Bartoow, Travis Turner, Jim Marchbanks, Earl Majors, Bob Nichols, Ray Crimmel, Bill Millington, Donald Slagle, Evelyn Pitts, Marjory Gould, Gerald Pridoux, Art Prince, Joe Keller, Bill Lavery, Cloven Nogel, Margaret Jones, Evelyn Casario, Harold Pottorf, Margaret Agnes Naylor, and Bob Akey.

Students debating on the affirmative side are: Betty Lou Hastings, Joe Friend, Jim Gold, Ed Booth, Alberta Haverfield, Shirley Ainsworth, Betty Divoll, Jane Pratt, Helen Otto, Maxine Scott, H. B. Cheyne, Charles Davis, Robert Saar, Bob Couiter, Harold Mishmash, and Earl A. re.

New Machine In

Mr. Carnino Is Pleased With Grinder
in Woodwork Department

The woodwork department received a new grinder which is of the latest type and has glass shields for the protection of the boys' eyes while sharpening tools.

This machine will be a big advantage to the woodwork department, according to Theodore Carnino, instructor, since there has been no satisfactory way of sharpening tools for the past two or three years.

The grinder has been in constant use since its installation and boys now take pride in having sharp tools.

BOOSTER STAFF IS PRESENTED POSTERS

Naida Chandler, junior, and Teddy Schmidt, sophomore, recently completed the art on three new posters and presented them to the Booster staff. The posters were made in the art classes, under the direction of Miss Florence White.

One poster contains the word "Accuracy," another, the word, "Speed," and the other, the slogan, "Get It Right, Get It Now, But—Get It Right."

The posters have been placed on the bulletin board in front of the journalism room.

Start on Project

Ellsworth Briggs' economic classes have started on projects. The projects consist of problems of economics, such as labor problems, exports and imports of the United States, economic condition of Pittsburg in future, etc., to be reported on by students.

Ceremonies

Students of PHS will play an active part in the annual Armistice Day program. Beginning at 10:30 the band, under the direction of Gerald M. Carney, will give a short program. The American Legion drum corps and the PHS band will lead the students in a parade from the high school to the Mirza Mosque for a program, which is to begin at 10:30 A. M.

J. H. Geier will act as master of ceremonies, with Rev. O.F. Crawford giving the invocation. Rev. Alpha H. Kenna will be the principal speaker.

Music numbers in addition to the high school band will be given by a trio composed of Mrs. W. Howard Millington, Mrs. Lavon Graham Holden, and Mrs. A. Stancart Graham; a horn solo by William Stoskopf; a solo by Mrs. W. Howard Millington, and a quartet composed of John Purdon, Marcel Cook, J.J. Forgarty, and G. D. Lonston.

At 11 o'clock a two minute meditation period will be observed. The program will close at 12:00 o'clock with the playing of taps.

After the program here the PHS band will go to Iola to take part in their Armistice Day celebration and the American Legion drum corps will go to Parsons.

A. C. E. Meets

Rinehart Speaker; Exhibitions Are Also Enjoyed

The Pittsburg Association for Childhood Education held its second meeting at Washington school, Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 1. Sixty members were present at the meeting. The program consisted of a speech by Miss Gladys Rinehart. She spoke on her experiences in South America.

Later the teachers enjoyed the exhibitions at the open house. These exhibitions were donated by the elementary schools of the city.

The A.C.E. wishes to express their thanks to the printing department of the high school for their work in printing the yearbook for the association.

Booster Receives Birthday Greetings From Its Founder

Following is a letter received by Miss Frances E. Palmer, librarian, from Mrs. Laura Finley Smith, founder of the Booster.

Emporia, Kansas
Oct. 17, 1938

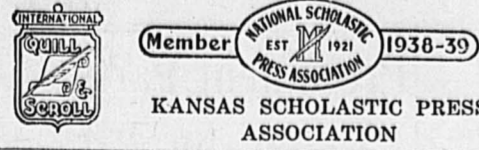

Dear Miss Palmer:

Will you convey to the Booster staff my heartiest congratulations on the Booster's having reached its 23rd birthday, and my best wishes for a happy and successful year? I am proud of its growth and achievements in all these years, and especially of the honors that have come to it in connection with the Kansas Interscholastic Press Association. I am sure the present staff must be a live bunch. I notice the two class alternating staff plan is to be put into effect. I predict it will work out well, with the initiative and energy of the present group. I know they must have both or the whole group would not have found a way to go to the K. I. P. A. conference at Lawrence. That was an achievement in itself. I appreciate more than I can say their continued kindness in sending the Booster to me. The birthday number came Saturday, and I have so thoroughly enjoyed reading the school news seeing the familiar names, and learning of the various school activities. I even pictured the proctors at all their assigned positions. Say "Hello" for me to the faculty members with whom I used to work.

Sincerely yours,
Laura Finley Smith

What You Don't Know Won't Hurt You - Or Will It?

Don't let that old saying, "What you don't know won't hurt you," fool you. It probably refers to gossip and such, certainly not to useful knowledge. What you don't know will hurt you, hurt your education, your personality and more. It will hurt now, perhaps when you get your grade card. That's a minor hurt and if you're smart, you'll remove it by studying and gathering more knowledge. However, later on when you're looking for a job all you don't know will be held against you to hurt you, maybe to keep you from "landing that job." So don't be fooled. What you don't know most certainly WILL hurt you.

—Alice Williams

Schools of Today Need Subjects For Trades

What high schools today need is more subjects that prepare us for a trade and not so much book work. They should give us our book studies for half a day and vocational subjects the rest of the day. These subjects should be: woodwork, printing, electric welding, machine shop, etc. Of course you can't leave out some of your studies because they are the background for all these trades.

In big high schools in the East they are trying this system out and have found it to be a success.

—Ralph Scifers

Don't Depend Upon Someone Else To Get Your Work

Are you a person who rushes into class the day of the test and says, "Geel! I don't study. Won't you help me out if I get stuck?" If you are, what would you do if upon arriving in class, you see that your pal's chair is empty? You would probably grab your book, try to read two or three chapters, and end up by knowing no more than you did when you started. Why not take fifteen minutes in your library period and study as hard as you did the last five minutes before the test? Don't depend on a pal for your grades—be independent!

—Shirley Sackett

Do You Cooperate With Other Students To Help Our School?

In PHS there are some 800 students capable of taking responsibility in some form, but they do not. Although the majority of the students follow the rules and regulations, there are a few of them who will not comply. These few, who will not comply, can disrupt all of the school's routine of orderliness.

If these students were asked to leave and that asking be enforced, they might possibly put forth more effort to make it possible for them to stay.

Jitterbug! Swing Fans! Do You Really Want School Dances?

Armistice Day

I am told that I must spend the day in shouting hurrah, in taking off my hat when the flag goes by, in silent prayer for those of our boys who didn't come back and in rapt attention when the band plays "The Star Spangled Banner."

I'll do it because it's the "patriotic" thing to do. But somehow I have always had trouble in getting out that hurrah, Nov. 11.

At the football game I pride myself on yelling with the loudest. Yet, every time I remember the times mother has told me about when she could hear grandma crying the night away wondering where Uncle John was during that hectic period on top of the ground or in it...my voice sounds odd and far away.

The war won't be over for grandma until she joins Uncle John, up there. Every time mother tells me about it, I can see the expression on Aunt Margaret's face when she saw Uncle Frank get off the train, twenty years ago—on crutches. His right leg remained in France.

Only the merciful arrival of death will end the war for Aunt Margaret. The same will be true of Uncle Frank as it will be for thousands of other men who were young once, as you and I are now. What is left of them, after going through the remainder of their life with physical or mental handicaps, will carry to its grave the haunting memory of that conflict. They have and will carry to their graves, also the fervent hope that future generations may never know the awful hell they knew during those months overseas. May we perpetuate and realize that hope!

—A student of PHS.

chance to criticize the administration or were they sincere thoughts of dancing as a needed social activity in our school? Surely all those interested last year have not graduated and joined the alumni. Think it over!

BOOKS THAT ARE BEING READ

Gone With the Wind
By Margaret Mitchell

"Gone With the Wind" is a story of life in the South, covering the Civil War period. It concerns the life of the O'Haras, mainly Scarlett O'Hara. She is the belle of the south and is headstrong and flighty. Every man, young and old, in the south knows of and talks of Scarlett O'Hara.

Her mother is a gentle born French woman and her father is a blustering Irishman. Thus you have the story of the turmoil of her spirit. She falls in love with a man whom she never marries, though she does marry three other men, the last of whom is Rhett Butler. Intwoven in the story of Scarlett is the Civil War. Margaret Mitchell very neatly weaves in the faithfulness of the freed Negroes and the facts about them that were not to be praised.

This book is praiseworthy and well-written. They are now making a movie version of it. "Gone with the Wind" is well worth the time spent to read it.

WE READ IT IN
(The Pennant)

Ever since you've been "knee high to a grasshopper," so the expression goes, someone has been teaching you the fundamentals of courtesy and politeness. Haven't they? In the home, in the school, and even in the church the same lessons are taught over and over again. One cannot escape the rules of courtesy. Eternally they are constantly bouncing out of books, magazines, and newspapers. In the home rooms this year, different phases of courtesy have been the topics for interesting and helpful discussions.

And yet, some people fail to take heed of them and act as though they had never heard of the idea of manners or as if they had just come from one of the most uncivilized parts of the world.

If you are one of those people who fail to heed courtesy and think it is just a lot of "bunk," better change your mind, because everywhere one goes his character is judged by politeness. And who doesn't want his character to be classed as one of the finest. You're right, we all do.

FASHIONS AND FADS

In young men's clothing this year, conventional schemes seem to have been discarded and combinations of brown, green and blue took the campus by storm. Herringbone and gabardine run close competition as the popular fabric of the new full pleated sport pants. Large, bright stripes in the barrel sweater are common along with "loud" horizontal striped socks. Unusually warm weather has played havoc with many new fall jackets yet some of these leather sleeved plaid and solid colored sport coats have brightened up our halls.

DID YOU KNOW?

The posts on the football field cost 139.50?
There are 128 teachers in the City school system?

There are eleven schools in the city of Pittsburg?
This year witnesses the first year of secretarial practice in PHS?

Milton Zacharias and John Shafer, former members of PHS debate squad, beat the National Champs in debate in 1931?

M. A. Nation was wounded in action in the World War at the battle of Belleau Woods?
The grounds of the high school cover four city blocks and contain 10.8 acres of land?

A LITTLE BIRD TOLD ME

When Mr. Huffman's biology class went on a field trip, a certain "sophy" called "Winkie decided that swimming was not out of season, so without taking off her shoes and stockings for the wade, she went in. Then lol a hero to the rescue, Sammy Van Gorden, who bravely pulled her out.

Romance in France. Well, anyway, in French. The lovebirds this time are Betty Payne and Jay Renick. Imagine, they talk to each other across the room in French.

Anna Caroline Keek would certainly like to be better acquainted with Max Rose.

Maxine Scott and Shirley Ann Gay bet each other that one could have a date with "Chuck" Gilliland before the other one during a certain week. A disappointment he didn't ask either of them.

These couples were seen at the De Molay dance:
Bob Akey Mary Morgan
George Seeley Laverna Casterman
Charles Davis Rosemary Cowan
Joe Fields Shirley Cornelius
D. W. Check Mardell Mangrum
Bob Crews Naida Chandler
Harry Stephenson Lois Teter

Two young things are wearing "ice" on that certain finger. They are Juanita Brett and Mary Ann Reeves. Are there any more of whom would like to make it public?

It seems that Paul Ozburn really makes a hit with the members of the opposite sex. Harriet McCollister, upon seeing him sitting alone looking lonely, decided to entertain him. If you want to know her method, she would be glad to tell you.

The Colleen Hankins—Earl Majors affair again seems to be on the rocks. He took Virginia McBride to the De Molay dance. Colleen has decided she will stay with her college boy friend, anyway.

David Hopper, can't you just see the love light in Janice Brennan's eyes?

Too bad there aren't more Frank Walkers in school. Every day he brings candy to Phyllis Morgan. It must be sweet.

It's really hard to believe, but Lavon Casterman and Jerome Marshallinger really have broken up. At least, for the present.

Betty Brackett's steady let her go to the De Molay dance because he wasn't a De Molay.

'Tis rumored that Jack Harmon and Edna Mae Price are going steady—again.

Who was that wild and woolly redskin who escorted his own sister to the De Molay dance? Maybe Barbara Williams could tell us.

Jerry Billiard has wanted a date with Merle Dean Hadlock for so long. He finally asked her but—she got scared and turned it down!!!

Virginia Lee Plagens certainly thinks Jack Marquardt is cute. Too bad Kathryn saw him first. "At Long Last Love" goes the song and also it applies to Louis Urban. The girl is none other than Mary Bee Mills.

These "steady" girls sure do get around. Are you listenin', Ft. Scott?????

It's still a secret so don't tell anyone, but Lucille Patterson and Homer Little started going steady the night of the senior party.

BIRTHDAYS

Nov. 7...Harlan Peterson.
Nov. 8...Bill Williams.
Nov. 9...Earl Davis, Walter Riley, Betty Claunch, Merl McClure, Charles Newcomb.
Nov. 10...Clifford Spicer.

CHARACTER SKETCH

The teacher this week—well, you guess. The subject he teaches is interesting and, by the way, is required. Students going to sleep in his class have the privilege of being awakened by a so called shriek, "Yeow." During discussions he has a habit of twirling his glasses and when disgusted with folks and situations, he peers over the top of them.

To stimulate pep for the oncoming football game, the orchestra, directed by John Stevenson played the selections, The Day You Came Along, Someone Stole Gabriel's Horn, and Bless Your Heart.

Roosevelt presented the annual ninth-grade play "Everybody's Crazy." Leading roles were taken by Joe Stephenson, Darrell Cochran, Barbara Wilson, and Jane Baxter.

Songs You Are Hearing

Alexander's Ragtime Band
Come on and hear, come on and hear,
Alexander's Ragtime Band,
Come on and hear, come on and hear
The best band in the land
It can play a bugle call
Like you never heard before;
It's so natural you want to go war
That's just the bestest band what am
My honey lamb.
Come on along, come on along,
I will take you by the hand
Up to the man, up to the man,
Who's the leader of the band.
If you care to hear that Swanee river
Played in ragtime;
Come on and hear, come on and hear
Alexander's Ragtime Band.

American Youth Forum Sponsors Second Contest

Divisions in Essay and Art for High School Students Who Enter

Can Win $1000

No Entry Fees Are Needed in Affair; School May Win Other Valuable Awards

The American Youth Forum established by the American Magazine announces its 1938-39 contest for high schools. The purpose of the organization is to encourage high school students to think constructively about their future in relation to the United States.

There are two divisions of the contest: one essay and one art. The essay is to be written on the article, "What I Owe America and What America Owe Me," or "New Frontiers for American Youth." The poster part of the contest is to be on "This is My America," or "New Frontiers of America." There are 306 awards given ranging from $1000 down to some very valuable certificates. The contest closes March 31, 1939. Any student in high school or junior high school is eligible.

There are no entry fees, or students' blanks, and all the posters, broadsides, pamphlets, etc., are furnished at the expense of the American Magazine.

There is a school award for the school having the largest percentage of its pupils to submit entries to the forum. The fourteen schools having the largest percentage will receive a set of Harvard Classics.

HOME LIVING CLASS VISITS HOME ICE CO.

Miss Calla Leeka's home living class visited the Home Ice plant Tuesday, Nov. 2. Allan Fields conducted the class to the cold storage lockers in which they saw the ageing, cutting, and freezing room. Mr. Fields showed the process of cutting and freezing the meats and other foods. There are two freezing rooms. One is kept at the temperature of fifteen above zero and the other fifteen below zero.

GIRL RESERVES

The Girl Reserves met in the auditorium this week for a group meeting. The program was provided by Miss Gable's group. Kathleen Cooper presided over the meeting, devotions were led by Dorothy Crouch and Ida Louise Rush played a piano solo. Mrs. John White gave a short talk. The theme was, "Aren't we glad to be alive today?" The G. R. Cabinet met last week on Wednesday night after school. Plans were made for a Girl Reserve mixer to be held Nov. 16. They also discussed the plans for prayer week that is coming soon. Mardell Mangrum was appointed chairman of the prayer week services.

The Girl Reserves will hold a prayer week Nov. 13-19. All girls who wish to participate will meet every morning of the week for a short prayer service. This prayer week will be observed all over the nation by the G. R.

The Girl Reserves will hold their annual mixer from 7 to 8:30 o'clock Wednesday night, Nov. 16, in the library. Further details will be in next week's paper.

Student Council

Special emphasis has been placed on one council rule this year. It is that persons tardy or missing his committee meeting three times without being excused is subject to expulsion.

A proctor meeting was held in Miss Effie Farmer's room Wednesday noon, Nov. 2.

The meeting was held to assign new duties.

It was decided that pupils should use correct stairs before and after assembly.

The only exception to the rule of "down east stairs; up west stairs" is when there are only a few people passing before school in the morning and at noon.

There were reports of boys loafing in rest rooms during classes. Proctors may be stationed to prevent this.

There were three new proctors assigned to the typing room fourth, fifth, and sixth hours: Cloyes Rogers, John Ferguson, and John Batten.

There have also been some proctors assigned to look at passes of pupils leaving the building:

Laurel Ellsworth, after first hour; Leonard Stone, after second hour; Jack Embree, after fourth hour; Belcen Legge, after fifth hour.

Wilbert Thomae has been assigned to assist Thomas Mann at the lunch line.

Sanitation Committee

Have you ever observed how beautiful your campus is? The PHS campus is probably the most beautiful high school campus in the state (when clean). So to show how much pride we have in our campus let us refrain from cluttering it with gum and candy wrappers. The walks on the campus were constructed to walk up on so when you are in a hurry to save a minute don't cut across the lawn and you will be saving your campus. In this way we may retain our campus pride.

HEATING EQUIPMENT NEARS COMPLETION

Work is rapidly nearing completion on the installation of the schools new heating plant, according to officials in charge. The new twin Kewanee type boilers are in place and ready to do service. An outstanding feature of the new heating plant is the Riley-Jones automatic stokers purchased for $4000.

The boilers will be covered with a 2 inch insulation, it was said. With only a few minor details left PHS can be positive that it will have a warm, secure winter.

De Molays Pick Queen Prospects

Kuebler, Walker Chandler and Cowan Are Selected Prom High School

Pittsburg has had coal queens and bathing beauty contests, but now the Pittsburg Chapter Order of the De Molay presents the six girls to compete in the De Molay queen contest. The six charming girls selected were June Walker, Mary Kuebler, Naida Chandler, and Rosemary Cowan from the high school and Alene Michie '37 and Ruth Delaine Collins '37 from K. S. T. C.

There will be two separate votings to determine the queen and the two maids of honor. At the first voting three of these entries will be eliminated and of those remaining one will become queen and the other two will be maids of honor.

The first voting will be based on the points the members have accumulated from Sept. 5 to Dec. 28. These points are earned by attendance, petitions, representative De Molay, band, dues, De Molay degree team, De Molay chapter officer, committee chairman and visiting other De Molay chapters.

The queen and her two maids of honor will be guests of the annual New Year's banquet and dance, at which the ceremony will be held in crowning the queen. A gift will be given to the queen and bouquets will be given to the maids of honor.

Dragons Meet Vikings in Holiday Battle

Purple Gridders Invade Parsons This Afternoon

Pittsburg Machine Hoping to Repeat Last Years Victory Seeking Sixth Win
Kickoff at 2:30
Norsemen Trying for First League Win at Expense of Local Squad

The Pittsburg Dragons will be out to stage a small war of their own when they invade Parsons to meet the enemy on the foreign battlefield at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. The game stacks up as one of the season's features and will turn out to be just that.

The Vikings so far have not tasted a league victory and will no doubt be out "gunning" for a win.

Both teams are expected to display their full power. Parsons has a passing attack that is to be feared. All that remains to be seen is if the Pittsburg powerhouse can get underway. Pittsburg came out of the Iola imbroglio in good shape and indications are that the Dragons will be out to repeat this week.

If both teams live up to expectations there will be no slinking of an "Amistice" till the final gun. The "seven mules" have been switched in their tails all week in anticipation and the "four teamsters" are just as anxious, so the Viking can expect to a task on hands in tomorrow's game.

Sport Gossip

Scoop—James Zimmerman, veteran Dragon tackle, scored the extra point in the last quarter of the Iola game. This was James first point in three years of football playing. "Wheel Success at last!" said Zimmerman after the game.

Coffeyville's first football squad has 45 members that suit up and play regularly. I wonder if Coach "Bab" Lewis is going to throw a scare into opponents next season with a flock of returning lettermen.

It seems that Charles (Crash) Gilliland received a cold last week when he was practicing football minus pants.

The Dragons did some nice ball playing against the Iola Mustangs last Friday. They gained 261 yards by rushing and 41 yards on forward passes.

The Vikings will be after their first victory of the season this afternoon when they meet the Dragons in league play.

Alvin Mielke, former PHS dashman, played an important part in the Fort Scott victory over Arkansas City last week-end. Mielke's speed on offense and hard tackling on defense was outstanding.

NO DOCTOR NEEDED IN SPEECH CLASSES

"An apple a day keeps the doctor away." If one is good, two should be better, so the apples were sold at two for a penny.

It seems that William Row's home room had a party and nearly all of a bushel of apples was left. The debate and speech classes found it hard to study with the sweet aroma of those apples filling the room. After much bargaining with Mr. Row a price was set and an apple market was set up. This market, like all good markets, was started on a "cash and carry" basis but, some credit business was also done.

Much business was transacted and at last, after every apple had been sold, Mr. Row had to close up. A total of 52 cents was collected from the cash sales.

Statistics show that 85 percent of the children in reform schools never attended Sunday school.

BULLETIN

DRAGONS TO JOPLIN
The Purple Dragons will journey to Joplin Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 16, to meet the Eagles in an inter-state tilt.

So far this season the Missourians have not fared so well in their gridiron wars, while the Dragons have won five out of seven starts and are not planning on losing any more. The Eagles will be out to avenge the 27-18 defeat handed them last year by the locals. The game will be played on Junges field.

Player Sketch

Don German, halfback, and Waymon Edwards, quarterback.

Don German, the boy that tops the Dragons scoring this season with 32 points, has given opposing teams much concern with his hard driving and slashing tackles.

Don, weighing 170 and standing six feet, will be back next season to give grief to the Dragon opponents. Waymon Edwards is the lad who has taken over the quarterback duties this season. Waymon gives the Dragon grid machine just the right amount of polish due to his smooth ball handling and passing.

Waymon has turned in a good job of signal calling so far this season and deserves much credit for the success of the Dragons. Edwards weighs 165, stands close to six feet and is a senior.

Former Students Named to Posts in Organization

The Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is now being organized in Pittsburg, elected nine members to its board of directors Thursday, Nov. 3. Some of the members elected are former students of PHS. Members elected included Paul Elliott, Don Taylor, Earl Wilson, Leo Howard, Karl Grother, Maynard Angwin, John Towner, Boyd Weide, and F. M. Windberg. Another member is to be selected later by the present board members.

The board adopted a constitution which was drafted by a special committee. Further organization plans will be made Wednesday when the new board of directors meet. Earl Wilson acted as temporary chairman.

Don Gutteridge to Instruct Panamanans To Play Baseball

Don Gutteridge, a former high school student, now playing third base for the St. Louis Cardinals, was recently appointed baseball instructor over the schools of Panama in the Canal Zone. Gutteridge, while in high school was very active in sports, being a co-captain of the basketball team in 1930, and was placed on several all-star teams. Gutteridge has been playing ball with the Cardinals for three years.

Don also played with the Columbus Redbirds in the American Association and was placed on the league all-star team. He will resume practice the first of March next year.

Bowling

Trying this week for a comeback, Bozick's again failed to match the bowling consistency of their opponents and dropped three games to Eagle Cherokee.

J. Lindley and C. Hankins led the attack for the winners turning in series totals of 828 and 531 respectively. Theodore Carnino scored a neat 535 series for the losers with lines of 164, 184, 187.

Bozick's again went down to defeat last week, losing to Mulberry-Cherokee, two games to one. Bozick's seemed to have trouble hitting the vital pin with only one man being able to hit the 200 mark for single line, this being Lester Scates with 201.

Circle of the winners bowled in fine form to lead scoring honors with 218 single line and 558 series total.

BAND CHANGES COUNTER MARCH THIS YEAR

The band now has a new counter-march.

It was taken from the marching tactics of the K. U. band, when they drilled at the half during the K. U.—Washburn football game.

Several PHS journalists, attending the game while at Lawrence for the journalism conference, carried the idea back to Gerald Carney, music instructor.

Another innovation being inaugurated in the band's marches is a form of goose-step, which Mr. Carney copied from the parade of the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace, England.

Booster Offers New Positions For Staff Members

Have you noticed the new positions on The Booster staff this year? Every year some new features are added to bring the school paper to a more nearly commercial standard.

Donald Slagle, photographer, has charge of all pictures which appear in The Booster. Wesley Butler, printing student, has been given the responsibility of make up this year.

A new plan of organizing material of the editorial page was put into effect this year as Arthur Prince and Alberta Haverfield took over the job.

In order that more people will have a chance to hold the staff position they desire, the gossip column was made up into combination of selected articles from several students. Jeanne Stevens, Shirley Gilbert, Maxine Sims, and Claire Hubert are now writing the gossip column.

Many duties, heretofore done by any member of circulation department, were divided up so that a definite person is responsible for these obligations. Circulation exchanges were placed in charge of Doris Claunch and Shirley Sackett. School distribution is managed by Betty Brackett, filling Gene McClarrinon, and subscriptions, Iva Mae Beard, are also new places in the circulation department.

Jubilee hall at Fisk University was built with $250,000 which the original Fisk jubilee singers earned on their first world tour.

Changes in Rules Few This Season

Batting Loose Ball Costs Offender 15 Yards; Incomplete Pass Try Over

Several football rule changes were put into effect this season. Principally among these are the following: Intentionally batting or kicking a kicked ball or certain loose balls is penalized fifteen yards from the previous spot.

The penalty for not remaining stationary one second after a shift is loss of five yards. Also an incompletion behind the opponent's goal line is a touchback only during fourth down.

When a legal forward pass becomes incomplete because of striking the ground or going out of bounds it does not offset a foul by the opposing team.

Other sections of the rule book have been so revised as to harmonize with the changes.
