Miss Tesse:

Thank you sincerely for your personal invitation to the concert Saturday night.

Unfortunately I am confined to the house, trying to recover from a stubborn attack of "Influenza".
I am always deeply interested in you and all you do. Surely you know this feeling is of long-standing duration. Wishing you greater and greater success and regretting my inability to hear your latest triumphs believe me as ever

AND

Yours
New Year! H.O.
A Happy

P.S. Good luck at Rochester!

P.P.S. I had begun to think you had crossed me off your list of friends
H. Burleigh
