Dear Eva;

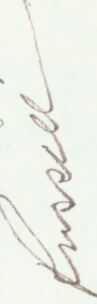

"All is on the upbeat" eh?

You remind me of drama critics. When I read that expression I say, "You mean just like the first note of Til Eulenspiegel, the Tannhauser overture and Brahms's Fourth Symphony." Never mind, I know it means something good is happening to you, and Louise and I are both happy for you.

I haven't the slightest idea where the manuscripts are to the old Music Box Operas. They may or may not be in storage somewhere, and maybe I will find out some day.

We both send you our love.

Yours as always,

Robert Russell Bennett
