Biographical Note	The Women's Federated Clubs of Pittsburg and Girard, Kansas were founded at the turn of the 20 th century. These clubs included members from other women-focused organizations such as study clubs, reading clubs, and international group chapters in the area. These clubs were both local and international organizations which promoted the education and community of women. One particular interest of the organizations was women helping other women in the home and in the work force. The Women's Federated Clubs gained membership over time as more organization were created throughout the 20 th century.
