900 of P.H.S. In Americanism Week Programs

Sponsored by Elks, Purpose Is To Make War Upon Anti-
Patriotic Tendencies

Students Wear Pins

Home Room Flag Ambassadors
Distribute Buttons in Observance of Events

Nearly 900 students and faculty members of Pittsburg senior high school were wearing large shiny buttons with two crossed American flags printed upon them last Monday morning in observance of Americanism Week. They were distributed by the flag ambassadors of each home room, and were given by the local Elks lodge.

The purpose of Americanism week is to make war on the numerous anti-American organizations and tendencies. The local Elks lodge chose this method to stimulate interest among the school children.

The flag ambassadors of PHS were Wesley Butler, Charles Gilliland, Bob Briggs, Morris Moffat, Clifford Gregg, John Ferguson, Jack Culver, Jesse Kotur, Eugene Seeley, Francis Ryan, Jack Blair, Nick Tavernaro, Kenneth Wilson, Don Isenburgh, Glen Welch, Winifred Brunin, Ted Meyer, Bill Poland, Charles Davis, Joe Stephens, Joe Keller, and Harold Mishmash. These buttons are one and one quarter inches in diameter and have two crossed American flags crossed on a background of yellow and white. More flags were seen around the halls Monday than ever before in the history of PHS.

Buttons were also given to students in all city schools. Approximately 4000 buttons were issued.

Military Disciples

Latinists to Receive Grades Under
New Marking System

"Ego sum miles. Cur? Quid ego ludo militem."

Latin students now "play soldier" in order to determine their marks under a new grading system inaugurated by Miss Clara Radell, instructor, for her Latin classes.

The names of all "Latini discipuli" are recorded on a large card. As each reads, the "magister" places either a "red" mark (signifying a living soldier in the army of Caesar or Cicero, or a "blue" mark (signifying a dead soldier), depending upon the quality of the recitation.

At the close of the 6-week period, the students having the largest number of "reds" receive the highest grades, while those having the most "blues" receive the lowest grades.

If the plan proves successful, "Post hoc, ergo propter hoc."

2500 Persons Attend Open House and Ceremonies of Newly Dedicated Gymnasium

About 2,500 persons were at the opening of the Theodore Roosevelt junior high school building Tuesday night when the structure was dedicated to the youth of Pittsburg.

Poetry Contest Closes March 22

Boys Are Urged to Dash Off
Ditties; Girls Challenged
To Do Best

Come on, you poets, this may be your one big chance for fame and fortune. Many writers have received inspiration by using a little effort and time. And boys, most of the great poets have been men, but it seems you are letting the fairer sex go around you, for there have been some very good results from the girls.

Here is the set of rules you are to follow in the Booster's annual poetry contest:

1. Any student can enter as many as three poems each.
 2. All students are eligible to enter except journalists.
 3. Write on one side of the paper only.
 4. Ink or type the poem.
 5. All poems must be in by March 22. Put entries in box at front door or hand to Booster staff members.
- Now, that isn't hard to do is it? Remember that a clever line will go just as far as a beautiful one. There are so many good subjects you can write on, so begin now to write your little "ditty," for there will be very nice rewards.

Many "lovely gifts" such as checks, academy awards, and scholarships, have been presented and accepted.

The equipment installed included a new stove, pastry oven, pastry tables, salad table, electric refrigerator with a capacity of 64½ cubic feet, an electric mixer, and a new steam table which is equipped with a water cooler, an ice cream jacket, and a milk cooler. Candid Commentary

Pope Pius XII, formerly Eugenio Cardinal Pacelli, has taken up his duties as the papal head of the Catholic church, lacking yet the magnificent pontifical coronation before he is thoroughly qualified to direct his religious wards from Vatican City.

The world anxiously awaits the Pontiff's attitude toward the Nazi-proposed pogroms against the Catholics and the various other problems facing Catholicism, today. Will he be as ardent in upholding peace and good will as was Pius XI, beloved idol of the church for 23 years?

A bright omen is that Pius XII chose the same name as his predecessor. Time, alone, will tell if the former secretary of state to Pius XI and noble servant of the church for 47 years will promote the good works begun by the "Pope of Peace."

This paper being an organ of student sentiment, the topic most appropos as the typification of high school interests is—jokes. Whenever two or more honored devotees of the astute business of obtaining a high school education congregate, do they discuss upon political prospects for 1940? Do they debate the foreign situation? Not on your honorable life. Such a case is indeed a rarity.

Hardly before salutations are over, the proverbial expression (the term, "proverbial expression," seems as inevitable as "waiting automobiles," local theatre," hurrying pedestrians," or corner drugstore") is, "Have you heard the one about—?" Two striking examples are the following:

Things we dread to hear:
MacBeth begins Monday.
I dont love you no more.
Fingernails scratching on glass.
Notebooks in tomorrow.
Your column is putrid.

In the Feb. 12 issue of the Baltimore Sunday Sun is a mirth-provoking article, "Those Campus Cutups," which relates a few of the transgressions of the modern "college man" from the pursuit of his curriculum.

Outstanding among the pranks, was a scheme devised by two students of the State University in California, home of economic ham and eggs. They were campaigning for a pension plan, "$50 Every Friday for Folks under 50," which would be liquidated by the use of milk-bottle caps of 1¢ denomination. Each time a bottle top changed hands, the receiver would pay a penny and punch a hole in the top.

Exponents of the idea say that by this method a cap would be self-liquidating, having done away with itself by the time it is paid for.

Are these the economists of the generation, soon to take over the reins of our government? Are they the braintrusts of the future?

Are you going to practice basketball tonight? If your are, I want to come and watch you. Do you still think as much of S. M. R. as you used to? You know I don't mean to be catty because I can't be catty with you because I like you so much.

The Loretta Belle Ashline-Louis Dennis affair seems to be running along smoothly now. They have been going together for a year now and you know that's doing pretty good for these young sophies.

The sophies seem to be keeping in the spotlight this week. Zoe Wilma Baade says she thinks Hershel Hensley is awfully cute but she thinks he is sorta bashful. "Every time he goes by I have the funniest feeling in my heart," she says.

Have you seen Bruce Washburn's latest heart throb? You can see them around the halls almost any time.

Help Give Our Campus New Green Outfit for Spring

"In the spring a young man's fancy turns to love," and why not, here comes that time of year when the trees start to bud and the flowers begin to peep from the barren earth. But remember, young students, if you are running around in a daze, please keep using the sidewalks that are provided for your use. Let's give our campus a chance to don a new green outfit.

Cooperation is Essential Factor Of Success

Cooperation! Without cooperation nothing can be accomplished. Nothing successful can come from anything without it. In athletics it is vital for the team's success. In any line of work people must cooperate with one another in order for it to function correctly. So it is with life. You may have everything essential to become a success: education, truth, wisdom, knowledge, and character, but with -co operating with others, you will be able to get nowhere. Everyone must work together to be successful.

"Apple Polishing"

"Apple Polishing" should be an important part of every student's education," says Dean Dubach of O. S. C., in a recent article in a local newspaper. The term "apple polisher" is generally applied to the student who makes himself known to the instructor in a "more favorable light." The dean further claims that the student who isn't wise enough some intelligent "apple polishing" isn't wise enough to be in college.

This point of view puts an entirely different light on the subject of "apple polishing." We usually think of it as something to be avoided, and as something one does only when a person cannot obtain a satisfactory grade any other way.

However, it is true that intelligent "apple polishing" is necessary throughout everyone's life. In selling yourself to a friend, an employer, or any other person whom you wish, for a specific purpose, to impress, you must show your best traits. Thus, our education should train us in the art of "apple polishing" so that we can do it with finesse by the time we face the business of making a living.

tle girl." What's wrong with the girls here in PHS?

Ask Betty Jean why she is now called 10-minute Crain." It has something to do with a bet she made saying she could get a date with a Columbus boy in ten minutes. Did you, Betty?

And speaking of Columbus, Jack Broadhurst had a date with the Titan's "little gift from heaven," Virginia Suttie.

Kathleen Karns and Leo Ensmann, Joyce Henny and Russell Duff go to the show together every week to get the set of dishes that is being given. 'Tis a hope chest they're making, we betcha.

Maybe June Lowe doesn't know it, but nearly everyone else knows that she's going steady with Bob Coulter. Methinks she knows it too, but she wants to be certain there is no other one in her life.

Polly Gordon has just given up that fight for a certain college boy, and has found, like so many others, that PHS is her "pickins" for boys.

We are very thankful to the Five Phantoms for their aid in securing news for this column.

Virginia Gore and Bill Strong have decided not to go steady for two weeks now. There's a reason for everything, you know.

Flash! A new couple is seen roaming the halls of PHS. P. S. They are Virginia Brown and Waldo Selburg.

Paul Theobald has a new theory on life. It is, "Marry in haste and repeat it at leisure."

When the deep purple falls
Over sleepy garden walls,
And the stars begin to flicker in the sky
Though the mists of memory
You wander back to me.
Breathing my name with a sigh
In the still of the night

Though you're gone,
Your love lives on.
When moonlight beams
And as long as my heart will beat.
Lover, we'll always meet
Here in my deep purple dreams.

ETTA—KETTE

Just to be different we've snoop around and found out several interesting facts.

The boys don't seem to be air-minded and want the girls to bring their hair and noses down to normal sea-level.

Abbreviated talk would suit most of the boys better than abbreviated skirts, which should take care of the long and short of that.

Hoop skirts might have been the very thing for grandmas, but they still remain a thing of the past as far as the boys are concerned. Bruised shins constitute their chief objection.

Girls prefer combed hair, but oiled and slicked back hair are definitely out.

A shirt and tie can help the appearance of any boy, just ask the girls.

You know, girls are funny, but they seem to prefer boys who come to the door to get them rather than the babyish type that still delight in sitting out in their cars and testing the durability of their horns.

These boys who talk critically about girls behind their back aren't exactly appreciated either!

AMUSING THE MUSES

"Waiting at the Church"

She was waiting at the church
For there was to be no tie,
And the poor groom walked right out on her
And really told her why.
Lucky little Lizzie,
To get to learn so young,
That halitosis (bad breath)
Was one thing she had done!

She also had pink tooth brush
And her teeth were so alarming,
She was not dainty anymore
And neither was she charming.
Her hair was dull and dingy
And a permanent she needed,
And though she knew lots better
Not a lesson had she heeded.

Her clothes were called a tattle tale,
She had dish-water hands,
She was too fat and this is where
This poor girl really stands.
But now she knows the reason why
To her he did advise,
The guy to make his living
Has the job to advertise.

Business Man Is Almost Saved by 'Farley Rescue' as Eviction Threat Frightens

Slam! The walls of the rickety office tremored as Mr. Mortgage banged the door and strode to the elevator. Mr. Business Mann stared blankly at the note lying before him on his desk. The amount ran well into the fifth figure and it was due tomorrow. Mr. Mortgage had just stormed that he would confiscate the entire factory if the note was not paid "on the hour."

Cash on hand ran slightly into the third figure and chances of obtaining more were slim, indeed unless-- Mr. Business Mann grasped a slight hope.

Unless his salesman in New York City succeeded in clinching that large order! For days, he had expected a message from this salesman but, as yet, had been disappointed.

But wait, the postman was slipping a letter through the panel slot mail box! Quickly he snatched the letter from the box and glanced at the address. Noting gleefully that it was postmarked New York City, he tore it open in feverish haste.

And now, dear reader, if you expected to hear of the salesman's succeeding in clinching the large order, I am disappointed at your intelligence. Such things are miracles and seldom happen in every-day life. As a matter of fact, the envelope contained one of those common advertising circulars and Mr. Business Mann was evicted the next morning for failing to meet his note.

Did I have fun? Wow! You said it. Guess where I went, to the nicest house you ever saw. One of my boy friends took me, he went to visit his brother. He said he would like to see me staying there for good. I guess it was his family home, but it was more like a hotel than a house. It had a name, too, they called it Nut-hatch Insane Asylum Home for Nuts, run by James

C. Zimmerman, head nut. There were lots of people staying there, and there was the nicest lady assisting James. They called her Lena.

I met some really nice people there, too. Dave (Crackpot) Cunningham was track coach. Some of the guests were Dorothy (Miss America she thinks) Keith, Bob (two-gun) Nichols, Mary Margaret (Jitterbug) Leaton, Eugene Ridin' Hard, Mary (Hedy Lamarr) Morgan and lots of others.

James said the only thing wrong with the place was that there are lots of nuts and screws loose, and it looked so well built to me, imagine that.

You know--I hate to say this, but I think--well gosh I think some of those people are crazy, especially James. I know I shouldn't say that, but--well I can't help what I think.

Say! Did you know that I've been getting threatening letters? A couple of printers have been writing them. Oh, Well! They can't scare me. As a matter of fact I think they should be visiting Mr. Zimmerman, too.

Purple Will Meet Titan-Viking Winner in Finals If Victorious Tonight

The Purple Dragons go into the semi-final round of the regional tourney at Columbus at 8:15 o'clock tonight, taking on the Baxter Springs squad, by virtue of their trouncing the Cherryvale Cherries last night, in the opening round, 43-16.

Capt. Waymon Edwards led the attack for the locals, hitting the hoop for fifteen points in a game that saw the purple crew score in any manner they desired.

Pittsburg started off with a bang, scoring six points before their opponents could get the range, and held an 11 to 3 advantage at the end of the first quarter. The second quarter proved to be a low scoring stanza with neither team doing much on offense.

Starting the second half, the locals turned on the heat with a fire department offense that saw sixteen points marked up in the third period. Starting the last quarter, the Dragon subs began to sift into the fracas and continued to battle their opponents on more than even terms.

The game ended with Pitt going away and leading by 43 to 16. If the Dragons win tonight they will advance to the finals tomorrow night meeting the winner of the Columbus-Parsons game, being played tonight.

Basketball Teams Reach Final in Intramural Play

Junior High Faculty, Cobb Cop Titles; Marchbanks, Soph Winners

Success Season

Coach Snodgrass Directs Another Phase of Program for High School Athletes

One of the hottest intramural campaigns in PHS history has at last reached its finale and at the top of their divisions are three teams worthy of the championship crowns they possess.

What might be classed as the dominating team of the entire intramural program is the junior high teachers quintet, who, by winning seven straight encounters, proved themselves to be a championship crew. Nogel's team was runner-up by virtue of their six wins and only one defeat. Senior high faculty and Packard's basketekers tied for third, each winning four and losing three.

In the junior class division a smaller bracket composed of only four teams that played a double round-robin schedule saw Cobb's razzle dazzle gang take first place with five wins and one loss. Second place went to Gordon's with three games won and the same number lost.

The sophomores really put on a race to decide their champion. All six teams were of dangerous caliber and dope meant nothing in their conflicts. Teams of Marchbanks and Kotur tied for first, each winning four and losing only one. In a play off game, Marchbanks team won over Kotur to become undisputed champs.

Coach F. M. Snodgrass is to be congratulated upon the efficient manner in which he handled the intramural sports program. It is truly fitting also that he be thanked for the time and work put out by him in behalf of intramurals.

The Booster sports staff, after a careful survey and with malice toward none, has picked the following all-star selections in their respective divisions.

State Tourney Next Topeka Host for Annual Kansas Championship Affair

The winners of the twelve regional tournaments and the four "invitees" will meet in Topeka, March 15, 16, 17, 18, for the state tournament.

If the Purple Dragons go through the Columbus tourney undefeated they will probably leave for the capital city either Wednesday or Thursday of next week.

This will be a 16-team tournament, most of the games to be played at night. The drawing of this tourney has not taken place as yet.

Dragons Whip Wardogs, 26-19

Pittsburg Leads All Way Over Oklahoma Squad; Edwards And Tryon Leaders

The Dragons popped the lid off the new Roosevelt gymnasium in the proper manner, Tuesday night, by handing the tall Miami Wardogs a 26 to 19 trouncing in the main event of a double header.

It was a high spirited crowd, estimated at 2,500, that filled the new gym to capacity and witnessed another victory for the SEK champs.

Waymon Edwards and Ned Tryon paced the crew to their victory with Edwards netting eleven points and Tryon hitting the hoop for a total of ten.

Pittsburg led at the half by 19-13 and the tall Wardogs, with the sensation playing of McKibben were unable to do any better than to cut the Dragon lead to five points in the final stanza.

In the junior high tussle the Rooseveltians took the lead at the starting whistle and led Lakeside 6-2 in the first quarter, only to drop behind by 7-10 at the half time, and 8-16 in the third stanza. Then the boys from Roosevelt junior high started connecting to tie up the score at 16 all, and a free throw by Neptune put Roosevelt out in front to win by 19 to 18.

Sport Gossip

Pittsburg played two players on Kenneth Simons' official first SEK all-star team, which was selected by SEK coaches last week, two on the second five, and one received honorable mention.

Probably the unhalied hero of the Dragon quintet is Raymond Lance, star guard. He is to be commended for his excellent ability of holding his opponent to a minimum of scoring.

The high school will probably have a fair sized representation on the Ban Johnson baseball team which is to be organized some time in the near future. Ned Tryon, Johnny Toeller, and Charles Gilliland have had considerable experience on the diamond. All three boys have played on the American Legion nine in former years.

TO MR. DOPE of Coffeyville: Speaking of the offer the Dragons turned down to meet your quintet on a neutral full-sized court, it seems that you are the only person who ever heard of such a thing. Anyway, none of the Pittsburg officials have heard the least bit about it. BUT if you would still like to meet the Dragons, all you have to do is win your regional tourney and meet us in the state. I am so relieved that you now know the correct spelling of my last name. Some time when you are in Pittsburg, drop around and I will demonstrate to you the correct pronunciation. Just one more thing, since you have no by-line in your dope column, I was wondering if that was YOUR picture that hovers over your journalistic attempts.

"Arkie" lettered eight basketball players this year and five of them will be back next season. How does this sound for next year's team? Bill Poland, James Wells at forward; Ned Tryon at center; Jack Broadhurst and Ray Lance at guards.

This column hasn't turned to the familiar gossip strip which adorns our third page but on the behalf of the basketball players (excluding Lance), we are wondering where Ray picked up that delightful name of "Sparky."
