Senior Cast In Play Rehearsal

The Seniors are hard at work on their comedy "Uncle Fred Flits By", which will be presented Thursday, November 17. The following students were chosen as members of the cast: Pongo, Phil Reid; Crumpet, Jay Johnston; Uncle Fred, Kaye Ricketts; Maid, Beth Phillips; Julia Parker, Kay Newman; Wilbur, Ronnie Damrill; Mr. Parker, Richard Comstock; Mrs. Parker, Wanda Tosser; Judge Clayton Walker; Lady D-W, Virginia Adams; Mary, Patt Lewis; Miss Dougal, Jerry Williamson; Miss Spencer's, Betty Farrell; Policeman, Glenn Hastings.

The play "Uncle Fred Flits By" "slips his collar and comes to town," and as poor Pongo, his reluctant teen-age nephew, says, "The moment he hits the Metropolis, he acts as young as he feels, which is a youngish fifteen."

The Old Bird "bounding about in his bally red tie," proceeds to drag his protesting nephew from one hilarious situation to another. It's no wonder that Pongo regards Uncle Fred as he would "a sack of dynamite he found lighting up in his present" --and well he should! At this particular instance, Uncle Fred insists on taking poor Pongo to be suburb-Mitching Hill--and because it started to rain, they calmly push into the nearest home and take over! Here they meet a beautiful girl and for Pongo, it is love at first sight. Pongo is forced to pretend he is a veterinarian, but this is extremely difficult for him. Then the girl's obnoxious suitor arrives and Uncle Fred happily involves them deeper and deeper. Uncle Fred refuses to get out when Pongo, in shamefaced despair, tries to drag him out of Mitching Hill entirely. Uncle Fred even goes so far as to have the police pick up "a suspicious looking character" who just happens to be the owner of the house they're in. This looks like the final blow to Pongo's newly found romance, but fortunately it isn't.

You can't afford to miss seeing "Uncle Fred Flits By." The play is perfectly whacky and you'll love it.

THINK IT OVER

LET'S BE GOOD CITIZENS AT HALLOWEEN

Although October 31 is still a week away, Halloween pranksters are already busily causing chaos among the residents of Pittsburg and damage to property. Several windows have been broken by mischievous ones who evidently tried to get a jump on the holiday.

Various organizations in and around hold annual Halloween parties that furnish good wholesome enjoyment for all. Halloween should be observed, but it should not be observed at the expense of others. Having fun need not mean a soaped or broken window, a stuck car horn, or any other "trick" that results in heavy expense to the victim. Pranksters who destroy other peoples property are not acting "cute" but are really reflecting lack of good judgment and poor citizenship.

Let's all go out have a good time Halloween, but let's be good citizens at the same time.

NOW YOU KNOW

"I wish I had done more home work." . . . "I'm sorry I didn't make-up the work I missed" . . . "My folks gave me the dickens" . . . "I'll do better next six-weeks. Did this happen to you?"

What do your grades mean to you? Are they merely averages required for graduation or are they standards which you must meet to some satisfaction in preparing for a life work?

Grades are not always indicative of your ability, they are rather estimates of the amount of progress that you have made in each subject. You earn your grades by earnest effort to do all assigned work, and by showing a willingness to do more than is required.

If you are failing to do your best each day, you are cheating yourself.

WATCH YOUR STEP

The Safety Department of Kansas State Highway Commission has prepared the following rules for pedestrians. You will do well to observe them.

1. Carry or wear something white at night to help drivers see you. A flashlight in your right hand is a big help especially on country roads.
2. Where there is no sidewalk, and it is necessary to walk in roadway, walk on the extreme left side, facing traffic.
3. Cross only at crosswalks. Keep to the right in the crosswalk. Watch for cars making turns.
4. Before crossing — look both ways. Be sure the way is clear before you cross.
5. Cross only on the "Green Light" at traffic signals.
6. Never go into the roadway from between parked cars.
7. Watch for cars backing out of driveways or garages. The driver may not see you.
8. The safe way to leave an automobile is to step out from that side of the car that is at the curb or near the edge of road. If a person leaves from the other side, he may step in the path of another automobile before the driver can avoid him.
9. As a pedestrian, behave in traffic as you would like to have other pedestrians act if you were at the steering wheel . . . As a driver, give the consideration to the pedestrians that you would demand if you were on foot in crowded streets. Both should avoid haste, for a minute saved may mean a life lost.

Exchanges

A very interesting paper to reach the Exchange Editor's desk recently was a copy of "The Dove", a high school paper of the Philippine Islands. The paper was sent to Gretchen Glick from Helen Tilan, a Philippine girl.

"I have been writing to Helen since the Y-Teen sent Christmas cards last year," stated Gretchen.

High school life in the Philippines is similar to ours. They have the same subjects and much the same activities. The paper is printed in both English and Spanish.

Two Philippine high school students, a boy and a girl, are invited to come to the United States at the end of this school year for a ten week visit and represent there Schools in March, 1950.

The delegates of the Philippines, who will be provided with free round-trip transportation from Manila by the Pan American World Airways, will be entertained as guests in homes of high school students in New York, attend classes with them, and participate in a supervised program of high school and community activities.

The New York Herald Tribune is extending the invitation to the Philippines because during the past three years, host schools have found it a very enriching experience to entertain student guests from other countries. The selection will be made under the auspices of the department of education.

Journalism Offers Interesting Career

Journalism as a career offers interesting work and is therefore attractive to many. Young people considering the profession should remember that competition is keen and that only those who meet certain qualifications can hope to succeed in the field.

The journalist must know the rules of grammar, punctuation, style, and spelling. He should be able to write clearly, interestingly, and forcefully. He needs a good vocabulary, a wide store of knowledge, and needs to be constantly adding to his general knowledge.

Since much of his information he gains from conversation, a journalist must cultivate a genuine interest in people and must have an ability to get along with people. He must be tactful, must ask intelligent questions, and above all he must be a good listener.

The work of the journalist is not limited to the news office. Many opportunities in associated fields such as magazine writing and editing, radio and advertising and publicity work come to those who are qualified. Some specialize in the fields of city news, and society.

The journalist's salary depends most upon the size of the newspaper for which he works. In the large cities the wage is somewhat higher than it is in the smaller communities.

Topic of the Day

by Letty Lemon

American History Students

Even though England is the setting of this year's Senior Play, and even though almost everyone is greeting his friends with a "Cheerio, old bean" or something to that effect, how many of us really know what's going on in Britain today?

For instance, did you know the British have taken a drastic step in their economic system? Righto, they have. This step was the devaluation of her money, the pound. It was officially reduced September 18, from $4.03 to $2.80.

This is the anticipation behind the devaluation: The British will sell more products in our country because it will not take as many U.S. dollars to buy them. But they will have to sell more of their products than they were selling to get the same amount of money, because we won't be paying as much for them. If they are to get more U.S. dollars as is their intention, British products will have to go like hotcakes in our country. Confusing, isn't it?

Whether or not the plan will work for the good of their people is yet to be seen, but it is a step to ease Britain's economic crisis, and a step felt by many to be for the better.

C.A. Smith: Sabook."

C.A. "Sadickchunery fuldonaines. Gonnagetapleesdog angotta-getta naimferim."

COULD BE!

Carl Klobassa's definition of the word parliament; "Actions in the parlor."

FIRST THINGS FIRST

A certain sophomore girl was so anxious to dry her hair in first hour gym that she didn't even take her swimming cap off. Isn't that right, Shirley.

FAST RUNNING-SLOW THINKING

Ted Montgomery was running so fast when he was chasing Janet O-pie that he failed to stop when he came to the stairs leading to the girls' gym. He got about half way down the stairs before he turned and ran, his face burning bright red.

Mr. Nation: What are two domestic groups?

Jim: Pet shop, dog shop.

FUTURE EDISON?

It seems Ed Kelly was seriously asking Mr. Nation what could be done if the patent bureau refused him a patent on a mouse trap. Maybe Ed wants the world to beat a path to his door so he won't have to mow the grass or shovel the snow.

THANKS FOR SUGGESTIONS

Joan Trumble had just enough time to take her shoes off to get ready for gym when the fire bell rang calling everyone out of the building to witness the fire truck demonstration, so Joan came on out barefooted. While waiting for the demonstration to start, she said, I'll bet something is in the Booster next week about my barefooted." She didn't know the person she was talking to was a Booster reporter ..... bet she knows now!

LEAVE IT TO JANICE!

"Move.....Let me see if I can get it down."
"No, let me."
"Oh Janice!"

Becky Lewis and Gene Liebig were discussing the effects of the lights going out last week. Becky said it was dark in the girls' gym while at the same time, Gene said it was shocking.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY

Mr. Sutton asked a senior, Norma Barbero, how she liked PHS.

"I, er, I, uh I'm not the new girl — I've been here around three years now" was the brilliant answer given by the senior. This all happened last Friday when Katharine Cochran, from Springfield, Missouri, was visiting our school. Some students had commented that Katharine and Norma looked somewhat alike, but none was so apparently confused as Mr. Sutton.

SHOE ENOUGH

Everyone was having trouble with his shoes last Friday. Jack Glick's shoe was being passed and kicked around in the pep assembly and Kay Bowyer took Sally Robin's shoes from the girls' gym and got all the way to the band room before shoeless Sally could rescue them.

HOLIDAY FOR J

J.F. was fired with real enthusiasm when Mr. Tewell announced students wouldn't have to attend school the next day if we won our football game Friday. Aren't you glad we did win, J.?

Duck Season Opens With a Bang

Let's Meet the New Students

PHS welcomes several new students this fall. Your Inquiring Reporter has interviewed these new-comers and has found that they like PHS and they feel very much at home here.

JOAN STEWART, a senior comes from Wellston High School, Wellston, Ohio. Joan enjoys all school activities and takes part in many of them. She is thrilled with the swimming pool, Y-Teens, and Student Council, for Wellston did not have these activities.

CONSTANCE WILLIAMS, who attended Arma High School last year, is known to her friends as "Connie." She is taking a Commercial course and hopes to become a secretary.

WILLIAM ANDERSON better known as "Bill" is a former Pittsburgher. He attended RJHS with many of his present classmates. He lived for a while in Anderson, Missouri, but it seems that he just had to come back to PHS to graduate. He confessed that his favorite foods are baked ham and apple pie.

DICK HAYNES' chief interest is athletics. He attended Monett High School where he played basketball, golf, and tennis. He likes Pittsburg and thinks that the students are very friendly.

JEAN LUNDQUEST, a junior, is called "Vonnie" by her friends. Last year she attended University High School in Bloomington, Illinois. She finds PHS larger than UHS and she enjoys the larger variety of subjects offered here. Vonnie plays the piano.

CAROLYN PRYOR collects pictures of movie stars. She is especially interested in Council activities. Council activities.

BARBARA HAYNES, like brother DICK, attended Monett High School. This attractive junior is known as "Babs." She has formed many friendships since coming to PHS.

GLENN HOUGH, better known as HOUGH, comes from Heavener, Oklahoma. He really goes for home-made ice-cream and strawberry shortcake. He likes the idea of having golf and swimming as school activities.

G.A.A. Enjoys Picnic

"Move over and let me sit down. I'm hungry." This was a very familiar phrase heard at the G. A. A. picnic in Lincoln Park Wednesday night. There were about 40 girls attending with the girls furnishing the food and Miss Messenger the drinks.

An election of two captains for the first semester was held and Marilyn Kazmierski and Rebecca Lewis were elected. Winona George represented the Senior High G.A.A. in a posture contest held at KSTC Saturday, Oct. 15.

At the October 19 meeting, held in the Little Gym, regular teams were chosen for the first semester. Since the G. A. A. is so large this year part of the girls swam while the rest of them went outside for a game of softball.

Y-TEENS SELL PENCILS AND DECALS

Y-Teens are again selling pencils and decals. The pencils stamped with the football schedule are available in the office and in the library, while the decals are on sale in the hall.

Money from these sales will go to the Y-Teen treasury to be used in furthering the activities of the organization.

Wins Prize In Poster Contest

Phyllis Wilson, a junior at PHS won second place in the art contest conducted by the Pittsburg chapter of the National Business and Professional Women's Club.

Mr. England has presented the winners with the following prizes: first place $2.00, and second and third place each received two theater tickets.

Group 11 of the Photography Club met with its sponsor, Mr. Cline Thursday at 3:15, instead of the originally planned day of Tuesday. The meeting consisted of showing the new members how to use the different solutions when developing a picture, how to trim and wash prints, and also instructions about the dryer.

One of the three groups meets in the dark room once each week and a general meeting with a planned program is held once each week, and a general meeting with a pland program is held once each month.

Y-Teen Groups Hold Recognition Service

The Y-Teen club held its annual recognition service, October 13, 1949 for new members. This program, sometimes called the candle lighting service is the high light of the year.

This service, presented by the cabinet members was dedicated to the new and old members of the club.

Parents and ministers, who were invited to attend saw perhaps one of the most beautiful services ever held in PHS.

The service ended with girls forming a complete circle, singing "Follow the Gleam".

Game Postponed

BULLETIN

The game tonight with Fort Scott has been called off because of rain.

The homecoming dance at 8 o'clock will be held in the Roosevelt Gym as planned. The coronation of the Football Queen will take place during the intermission.

After forging ahead in the SEK to the leader's position, Pittsburg will meet Fort Scott tonight in a non-league game. This is the second clash with them this season. In the homecoming game tonight, Pittsburg will meet a strong team that they had a very difficult time beating at Fort Scott two weeks ago.

Coach A. E. Frisbie has a great team this year, perhaps one of the best seen at Fort Scott for many a year, made up of a group of hard working, rough, and tough boys. Three of their better boys are Knox, Whiteside, and Schroder. Knox is one of the best passers Pittsburg has met so far in two seasons. One of the better runners in the league is Whiteside, and Schroder is one of the largest and roughest tackles this year will produce.

Coach Rohde's Dragon men are going into this game tonight to win and to keep the lookout for an undefeated season shining like a beacon. Johnny Strawn is expected to turn in another fine performance with his speedy backfield tonight and from all the information this writer has gathered, the Pittsburg line will really be opening up those holes tonight.

Dragons Upsets Iola

Hard line driving and bullet like passes resulted in the third SEK victory for Pittsburg last Friday. It was a hard fought game up to the fourth quarter when the Mustangs watched Johnny Strawn flip three touchdown passes to Pittsburg right end, "Bobby" Little.

Pittsburg received the ball in the first half and started to march from their own 32 yard line and Campbell skirted the end for the first touchdown for Pitt. The try for the extra point was close but failed.

But Iola wasn't to be outdone and from their 34 yard line they went for a touchdown in 11 plays Pittsburg, not enjoying this exchange of touchdowns, started a drive from their 46 line with Campbell going off guard for the second Pitt touchdown.

There was no scoring in the second quarter and the Dragons led at the half 12 to 6.

The third quarter didn't see any scoring by either team but in the fourth quarter the Dragons really broke loose.

Strawn hit Little for the first of three touchdown passes after Hawley drove over the center to the eleven.

After stopping Iola the Dragons started to march again from their 8 yard line, and finish with another touchdown pass from Strawn to Little.

"Charley" Bell intercepted a pass and after driving to the Iola 39 yard line Strawn again converted to Little for the third touchdown of the fourth quarter.

"Charley" Bell converted for the three extra points and Pittsburg won by the score of 33 to 6.

Beat Fort Scott

Forgetting all previous games we look forward to the game with Fort Scott tonight with the idea of getting another victory for PHS. GOOD LUCK, DRAGONS!

Bees Lose Heart-breaker To Cherokee

Last week the Dragon Bees met the Braves from Cherokee in a game which seemed to be plagued with bad luck for the Dragons.

In the first half the Bees received the ball and returned it into Cherokee territory. Then came one of the outstanding plays of the night, with "Louie" Allen crashing through for a touchdown behind the fine blocking of the "B" line. The second Bees touchdown was also outstanding with a plunge off guard by Bob Forbes for a long gallop down the field for a T.D. Both these plays were quick openers off guard.

In the second half the Bees seemed plagued with bad luck and the Braves were quick to benefit by it. Two outstanding examples of this were, when they caught a lateral for their first touchdown and a fumble for the other. The Dragon Bees, even after this, took a kick-off of the Braves, and "Johnny" Smith returned it for a touchdown. The last Brave touchdown was made on a 15 yard end run.

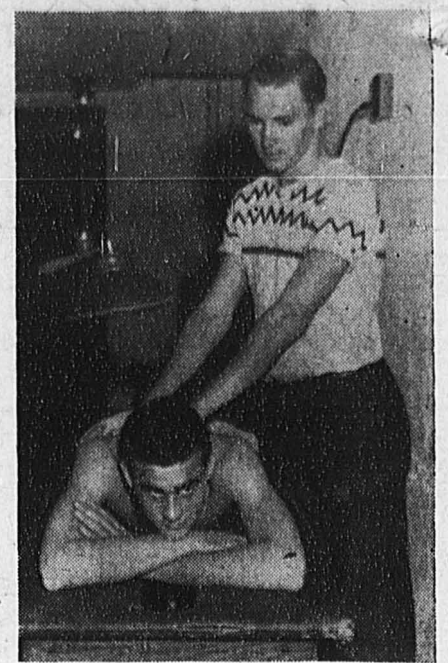

The final score was 20 to 19 in favor of the Cherokee Braves, but the Little Dragons should be complimented on their fine sportsmanship and rough, fast blocking, tackling and running.

Student Manager

Perhaps one of the hardest working boys, outside of the coaches, responsible for our hustling team this year is Bill Cameron, student manager for the Dragons this football season. Bill really works hard for what recognition he receives from the student body. He keeps the equipment in order, passes out and keeps count on the towels, rubs down bruises and tired muscles, and on top of all this he holds the highly honored position of water boy for the Pittsburg Dragons.

In recognition for his hard work he gets a student manager letter. Some people say Bill's greatest pleasure is the privilege to go on the trips with the Dragons, but, take it from Bill, its work as well as enjoyment in taking care of all the school property during the trips.

The boys on the football team would like to thank Bill for his fine work and encourage him to continue it in the future.
